DEDICATION

In every major undertaking, there must be an incentive and the will to accomplish something worthwhile, and with this thought in mind, I wish to pay tribute to my father, Theodore Newton Morr and my mother, Eva Orilla Morr, for the many hours devoted to the Supplement of the Morr and Myers Genealogy Books.

Reunion Day was always considered a very important date. My father being a charter member of the Morr and Myers Reunion, attended 64 of the 65 annual gatherings. My mother also attended each reunion during their married life, as Helen and I have, with our son Raymond, with the exception of reunion day in June of 1944. The family gathering was called off because of World War II, at which time the officers held a business meeting in the offices of the F. E. Myers Pump Company in Ashland, Ohio, in lieu of the family gathering, that the continuity of the reunions would not be broken.

My admiration and respect for my father and mother made me realize that I was privileged to be a member of the Morr and Myers family, and the respect that I have had for each member, with special consideration to John Clement Myers, Mrs. Daisy Morr Stone and Reverend Alpha Rickel, who I became more intimately acquainted with, plus the request by Reverend Alpha, that I would always do everything possible to keep the Morr and Myers Reunion an active organization. Possibly, these were the factors or incentives that was predominant in completing the Supplement. It is with these many thoughts and memories that I dedicate the Supplement to the Morr and Myers Genealogy to my father, Theodore Newton Morr, who had so many dominate characteristics of the Morr's.

Preface

In behalf of the officers and members of the Morr and Myers Reunion, I wish to take this means of thanking Mrs. Charles Harrison, Rte. # 2, Ashland, Ohio, for her service in securing approximately 250 lineage questionnaire reports from the different families in the Morr and Myers relationship that was used as a base for the Master Copy of the Supplement. During the years 1947 to 1950, Mrs. Harrison served as chairman of the Genealogy Committee and Historian of the Morr and Myers Family Reunion.

In 1960, your Secretary received two large cartons of Morr and Myers family records consisting of newspaper clippings, lineage questionnaires, letters, membership rosters, invitations and several books of historical data of the two families dating back to 1881. Each record was placed in its proper lineage category and numbered for identification. The names and addresses of each family were placed in individual membership rosters with lineage number and a cross reference page number to correspond to their lineage in the Morr and Myers Genealogy Books, that their kinship could be properly identified. The next step in setting up the Master Copy necessitated the copying of each page of the Morr Genealogy book from page 75 to 208, so that each family concerned could be placed in their proper lineage category. The general outline of each lineage was copied, leaving proper space between the individual family names for additional information concerning dates of births, marriages, deaths and other pertinent data. In 1962, your Secretary purchased 1,100 sheets of Morr and Myers family record forms of linen ledger 100% rag content paper. These forms were durable and would resist deterioration by erasures made in address changes and other data and date changes that were necessary when corrected lineage reports were received. Consequent to a motion at our annual meeting in 1964, permission was granted to your Secretary to purchase a used fluid duplicating machine, that the invitations could be made up in letter form, thereby eliminating the expense of printing same. The machine was purchased in August of 1964, at a cost of $75.00.

At the date of this writing, the Master Copy of the Supplement consists of five large binders of approximately 950 pages, concerning the history of 1,240 families of the Morr and Myers relationship living in 39 states and Canada. The last known address of each family with all available historical data and dates that were available at date of printing, were recorded in the Supplement. Lineages are numbered from one to eighty.

Information that was needed to complete each lineage, was obtained by asking for same on the reverse side of each invitation sent to the individual families since 1963. The response for lineage information was above expectations, as each year your Secretary received between 250 to 375 lineage reports and letters. Said information was recorded in the Master Copy, and in many cases, it was necessary to make address changes in the membership roster as well as the Master Copy. Contributions to the Genealogy Fund from individual members were recorded by Mr. Walter Long Allen, Treasurer, who resides in Jeromesville, Ohio. Your Secretary also set up a card system of contributions, so that each contributing member would receive an official receipt, plus a corresponding receipt from the Secretary that showed total contributions received each year.

In many cases, dates that are not recorded can be traced to lack of interest, relative to being responsive to numerous requests for same, however, in many cases, relatives were unable to furnish the necessary information due to lack of records. It is imperative that each member having a change of address, should notify the Secretary of the new address. This will be an assurance that you will receive your invitation to the annual reunion each year. It is also imperative that you continue to send full dates of births, marriages and deaths, with full given names of all children, plus the full given names of husbands and wives and dates of their birth to insure a complete record of the family history.

Relative to the future of the Morr and Myers Reunions and the financing of same, your officers are of unanimous opinion that any money left in the Genealogy Account, after cost of printing and mailing charges, same should be held intact by the Treasurer to cover expenses of annual gatherings in the future, as expenses are increasing each year.

I will always be grateful for the response your Secretary received from many members of the Morr and Myers families that contributed their time and service in preparing and sending of lineage reports. I also want to thank the officers that have served since 1960, for the cooperation and service, also for the manner in which our business meetings were conducted, with special thanks to Mr. Walter Long Allen and his Lady Joan for the many hours they contributed to the project relative to the financial part of the undertaking.

Druggist For 50 Years Proud Of His Part In Amazing March Of Medical Science

1937 Akron Times Press
By CLIFF BROWN
(Times-Press Wadsworth Reporter)

WADSWORTH, Oct. 10, 1937. Fifty-three years ago, young Theodore Morr of West Salem took stock of himself and, despite parental admonitions and the lure of a high profession, decided he wanted to be a druggist.

Today, Theodore Morr, now of Wadsworth and no longer young, looks back over more than a half century and is glad he made good his ambition. For today he has the distinction of being one of the oldest registered pharmacists in the state.

Beginning his work in 1883 when the practice of blood letting for almost every human ill was still fresh in the memories of many, Mr. Morr has witnessed the advent of most of the healing agents which modern medical science has brought to the pharmacy.

Learned By Tedious Method

Mr. Morr is one of the few remaining pharmacists who learned their profession through the process of a long tedious apprenticeship in the local "apothecary shop." He began his instruction in the old Daniel Gable Drug Store in West Salem. Incidentally, this store still is in business and is operated by F. L. Barry, an early associate of Mr. Morr.

During his apprenticeship and first years as a pharmacist, the drug business was a vastly different one than it is now, Mr. Morr said. Vitamin and hormone preparations were unheard of and the entire pharmacopeia was much more limited than now.

In those days, the veteran recalls, the little room back of the prescription counter looked more like a chemist's laboratory than a store. Even with the smaller drug list the old time druggists were compelled to manufacture many of the preparations which modern pharmacists now pour from a bottle.

Treasures Old Retort

He still treasures an old glass retort with which he distilled his medicines at West Salem. Another prized possession is a pair of saddle bags used by a physician to carry his medicines by the then common method, on horseback.

But for his steadfast determination to learn pharmacy Mr. Morr might now be rounding out a career as a clergyman instead of a druggist.

"Father wanted me to be a preacher," he makes the disclosure with the air of one throwing a bomb and waiting for the explosion of incredulity at such an idea. Today at 76 he still doubts his aptitude for the cloth and chuckles delightedly at the memory.

His success in the drug business in spite of opposition he attributes to a story he read as a boy.

"It was about a blacksmith who, without schooling, had read and studied until he was well educated," he recalls.

"When father wouldn't let me go to pharmacy school, I thought of that blacksmith and determined to beat the game myself, just as he did."

Six years later he passed the state examination.

Although he has been engaged in the business for more than a half century and has lived here for more than 30 years, Mr. Morr has only once worked at his profession in Wadsworth. That was when, less than a year ago, he worked at the Freeman Drug Store in the South End from which he has just retired.

Mr. Morr is still in good health and has a hearty laugh which somehow belies his 76 years. With his wife he lives at 372 North Lyman street.

The following history of the Morr and Myers families is submitted, as a matter of record, that future generations may be enlightened to historical facts concerning the experiences of our forefathers.

My father, Theodore Newton Morr, was born in West Salem, Wayne County, Ohio, on October 20, 1859, and died in Wadsworth, Ohio, June 12, 1946. He was married to Eva Orilla Sidle August 10, 1895. She was born in Reedsburg, Wayne County, Ohio, October 3, 1874, and died at Wadsworth, Ohio, October 1, 1954, at Wadsworth, Medina County, Ohio. Lineage # 28

In 1940, my father related the following historical facts to your Secretary, which was recorded at that time. Other items were taken from his personal diary dated from April 30, 1881 to July 12, 1882.

During the years of 1879 to 1882, my father traveled extensively in Pennsylvania, New York, Maryland and West Virginia as a bracket salesman. The brackets were of sturdy construction and made of black walnut, and today, they are considered as valuable antiques. I have one and prize it very highly.

On July 4, 1885, my father checked in a hotel at Millheim, Centre County, Penna., for the purpose of visiting an Aunt Sally Morr. During his stay at the hotel, he met an elder member of the Morr family, who was past 80 years of age, who related the following history of the Morr and Myers families. Three Mohr's and three Meyers emigrated from Germany and landed at Castle Garden, New York in 1715. The Mohr's on leaving the boat changed their name from Mohr to Morr; that anyone spelling their name as such would be known as kith and kin. One Meyer and one Morr went South and two Meyers and two Morrs went West. It was thought that the Morr went to South Carolina. This lineage of the Morr family was never heard from since, however, there is a visit recorded in the Morr Genealogy from a member of this branch of the family. Your Secretary remembers quite well, the historical report given by Mrs. Effie Myers Fuhrman at the Forty-Third Annual Morr and Myers Reunion held Thursday, June 21, 1923 at Chippewa Lake, Ohio, concerning the Meyer that went South after landing in New York in 1715. Through the Daughters of the American Revolution, this lineage of the Myers Family was traced through a Myers family living in Florida at that time; however, this incident is not recorded in the minutes of the Forty-Third Annual Reunion.

My father also visited Millheim, Penna., in the spring of 1886. While stopping at the hotel, he made an inquiry of the Morr's and an elderly resident informed him that he remembered when the whole town came out to bid farewell to the Morr's and their families. ("This evidently referred to the time the Philip and George Morr families migrated from Freeburg, Penna., and at this time had stopped at Millheim on their journey to Morrland, Wayne County, Ohio, in 1818.") He further related that the Morrs had a lot of covered wagons; some drawn by oxen and others drawn by horses, while some rode horseback. He further stated that they had taken their cattle and other livestock with them, and had watched their departure as they went over the Bald Eagle Mountains. (Bald Eagle Mountain is approximately 12 miles east of Millheim.) The above refers to the third migration of the Morr families. The first refers to breaking the wilderness in their journey from New York to Muhlbach, now Berk County, Penna. The second migration being from Muhlbach to Freeburg, Snyder County, Penna., in 1766.

On July 24, 1882, my father was employed as a clerk at J. L. Gables Drug Store in West Salem, Ohio, for a salary of one hundred dollars a year with the understanding that he could smoke one or two cigars a day. His duties: to sweep out the store, dust and keep the lamps in order, to be at the store at 7:00 a.m. to let them have breakfast at that time, dinner at 11:30 a.m. and supper at 5:00 p.m. The second year of his employment, he received $100.00 a year salary and his board and the third year, he received $5.00 a week.

In 1888 he was employed at the Erie Railroad Eating House at West Salem, Ohio, and in 1889 he worked at the Eating House in Marion, Ohio, which was the terminal for the Erie, 3 C & Hocking Valley Railroads. On November 6, 1889, he received his license from the State Board of Pharmacy and practiced the drug trade at John Hines Drug Store in Wooster, Ohio, which was located across from the Wayne County Court House. He then worked in Cuyahoga Falls, Ohio until December 15, 1891 at which time he returned to West Salem, Ohio to practice at Edward W. Saltsman store. At the date of this writing, your Secretary read a newspaper account in the Akron Beacon Journal that the drug store at West Salem had went out of business in the fall of 1967, because the only physician in the town had moved to Lodi, Ohio. In 1892, he was employed as Pharmacist for the Cleveland State Hospital at Cleveland, Ohio, at which time he met Eva Orilla Sidle, who was a nurse at the hospital. On many occasions, during his employment he had received invitations and attended many events of the high society in Cleveland, but was turned down after he had purchased a new suit of clothes with a very flashy lining. On September 10, 1895 he married Eva Orilla Sidle and moved to Sterling, Wayne County, Ohio, at which time he went into the drug business. In April of 1913, he went out of business and moved back to the old homestead at West Salem, Ohio, at which time he traveled as a salesman, selling barkine, a clothes cleaner that he manufactured himself. In 1915 the family moved to Wadsworth, Ohio. During the next 22 years he was employed as a druggist in Akron, Ohio and Wadsworth. After 55 years in the drug business he retired in 1937. On many occasions when other practicing pharmacists were unable to decipher prescriptions, Dad was always called on to see that they were made up as prescribed.

I would be amiss by omitting a story told to me by my father. As a young boy in West Salem, Ohio, he sold coffee on the immigrant trains going west on the Erie Railroad. On one occasion, he met the train that was enroute to New York City, with Buffalo Bill's Wild West Show. That particular morning as he walked past the caboose, he had the privilege of meeting Wild Bill Hickok and Pawnee Bill and several other men of wild west fame. At this time, they were doing rope tricks with a lariat. As he walked past the passenger coaches, he noticed an Indian in full dress regalia get off of the train. Being curious, he followed the Indian into the eating house and saw him go to the bar and take a bottle of spirits that was setting on the bar and pour himself a drink and paid for same, at which time Buffalo Bill approached the bartender and reprimanded him for unlawfully selling spirits to an Indian, but apologized when informed that the Indian Chief had served himself. My father described Buffalo Bill as a handsome man and the best built man that he had ever seen.

Theodore Newton Morr had all of the characteristics of the Morrs. His many good traits had won him many friends. Honesty, being one of his many virtues; he would walk a mile, to repay a penny that was overpaid.

As I conclude the work on the Supplement for publication, I will always be thankful for the privilege of serving as President of the Reunion on several occasions, also for serving as Secretary and Genealogist for the past eight years. With these thoughts in mind, I am happy to dedicate the Supplement to the Morr and Myers Genealogy Books to a wonderful dad and father, Theodore Newton Morr.

The following Preface was taken from the Genealogy of the Morr family, by Calvin F. Moyer, assisted by Miss Mary E. Morr of West Salem, Ohio. Printed by the Sun Publishing Company of Ashland, Ohio in 1896. Page 5—Morr Genealogy.

The Genealogy of the Morr family was entered according to Act of Congress in the year 1896 by Calvin F. Moyer, in the office of the Librarian of Congress at Washington, D.C.

The members of the Morr family convened in Trinity Church, Ashland County, Ohio, July 18, 1881 for the purpose of organizing a Reunion of the family. It was called by Rev. William A. Shisler who was chosen President of the meeting. After a brief discussion upon the propriety of such an organization, it was decided unanimously in the affirmative, and that the first reunion be held in Samuel D. Morr's grove, near Trinity, August sixth, proximo. One motive in perfecting this organization was to cultivate as well as perpetuate a social disposition among the members of the family; another, to collect historical facts, and from them prepare a paper to be read at each reunion by the person chosen as historian. Action relative to the publication of the Family History in book form was taken at the reunion held June 12, 1890. It was then that a committee was appointed to inquire into its cost, etc., but the material collected to date was insufficient to warrant the undertaking. It was resolved to make an effort to gather additional history. At the twelfth annual, held June 9, 1892, the writer (Calvin F. Moyer) was chosen historian-in-chief, with an assistant. This was done in order that the field might be more properly divided, and the labor prove less burdensome. Since then the work has progressed as speedily as the facts could be gathered. Every family was appealed to for its family record, and such other facts as they could give, excepting where the information had been previously obtained. Space forbids the mention of those who so kindly responded to the request made for historical facts. To one and all, known or unknown, heartfelt thanks for courtesies received are herewith extended.

The early history of the family is not complete as desired. The author hoped that in his research for historical facts, a fuller account of the Morrs who came from Germany could be given. In the absence of the necessary information, it cannot be established from what section of that country they came or how numerous a family they were. It is likely that members of the same relationship are still living in Germany whose genealogy it would be difficult to trace. It is gratifying to know that at least some facts pertaining to the two Morrs—John and Andrew—who came to America have been obtained for these pages. That they were related admits of no doubt. They settled in one and the same locality, though a difference of time may have intervened; were doubtless of the same religious faith, and therefore worshiped the true and living God, were Germans, and loved not only to speak the language but also mingle with their companions who conversed in the same dialect. The traits of character and some of the virtues with which they were possessed, seem to run through all the branches of succeeding generations. Among the Morrs of the present period, there are thrifty farmers—a vocation in which a larger number of each generation were engaged than in any other pursuit. They were always fortunate in their selection of fine, productive farms, and in a few instances these have remained in the family name for well nigh a century. The representatives of this family, so widely scattered, were ever recognized as a kind-hearted, generous, hospitable people, a people who were peaceful and law-abiding, and as a leading journal so tersely expressed it, "a people who pay their debts, live well, and enjoy life."

Chapter I

JOHN MORR*—HIS EMIGRATION TO AMERICA—LOCATION AT MUHLBACH*—WHERE HE AND HIS WIFE ARE BURIED—HIS DESCENDANTS.

Among the most noted Germans who emigrated from Germany to America in the early part of the seventeenth century was John Conrad Weiser. He "was sent in the early part of 1721 to New York, to Governor William Burnet to hand him a petition. Some having heard favorable reports of lands in Pennsylvania." Two years later Mr. Weiser* "returned to Schoharie after an absence of four years, but he and those about him could not retain the lands they had improved except by purchasing them at exhorbitant prices, which they could not afford, and believing that they could not with certainty retain other vacant lands in that vicinity even if they should take possession and improve them as they had done twice before, certain families united with him in determining to make the removal. For ten years they had heard of liberal grants in Pennsylvania to emigrants, and thither they directed their way. After cutting open a road from Schoharie to the head waters of the Susquehanna, a distance of twenty miles, they proceeded by rafts and boats on this river for over two hundred miles to the outlet of the Swatara Creek, and they pursued their journey along and beyond this stream until they reached the territory where the Tulpehocken takes its rise. Through an unbroken wilderness they continued for some miles farther, and finding at last a country that suited them in every way they halted; and there, in 1723 amongst the Indians, they established the first white settlement beyond the South Mountain which shortly afterwards came to be known as Tulpehocken" the land of the turtles. A number of these families located at Muhlbach, Heidelberg township, Lancaster County, Pa., close to the Tulpehocken region, among whom was John Morr—a native of the Kingdom of Wurtemberg, Germany—the first representative of the Morr family known. If a full account of the period just referred to could be written, it would be recognized as one of the most interesting episodes in our Colonial history. It is not known at what age John Morr settled in his latter home, to whom he was married or when he departed this life. There are still quite a number of Moore families living in Lebanon County, Pa.; some in Berks, among whom are several members well advanced in years, but neither seem able to give a clue as to the kinship existing between them and those who figured in that neighborhood more than a century and a half ago.

John Morr owned a tract of land in Heidelberg township, prior to 1738. The writer had the pleasure of examining a draft for a tract of land which Henry Meyer owned at the time in the same neighborhood. Both tracts joined each other. The Meyer tract consisted of nearly 350 acres, and doubtless the Morr tract was just as large, for no real estate owner then was a possessor of a small tract of land. Mr. Morr and Mr. Meyer accompanied each other on their voyage to America. They evidently lived as neighbors in Germany and in different localities in Pennsylvania and Ohio members of these families lived in friendly relationship with each other for many years. In several instances, marriages occurred between them to which allusion will be made on subsequent pages. John Morr is buried in Muhlbach. Mr. Michael Zug, Lebanon, Pa., with whom the writer has held a correspondence in reference to John Morr and his family, says, "I was informed that John Morr died at the age of 87 or 88 years, but when is not known. He has no grave stone, but Mrs. Morr has a stone erected to her memory, with a long rather peculiar German inscription," which translated reads thus; "Here rest the remains of a departed mother of four children, named Susanna Moore, three daughters preceded her to the eternal world. A son survives her. She was born January 15, 1728, married March 7, 1744, (at the age of 16 years, 1 month and 16 days) lived in a matrimonial state for 43 years, 3 weeks, and 5 days, with her bereaved husband John Morr; died April 3, 1787.

It will be observed from the foregoing statement that a son survived Susanna Morr (Moore). While his name could not be ascertained, it is believed that John Morr (Mohr) living at Muhlbach, born in 1753, died in 1831 or 1832, may have been, and in all probability was, the son of John and Susanna Morr. He married Elizabeth Meyer. She was born in 1754; died September 8, 1831. John Morr and his wife Elizabeth are buried at Muhlbach. Mr. Zug wrote: "The couple have no tombstone. One of the sons threatened to break it to pieces if one would be erected.

There were nine children, six sons and three daughters as follows:

John
Michael Elizabeth
John George
Eve
Jonas
Philip

The following words marked by five separate astericks in the above Chapter are explained as follows, and is also taken from the Genealogy of the Morr family.

John Morr*—The early generation of the family wrote their name Moore, but they sometimes fell into the habit of writing Morr. The latter orthography has for years been the custom of writing the family name. A few, however, still differ.

Muhlbach*—Properly spelled Muhlbach (Mill Creek) is a small stream which takes its source from a beautiful spring. It was originally in Lancaster, but is now in Southeastern part of Lebanon County, Pa. This spring is in Mill Creek township near the line between this and Heidelberg township (Mill Creek was taken from Heidelberg). The Muhlbach flows east and northeast into the historic Tulpehocken. Myers Genealogy, Vol. 1 - page 12.

Note—Muhlbach, Penna.; original name has been changed and presently is spelled Millbach and is approximately 15 miles due west of Reading, Penna.

On July 6, 1967, your Secretary and wife Helen visited the old cemetery in the rear of the St. Paul's Reformed and Lutheran Church at Millbach, Penna. The church was built in 1790 and rebuilt in 1890. We took several photographs of tombstones, which included the stone of Michael Moore, son of John and Susanna Morr that broke the wilderness and settled in Muhlbach in 1723.

The following is a list of stone and markings on same. One stone was of particular interest as the name was spelled in three different wordings: Moore, Moor and Morr.

Philip Moore—B-3/15/1795; D-6/2/1866 - 71 yrs., 2 mo. and 13 days

Margaret Moore—Wife of Philip Moore - B-2/22/1804; D-10/18/1862 - 58 yrs., 7 mo. and 26 days

To the memory of John George Moore—Cousin of Sophia Moore, Son of John and Elizabeth Moore. He was born Nov. 5, 1780. He lived in Muhlbach 52 yrs., 6 mo. and 11 days. A widower 7 yrs., 10 mo. and 15 days and departed this life Mar. 1, 1855 - Age 72 yrs., 5 mo. and 27 days

A photograph was taken of Michael Moore's stone—B-February 4, 1776, died December 9, 1839. The wording on the stone was in German.

Barbara—Wife of Michael Moore - Daughter of John and Catherine Becker—B-1776; died Nov. 30, 1870 - Age 91 yrs., 9 mo. Page 19 Morr Genealogy

Agna Marie Moore—B-Jan. 9, 1802; D-April 18, 185-?

John Moore—B-10/10/1802; D-11/27/1882 - Age 78 yrs., 11 mo. and 17 days

Catherine Moore—B-3/26/1812; D-3/12/1894 - Age 81 yrs., 11 mo. and 16 days

Margaret Moore—B-3/5/1814; D-8/11/1905 - Age 91 yrs., 4 mo. and 26 days

Catherine M. Moore—Wife of Jonathon Moore—B-1/23/1795; D-9/16/1877 - Age 82 yrs., 5 mo.

Jonathon Moore—B-9/12/1790; D-3/22/1868 - Age 77 yrs., 6 mo. and 5 days

John M. Moore—B-6/27/1822; D-3/24/1905—Elizabeth Moore, nee Leis—B-12/10/1823; D-7/10/1910

Charles Willard married Emma, nee Moore—3/27/1858; 4/2/1932

Michael Moore—B-12/18/1832; D-12/3/1920—Hennrieta, nee Weigley, Moore—B-4/21/1828; D-4/21/1902

Jonathon Moore—1855-1915; Mamie R. Kaufman, his wife—1864-1913; daughter, Elsie K. Moore—1887-1957; married William W. Wallace 1885-1960

Edward S. Moore—D-1/21/1921 - Age 83 yrs., 9 mo. and 28 days

Son of Michael Moore—D-7/15/1899 - Age 92 yrs., 3 mo. and 10 days

Mother, Mary Moore—D-1/23/1906 - Age 89 yrs., 10 mo. and 12 days

Daniel Moore—4/19/1901 - Age 58 yrs.—Kate Miller, wife of Daniel Moore—D-3/13/1896 - Age 50 yrs., 8 mo. and 9 days

Lula R., daughter of J. W. and Mamie R. Moore—B-4/14/1887; D-4/15/1887

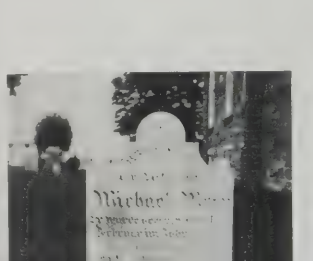
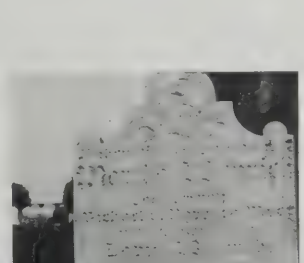
Meyer, John George, born Oct. 13, 1774; died Oct. 21, 1826





The above two photographs were taken of tombstones of two Michael Moores (Moor - Moore) that were buried in the cemetery adjoining the St. Paul Reformed and Lutheran Church at Millbach, Penna., which formerly was Muhlbach, Penna. In 1721, John Morr and others emigrated from New York City to Muhlbach, and were the first to establish a white settlement beyond the White Mountain. The Morr and Myers families are deeply indebted to Mrs. J. Kenneth Fisher, Box 155, Rte. # 2, Narvon, Lancaster County, Penna., for many hours of research; of the Daughters of the American Revolution and the Daughters of the American Colonist, Patriotic Indexes for the historical background of the relationship.

Mrs. Fisher at the present time is serving as Registrar of the DAC and Lineage Research Chairman of the DAR and DAC, Treasurer of the Penna. Court of Women Descendants of the A & HA Co., Descendants of the Pilgrims, Daughters of 1812, New England Philadelphia Colony, Descendant Colonial Ministers, Magna Charta Dame, Descendant of Knights of the Most Noble of the Garter and the Pennsylvania Historical Society. Mr. J. Kenneth Fisher is a graduate of the University of Pennsylvania with a Bachelor of Science and Master Degree; he is listed in "Who's Who in American Education." Vol. XXI, 1963-64 on page 436.

Mr. Kenneth William Payne Fisher, a son, married Sharon Arvilla Lange, whose mother, Myrtle Arvilla Ritchie, 7th child of the La Monte "Lemondo" Ritchie and Jeanette Morr union, of the Leonard, Benjamin, John George, Andrew Morr lineage # 24A, page 183 Morr Genealogy.

Your Secretary received 112 pages of historical data from Mrs. Fisher since 1966 and the following is a part of the record.

Andreas Mohr "Morr" was a Palatine settler from Germany; came to the Port of Philadelphia on the ship Dragon and took the oath of allegiance October 17, 1749. He was born in 1727 and died in 1801. Married in 1756 to Catherine Elizabeth. She was born in 1732 and died in 1795.

Mrs. Fisher is of the opinion that John Morr, page 17 Morr Genealogy, is the father of Andreas Mohr "Andrew Morr" and grandfather of John George Morr, page 135 Morr Genealogy. Her interpretation of the DAR Patriotic Index (page 13173) records chronologically speaking, places "John Morr" as the father of Andreas Mohr (Morr), grandfather of John George Morr.

ANDREW MORR—HIS SETTLEMENT IN CUMBERLAND COUNTY, PA.—BUILDS A LOG CABIN—THE PLACE WHERE HE WORSHIPPED—HIS PUBLIC ACTS—DEATH AND WILL.

Note—The will of Andrew Morr covering pages 29 to 34, was copied from the photostatic copy of the will recorded in the Registrar's office in the Court House at Sunbury, Northumberland County, Pennsylvania on August 27, 1947 by your Secretary. The wording of the will of Andrew Morr in the Genealogy of the Morr family was changed in some instances and was not printed as a part of this chapter. This is in explanation for reason of printing the exact wording of the photostatic copy of the original will.

What kinship existed between John Morr referred to in the previous chapter and Andrew Morr, whose sketch will now be considered, is not known. It is the opinion of some members of the family that they were brothers, perhaps cousins. Andrew Morr and his wife, Catherine were natives of Germany, but there appears to be no record as to the time when they landed in America. "Andreas Morr" lived in Shafferstown, (then called Heidelberg village) in 1758. He was born April 30, 1727, and Catherine Elizabeth, his wife, whose maiden name cannot be given, located a short distance west of the Susquehanna River, in Penn's township, Cumberling county, Pa., in 1771, for it was in this year Mr. Morr's name first appears in the assessment list of said township. There can be no doubt that this is the same couple referred to above, for in the author's research for historical facts, no other Andrew Morr could be discovered than the one who lived at Shafferstown and subsequently took up his abode in Cumberland county. Previous to Mr. Morr's removal into the locality just mentioned, he made application for one hundred and sixty acres of land adjoining Charles Brunk and George Bumbach on Middlecreek in Penn's township, Cumberling, now Washington township, Snyder county, Pa. The application was dated at Philadelphia, Pa., September 3, 1766. William Maclay, Deputy Surveyor, who then resided at the present site of Sunbury, Pa., was directed by Surveyor General John Lukens to survey the tract and make return thereof within six months from date of his instructions. Two other tracts of land were purchased by Mr. Morr, the deeds of which bear date, March 18, 1769. One tract was surveyed by virtue of a warrant dated Aug. 11, 1755, and granted to Daniel Oert. The deed sets forth that the said Daniel Oert, residing in Donegal township, Lancaster county, Pa., sold this land consisting of 231 and one eight acres for £85 to Andrew Morr, a resident of Heidelberg township, in the same county and state. The land was located as follows: "A certain tract of land called Milltown, situated in the Dutch Valley near Middlecreek, Cumberland county, Pa., John Lukens, Esq., the President of the Supreme Council, signed the patent for the tract, July 9, 1755." The other tract was 100 acres. (Note in explanation of asterick) "This was the year (1755) when land patents were first issued by the State of Pennsylvania." It was "a certain tract of land situated in Cumberland county, Pa., adjoining lands of Hans Endrell and Peter Straub on a run that comes into the Little Mahony (Middlecreek)." For this tract he paid £70. Mr. Morr located on the tract first mentioned, close to a strong spring of water. The country into which he settled was an unbounded forest of pine trees—a beautiful forest stood far and wide. The whole region was in its natural state and the time was at hand when these new inhabitants commenced to level the wilderness. Mr. Morr's first act after locating on the premises was to cut one of these tall pine trees from which a table was made at which the family partook of their daily meals. This table for many years was owned by Isaac Morr, Kantz, Snyder county, Pa. Andrew Morr's home was ten miles east of the ancient Indian town of Shamokin. The locality at the time of his settlement was not entirely free from Indians, but they now and then frequented it, and the Whites entertained fears lest violence would be done unto them. There were localities where brutal massacres did occur, but none ever took place in the immediate vicinity of Mr. Morr's home. (Note in explanation of the asterisk as follows:)

"In 1756, the ancient Indian town of Shamokin disappeared from the face of the earth—destroyed by its own inhabitants. From time immemorial, it has been an important point with the Aborigines. The seat of a king, the sub-capital of their confederacy south of Tioga, where all paths converged and where war and peace parties met," — Meginnes History, West Branch Valley, page 159. From different pages of the same volume the following information is derived: Governor Morris began erection of Fort Augusta on the side where the town once stood; the same year Shamokin was destroyed. It was erected in order that the Whites might be better protected. March 20, 1765, this Fort was vacated by an Act of Assembly, believing that those who choose to settle in the surrounding country would be able to defend themselves. (continued)

Jacob Meyer, who lived at Muhlbach, was an intimate friend of Andrew Morr. Both families accompanied each other to their new homes beyond the Susquehanna. Mr. Morr located east while Mr. Meyer pitched his tent the same distance west of where Freeburg is now located. Freeburg then, was the intervening farm between the Morr and Meyer farms, and was owned by Andrew Straub, the founder of Straubstown (Freeburg). In the course of time, two of Andrew Morr's daughters married sons of Jacob Meyer to which allusion will be made elsewhere.

Mr. Morr built a temporary log house the year he located on the premises, which was occupied by his family until 1775 when a two story log house was substituted. (For sketch of same and surroundings see frontispiece). Here Mr. Morr spent his declining years in peace and comfort. It may not be amiss, perhaps, in this connection to describe briefly the house he built. Its dimensions were 40x38 feet; height 30 feet. The ceiling of the first story was made of inch boards. The floor of the second story consisted of two inch yellow pine plank grooved and tightly fitted. Some of them were twenty inches wide. The space between the ceiling and floor was filled with mortar. This is said to have been done to prevent Indians, who often prowled around, hearing the sound of footsteps on the floor. The roof was supported by a purlin, the posts which held it were eight inches square. There were four rooms to each story, and the kitchen contained a wide hearth upon which the meals were cooked. The entrance from the porch into a small hall was closed by two heavy doors—an upper and a lower—like stable doors. Stones were placed between the logs in the walls of the first story, then thickly plastered with mortar to insure safety from arrows or bullets shot by Indians. This house was the rendezvous of the settlers for miles around whenever bands of Indians, bent on plunder, entered the Valley. The crevices in the upper part of the building were filled with pieces of wood, then plastered. A draught of the old log house with its surroundings was specially drawn for this work by the writer's father, Hon. George C. Moyer, of Freeburg, Pa. It was drawn in July 1892, thirty years after, it disappeared. On the 23rd of January, 1893, Judge Moyer had occasion to drive by the premises, when he noticed the old sawmill was being removed. It was the last remnant of the old buildings. He took occasion to talk to his family about it and the following information was gathered from the conversation: "The saw mill was erected by Andrew Morr, one of the first settlers, who came here when this Valley was covered by a dense forest, a quarter of a century before the founding of Freeburg. Thus, one by one, the old landmarks disappear, places dear to the recollection of my boyhood days. The old mill, which for many years had been silent and dilapidated under the weight of years, held for me at one time, a peculiar fascination. I remember how the busy flutter wheel, the dashing water and the pleasant odor of freshly sawed timber, and also my walk home, when boy fashion I waded in the limpid water. I can imagine, but never know, the labor performed by our forefathers while clearing their land, and remember hearing them tell how they felled the magnificent white oak, poplar, pine, walnut, ash, sugar maple, and wild cherry trees. Then the neighbors gathered and had what they call "log rollings" when the trees were put on huge piles and burned. There was then not a single mill in the neighborhood."

Andrew Morr perceiving how destitute the community was without a place for religious worship, set apart two rooms on the second story of his log house for church services. These rooms were thrown into one by means of a swinging partition which was raised to the ceiling before worship began. Here religious services were held for twelve years; it is the earliest place known in the Valley where people first congregated for the worship of God. This was the period when missionaries frequented the territory with a view of organizing congregations. In May 1862, Mr. Geo. W. Menges, a descendant of the family, removed the building under the direction of Isaac and Jacob Morr, who then occupied the premises.

The first steps toward building a house of worship in the vicinity, in which Andrew Morr had located, were taken when land was patented for this purpose. Andrew Morr, Peter Straub and Casper Roush secured a patent for forty-two acres in Penn's township, Northumberland county, Pa., now located one mile north of Freeburg, Pa., as early as April 12, 1774. Building was postponed until 1787, and the log structure then erected never reached completion. This church was called the Zion's or Morr's church. This church was removed in 1815, after the St. Peter's Lutheran and Reformed church at Freeburg was completed. In the Morr church the members worshipped for twenty-eight years, and there is a tradition that during this time there was no stove placed in it in which to build a fire for the comfort of those who attended services during the winter season. This statement, however, is contradicted by the church records of Freeburg, Pa. While it may be a fact that the church was not heated during its early history, there was a stove placed in it previous to the time when it was taken down. From these Records it is learned that on the 8th of January, 1814, John George Morr, son of Andrew Morr, oversigned a coal stove to Frederick Young, one of the deacons of the Morr church, in payment of a claim which the church held against him. The amount allowed was £5, 16s. 6d. Two acres of this land now only remain in possession of the Lutherans, in which is included the churchyard where lie Andrew Morr and a number of his kindred. Although there are four beautiful cemeteries in and near Freeburg, some families in that vicinity bury their dead in their old "cemetery" in the woods.

In 1795, the members of the Lutheran and Reformed congregations, who worshipped in the Morr (Zion's) church, received a communion service from Andrew Morr and his wife Catherine Elizabeth, consisting of a tankard and cup. Previous to this time, the wine at communion was put in a bottle, and a tumbler, also, was used into which the wine was poured. The tankard and cup which were substituted, were in use at each successive communion service up to 1880, covering a period of eighty-five years. The material of this service is of pewter and besides a small crack which the cup received by accident, both are well preserved. The tankard measures fourteen inches in height and when filled holds two quarts of wine. Mrs. Morr brought this cup with her in an apron, when upon one occasion she was returning on horseback from a visit to Shippensburg, Cumberland county, Pa. Upon each of these, there is a German inscription beautifully carved. The English translation on the tankard reads: "To the praise of God, given as a gift of charity from Andrew Morr in the Evangelical Lutheran-Zion's Church in Penn's township, Northumberland county, Pa., the 29th of July. Anno Domini, 1795." The inscription on the cup is: "To the praise of God, given as a gift of charity from Catherine Elizabeth Morr."

It was customary for some time after the erection of Northumberland county, which took place March 27, 1772, to appoint a "Committee of Safety." Andrew Morr was one of the number who represented Penn's township on the Committee for six months in 1777. At the April term of court, 1795, when a petition of the citizens of Penn's township was presented for the formation of a new township out of a portion of Penn's, Andrew Morr was appointed one of the five viewers. Their report was confirmed at the April Courts, 1796. The name given to the new township was Mahantango; the ridge south of Freeburg formed the northern boundary line, leaving Mr. Morr's residence just outside its limits.

Andrew Morr was a farmer, distiller, and owned a grist mill. He dealt extensively in real estate, all of which was located in Cumberland county, now embraced in the counties of Snyder, Centre and Lycoming, Pa. In 1780, he was assessed with 479 acres of land upon which stood an oil mill, two distilleries, a grist mill and saw mill. Many of Mr. Morr's descendants are farmers and owners of productive farms. In his political views, he held to the democratic faith and a majority of the family believe in the same doctrine.

Mr. Morr departed this life in 1801, in the 75th year of his age; his wife preceded him to the spirit world a few years previous. Both are buried in the Morr cemetery. Their resting place is unmarked. After his wife's decease, he married Mrs. Anna Maria Dewald of Shippensburg, Cumberland county, Pa. Anna Maria, or Mary Morr, as she was often called, survived her husband sixteen years, when she too, was laid at rest in the Morr cemetery. A tombstone is erected over her grave, and although it is somewhat worn and defaced by the elements, the inscription upon it is still legible to show the exact place of her burial. The inscription reads thus:

"Here rests Anna Maria, a born Renninger,
Was born July 12, 1747.
She was the wife of Christopher Beisel, Peter Dewald and Andrew Moore.
While married to Christopher Beisel she was the Mother of twelve children,
Died April 26, 1817,
Aged 69 years, 9 months and 14 days."

Before his death, Andrew Morr made his will. He appointed as his executors his two sons, John George and Philip Morr and George Mootz (Motz). August 18, 1801, the two first named appeared before Jeremiah Simpson, Esq., Sunbury, then Register and Recorder of the county of Northumberland, Pa., when the will was probated. It is altogether probable that Mr. Morr's death occurred but a short time previous to the day when it came into the hands of the above official. The will which is on record at Sunbury, (Book 1, pages 249-51) reads as follows:

The following is a photostatic copy of the will of Andrew Morr. Same is on file at the Registrar's Office in the Court House of Sunbury, Northumberland county, Pennsylvania. With the consent of the Registrar, the record was taken to the Schindler's Studio in Sunbury, Pa. on August 27, 1947 for the copy by your Secretary. Book 1 pages 249-251. Pages 29 to 34 Morr Genealogy.

In August of 1947, your Secretary, accompanied by his wife, Helen and son, Raymond went to Sunbury, Penn. for the purpose of securing an original photostatic copy of the will of Andrew Morr. We were accorded this courtesy by the Registrar at the Court House. The photostatic copy of Andrew Moore's will started at the bottom of page 249 of the Record Book. The will was continued on pages 250 and 251. At a later date, the photostatic copy of the will was sent to my address in Wadsworth, Ohio, at which time I had the copy of the will framed in a 34½ by 16½ inch picture frame. At this time, I realized that I also had a photostatic copy of the will of Henry Myers.

I was unable to ascertain Henry Myers lineage, however I thought there was a possibility that he was the Henry Meyer, portrayed on page 61 of the Meyer Genealogy, but his children were differently named, which ruled out this possibility, however the will is included in the Supplement, with the idea in mind, that the Myers relationship might be able to trace this lineage. The will of Henry Myers is printed in its entirety following the Preface of the Genealogy of the Meyer family.

We are indebted to Mr. and Mrs. Howard (Earl) Morr, Mr. Morr is the Auditor of Fulton County Ohio, for the above picture of the Pewter Communion Cup that was given as a gift of charity to the Zion (Morr's) Lutheran Church in Freeburg, Penna., in 1795 by Andrew Morr and his wife Catherine Elizabeth. (Cup in center of the picture). The picture was taken at the Lutheran Church in Freeburg, Penna., on September 29, 1966. The tankard and cup were used in the partaking of Holy Communion in the church until 1880, a period of 85 years.

Catherine Elizabeth Morr brought this cup with her in an apron, when upon one occasion she was returning to Freeburg, Penna., from a visit to Shippenburg, Cumberland county, Penna. Upon each of these there is a German inscription beautifully carved. The English translation on the tankard reads: "To the praise of God, given as a gift of charity from Andrew Morr in the Evangelican Lutheran-Zion Church in Penn's township, Northumberland county, Pa., the 29th of July, Anno Domini, 1795." The inscription on the cup is: "To the praise of God, given as a gift of charity from Catherine Elizabeth Morr." Morr Genealogy page 27.

Your Secretary and wife, Helen, visited the cemetery directly across from the Lutheran Church on Sept. 5, 1966. If one would continue north on the same street the church and cemetery is located on, and travel approximately one quarter of a mile, they could locate the old Morr Cemetery in the woods at the right side of the road. The cemetery is approximately 100 feet from the road and cannot be seen from the road because of the wood area. The foundation of the old Zion Morr's Lutheran Church is visible on the left side of the road directly across from the lane leading to the cemetery. The open field, south and east of the foundation, one can find many pieces of broken red brick that was a part of the original church.

Note—The following is a word by word version of the Will of Andrew Moore, as taken from the photostatic copy of the records, as recorded in the Registrars office, in the Court House in Sunbury, Northumberland county, Pennsylvania on August 27, 1947 by your Secretary.

As there were several differences in wording of the will, as portrayed in the Morr Genealogy Book; this version is given in lieu of the printed text in the Morr Genealogy.

Page 1 of Will of Andrew Moore

Andrew Moor's will,

In the name of God, Amen. I, Andrew Moore, of Penna Township, in the county of Northumberland and in the State of Pennsylvania, yeoman considering the uncertainty of this mortal life and being of sound and perfect mind and memory, blessed be Almighty God for the same, do make and publish, this my last will and testament. In manner following that is to say; first I give and bequeath unto my beloved wife Mary, one hundred pounds to be paid unto her by my executors one year after my decease. I also give and devise unto her one In lot in Freeburg, alias Shoups Town, Ni--joining Paul Reukert, and fifty perches of land joining, the same lot and an out lot near said town joining Philip Meyer Junc (Jr) to hold to her heirs and assigns forever, in fee subject to the payment of the yearly ground rent due on the said out lot. I do also give unto her the use of my black horse for one year. I do further give and bequeath unto her all the household goods and other moveable property which she was possessed of at the time I intermarried with her, also all articles of provisions in my house, all the wool of the last shearing, last year's crop of flax and linen to be made thereof, one cow, four hogs, two sheep, one watering can, one frying pan, two cider barrels, to hold to the heirs and assigns. I do, also give her the use of the house wherein I now live with stable and gardening belonging thereto, and one-half of the product of the small orchard, containing twenty-four apple trees, joining the barn, to be separated by fence from the remainder of the field to hold to her during the time she remains my widow. I do, also order and direct that the land and plantation which I have hereinafter give unto my son Philip, shall be subject this year to the payment of fifteen bushels of wheat and seven and-a-half bushels of rye, seven and one half bushels of buckwheat, five bushels of oats and three bushels of corn to my said wife, and yearly during her natural life after, if she shall so long remain my widow, the said land shall be subject to the payment to her of ten bushels of wheat, five bushels of rye, and the quantity of oats, buckwheat and corn, first mentioned. My second son Philip, shall also deliver unto her during the term aforesaid, at her dwelling, the necessary firewood for six months in each year commencing the 15th day of January and ending the 15th day of July, and find her hay for her cow and two sheep, he shall also permit her to plant and plow and prepare in good season for her to plant one eighth of an acre with flax and one eighth of land with potatoes, this also to be performed for her yearly, during her widowhood. He shall also give unto her this season one barrel and one half cyder and one and one half gallon of apple whiskey, ten gallons of rye whiskey and every season thereafter he shall deliver unto her, during her natural life if she so long remains my widow, five gallons of rye whiskey and the quantity of cyder and apple whiskey above mentioned, when the season is good for apples. If not, then he is to give the one half only of the cyder and apple whiskey, also an additional half barrel of late made water cyder and suffer and permit at all times the cow and sheep of the said Mary, to run with his own cattle in pasture. I also give her the use of a hoe, churn and ax during her widowhood. I have a Debt due me by Fetty Haas of five pounds, sixteen shillings, which I do also give unto my wife for the purpose of paying for the weaving of the yarn both linnen and woolen of last year, which I before given her. I do further order and direct that the land and plantation, which I hereinafter give unto my son, George Moore, shall be subject, and he the said George, his Executors and Administrators, shall be obliged yearly and every year during the widowhood of my said wife to pay and deliver, unto her as follows viz. To furnish her with firewood for six months, from the 15th day of July to the fifteenth day of January, and next year and every year thereafter during her widowhood as aforesaid ten bushels of wheat, five bushels of rye, five bushels of oats and three bushels of corn, also give the use of and plow and seed for her one eight of an acre of land with flax and one eight of an acre for potatoes, yearly during the aforesaid, and five gallons of whiskey, also to be yearly delivered her during the time she remains my widow, after this next harvest, he shall give her five bushels wheat, two and one half bushels of rye, seven and one half bushels of buckwheat, five bushels of oats, three bushels of Indian corn for the just and true performance of what I have given, devised and bequeathed to my said wife, my said sons, George Moore and Philip Moore have jointly entered into bonds to Simon Snyder* in trust for her use the one whereof for the payment of the one hundred pounds and the other for the delivery to her what I have further directed and given in lieu of her dower, and it is my will, and I do hereby declare, that the several articles, things and promised herein before given, bequeathed and devised shall be deemed and taken to be in full and for vin lieu and satisfaction of her dower or thirds and all claims and demands of into or out of my estate, real and personal.

Item—I do give and devise unto my son George Moore, his heirs and assigns forever, one hundred and fifty-six acres and seventy-five perches of land and allowance being part of the plantation I now reside on, and whereon the mills are situated to hold to him by the metes and bounds set forth and described in a deed thereof made to him, bearing even date, herewith (subject to uses herein before given to my wife) and do value the same to him at and for the sum of seven hundred pounds, whereof I abate him two hundred pounds as his proportionate share for the residue of five hundred pounds he has given me a bond or obligation conditioned for the payment of forty-two pounds yearly, until the whole sum is paid, the first payment to be made on the first day of May, one thousand, eight hundred and three.

I do also give and grant unto him, his heirs and assigns forever, the use of the water passing in a race through the land hereinafter devised to my son Philip and free engress and egress to and on the same for men, cattle and carriages for the purpose of digging, repairing, maintaining and upholding the said race and dam, and to take, remove or place earth, stone or other materials from, to or on any part of the same dam or race within half a perch from high water mark on either side thereof forever, with as little damage to my said son Philip as possible, and it is further my will, and I do order and direct, that my son Philip Moore, his heirs and assigns, shall forever have the right and privilege to use the water out of the race for the purpose of watering the meadow once every week, which period of time shall commence on Saturday at sunset and continue to next Monday at sunrise. And, further, if my said son Philip shall have occasion to make any repairs to his spring, it shall be the duty of my son George Moore, his heirs and assigns to let off, or draw out of the dam, the water standing therein, so the necessary repairs can be made with effect; but the dam shall remain in such state not longer than two days at any one time. The intent of any repairs shall always be to lead a sufficiency of water through my son Philip's cellar, as it has been used for many years past. My son Philip, his heirs and assigns, shall, also, have the privilege forever to lead out of the said spring as much water as shall be necessary for his distillery.

Item—I do, give and devise unto my son Philip Moore, his heirs and assigns forever, two hundred and thirty-one acres of land and allowance, being part of the plantation I now reside on by the metes and bounds set forth and described in a deed thereof made to him (subject to the use herein before given to my wife Mary, and subject likewise to certain rights vested in my son George in relation to the dam and race and the water therein) and do value the same to him at and for the sum of nine hundred and sixty pounds lawful money, whereof I abate him the sum of two hundred pounds, as his proportionate share, for the residue of seven hundred and sixty pounds he has given me bond, conditioned for the payment of fifty-eight pounds yearly until the whole sum be paid, the first installment to be paid on the first day in May, 1803 and a like sum yearly for eleven years to come, and the last payment which happens to be sixty-four pounds, is to be made on the first day of May, which will be in the year one thousand, eight hundred sixteen.

Item—I do hereby authorize and empower, enjoin and require my sons George Moore and Philip Moore, to sell for the joint use of my heirs by private sale or otherwise, the land and real estate which I and my wife, by deed bearing even date herewith, did convey unto them in trust for the benefit and use of them, the said George and Philip and my other legal heirs, as well as all other lands of which I may die, seized and possessed, and I do empower them or the survivors of them, to make the needful and suitable deed or deeds of conveyance or conveyances for the same to the purchaser or purchasers of the same. The land which I have conveyed to my two sons this day in fee, to wit the plantation whereon I now live is not comprised in the above expression relative to the sale of all my real estate, but the sale thereof is absolute in fee subject, however as before ordered and directed. I do further order and direct that the one hundred pounds, payable to my wife, shall be paid out of my estate, notwithstanding (no two-thirds standind), the bond given by my two sons for that sum for her use. The money arising from the sale of my said lands as well as all my other personal property of whatsoever name or nature the same may be, not herein before given and bequeathed, I do give and bequeath unto my eight children, to wit: one equal eight part to George Moore, one eight part to Philip Moore, one eight part to heirs and legal representatives of my daughter Christina Roush, deceased, one eight part to my daughter Margaret Meyer, wife of Philip Meyer, one eight part to the heirs and legal representatives of Magdalene Bolinder, deceased; one eight part to the children of Catherine Elizabeth Weaver, wife of Michael Weaver one eight part to Juliana Meyer, wife of Jacob Weaver (Should read Jacob Meyer) and one eight part to Barbara Stees, wife of Frederick Stees, and to their respective heirs and assigns forever. The two bonds given me by my sons are excepted out of this equal distribution, and I give and bequeath them to my other heirs, excluding my two sons from any part therein. I, having before made them abatements in the price of their lands.

"N.B." The words "The Children" were interlined in conformity to my wish, will and direction, for it is my will and I do order and direct that the share of my daughter Catherine Elizabeth shall go to her children, share alike. And lastly, I do hereby, nominate, constitute my sons George Moore and Philip Moore and my good friend George Motz, executors, and the survivors or survivor executor of this my last will and testament, hereby declaring this and no other to be my last will and testament. (Note—At this place in the will, Andrew Moore's name is written "Andrew Morr" followed by a circle with the letters "Seal", enclosed in said circle. The signature of Andrew Morr was of a different handwriting and evidently was in his own handwriting.) The will continues as follows: Sealed and signed, published and declared by the said, Andrew Moore, as his last will and testament in the presence of Frederick Evans, Sim Snyder, Michael Shawer, Northumberland county, Pa. Be it remembered that on the eighteenth day of August in the year of our Lord, 1801. Before me, Jeremiah Simpson, Registor for the county aforesaid, personally came, Frederick Evans and Michael Shawer, two of the subscribing witnesses to the foregoing and annexed will; who, being duly sworn, according to law, saith that they were personally present and did see Andrew Moor, the testator, sign, seal and declare the foregoing writing to be his last will and testament, and that at the time of his so publishing the said will, he was of sound and disposing mind and memory, as the deponent do believe according to the best of their knowledge and understanding,—that the deponents respectively wrote their names as witnesses in the presence of each other, and in the presence of Simon Snyder, the other subscribing witness,—and further saith not. Frederick Evans, Michael Shawer, sworn and subscribed, the same day and year, before, Jeremiah Simpson, Registrar.

Be it remembered that on the eighteenth day of August in the year of our Lord, 1801. Before was proved and approved the last will and testament of the said Andrew Moor, deceased, of which the foregoing record is a true copy and letters testamentary issued in due and common form of law to George Moore, Philip Moore and George Mootz, executors therein named, on the same day. Witness my Hand.

*Simon Snyder, a native of Lancaster County, came to Northumberland, now Snyder County in 1784. He located at Selinsgrove, Northumberland County, Pa., where he resided until his death, November 9, 1819. His home was four miles east from where Andrew Moore located. Both were intimate friends. Mr. Snyder was a justice of peace and scrivener for twelve years and it is supposed he wrote the will for Mr. Moore. After serving as a member of the State Legislature from 1797-1807, he filled the speaker's chair for five years and was Governor of the State for three successive terms, 1809-17.

The double asterisks relates to the validity of the will and was taken from page 38, as follows:

This is one instance where a will was made that is void of the date of execution. The Supreme Court of Pennsylvania has ruled that "A will with attestation is valid in the absence of the date of execution, but failure of date and attestation both may invalidate the instrument." In the original copy of this will, the face of a man appears as a seal after Andrew Moore's signature.

The triple asterisks is relative to a misquote or a misprint in the recorded will as follows: "one eight part to Juliana Meyer, wife of Jacob Weaver," Jacob Weaver is in error and should read John Jacob Meyer. On page 243 of the Morr Genealogy, Julia (Juliana) Morr, seventh child of Andrew Morr, married John Jacob Meyer, a brother of Philip Meyer, who was married to Julia's sister Anna Margaret Morr. Page 71 Morr Genealogy.

On August 27, 1947, after securing a photostatic copy of the will of Andrew Morr at the Court House in Sunbury, Northumberland County, Penna. Mrs. Morr, my son Ray and I went to Selinsgrove, Penna., to meet Mr. Charles Adam Fisher, a direct descendant of Andrew Morr, who accompanied us to Freeburg, Penna., for the purpose of visiting the old Morr Cemetery. Mr. Fisher lived on the main street of Selinsgrove, Penna. From this point we proceeded south on the street and turned right on the road running west to Freeburg. Approximately one and one half miles due west and on the north side of the road, Mr. Fisher directed our attention to an old building and he said that it was the old distillery building, still standing on the farm of the late Andrew Morr. It is recorded that the old distillery was torn down, a good many years prior to this date, however, the building was of the same shape and structure, as the building to the right of home of Andrew Morr, as portrayed in a picture of the estate of Andrew Morr in the fore part of the supplement. (On Labor Day, September 5, 1966, we again visited Freeburg, but was unable to find the old distillery building, however, there was a home in this particular vicinity that could have been remodeled into a house.) While visiting the old Morr Cemetery, it was raining quite hard. It was situated in a wooded area and many of the gravestones were buried beneath the ground and the grass and weeds were high as the cemetery had been neglected for many years. My son Raymond copied the following from the grave stones.

Simon Roush—B-1861; D-1881
Philip Morr
Wife Elizabeth Gemberling—B-Sept. 4, 1768; D-Aug. 11, 1811
Sam T. Straub—1838
Michael Morr—Jan. 12, 1791
Philip Morr—D-6/12/1794 - 3 years, 4 mo. and 5 days
Philip Morr—B-8/6/1791; D-29 years
Julia—1795 - 1796

On Labor Day September 5, 1966, Mrs. Morr and myself, accompanied by Mrs. Morr's brother Mr. Franklin Spidle and his wife Hazel of Tallmadge, Ohio, contacted Mr. Grease of Freeburg, Penna., who was custodian of the Lutheran Church, that was formerly known as the Zion (Morr's) Lutheran Church. Mr. Grease accompanied us to the Morr Cemetery on our second visit. He informed us that he was the custodian of the church and also took care of the old cemetery. At this time the cemetery was cleared of all high grass and weeds and was in much better shape than in 1947. He also told us that people from all over the country visit the cemetery. On the adjoining farmland you could view the ruins of the old church. Your Secretary picked up several pieces of old brick that was part of the original foundation that was scattered in an adjoining cornfield.

Birth and Baptismal Certificate

The following is in explanation of the Birth and Baptismal Certificate of Samuel Morr, as portrayed on the preceding page.

On Sunday July 6, 1969, Mr. and Mrs. Milton Keith Brown of 948 Amelia Avenue, Akron, Ohio 44302, presented two Birth and Baptismal Records, to your Secretary, with the idea in mind that they could be used in the Supplement, as a historical record of the Morr Family.

The Birth and Baptismal Certificates of Johannes and Samuel Morr, the 3rd. and 5th., children of John Philip Morr and Sarah Beistle as portrayed on pages 146 and 152 of the original Morr Genealogy Book, also in the Supplement under lineage # 39.

Johannes Morr was born January 2, 1814 and was christened 20 days later. He evidently died in infancy as his name is not included in the eight listed children of John Philip Morr and Sarah Beistle. Johannes date of birth, being January 2, 1814; places him as the third child and Samuel, the fifth child and not the fourth as recorded on page 152.

I am deeply indebted to Mrs. Ernest Leonard of 118 Dawes Avenue, Akron, Ohio 44302, as she made arrangements with the Daughters of Divine Charity, 39 North Portage Path, Akron, Ohio, to make the translation of the certificate, from German to English.

Sister M. Miriam translated the Birth Certificate from German to English; she was assisted by Sister M. Regina in the English translation and Sister M. Antoinette typed the four pages of translation, with the description and symbolic meaning of each picture and symbol thereon.

Many thanks to the Sisters for their excellent work and the courtesy extended to Mrs. Morr, Mrs. Leonard and myself.

As soon as we are born,
Verily, from the very first step we take
To the cold earthen grave,
Is but a short step.
For with each blinking of the eye,
Our strength is lessening;
And with each year
We are more ripe, for death's bier.

II—Top Right Translation

And who knows the hour
When the final trumpet will awaken us?
For God's lips have not revealed this to anyone.
Therefore, whosoever has put his soul in order
Gladly leaves the earth;
But on the contrary, he who has sought only his own confort,
Can expect only eternal death.

Birth and Baptismal Certificate

To the following married couple, Philip Morr and his bride Marin Salome nee Beishtelsin, a son was born on October 16th in the year of Our Lord, 1818. He was born in Washington Township, Union County, in the State of Pennsylvania, in the United States of America. The son received the name Samuel at his holy baptism on December 27, 1818. The sacrament of Baptism was administered by Rev. Walther. The sponsors were his parents as mentioned above.

III—Center Left Translation

I am Baptized and through my Baptism
I am united with my God.
This will I repeat with joyous lips,
In sufferings and sorrow, in fear and necessity
I am Baptized and for this I rejoice,
And this joy will remain with me for all eternity.

IV—Center Right Translation

I am baptized and even if I die at this instant how can the cold grave harm me?
I know that my fatherland and heritage
Are with God in heaven.
After my death eternal happiness and joyous rainment await me.

V—Lower Left Translation

I am baptized in your name,
God the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit.
I am numbered among your followers.

VI—Lower Right Translation

The people whom you have sanctified
Oh, how great is my happiness because of it.
O, Lord! make me worthy of this!

Translation of Pictures Meaning

In the picture at the top, an angel is announcing the joyous news of the spiritual birth of another child of God.

On the right — the angel holds the crown of victory, symbolizing the child's conquest of sin and his triumph in becoming a citizen of heaven.

On the left — the angel symbolizes the peace one who is in the state of grace, and who remains in God's friendship will enjoy even here on earth.

Under the formal birth and baptismal notice are intertwined the symbols of happiness, success and victory which God's children are to enjoy in this life and the next.

Under the III and IV stanzas are the symbols of the material blessings God has placed on earth for man's use while earning heaven.

The birds and the thorny branch on the bottom of the right side signify the sufferings and trials, man must undergo in order to earn his heaven.

The birds and the thornless branch on the bottom of the left side, signify the graces and blessings God gives to all His children.

Prior to the 86th annual reunion held at Jeromesville, Ohio, on Sunday, June 5, 1966, your Secretary accompanied by Mr. Charles Swineford of Ashland, Ohio, President of the Morr and Myers Reunion, visited the Old White Church (Trinity Church) in the near vicinity of Jeromesville and listed the readings on the tombstones in the cemetery adjoining the church.

Samuel—Son of J. & H. Cutter—D-8/12/1833 - Age 3 yrs., 1 mo. and 21 days

Mr. Harold Francis Roach of Warren, Ohio, and your Secretary visited the old Morr Cemetery in the church yard of the Lutheran Church at Morrland, Wayne County, Ohio, on October 29, 1968, at which time the photograph of the cemetery stone of Catherine Roush Morr, wife of George Morr was taken. George Morr and his brother Philip, with their families, were the first settlers in this vicinity, other than a hunter and backwoodsman who had settled in the vicinity prior to 1818. Your Secretary remembers a reunion in the past, when John Clement Myers paid tribute to George and Philip Morr, who used their homes for religious services prior to the building of the first church in the vicinity.

Mr. Roach also took a photograph of the stone of George Morr, however, the stone was broken at the base and laying on the ground. Inquiry was made by Mr. Roach relative to repairing and replacing the stone. Your officers will take this matter up at some future date for consideration.

George Morr was born in Penn's township, Northumberland County, Penna., on October 5, 1784, and died June 18, 1867. His wife, Catherine Roush Morr, was born in Freeburg, Penna., on November 1, 1784, and died August 15, 1861.

For additional information about Morrland, Ohio, and directions to find the above cemetery, refer to the Secretary's remarks in the minutes of the 89th annual reunion on June 1, 1969. Mr. Roach is a grandson of Emma Catherine Morr and Thomas Poulson. Lineage # 39, page 154, Morr Genealogy.

On Saturday, August 31, 1968, your Secretary and Mrs. Morr went to Reading, Penna. The following day we visited Mr. and Mrs. J. Kenneth Fisher, RD # 2, Box # 155, Red Hill Road, Narvon, Lancaster County, Penna. 17555, at which time we were privileged to meet Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Bert Lange and Mrs. Myrtle Arvilla Ritchie Lange of Coatsville, Penna., also Mrs. Kenneth William Payne Fisher of Narvon, Penna. Our hostess prepared a buffet dinner, after which the Master Copy was discussed. In the afternoon, Mr. Fisher accompanied us to the Revolutionary Battle Field at Chads Ford along the Brandywine. It was a most interesting trip, as Mr. Fisher was very familiar with the battle procedure; however, this was his first trip to Chads Ford. Many thanks to Kenneth and Victoria Fisher for the hospitality and a day we will never forget.

On Labor Day, September 2nd, we visited the Union Cemetery at Millheim, Centre County, Penna., and found the tombstone of John Adam Morr and Sarah (Sally) Harter Morr. (Page 189 Morr Genealogy). John Adam Morr was the 8th child of John George Morr, born September 11, 1798, died March 15, 1880; married Sarah Harter in 1820, born November 8, 1800, died July 12, 1884, aged 83 years, 8 months and 4 days. The stone was broken at the base and was laying flat on the ground. With the aid of a Holiday Inn key, I dug the earth from the lettering of the stone. This is another stone that should be repaired at the expense of the Morr and Myers Reunion at some future date.

My father, Theodore Newton Morr, visited Millheim, Penna., in 1881 and 1883, and stayed at a hotel on Main Street. Possibly it was Broens Hotel, which was not in business at this date. Sarah Morr always gave gold coins to the relatives that visited her, and my father was the only one that ever refused her gifts of money. Prior to her death in 1884, Sarah Morr wrote a letter to my father asking him to visit her before she passed away, with a mandatory request that the visit be made before her death, as she wanted to will a sum of $50,000 to him. At that time, my father was ill at his home in West Salem, Ohio. The letter was evidently delayed and not mailed at the time it was written, as he received it after her death and consequently did not receive the inheritance, as it was willed to the church. That was primarily the reason that I wanted to visit Millheim, Penna.

Following are the readings on the tombstones found in the Union Cemetery at Millheim, Penna.

Sally Morr—Wife of J. A. Morr—D-July 12, 1884 - Age 83 yrs., 8 mo. and 4 days

Your Secretary realizes the close relationship of the Morr and Rickel families, which are recorded in Lineage # 18 of the Julian Morr and Matthias Rickel union, page 180 and 181, Morr Genealogy. This lineage is recorded in its entirety; however, there evidently was a branch of the Rickel family that past historians of the Morr & Myers families were unable to directly connect to the relationship. This lineage was also supposed to be through the Solena Lash and Matthias Rickel lineage, however, the record does not confirm it.

Your Genealogist sent many letters asking for information, but was unable to verify that the information received was authentically correct. The following lineage report of the Rickel family was received by Mrs. Virginia Harrison in 1947 and is as follows:

George Rickel passed away one year ago – Date Feb. 28, 1962.

Christina Morr was the oldest of the children of Andrew Morr. She was born August 4, 1757; died in Penn's township, Northumberland county, near what is now known as Freeburg, Pa., June 7, 1793. She was married to George Roush, who was a native of the same locality. She was the first of her parent's family buried in the Morr Cemetery near Freeburg. There is no tombstone to mark her resting place. She was a member of the Lutheran Church. Her descendants are numerous, and reside in different localities in Pennsylvania and some of the western states. George Roush was a Private and served as a soldier in the American Revolutionary War. DAC record # 13173.

The following was submitted by Mrs. J. Kenneth Fisher of Narvon, Penna., and same was taken from the Daughters of American Colonist (DAC) # 13173. George Roush second wife was Barbara Potter, same taken from DAR records.

Andreas Mohr was a Palatine settler to Pennslyvania. He came to Port of Philadelphia on the "Ship Dragon" and took the oath of allegiance on October 17, 1749. He was born in 1727 and died in 1801. He was married to Catherine Elizabeth in 1756. She was born in 1732 and died in 1795.

George Roush married c 1775 their daughter Christina Morr, born 1757, died 1793.

The following is a list of their children:

Margaret Roush—No extended history of her could be obtained. She moved to Ohio. She married George Snellenberger. They had a number of children.

Andrew Roush—B-3/16/1777—Charles Adam Fisher's Early Pennsylvania Births. Member of Row's (Reu's) or Salem Lutheran Church, approximately two miles west of Selingsgrove, Pa. Moved to Ohio.

George Roush—No record, however it is thought that he moved to Ohio with his brother John and settled in Lucas county, Ohio.

John Roush died at Whitehouse, Lucas county, Ohio in 1867. Moved to Ohio in 1846. He married Catherine Bickel, second wife Mrs. Salome Reddick nee Glass.

Philip Roush—B-5/2/1783, D-12/11/1844, married Maria Yerigant, B-1782, D-5/6/1858.

Catherine—B-9/29/1791, D-1/15/1869, married Jacob (Joseph) Menges, B-5/2/1775, D-October 6, 1847.

HISTORY OF THE MORR FAMILY

The following history was prepared and read by Miss Mary E. Morr, of West Salem, O., at the Seventh Annual Re-union of the Morr Family, held at Highland Park, Wooster, Ohio, Thursday, June 9, 1887:

"Here come we forth from shop and farm
A brave and hardy crew,
To breathe the air of spring's delight,
And seal our friendship true.
Some are in spring-time's rosy flush,
Others with old age hoar,
Yet nature's kindship links our days,
The family of Morr."

The one, Andrew Morr, which we have placed at the head of our history as our forefather and to which we invite particular attention, speaks a volume in behalf of the Morr family. His force of character, untiring in his energies, and impelled by the sole desire for the promotion of the Christian faith, surely left its impress upon the entire section of the country in which he lived. The past predominates over the present; he has left his impress upon our minds, the value of the reward promised to virtue.

One hundred and twenty-seven years have passed since he and his wife emigrated from Germany to America. His wife, who had given herself to share his life and work, bore that familiar name, Mary, which has been handed down from that generation to the present. They located in what is known as Buffalo Valley, Snyder Co., Pennsylvania. Here he entered a tract of land and built a small log cabin, about three rods from a strong spring of limestone water.

As these early settlers suffered heavily from the intrusion of the Indians, a fort was erected on his land for protection. A committee of safety was appointed in 1771, of which he was a member. While filling this position, he stood his ground against all discouragements and threatenings and proved himself a tower of strength to the people. In 1775 he built a large two story log house. While seeing the destitution of the gospel in their rising community and wishing to establish a place of worship, he so constructed this house as to be convenient for church purposes. Four rooms graced the second story of this house. Two of these rooms were made as one by means of a swinging partition which was raised to the ceiling before worship began. This was the only house in Buffalo Valley in which public worship was held for twelve years. It was here that he offered much of his hospitality. It was mainly through his instrumentality that the first house of public worship was erected in this valley.

While a trustee of the Lutheran congregation, he entered a tract of land consisting of forty acres in the name of the Lutheran church, about one-half mile from his home, whereon, a church was built in 1787, in which the Reformed and Lutherans united in holding worship. This, in revere of his memory bore the name of the Morr church. Here he enjoyed his religious privileges for eighteen years,—then he was not, for God took him in the year 1805. Ten years after his death this church was taken down and the land sold, with the exception of two acres, including the church yard in which lie buried Andrew Morr and a number of his posterity. This property is still owned by the Lutheran congregation of Freeburg.

You will ask how many children blessed his lot, and while coming on to respond to his heart's stirring appeal we hear him answer "seven." "Here they in this church yard lie, five sisters and two brothers. While in lowly church, I dwell near them with their mother." "Our graves are green, they may be seen," is heard with the passing tide. "One-half mile or more from the old home door, we are sleeping side by side."

Two of these sisters, Margaret and Julian, were married to Moyers; here is the origin of the Moyers' being made now happy and more secure.

George, the oldest of the seven and to whom, as our great grand-father, we owe our trustworthy praise, was born in Snyder county, Pennsylvania. Here his childhood and youth were passed. Although young in years when the revolutionary agitation began, he was among the first to show his patriotic ardor. He felt the iron hand of British tyranny and resolved to unite his exertions with those of his countrymen in beating the march onward and upward for the defense of his country in a season of extreme danger. He joined the army as a drummer boy, feeling assured that his mother's prayers were the ablest advocate of heaven's blessings on his head. He was in the battle of Brandywine in 1777. As soon as he could be released from his duties in the army, he returned to his home and married Catharine Diefenback, a pure and noble woman. He afterwards emigrated to Center county, Pennsylvania, and purchased on February 10, 1792, one hundred acres of land from the executors of the estate of Henry Miller. A deed was given him April 1, 1794. Consideration in full £ 800. In 1818 death ended the scene and the drummer boy was no more. Devout and loving hands laid him away in his last resting place, at Armsburg, Center county, Pennsylvania. No scroll rises to tell his many virtues. He left his children the heritage of an unblemished character and that pure and beneficent light which shone around him while he lived is phosphorescent from his grave there yet, though the storms of more than sixty-nine years have drenched it. His wife remained a widow for twenty-five years which was until her death in 1843. She had reached the advanced age of seventy-seven years. They trained up ten sons and two daughters in the habits of sobriety and active virtue. This influence over his family, however humble in station, has been obvious to our attentive eye; he deserves incomparably more honor than the most of those who have assumed the name, than the most of those indeed on whom it has been conferred.

George, the oldest, who bore his father's name, was born October 5th, 1784. He in company with his brother Philip, came to Wayne county, Ohio, in 1818. After ten years, during which these brothers in their new field of labor must have often turned their wistful looks and pleading calls to their people in Pennsylvania, to come over and share their lives with them, and they came—the remaining ten, with exception of one, and brought their widowed mother with them. They settled in Ashland county, Ohio. Here the circle of children remained unbroken until 1851, when Samuel and Peter moved to DeKalb county, Indiana.

George Morr came to the close of his earthly career June, the 18th, 1867, at the full age of eighty-three years. He lies in the Lutheran church yard in Franklin Township. His wife, Catharine Morr, survived him six years after spending a life of nearly four score years. She rests by her husband's side. Six children were left to testify by their worth of character the noble deeds and the true principles and exalted reputation of their parents. Four of these children are still living.

Philip, the second son of George Morr, was born December 25, 1787. On his forty-eighth anniversary, "he fell asleep, that blessed sleep, from which none ever wakes to weep." His admirations were not unlike those characteristics to our generation—he united himself with a Sarah. From this we will find they have been the very consummation of the Morr's fancy. She was a widow twenty-eight years, and died in the year 1863. She is buried by her husband's side in the Morrland cemetery which bears their name. In their flock of nine, whose hands were diligent in watching and tending, "only one dead lamb is there."

Duty transplanted the two sisters Mollie and Elizabeth afar on their fields of labor. Mollie, the older, died at McComb, Hancock county, Ohio, September 13, 1860, at the age of 68 years, 7 months. Her husband, Valentine Mogle, whose deeds were far too good and noble to be forgotten and unnoticed in death, had preceeded her six months or more at the age of 69 years, 7 months and 8 days. Eleven stars shone in the crown of their rejoicing. The next was John, who was born in 1790. Fifty-five years had stamped its seal upon his brow when he was plucked from the remaining circle of eleven. We can not describe to you the scenes of his parting, you know them all. His wife was a widow; and her seven children were orphans. She remained a widow for twenty-five years and died at the age of sixty-three, August 7, 1870.

Then there was Adam who remained in Pennsylvania. We regret that for the want of facts we can only state that in some burying ground there is one solitary mound beneath which he is sleeping.

Andrew, our grandfather, whose name came sixth on the roll of children, was born in 1794. At the age of twenty-four he was married to Elizabeth Stover, who, like an angel of mercy, poured the balm of sympathy and consolation into the hearts of her twelve children, which so brightened the sunshine of love and the warm dew of affection that the flowers of peace and happiness ever grew. Grim death, with its sickle keen only reaped one during a period of 40 years. Andrew Morr died in 1857 at the age of 63 years, 1 month and 4 days. The summons to depart came suddenly, but found him prepared for it. His wife died November 6, 1876. At the time of her death she was probably the oldest member of the family, being 80 years, 4 months and 2 days. But how mysterious are the ways of Providence. One year had not passed by before Michael, another brother lie sleeping in the Brick Church yard. He died June the 10th, 1877, aged 80 years, 8 months. He was a good and useful man, the head of a family of eight children, for whom his hands were diligent and perpetuated his usefulness in their own worth. His wife, Christina, had preceeded him thirty-two years at the age of forty-five years and five months. Eve Morr, wife of Daniel Morr, died in December, 1866, at the age of 57 years. Scarcely had this wound been healed when a deeper one was inflicted by the death of her husband in June, 1867. Thus another one has gone to join the choir of celestial harpers. He died at the age of 65 years. Thirteen children blessed their lot.

Again, on October 19, 1875, the remainder of the family was destined to endure the loss of their dear brother Benjaman. His life of 74 years was well spent. His wife Catherine died in October, 1854, at the age of 49 years. It is often said, "affliction never comes alone." Only one year after this stroke another was inflicted by the death of Elizabeth. The Christian grace of this excellent woman shone with brilliancy around her circle of six children. She died on January 15, 1876, aged 71 years. Her husband, Jacob Albright, died near Wooster, O., on the 9th day of June, 1884, in his 81st year, and among the dead on yonder hill there is a scroll which marks the spot near the place of their early home, where they are sleeping in silence and forgetfulness. Samuel, the youngest of the twelve, was born Jan. 17, 1809. His father died while he was yet in his infancy. At the age of 19 he came with the family to Ashland county, O. Here he was married to Mary M. Knouse and resided in Ashland county until the year 1851. From this time until his death in 1882 he resided in DeKalb county, Ind. He had reached the age of 73 years, 5 months and 14 days. His wife died in 1875 and now the last jewel has been removed from the family altar. We will now turn our attention to Philip Morr, brother of our great grandfather, George Morr, who resided in Freeburg, Snyder county, Pennsylvania. His life of usefulness terminated in 1826. He had two sons and two daughters, all of whom but one daughter lie buried in the vicinity of Freeburg. Of these two daughters and one son we know nothing. The other son, John Jacob Morr, was born in 1803, and died in the maturity of his manhood, March 18, 1858, at the age of 55 years. He was successfully elected Justice of the Peace for a period of 25 years and served with much ability and success. His wife Mary was born May 24, 1807. Her death took place Jan. 21, 1864. She had reached her fifty-seventh year. Their circle of children numbered ten, five brothers and five sisters. Death visited this happy family and plucked two sons and three daughters from their midst.

Isaac Morr was born in 1823, was married to Mary Heinback, who departed this life October 30, 1854, at the age of twenty-two years. The burden of life which they had mutually born, now rested on him alone with the care of one little daughter, Catherine Ellen. In 1861, seven years after his wife's death, he was married to Catherine Weaver. They are still living and reside at Kantz, Snyder county, Pa. Little Catherine Ellen has grown to be a noble woman. She with her husband reside at Selins Grove, Snyder county, Pa. John Morr, Isaac's brother, left home for Idaho in 1864. Here we cannot trace him any further, as he has not been heard from but once, that being twenty years ago.

Elizabeth Morr was married to Wm. Shoyer. She has been a widow for many years.

Polly Morr is married to Perry Ulrich. These two sisters reside at Selins Grove.

Those who died were Catherine, Percival, Lusanea, Henry and Amelia. All with the exception of one were victims of that long and deep consumption.

July 27, 1872, the last remnant of land belonging to the Morr family (near Freeburg) was sold by Isaac Morr, executor of the estate of John J. Morr, for the sum of $26,000.

April 1st, 1873, Isaac Morr vacated the old homestead, which had remained in the Morr family from one generation to another for one hundred and thirteen years.

Thus swiftly glide the years—they follow each other like the waves of the ocean, with many touching and tender scenes we cannot describe.

Those who have this year been called from our wide circle of friends number six. Two flowers and two buds were plucked from our uncle Samuel's bower.

Miranda A. Morr died in Columbus Grove Aug. 23, 1887, at the age of 29 years. She lived an exemplary life.

Mary E. Markley joined the Church Triumphant Feb. 13, 1887, at the age of 23 years. Mary though deeply afflicted, remembered, even in that dark and trying hour, that her duty was to the Omnipotence to bow.

Clarence Franklin Morr died April 11, 1887, aged 7 months and 23 days. Then last came little Roy, son of George and Sabina Light. He died in Columbus Grove April 22, 1887, aged 2 years, 7 months and 21 days.

"These buds and flowers adorned his bower,
And shed sweet fragrance round;
They grew in beauty hour by hour,
'Till, ah! the spoiler came in power and Crushed them to the ground.

"Yet, not forever in the dust,
Those buds and flowers shall lie;
No, in the garden of the just,
Beneath God's glorious eye we, trust,
They'll bloom again on high."

Elizabeth Morr married to Abraham Stucker and died April 19, 1887, at the advanced age of 76 years.

Princilla, wife of Geo. Morr, died in Neb. February, 1887.

"Thus the reaper whose name is death,
Has come with his sickle keen
And reaped the bearded grain at a breath
And bound them in his sheaves."

We will now give you a brief sketch of the Morr's and relatives who have emigrated to the state of matrimony this year.

Mary E. Morr, daughter of Samuel Morr, was married to Douglas Markley, October 9, 1886, at Columbus Grove, O.

Jennetta and Lutitia Morr, daughters of Daniel Morr of Des Moines, left their native state, singleness, and drifted out into that wide and deep abyss—matrimony. Jeanetta embarked in her little canoe December 22, 1886, with just room enough for two, she and William C. Young. Lutitia was married to Francis M. Corison, Feb. 23, 1887.

Cupid is no respector of persons and had a spare dart for even such a heart as beat in Maggie Morr's bosom withal. She was married to Albert Heogner on the 28th day of December, 1886.

Alva Myers was the last candidate for the nuptial blessing, was married to Zou B. Parker, May 12, 1887.

May choicest blessings crown their lot,
    Their basket and their store.
Give each enough to bless his days
    And many a little Morr.

P.S. Since Aug. 15th, my book "Snyder County Pioneers" has been running in the Snyder County Tribune, Selinsgrove, Pa. I have asked that a sample copy be sent to you. If I can get a Morr Book, I can possibly make a better report on this family in my "Pioneers".

Lineage # 43

Dear kinswoman;-

Thanks for your letter. I am a great-great-great-great-grandson of Andrew Morr, who died in 1801, thru his daughter Anna Barbara, who married the Hon. Frederick Steese. My lineage is

Andrew Morr	Andrew Morr
Anna Barbara Morr-Steese	Christina Morr-Roush
Mary Steese-Herrold	Michael Roush
Abel Herrold	Rosalina Roush-Herrold
John George Herrold	Clara E. Herrold-Fisher
Clara Ella Herrold-Fisher	Charles Adam Fisher
Charles Adam Fisher

From the above lineages you will see that I descend from Andrew in two ways, also my great-grandfather John Jacob Fisher's brother, John Michael Fisher, married Catherine Elizabeth Morr, a grand-daughter of Andrew Morr thru his son John Philip. Catherine Elizabeth's mother was Elizabeth Gemberling, a sister, to my great-great-grandmother, Mary Gemberling, wife of Frederick Esterline, who were the parents of Mary Ann Esterline, wife of Michael Roush, mentioned above.

My name is in the Morr Family History, I am told. Do you think you could secure a copy of this history for me at a reasonable price? I could not find any of them in Pennsylvania, and I thought that since they were printed in your city, there might be a copy or two available somewhere. I have a copy of the Meyer Genealogy. I was a roommate for a short time of Robert Meyer, son of the compiler of the Meyer work. Yes, I knew Calvin Fisher Moyer, all my life, he was a member of the executive committee of the Fisher Family reunion from the time of its organization in 1907, until his death in 1933. His grandparents were Catherine Elizabeth Morr and John Michael Fisher.

I have data which I do not believe the Morr History contains. Andrew Morr's father was also named Andrew, and he died in what is now Snyder County, Pa., in 1771, a short time after he and his family located in that frontier section, and for a year or two his holdings were assessed in the name of his widow, and after that in the name of his son, Andrew. Since that part of the now Snyder County was then claimed by Cumberland County, I imagine his will or administration papers would be on record at Carlisle, Pa. I did not have time to go there to see during the past summer. The Morrs lived in what is now Snyder County as early as 1770, possibly 1769, because in March of that year they bought land in the vicinity of Freeburg, and I believe they moved there the same spring. In 1770, Andrew Morr, Casper Roush, and Peter Straub, made application for ground on which to erect a church and school. An Andrew Morr received a grant of 200 acres of land in Lancaster county in 1742, another Andrew Mohr, came from Germany in 1749. I feel that the Andrew who received the grant in 1742, and the Andrew, who bought the land from Ort in what is now Snyder County in 1769 were the same person. Another theory is that Andrew Morr, Jr. came on ship "Dragon" in 1749, and his father on the ship "Brothers" in 1751. The ship "Brothers" contained several families which later settled in the Freeburg and other sections of the now Snyder County.

Please try to get a copy of the Morr Genealogy for me. Write me, if interested. An effort should be made to bring the Morr work up to date.

Sincerely and fraternally,
Charles Adam Fisher

Mrs. E. H. Fuhrman,
Ashland, Ohio.

Dear Madam;-

Replying to your letter I have been able to secure a copy of the Meyer Genealogy and History, but am very anxious to secure one of the Morr Family, particularly since a woman in my home town—Selinsgrove, Pa.—told me she saw my name in the Morr Book. It is even possible that I might have a Meyer Book to trade for a Morr book if some one would rather trade than sell one. I cannot find any in Pennsylvania, except one copy, there seems not to have been any in the assets of Calvin Fisher Moyer, when he died some two years ago.

I am told the Morr History begins with Andrew Morr (1727-1801), but I am sure that it should begin with Andrew Morr, Sr. who died in what is now Washington Township, Snyder County, Pa., in 1771, and whose widow was assessed with his property for several years, after which Andrew, Jr., then was assessed with it from about 1773. It is said that a record of Andrew Sr's. death is on file at Carlisle, Pa., which was the county seat for that section in 1771. Northumberland County of which the Freeburg section was later a part, was not formed until 1772. Andrew, Jr., sailed from Rotterdam, Holland, on the English ship "Dragon" which arrived at the port of Philadelphia, Pa., where he took the oath of allegiance to the English government on 17th of October, 1749. This ship contained Palatines, Wurtembergers, and Alsatians. Two years later, the evidence indicates that his father, Andrew, Sr., and Andrew, Jr's. brothers, John Michael and Peter, sailed from Rotterdam on the British ship "Brothers". They landed at Philadelphia, and took the English oath of allegiance on September 16, 1751. Part or all of this, I am told does not appear in the Morr History.

In your letter, you stated that you were sending me short sketches of both families which had been used for D. A. R. reference. You must have overlooked this, because it was not in the envelope with your letter.

Try to locate a Morr history for me in your locality, please. I understand it was printed there, and there should have been some surplus copies, or two or more in a family. I am willing to pay anything within reason for one, however, I am only a poor college professor with a large family which I am trying to educate, and I have little to spare for hobbies.

In August, the Snyder County Tribune of Selinsgrove, Pa., a weekly, began the publication, in serial form, my book "The Snyder County Pioneers", this will run for a year or more and contains sketches of some 800 heads of families who lived in what is now Snyder County, Pa., before 1800—wherever possible, I give the military service in the Revolution of the sketchees.

Yours very truly,
Chas. A. Fisher

*—Andrew Morr possibly married Anna Maria Dewals in 1796. She was a resident of Shippenburg, Penna. (Page 28 Morr Genealogy). She was the wife of Christopher Beisel, also the wife of Peter Dewald.

Note—page 28 Morr Genealogy. Catherine Elizabeth, first wife of Andrew Morr on returning from a visit to Shippenburg, Penna., brought the tankard and cup with her that was given as a gift of charity to the Morr Zion Lutheran Church of Freeburg, Penna. on the 29th of July 1795.

Note—Charles Adam Fisher's letter dated October 23, 1935 relates the possibility of Andrew Morr Sr., (father of Andrew Morr born 4/30/1727), deaths records are on file at Carlisle, Cumberling County Penna. Your Secretary and Mrs. Morr visited the courthouse in Carlisle, Penna. on July 5, 1967 but were unable to directly connect the lineage of an Andrew Moore that died prior to July 8, 1825 with the Andrew Morr Sr., as stated in Charles Adam Fisher's letter. We were informed that the death records prior to that date were destroyed by fire. Your Secretary also found records of Moore's that had resided in Shippenburg, Penna., which is 24 miles southeast of Carlisle, Penna.

Please note that Anna Maria Dewald was a resident of Shippenburg, Penna., Catherine Elizabeth Morr's visit to Shippenburg and courthouse records in Carlisle, Penna., points to kinship of the different families.

Dear Mrs. Fuhrman;-

Herewith is a note for your records.

I am sorry that I cannot attend the Morr-Myers Reunion, due to the fact that the Gemberling Reunion will be held here on the same day. I am Historian of the Gemberling Family. You will note that the first wife of Philip Morr was Elizabeth Gemberling, who was a sister to my great-great-grandmother, Mary Gemberling. I am also a great-great-great-grandson of Andrew Morr, through his daughter Anna Barbara, wife of the Hon. Frederick Steese. You will see my name on page 284 in the Morr History.

In regard to the Myer family. The name originally was "Meyer", but many of the descendants today use the name Moyer. I have three copies of the Meyer Genealogy. I will trade or sell two of them. I would like to get one or two more copies of the Morr Genealogy.

My compilation "The Snyder County Pioneers" will come from the press some time during the coming fall. My History of the Woodling Family came from the press in November, 1936. My History of Michael Fisher (1724-1776) came from the press in February. Both of these histories and genealogies are on old Snyder County families, and I have several copies of each remaining for sale or exchange.

My sister, Eva May Fisher, wife of Arthur H. Charles, was born near Selinsgrove, Pa., Nov. 7, 1893, and died March 11, 1937, at same place. Her husband, Arthur H. Charles, was born in Selinsgrove, Pa., Oct. 8, 1881, and died in same town, April 19, 1937. Their daughter, daughter Anna May, married Stewart Reichenbach in December, 1936. SEE PAGE 284 in GENEALOGY OF MORR FAMILY for name of Eva May Fisher.

Hettie Baily, wife of Levi Herrold, was born in Monroe Twp., Snyder Co., Pa., April 6, 1871, and died in Jackson Twp., same county Jan. 1, 1936.

Henry C. Schnee, husband of Elizabeth Herrold, was born in Snyder County, Pa., Oct. 3, 1867, and died at Vero Beach, Indian River County, Florida, Feb. 9, 1936. He was buried in St. John's Cemetery, Chapman Twp., Snyder Co., Pa. He was an expert brickmason, a member of the Lutheran Church, Democratic party.

See Page 285.

Mary E. Bender, wife of Daniel Wetzel, died in July, 1935, at New Berlin, Union Co., Pa. Aged 94 years.

See page 286.

Jane Kleckner, born April 19, 1842, wife of Levi Bender, lives with her daughter at 116 South Front Street, Highland Park, Illinois.

I have collected considerable data on the later generations of the Morr and Moyer families.

Sincerely yours,
Charles A. Fisher.

BAPTISMAL RECORD OF ZION (MORR'S) LUTHERAN CHURCH

Worship was held in the vicinity of what is now Freeburg, Snyder County, Pennsylvania as early as 1774, but seemingly no congregation was organized until later. In 1781, a log building was erected to use as a church and schoolhouse along the hill, about a mile north of the present town of Freeburg, Pa. The building was never fully completed. Freeburg was laid out by Andrew Straub in 1795, and he gave two squares in the town site for a church and cemetery, and in 1811 a log church was erected and the congregation abandoned it's first building about a mile north of town. The new church was designated St. Peter's, and Zion (or Morr's) Church passed out of existence. Rev. Frederick William Jasensky, who served Zion Church from about 1791 to 1796, was undoubtedly the first resident pastor in what is now Snyder County, Pa. In this record only the year of the baptism is given, but as the early Lutherans were in the habit of having the child baptised soon after birth, the year of baptism is also usually the year of birth. A few birth dates have been located elsewhere by the compiler and these have been inserted. "X" indicates that the father was a Revolutionary soldier. This information has been added by Dr. Charles A. Fisher, Selinsgrove, Pa.

Relative to the members of the Morr & Myers families that served in the American Revolutionary War are as follows. Several years ago I was informed by Mrs. Charles Harrison of Ashland, Ohio, who was the Historian of the Morr & Myers families, that there were 9 members of the two families that served in the Revolutionary War, but I was only able to find 8 that served and are listed with all the data that I have available.

P.S. In 1947 when I visited Dr. Charles A. Fisher, Historian and Genealogist of Selinsgrove, Pa., he informed me that I was eligible to join the Sons of the American Revolution. Dr. Charles was a member and also an officer of the Chapter or Lodge in Pennsylvania, however, I don't know where his membership was registered.

I assume that I am eligible to join, however, I have never made any inquiries of my eligibility. I have been told that there is a question of dates of marriages in the Morr Genealogy, however, the Myers of Ashland, Ohio, were members of the D.A.R. and their Genealogy data was much less informative to a large degree.

Last week, I sent a lengthy report to a Mr. F. E. Dillman, a member of Historical Societies & Agencies of USA and Canada, relative to a George Dillman, a Revolutionary War Veteran that was a pioneer family member of the Morr Zion Church in Freeburg, Pa. He also received xeroxed copies of the cover, also pages # 6, 7 and 8 of the "Early American Births" by Dr. Charles Adam Fisher of Selinsgrove, Pa. You will note the name of Dillman in these copies.

I also want to thank you for your contribution to the Morr & Myers Genealogy Fund received 3/30/1966. I will send your receipt with the invitation in 1967.

Sincerely yours,
Ralph B. Morr
Secretary & Genealogist
Morr & Myers Families

The above is excerpts from a letter I sent to Mrs. (Victoria A.) J. Kenneth Fisher, who resides at RD # 2, Box 155, Narvon, Penna. 17555. Registrar of the Chester County, Penna., D.A.R., relative to her request of the 9 different lineages of the Morr and Myers families, who make the family eligible for joining the S.A.R. and the D.A.R.

Mrs. Fisher is connected with the Morr and Myers families by the marriage of her son, Kenneth William Payne Fisher to Sharon Arvilla Lange, whose mother was Myrtle Arvilla Ritchie, the 7th child of Jeanette Morr and Lemonda Ritchie. Page 183 Morr Genealogy. Lineage # 24A. It was through Mrs. Fisher that your Secretary received historical data of this lineage, also the names of Morr's and Myers having Revolutionary War background.

The following excerpts are taken from the minutes of each of the 89 Annual Reunions of the Morr and Myers families, with the thought in mind, that each member of the relationship may know the background of their heritage.

Ashland, Ohio. July 18th, 1881

A meeting was called by Rev. William Shisler to consider the propriety of holding a family reunion.

After a short discussion of the subject, it was decided unanimously to hold our first Reunion on Saturday, August 6th, 1881, in a grove near the Trinity Church six miles east of Ashland, Ohio.

We then proceeded to form a permanent organization and elected the following officers.

President—Reverend William Shisler
Vice President—Andrew Philip Morr
Secretary—George M. Morr
Treasurer—Henry Shisler

The following committees were also appointed:

Grounds and Arrangements Committee
Jacob Morr - George M. Morr - Elias Morr
Committee on Invitations
Milton Morr - Enoch Shisler - Andrew Philip Morr
Committee on Programmes
Reverend William Shisler - George Myers - George Morr - William Rittenhouse - Francis Enoch Myers.

There being no other business, it was moved to adjourn to meet again next Monday evening, July 25th.

Rev. William Shisler

George M. Morr
Secretary

Ashland, Ohio. July 25, 1881

The meeting was called to order by the President, Rev. William Shisler.

First in order of business was the reading of the minutes of the previous meeting, by the Secretary and approved.

Next was the reception of reports by the committees. Reports received and approved.

There being no other special business, it was moved to adjourn to meet again on the day of the reunion, August 6, 1881.

The Morr's Reunion.

The Morr's and relatives held their first reunion in the grove of S. D. Morr, near Trinity Church, six miles east of Ashland on Saturday, August 6. The friends convened at an early hour, and were called to order by the President, Rev. W. A. Shisler. The exercises were opened with music and prayer by Rev. Burkett. This was followed by an interesting address of welcome by the President, and a biographic sketch by Miss Savilla Myers, in which some good and interesting history was given. Some time was then devoted to relating occurrences and incidents of the past by quite a number of those present. We next repaired to tables groaning under the weight of the luxuries of life prepared by the dear aunts and cousins. The afternoon was spent in general handshaking and social chat. The children of nine families were represented. The number of children present was 67, grandchildren 123, great-grandchildren 17. Of those present quite a number were from Ashland, West Salem, and Wooster. The day was very agreeably spent and enjoyed by all, many expressing a desire to have another one.

Rev. W. A. Shisler, Pres't.
G. M. Moore, Sec'y.

The First Annual Reunion of the Morr's and relatives was held in Samuel D. Morr's grove near the Trinity Church on August 6, 1881, 10:00 A.M.

We were called to order by the President at 10:00 A.M. and the exercises opened by singing and prayer by Reverend Burkett.

Then was the presidents address of welcome, followed by the reading of the minutes of the previous meetings by the Secretary, which were adopted unanimously.

Next was the election of officers for the coming year.

President—Reverend William Shisler
Vice President—Andrew Philip Morr
Secretary—George M. Morr
Treasurer—George Myers
Historian—Miss Savilla Elizabeth Myers

We then listened to a historical sketch of the Morr families prepared by Miss Savilla Myers, in which some interesting history was given.

This was followed by some short and interesting speeches by Jacob Morr, George Morr, Samuel D. Morr, John C. Morr, father Hetzler, Samuel Morr and father Mason.

Then was singing and adjournment for dinner.

After partaking of a bountious repast the afternoon was spent in general handshaking and social chatting. On account of rain, the assembly dispersed at a rather early hour and left some of the business unfinished.

Reverend William Shisler
President

Pleasant Home Camp Grounds. Thursday, June 14, 1888.

The Eighth Annual Reunion arrivals were late in coming because of rain, and exercises were not formally opened in the forenoon.

About the first thing to be done was to satisfy the want of the inner man. The good ladies were soon busily engaged in spreading the table with the good things they brought with them.

At 2:00 P.M., the exercises were opened with singing. The invocation was given by Reverend Blazer, followed by an Address of Welcome by Reverend William A. Shisler.

At this time, Miss Mamie and Mrs. Francis Enoch Myers entertained with a song. The family history report was given by Miss Mary E. Morr. A letter was read from J. S. Morr of Toledo, Iowa.

An Address by Reverend F. Bine was followed by several responsive speeches by Reverend D. C. Eckerman, Mr. Harter, Josiah Morr and others.

A recitation was given by Miss Ola Rickel. Several songs by the Sadie Quartette and Miss Ida and Ola Rickel.

The report of the Time and Place Committee and election of officers for the ensuing year were the order of business before adjournment.

Pleasant Home Camp Grounds. Thursday, June 12, 1890.

Due to rain, the Tenth Annual Reunion was called to order at 12:00 o'clock by President Francis Enoch Myers, and after prayer by Reverend S. Cicklin, they adjourned for dinner.

At 2:30 P.M., the exercises were opened with music by Alpha, Ola and Marion S. Rickel, after which the minutes were read and approved as read.

The Address of Welcome was delivered by O. F. Morr, followed by music, "A Motto for Every Man", by Clydie Williams and Mrs. Francis Enoch Myers.

Jacob Morr then gave us a pleasant reminiscence of "Our Pioneer Homes". A solo, "They are Friends that We Never Forget", by Miss Mayme and Mrs. Francis Enoch Myers, followed by another number, "The Palace Train", by Miss Ola and Professor Marion S. Rickel.

A lengthy, but entertaining document of the family history, was read by Mary E. Morr. It had many items of rare interest. A vote of thanks was tendered Calvin F. Moyer of Freeburg, Pa., for his generous preparation of the family history.

Note—The Genealogy of the Meyer family, compiled by Henry Meyer, was published in 1890. However, this was not mentioned in the minutes of the Tenth Annual Reunion. Evidently, the history of the Morr family was being prepared prior to the Tenth Annual Reunion, relative to the above document prepared by Calvin F. Moyer.

This was followed with music by Zva Williams, a reading of the Memoirs by Stephan A. Shisler, a number by Marion S. Rickel, "The Old Arm Chair", a letter was read by the Secretary from Andrew Allbright.

Responsive speeches were then called. Calvin F. Moyer, J. J. Morr, J. F. Morr, Reverend S. Cicklin, Samuel Morr Sr., and Mr. Gast responded.

The Treasurer report, election of officers and report of the Time and Place Committee was the order of business.

John Philip Morr of West Salem, Ohio, Jacob Morr, Calvin F. Moyer of Freeburg, Pa., and Philip Andrew Myers were appointed as a committee to determine the advisability and cost of publishing a history of the Morr families.

The Morr's and Myers adjourned after singing, "God be With Us Till We Meet Again".

The Eleventh Annual Reunion was called to order by President Francis Enoch Myers, at 11:00 A.M. by singing, "Praise God From Whom All Blessings Flow", and prayer by Reverend J. S. Felger.

The minutes of the last reunion were read by William Rittenhouse in the absence of Stephan A. Shisler.

A duet by Marion S. and Viola Rickel, sang a number entitled, "Murmuring Sea". The Address of Welcome was delivered by Alonza M. Williams, followed by another number by Mrs. Francis Enoch Myers, and an address by Samuel Morr of Moreland, entitled, "Old Homesteads".

The first order of business after dinner was the report of the Committee of Publication. This was a partial report of the family history, and by motion, said committee was continued. However, a subcommittee consisting of one person from each family was appointed to assist in completion of the individual family history.

The members appointed to this committee were as follows: Jacob Morr, George M. Morr, Samuel Morr Sr., Samuel Morr Jr., George J. Morr, Samuel D. Morr, Samuel C. Morr, Andrew Mogle, George Morr of Concord, Indiana, O. M. Allbright and George Morr of De Kalb County, Indiana.

The program continued with music by Viola Rickle, the number being, "The Zephyrs", this was followed by an address by Andrew Philip Morr; subject, "Our Children". George Milton Morr then gave an address entitled, "Prophecy". An Instrumental Solo by Mr. Heitz.

Time and Place Committee appointed by the President, consisted of Henry Morr of West Salem, Samuel Morr Jr. of Moreland, and Jacob Morr of Trinity.

An Address by Reverend S. Cicklin; music by Marion S. Rickel, "There is No One Like Mother to Me". This was followed by a German song by Reverend J. S. Felger, "At the End of Our Journey".

Responsive speeches by Reverend J. S. Felger, Josiah Morr, A. M. Williams, Philip Andrew Myers, Enoch Morr and George Myers, was followed by a Recitation, "The Chime of Bells", by Miss Viola Rickel.

Miscellaneous business, election of officers, report of Time and Place Committee, followed by a motion that Henry Morr would secure a key to the camp grounds prior to the next reunion, was the order of business before adjournment.

Pleasant Home Camp Grounds. Thursday, June 14, 1894.

The Fourteenth Annual Reunion opened with music and a prayer by Reverend W. A. Shisler. The minutes were then read by the Secretary, followed by music and the Welcome Address by Alonza H. Williams.

Next on the program was instrumental music and an address by Reverend A. F. Beery of West Salem, on "Morr Characteristic". Miss Mayme Myers then entertained with one of her choice selections, "The Down Hill Road", followed by recitations by the little folks.

After dinner the exercises opened with music. In the absence of John C. Morr, Reverend W. A. Shisler took up his subject, "Past and Present". Miss Mayme Myers favored us with another selection. Responsive speeches by Reverend A. J. Gramley, Samuel Morr Jr. and Calvin F. Moyer of Freeburg, Pa.

The next order of business was the reelection of all officers for the ensuing year, followed by the Time and Place Committee report.

The fifteenth Annual Reunion was opened by singing the Doxology and prayer by Reverend A. F. Beery of West Salem, Ohio.

The minutes were read by the Secretary. The program continued with a Duet by Mr. and Mrs. Atwater of Cleveland, Ohio. The Welcome Address was delivered by Reverend W. A. Shisler in a very pleasant way in which he succeeded to make all feel that they were welcome.

The Quartette then entertained with a number. Enoch Morr of West Salem, Ohio, delivered an address; subject, "Why we Meet". Flossie Weaver gave a recitation before adjournment for dinner.

The President called the business meeting to order at 2:00 P.M. After a musical number, the officers for the ensuing year were elected.

The following committees were then appointed by the President. Committee on Publication of the Family History: Francis Enoch Myers, Chairman, George Milton Morr, Reverend Stephan A. Shisler, Samuel Morr Jr. of Moreland, Ohio, and Enoch Morr of West Salem, Ohio.

Soliciting Committee: Mrs. J. E. Spreng, Chairman, Mrs. George Steinmetz of Wooster, Ohio, Reverend S. A. Shisler, Mary E. Morr, George J. Morr of Jeromesville, Ohio, and George Morr of Morrland, Ohio.

It was moved by S. A. Shisler, that the next reunion be held at the camp grounds the 2nd Thursday of June, 1896. Samuel D. Morr and Jacob Morr then entertained. Their subject, "When We Were Boys". Mrs. J. E. Spreng gave the Necrologist report. Many deaths had occurred during the past year. We were then dismissed by the benediction.

The Sixteenth Annual Reunion opened at 11:00 A.M. by singing the Doxology, after which Reverend Schott of West Salem, Ohio, led in prayer.

The minutes of the previous meeting were read. Reverend W. A. Shisler gave the Welcome Address, the welcomeness of which made us all feel welcome. The speaker congratulated himself that we were permitted to be present at another reunion. Francis Enoch Myers responded in a very short, pointed talk.

It was moved that the Secretary, Arthur Allen Morr, and the Historian, Miss Mary E. Morr, serve as a Committee on Introductions.

The choir then sang the anthem, "Make a Joyful Noise", followed by a vocal solo by Miss Carrie Morr.

Then the report of the Book Committee was called for and the chairman, Francis Enoch Myers, gave a synopsis of the cost of publishing of the Morr Family History. It was moved by Francis Enoch Myers that the Secretary be placed in charge of selling the books. Adjournment for dinner.

At 2:00 P.M., the exercises opened with an organ voluntary by Professor Marion S. Rickel. At this time, John Philip Morr of West Salem, Ohio, was to give an address, but as he positively refused to comply, Reverend Felger was called upon and responded in a very interesting and instructive address. This was followed by a Male Quartette, the number being, "Drifting O'er the Sea of Time".

Reverend Heininger not being present, Reverend Schott responded to the topic, "Providential Relationship", in a very lively speech. Then the choir sang an anthem, "Oh, How Lovely".

Then the audience was highly entertained by two readings by Miss Mayme Myers. Music by the Male Quartette and four little boys sang, "The Jolly Boys", after which Mary Morr gave a recitation.

In the absence of the Necrologist, Reverend S. A. Shisler, Mary E. Morr read the report, which showed that six deaths occurred during the last year. After the Time and Place Committee reported, the same slate of officers were reelected for the ensuing year. Jacob Morr and George Myers were appointed as a committee to make arrangements for the reunion, to be held at the camp grounds in 1897.

Note—The following list of members purchasing the Morr Genealogy Books were taken from the last two pages in the Minute Book.

Pleasant Home Camp Grounds. Thursday, June 10, 1897.

The Seventeenth Annual Reunion was called to order by President Samuel Morr Jr., at 10:30 A.M. Miss Cary Morr rendered an Organ Voluntary, after which Reverend Schott of West Salem, invoked the divine blessing.

The Secretary read the minutes of the previous meeting, followed by several numbers by the Quartette. George Milton Morr gave a short, but thoughtful Address of Welcome. Miscellaneous business was then taken care of before adjournment for dinner.

The afternoon exercises were opened with vocal and instrumental music. Several short addresses were given by members. The Necrologist reported four deaths in the past year. After Quartette singing and a closing song, we adjourned to meet at the same place the second Thursday of June, 1898.

Note—The minutes of the 1896 reunion did not give the slate of officers elected for the year 1897, however it was taken from the invitations extended in 1897.

Note—On pages numbered 57 and 60 of the Secretary's Minute Book, Celia Snader wrote the minutes for the 18th reunion in error. On pages 58 and 59, Arthur Allen Morr wrote up identical minutes for the same reunion.

Pleasant Home Camp Grounds. Thursday, June 9, 1898.

The Morr's, Myers' and relatives met in reunion for the eighteenth time. An unusually large number had gathered by 10:00 A.M. The President asked the members to assemble in the auditorium at which time the meeting was opened by singing and prayer. The President in a choice of well fitting words expressed himself, that all members should make themselves better acquainted and to see that every person had a good time. This was followed by a song and adjournment for dinner.

The afternoon exercises opened with music furnished by Professor Marion S. Rickel, Mr. and Mrs. Atwater and others. A few short addresses were made by some of the most eloquent of the Morr's.

The business meeting was short, however, Philip Andrew Myers remarked that he would like to tramp down some other grass next year and moved that the next annual reunion be held on the old Jacob Morr farm near Trinity Church. The motion was carried.

The Necrologist being absent, the report was read by the Secretary. This showed that six of our friends had passed to the great beyond during the year.

Note—The newly elected officers for the year 1898 was omitted from the minutes of the Secretary's report in 1897. I assumed they were all reelected with the exception of Samuel Morr Jr. the past President.

The Nineteenth Annual Reunion was called to order by President Francis Enoch Myers at 11:00 A.M. Before adjournment for dinner, the following Nominating Committee was appointed. A. P. Morr, O. F. Morr and A. D. Morr.

The afternoon program included the reading of the minutes of the previous reunion and the Necrologist report by the Secretary, in the absence of Reverend S. A. Shisler. Four deaths were reported during the past year.

The children of John Morr of West Salem, Ohio, entertained with several selections of music, followed by an extemporaneous speech by Daniel Morr of Iowa.

The Nominating Committee reported and all officers were elected by acclamation with the exception of President Francis Enoch Myers, who declined the office. However, his brother, Philip Andrew Myers accepted the office.

At this time, miscellaneous business was taken care of which included the report of the Time and Place Committee. Several speeches were made before adjournment.

The Twentieth Reunion was held in the grove of Jacob Morr's farm. On account of a heavy rain, many members arrived late. However, at 11:00 o'clock, President Philip Andrew Myers called the meeting to order and after singing the Coronation and prayer led by Reverend Huddle, they adjourned for dinner.

The exercises at 2:00 P.M. were opened with an organ voluntary by Effie Fuhrman. The Secretary read the minutes of the reunion held in 1899 and gave the Necrologist report in the absence of Reverend S. A. Shisler. Four deaths were reported in the past year.

The program continued with a solo sung by Ed Fuhrman, after which eight of the best Morr orators gave short talks. Hazel Myers, Nellie Chase and Marie Spreng then sang a song entitled, "The Thieves in the Morr Family". President Philip Andrew Myers then requested the following members to give their opinions of the relationship. W. W. Moore, F. R. Marks, George Kellogg and Frank Herman.

Carey Morr rendered a solo entitled, "Git What You Kin". John Heininger then gave his experiences with the Morr's, which would be an inducement for any young man thinking of breaking into the relationship.

The Nominating and Time and Place Committees then gave their reports, prior to adjournment.

Note—The minutes for the Twenty-First Annual Reunion were not recorded in the Secretary's Book. The invitation extended for this reunion was printed as the 22nd Annual Reunion in error. It was dated June 13, 1901 and it designated P. A. Myers as President and Celia Snader as Secretary.

Jacob Morr Farm, near Trinity Church, six miles east of Ashland, Ohio. 9:30 A.M.

The invitation further stated "Friends from a distance will be present". "Relatives and friends, come and spend a day near the old, historic Morr Church grounds."

The minutes of the 20th Annual Reunion recorded the newly elected officers for the year 1901 as follows:

President—Philip Andrew Myers

The invitation extended in 1902 stated the following:

'A large tent with ample capacity for 500 people will be set up on the grounds as a protection against rain.

The Twenty-Second Annual Reunion was called to order by President Francis Enoch Myers, who presided in the absence of Philip Andrew Myers.

The morning exercises opened by singing "All Hail the Power of Jesus Name". Reverend William Andrew Shisler led in prayer. The President then appointed a Nominating Committee consisting of Samuel D. Morr, H. W. Morr, Michael Morr, John W. Morr and Frank Herman before adjourning for dinner.

The ladies were soon busily engaged in spreading the table with the good things they brought with them. After partaking of a bounteous meal and spending some time in social chatting, the President called us to order.

The exercises were opened with the singing of "America", after which the Secretary and Necrologist reports were read. Professor Marian S. Rickel sang a solo, followed by an address by Samuel Morr of Morrland, Ohio. They were then favored with a duet by Mr. and Mrs. Atwater. Mayme Myers then gave a reading.

Short addresses were given by Jacob Morr, Samuel D. Morr, George J. Morr of Auburn, Indiana, J. J. Winbigler, Reverend William Andrew Shisler and Reverend Felger. Edgar Fuhrman then rendered a solo. The Time and Place and Nominating Committees reported before adjournment.

The Morr's and relatives assembled in the grove on the Jacob Morr farm to hold their Twenty-Third Annual Reunion. At 11:00 A.M., the morning exercises opened with singing "All Hail The Power of Jesus Name". Reverend Frank Martin of Sedalia, Missouri, then led in prayer.

The President appointed committees on officers, finance, and time and place for the annual reunion in 1904, before adjourning for dinner.

Just before dinner, it seemed the busiest time of the day, as they had to move around or freeze, so reported the Secretary.

At 2:00 P.M., the program opened with the singing of "America", followed by reports of the Secretary, Necrologist and Treasurer. Mrs. Atwater then entertained with a solo followed by miscellaneous speeches. Quite a number of the younger Morr's responded.

The Time and Place Committee reported that the next annual reunion would be held at the camp grounds, at Pleasant Home, Ohio.

Officers were elected for the ensuing year. A vote of thanks was given to Jacob Morr for the use of the grove for the past four years, before adjourning.

Camp Grounds at Pleasant Home, Ohio. Four miles south of West Salem, Ohio. Thursday, June 9, 1904.

The Morr's relations and friends assembled on the camp grounds to celebrate the 24th anniversary of the Morr Family Reunion. The day being fair, quite a number had gathered.

At 11:00 A.M. the George Myers' family favored the members with a song, after which, Reverend William Shisler of Marion, Ohio, led in prayer. The Secretary's report was given, followed by an able address by Reverend S. A. Shisler of Findley, Ohio. A solo was sung by Helen Myers, after which the president appointed committees on time and place, finance and nominations, prior to adjournment for dinner.

At 1:30 P.M., we were called together and favored with a violin solo by Professor Cromwell and a reading by Mayme Myers. The Necrologist report listed five deaths in the past year. A very pleasing exercise by the children of the John Morr family of West Salem, Ohio, was a feature of the afternoon session.

William Shisler and Henry Morr then gave short talks followed by another solo by Professor Cromwell. The entertainment continued with a selection by the Ashland Chorus, a duet by Nellie Chase and Hazel Myers, and an address by William G. Heltman. Mrs. Edgar Fuhrman read a paper followed by miscellaneous speeches by several members.

The Time and Place Committee reported. Jacob Heitz, the Musical Director, then favored the members with a piano solo. Adjournment was the order of business after the election of officers.

The following is a report of the 24th Annual Morr Reunion, as published by a representative of the local newspaper, The West Salem Reporter. This news account is recorded that the relationship might be better enlightened of this event in contrast with the report, taken from the minutes of the meeting.

(A note of explanation—Between the years 1881 and 1897, the Secretary of one of the annual reunions inadvertently reported the number of one of the reunions in error, as the reunion held at the camp grounds on Thursday, June 9, 1904, was reported in the West Salem Reporter, as the 25th reunion in error. Actually, it was the 24th reunion, as the first reunion was held in 1881 and not in 1880.)

THE MORR REUNION.

West Salem Reporter
June 9, 1904

A Large Gathering at the Twenty-Fifth Annual Reunion—An Enjoyable Time.

The 25th reunion of the Morr family was held on the Pleasant Home camp grounds last Thursday, the weather being fine and all present had a day of great enjoyment.

There is a relationship of about four hundred in this family and perhaps one half or more were present on this festive occasion. All assembled in the forenoon, coming in buggies, carriages and automobiles. However, Messrs. F. E. and P. A. Myers and families of Ashland, were the only ones present in the latter conveyances. They are fine machines and were a great attraction during the day.

About 11 a.m., P. A. Myers, president of the reunion, called the meeting to order in the large auditorium, making a few pleasing introductory remarks, at the conclusion of which a chorus of the Myers family of Ashland was nicely rendered.

Prayer was offered by Rev. Wm. Shisler of Marion, after which a brief but pleasing address of welcome by Rev. Stephen Shisler of Findlay, was given in which he spoke of the many ties that bind each other together and the pleasure derived therefrom.

The report of the last reunion was next read by the secretary, Mrs. Geo. Kellogg of Ashland.

Miss Helen Myers then gave a pleasing solo which was followed by a quartet by Messrs. J. and John Myers, Edgar Fuhrman and Miss Myers.

Report of the treasurer, Henry Morr, was next given. Next was the appointment of the following committees: Finance, G. D. Myers, Ashland; Oliver Shisler, West Salem; A. D. Morr, Trinity; Frank Herman, Wooster; Committee on Time and Place, Henry Morr, F. E. Myers, A. P. Morr, Wm. Rittenhouse and Samuel Morr; Nominating committee, G. M. Morr, Oliver Morr, A. M. Myers, Henry Morr and W. A. Shisler.

The meeting then adjourned for dinner. Numerous tables were spread outside and near the cottages and auditorium and a feast comprising nearly all the delicasies of the season was heartily partaken of. The representative of this paper, present on this occasion, extends many thanks to Messrs. F. E. and P. A. Myers for kind hospitality shown him.

AFTERNOON EXERCISES.

First on the program after dinner was a violin solo by Prof. Geo. Crowell, the celebrated violinist of Ashland. He was encored each time he appeared.

Miss Mayme Myers of Ashland then gave a reading entitled "The Boys," in her usual characteristic pleasing style. She too was encored and responded with another selection.

In the necrologist's report by Mrs. J. E. Spreng, note of five deaths occurring in the family during the past year, was given.

This was followed by a solo by Edgar Fuhrman of Ashland, entitled "I Love but Him." The John Morr children interested all present with the character song of "Ragged Jack." They were encored and responded with another selection.

Rev. Wm. Shisler, whose pastorate in the Evangelical church is in the vicinity of Marion, was next called to give an address, in which he reviewed the most pleasant experiences of former reunions and the part he had in the family organization twenty-five years ago. His address was highly interesting and contained much good thought. It will be remembered that Rev. Shisler was pastor here in 1879-81. He was appointed the first temporary chairman of the Morr family organization.

H. W. Morr, known among his people as "Uncle Henry" next responded to a call for remarks. He has been the honored treasurer of the family organization for many years, and is now serving in that capacity.

At the conclusion of another violin selection by Prof. Crowell, a special chorus entitled "The Morr Family which came from old Germany," was given by the Myers family, eliciting much applause and laughter.

After a piano duet by Misses Nellie Chase and Hazel Myers of Ashland, W. H. Helpin, an honored citizen and ex-mayor of Ashland, gave many historical facts of the Morr family, having been born in Center county, Pa., where this family of Morrs came from when they settled in Ohio. He is no relative of the family but has attended these reunions upon invitation.

Mrs. Effie Fuhrman of Ashland, next gave the family poem, written especially for the occasion. It was pleasing and of good composition.

Brief remarks were then made by Charley Beer of Ashland, 'Squire Winbigler of Jeromeville and A. H. Williams of Ashland.

"Uncle" Jacob Morr of Trinity, Ashland county, now 87 years old, the oldest member of the family, in the few remarks he made, said he had attended every reunion of the family, and "am pleased to be here today." He is hale and hearty and enjoys to converse with his friends.

Jacob Hites, leader of the Ashland cornet band, then gave a fine piano solo.

F. E. Myers, in behalf of those present at the reunion, sent greeting to "Uncle Philip and Aunt Sarah," who were unable on account of the former's illness to be present and who sent their regrets.

Short talks were then given by 'Squire Morr of Moreland, John Myers of Ashland, Rev. C. L. Schuster of near Ashland, G. D. Myers and G. M. Myers of Ashland, also Rev. Stephen Shisler of Findlay, Mrs. Rittenhouse and Rev. Keifer.

The report of the committee on time and place reported that the 26th annual reunion will be held on the Pleasant Home camp grounds on the second Thursday in June, 1905.

The committee on nominations then reported the following officers chosen for the coming year:

President—P. A. Myers of Ashland.
Vice President—Samuel Morr, Moreland.
Secretary—Mrs. Geo. Kellogg, Ashland.
Treasurer—Wm. Rittenhouse, Ashland.
Historian—Mrs. Herman, Wooster.
Necrologist—Mrs. J. E. Spreng, Ashland.
Musical Director—Edgar Fuhrman, Ashland.

A vote of thanks was then given Prof. Crowell for music rendered and the camp meeting association for the use of the grounds.

With the singing of the doxology and the benediction by Rev. Shisler, the program of the day was completed.

During the noon hour a number of group pictures, besides that of the entire relationship present, were taken by an Ashland photographer.

24th Annual Reunion, June 9, 1904.

Camp Grounds, Pleasant Home, Ohio. Thursday, June 8, 1905.

The morning exercises of the Twenty-Fifth Annual Reunion of the Morr and Myers relationship was opened at 11:00 A.M. in the auditorium by singing "All Hail the Power of Jesus Name", and prayer by Reverend Prickett. The Welcome Address was delivered by George Milton Morr. Adjournment for dinner.

At 2:30 P.M., they gathered in the auditorium and listened to a solo by Mrs. Atwater. The Secretary gave her report, this was followed by the Morr Quartette singing a selection. Some short speeches were then made by the most eloquent Morrs. Hazel Myers then sang a solo, followed with a recitation by Major Case. Mr. and Mrs. Atwater favored the members with a vocal duet.

We learned by the Necrologist report that five of our number had answered the summons to a higher reunion during the past year. The Treasurer reported contributions of $20.13. After a report of the several committees, new officers were elected for the ensuing year. No other business, we were adjourned and left with a feeling that it was a day profitably spent in renewing old acquaintances and meeting new ones, and trusting all might be spared to have the same privilege one year hence.

The morning session of the Twenty-Sixth Annual Reunion, was called to order at 11:00 A.M. After singing "All Hail the Power of Jesus Name", Reverend S. A. Shisler led in prayer. John Clement Myers delivered the Address of Welcome. Appointment of the committees and adjournment for dinner was the order of business.

At 2:30 P.M., they were called to order and Helen Myers and Edgar Fuhrman entertained with a vocal duet. After the Secretary and Treasurer gave their reports, Marie Spreng rendered a piano solo. The Necrologist reported four deaths during the past year. At this time, several Morrs and Myers gave short speeches. Election of officers and report of the Time and Place Committee took place before adjournment.

Camp Grounds, Pleasant Home, Ohio. Thursday, June 13, 1907.

As it was quite rainy in the morning, the Twenty-Seventh Annual Morr and Myers Reunion was called to order by President George Denton Myers at 11:30 A.M. After the appointment of several committees were made, they adjourned for dinner.

At 3:00 P.M., the Address of Welcome was delivered by Philip Andrew Myers, after which the Secretary and Treasurer gave their reports. They were entertained with a vocal solo by Hazel Myers. Responsive speeches were made by Guy Myers, Mr. Atwater, Mrs. Nodding and Francis Enoch Myers.

Committee reports and election of officers took place before adjournment.

President—George Denton Myers
Vice President—A. M. Williams

Secretary—H. M. Morr
Treasurer—W. F. Morr
Historian—Miss Mayme Myers
Necrologist—George Milton Morr
Chorister—Edgar H. Fuhrman

Camp Grounds, Pleasant Home, Ohio. Thursday, June 11, 1908.

At 11:00 A.M., the Morr and Myers families assembled for their Twenty-Eighth Annual Reunion. The opening exercises consisted of singing "Praise God from Whom All Blessings Flow", and prayer by Reverend S. A. Shisler. The Address of Welcome was then given by Guy C. Myers. The Secretary read the minutes of the previous meeting. At this time, they were favored with a vocal solo by Miss Treva Morr of West Salem, Ohio, which was well received.

The afternoon session consisted of a solo by Albert Morr, followed with two selections by the John Morr family of West Salem, Ohio. The Necrologist reported eight deaths in the past two years.

Miscellaneous business, committee reports and election of officers took place at this time.

Responsive speeches were next in order. Members participating were Francis Enoch Myers, Samuel Morr and Theodore Newton Morr of Sterling, Ohio.

Note—Your Genealogist's father, Theodore Newton Morr, actively took part in the Twenty-Eighth Annual Reunion by giving a responsive speech, which is the only occasion that he participated, in the 63 of the 64 annual reunions he had the privilege to attend. My father was a timid soul, insofar as giving speeches were concerned.

He was known as a conversationalist and one that actively took part in each reunion by introducing relatives and seeing that everyone became acquainted with each other. The only reunion he failed to attend was in 1944, during World War II, when the officers decided to postpone the family gathering until 1946. However, they held a business meeting on June 15, 1944, that the chain of reunions of the Morr and Myers families would not be broken.

Reverend S. A. Shisler led in prayer, prior to adjournment.
President—John Clement Myers
Vice President—J. E. Spreng
Secretary—H. M. Morr
Treasurer—G. W. Morr
Historian—Miss Mayme Myers
Necrologist—George Milton Morr
Chorister—Edgar H. Fuhrman

Chippewa Lake Park, Chippewa Lake, Ohio. Thursday, June 17, 1909.

Due to rain, the Twenty-Ninth Annual Morr and Myers Reunion was called to order at dinner time in the park pavilion.

President Albert Hoegner being absent, Andrew Philip Myers called the meeting to order. At this time, several selections were played by the Ashland Military Band. Reverend E. Wengert gave the invocation. Philip Andrew Myers delivered the Address of Welcome. After the Secretary's report, several committees were appointed by the President. The Necrologist reported four deaths during the past year.

Short, but interesting speeches were made by Francis Enoch Myers, Philip Andrew Myers, and Mrs. Draggo of Walkersville, Michigan. A vote of thanks was extended to the Ashland Military Band for the excellent music furnished during the day.

Miscellaneous business, reports by several committee chairmen, and election of officers for the year 1910, was the order of business prior to being dismissed by Reverend E. Wengert.

Note—George Myers, the father of Francis Enoch and Philip Andrew Myers, was named the first Honorary President of the Morr and Myers Reunion. There were seven other children of this union. George Myers married Elizabeth Morr, a sister of John Philip Morr of West Salem, Ohio, the grandfather of your genealogist. George Myers was born November 12th, 1822, and departed from this life November 1st, 1910.

Honorary President—George Myers
President—Albert Hoegner
Vice President—Samuel Morr
Secretary—Elias E. Morr
Treasurer—Oliver Shisler
Historian—Mrs. Fred L. Parker
Necrologist—Ida M. Morr
Chorister—Ezra Spreng

Chippewa Lake Park, Chippewa Lake, Ohio. Thursday, June 16, 1910.

The Morr and Myers Thirtieth Annual Reunion set a precedent by omitting the morning exercises for the second consecutive time. It being a delightful day, the forenoon was spent in a social way, renewing old acquaintances and forming new ones.

At 1:30 P.M., President Enoch Morr opened the meeting by all singing "Praise God From Whom All Blessings Flow", followed with prayer by Reverend Alpha Rickel. George Denton Myers then delivered the Address of Welcome. After the Secretary gave the report, the President appointed several committees. Mrs. H. B. Atwater, Historian, read her report, and Samuel Morr gave the Treasurers report. Matie Morr, the Necrologist being absent, there was no report of the deceased members during the past year.

At this time, short speeches were made by Dr. Joseph E. Showalter of Waterloo, Indiana, Clarence Morr of Morrland, Ohio, A. H. Williams and Reverend W. A. Shisler. Mrs. E. H. Fuhrman gave a very unique description of Mrs. George Myers old homestead in Centre County, Pa. Francis Enoch Myers was then called upon to give a description of his recent travels through Egypt, which was very interesting and appreciated by all present.

Committee reports and election of officers for the ensuing year then took place. Reverend W. A. Shisler led in prayer before adjournment.

President—Enoch Morr
Vice President—John Clement Myers
Secretary—Elias E. Morr
Treasurer—Samuel A. Morr
Historian—Mrs. H. B. Atwater
Necrologist—Matie Morr
Chorister—Edgar H. Fuhrman

Chippewa Lake Park, Chippewa Lake, Ohio. Thursday, June 15, 1911.

The day was fair and approximately 250 members assembled for dinner at the Thirty-First Annual Morr and Myers Reunion.

President George Denton Myers called the relatives together at 1:30 P.M. The opening song was, "Blest Be the Tie that Binds". Reverend Alpha Rickel of Tiffin, Ohio, delivered the Address of Welcome.

The John Morr family of West Salem, Ohio, favored the relationship with several selections, which were well rendered and appreciated by all. The minutes were read by the Secretary. Solos by Mrs. Helen Miller and Miss Nellie Chase was followed by the appointment of committees. The Necrologist report was read for the years 1909 and 1910; same was accepted with a rising vote of thanks.

At this time, several Morr and Myers gave short and interesting talks. The Secretary reported that 47 members were present that attended the First Annual Reunion held in the Samuel D. Morr grove near Trinity Church on Saturday, August 6, 1881.

Reports of committees and the election of officers were the order of business, followed by the singing of "America". They were dismissed by Reverend Wengert.

Honorary President—Enoch Morr
President—George Denton Myers
Vice President—George Milton Morr
Secretary—Elias E. Morr
Treasurer—S. A. Morr

Chippewa Lake Park, Chippewa Lake, Ohio. Thursday, June 20, 1912.

The day was ideal for the Thirty-Second Annual Morr and Myers Reunion. Many members arrived early and spent their time greeting friends. President George Milton Morr appointed several committees before the dinner hour.

At 2:00 P.M., the President called the meeting to order and after a song, the Lords Prayer was repeated in concert.

In the absence of Reverend Stephan A. Shisler, the President called on Samuel Morr of Morrland, to give the Address of Welcome and in a few well chosen words made each one present feel that it was good to be a member or friend of such a large family.

Elias E. Morr read the Secretary's report and also the Treasurer's report in the absence of William Rittenhouse, which showed that all bills were paid, with a balance of 95 cents in the treasury. Later, the Treasurer reported a collection of $13.80.

Mrs. H. R. Atwater being absent, the Historian report was omitted. Mrs. J. E. Spreng, the Necrologist, reported six deaths during the past year.

At this time, Dr. John Walter Morr of Albion, Indiana, was called on by the President to address the reunion. This was his first visit to the reunion and the members were all pleased with his opinion of the family and friends. Other responsive speeches were delivered by Samuel F. Morr of Waterloo, Indiana, and Mrs. Gast of Prospect, Ohio. Honorary President Henry (Hy) W. Morr, then told us some interesting history of the origin of the Morr reunion.

Miscellaneous business, reports of committees and election of officers for the ensuing year, took place at this time. Thus, closed the largest and most pleasant reunion ever held by the Morr and Myers families.

Honorary President—Henry W. Morr
President—George Milton Morr
Secretary—Elias E. Morr
Treasurer—William Rittenhouse
Historian—Mrs. H. R. Atwater
Necrologist—Mrs. J. E. Spreng
Chorister—Reverend Alpha Rickel

Chippewa Lake Park, Chippewa Lake, Ohio. Thursday, June 19, 1913.

The members present at the Thirty-Third Annual Reunion of the Morr and Myers families gathered early with well filled picnic baskets and smiling faces. Shortly before dinner, President George Milton Morr appointed several committees.

At 2:00 P.M., they were requested to assemble for the program and business meeting. Elias E. Morr read the Secretary's report in the absence of George Kellogg. He also reported a balance of $4.75 in the treasury. Later the Finance Committee reported $11.54 in contributions.

It was moved and seconded that the Historian and Necrologists reports be united and read by one person at future reunions. Motion carried.

Mrs. J. E. Spreng being absent, Mrs. George Milton Morr read the Necrologist report and the members were informed that three deaths had occurred during the past year. Mrs. H. R. Atwater gave the Historical report.

At this time, speeches were delivered by Dr. and Mrs. Ruhl of Columbus Grove, Ohio, Ira Morr of Toledo, Ohio, Reverend Stephan A. Shisler and Mr. Nottage of Youngstown, Ohio. Philip Andrew Myers gave an interesting talk on his recent trip abroad.

After the report of the different committees and the election of officers, they were dismissed by Reverend S. A. Shisler.

Honorary President—Samuel D. Morr
President—George Milton Morr
Vice President—Alvah N. Myers
Secretary—George O. Kellogg
Treasurer—Elias E. Morr

Necrologist—Mrs. J. E. Spreng

Chippewa Lake Park, Chippewa Lake, Ohio. Thursday, June 18, 1914.

President John Clement Myers greeted the members on their arrival of the Thirty-Fourth Annual Morr and Myers Reunion and proceeded to appoint the several committees.

At 2:00 P.M., the president opened the meeting with the Address of Welcome by Philip Andrew Myers. Fern Morr gave the Secretary's report and Elias E. Morr gave the Financial report. The Historical and Necrologist reports were read by Mrs. E. H. Fuhrman. There were eight deaths during the past year.

Speeches were delivered by Reverend Keller of Ashland, Reverend Heininger of Cleveland, Reverend Alpha Rickel of Warren, Pa., Mrs. H. A. Atwater and son of Cleveland, Samuel D. Morr of Morrland and Francis Enoch Myers of Ashland, Ohio.

At this time, several musical numbers was an interesting part of the program, followed by reports of the committees. Officers were elected for the ensuing year. The Finance Committee reported a collection of $22.45. Reverend Alpha Rickel delivered the prayer of adjournment.

Honorary President—Henry D. Morr
President—John Clement Myers
Vice President—Samuel C. Morr

Norris Grove, Nankin Station, Ohio. Thursday, June 17, 1915.

The Thirty-Fifth Annual Reunion of the Morr and Myers families was held at Norris Grove, Nankin Station, Ohio. Committees were appointed prior to the dinner hour.

President John Clement Myers opened the business meeting with the invocation by Reverend Felger. Francis Enoch Myers delivered the Address of Welcome. Fern Morr gave the Secretary's report as Elias E. Morr gave the Treasury report. This was followed by the Historian and Necrologist report by Mrs. E. H. Fuhrman.

At this time they were favored with several musical numbers by different members of the reunion. Responsive speeches were delivered by William Shisler, Samuel Gast, Reverend Felger, Reverend Alpha Rickel, George Denton Myers, Samuel Morr, John Clement Myers, Mrs. Nottage, Oliver Shisler, Marion Rickel, Alonza A. Williams and Samuel M. Morr.

The Finance Committee reported contributions in the amount of $15.00. After the Nominating and Time and Place Committee reports were given, the election of officers for 1916 took place. This was followed by prayer, by Reverend William Shisler prior to adjournment.

Chippewa Lake Park, Chippewa Lake, Ohio. Thursday, June 15, 1916.

On the morning of the Thirty-Sixth Annual Reunion of the Morr and Myers families, several committees were appointed by President Elias E. Morr. After a bounteous dinner, the friends and relations assembled for the usual meeting.

The meeting was opened by all singing the "Gloria Song", and the invocation was given by Reverend John Wesley Heininger. In the absence of Reverend W. D. Keller, Reverend John Wesley delivered the Address of Welcome. This was followed by the Secretary and Treasurer reports. The chairman of the Finance Committee reported a collection of $13.30. The Historian and Necrologist report showed that five deaths had occurred during the past year.

The program was interspersed with several musical selections and readings, which proved to be very entertaining. The meeting was then adjourned.

Chippewa Lake Park, Chippewa Lake, Ohio. Thursday, June 21, 1917.

The day was ideal for the 37th Annual Morr and Myers Reunion with the exception of a little shower, which has come to be expected, as an annual occurrence. The attendance was good and a hearty handshake with a good will feeling among all was most prominent.

When the tables were set for dinner, war times were not in evidence and we all enjoyed the blessings given to each one the past year. After dinner President Elias E. Morr called the family together and the "Gloria Song" was heartily sung.

Reverend John Wesley Heininger from Cleveland, followed with the invocation. The Address of Welcome was delivered by Reverend William Shisler of West Salem, Ohio. His talk being an eulogy to Christian Motherhood.

The Secretary's report was approved as read. R. J. Burns Treasury report showed a balance of $4.77, after all bills were paid. This was followed by a recitation by Frank Miller, Marjorie Myers then favored them with a song.

Mrs. E. H. Fuhrman, Historian and Necrologist, then gave a splendid account of the Morr – Myers families for 1916 and 1917. Seven deaths and one marriage were recorded. Mrs. Fuhrman told us of an unique way the Jacob Myers family keep in touch with each other, which is by the means of a "Round Robin Letter," fortunate for us, as well as Mrs. Fuhrman, she has been included in that circle and our families are thus more closely allied. A rising vote of thanks was given Mrs. Fuhrman, in acceptance of her report.

The members were then favored with recitations by Billy Miller and Miriam Myers. A letter and toast was then read by the Secretary from Mr. Edward C. Gast of Fremont, Ohio. Philip Andrew Myers moved that the Secretary acknowledge the remarks sent us. Motion carried.

Two vocal solos were then given by Mrs. Helen Miller. At this time numerous speeches were made. They were pleased to hear from Mr. A. Sherck of Auburn, Indiana, and Samuel Morr of Morrland, Ohio.

Guy C. Myers, chairman of the Time and Place Committee reported that the 38th Annual Morr and Myers Reunion would be held at Morrland, Ohio, the Third Thursday in June, 1918, to commemorate the One Hundredth Anniversary of the settling of the George and Philip Morr families at Morrland, Ohio, in 1818. For sentiment's sake it was decided by all to return to the first settling place of our ancestors.

The following Committee was appointed to take charge of the entertainment for next years reunion.

Chairman, John Clement Myers, Will Morr of Morrland, Ohio, Guy C. Myers, Harold Heininger of Cleveland, Ohio, and Samuel S. Morr of Morrland, Ohio.

John Clement Myers made motion of thanks be given to all officers and those helping in program for the day. Motion carried.

"America" was then sung and we were dismissed with prayer by Reverend John Wesley Heininger.

Honorary President—George Milton Morr
President—Elias E. Morr
Vice President—Samuel S. Morr
Secretary—Hazel Myers
Treasurer—R. G. Burns
Historian and Necrologist—Mrs. E. H. Fuhrman

1918

The following is a report of the 38th Annual Reunion of the Morr & Myers families in commemoration of the settling of the Morr families at Morrland, Ohio, as submitted by Hazel C. Myers, Secretary.

Moreland, Ohio
June 20, 1918

On the 20th of June, 1918, the 38th annual reunion of the Morr-Myers families was held at Moreland, Ohio.

Not a cloud was in the sky and the day was ideal for the celebration. Over 300 were present and many came from a considerable distance to once more mingle with relatives and friends.

The reunion of 1918 had a deep significance and special importance as it marked the 100th anniversary of the Morr family settling in Wayne Co. In fact, the reunion was held in the corner of the woods opposite the residence of Squire Samuel Morr at the edge of the village of Moreland and it was on this farm that the grandfather and great-uncle of Squire Samuel Morr first settled when they came to the Buckeye State in 1818.

So this spot is a memorable one in the history of our ancestors. Committees were appointed and at noon an excellent dinner was one of the important features.

At 2 o'clock all assembled around the platform and the President, A. N. Myers, made a few very brief remarks, after which all heartily sang "America".

Rev. Alpha Rickel gave the invocation which preceded the Address of Welcome by S. S. Morr of Moreland.

Mr. Morr's remarks were brief, but welcomed us to "the old farm" and in connection stated that he wanted every Morr and Myers to live true to their name by heartily supporting the Red Cross, Y.M.C.A. and all present war issues.

Recitation—"A Little Girls Queries"—Helen Sherck of Moreland.

The Secretary's report was read and approved.

In the absence of the Treasurer, Mr. R. J. Burns of Cleveland, the report was given by Mr. P. E. Countryman showing a balance of $5.52 in Treasury.

Piano Solo—"The March of 100 years"—by Miss Helen Kimver of Moreland.

Reading—Mrs. Frank Herman of Sebring, Ohio.

Mrs. E. H. Fuhrman, Historian and Necrologist, read a complete report which included original poetry, referring especially to the original Settlement of the Morrs at Moreland, 100 years ago.

As Historian, she recorded 7 deaths and 14 or more boys gone from our families to serve in the great war. Her report was heartily appreciated and a vote of thanks was given her for her excellent remarks.

Duet—"Joan of Arc"—Elizabeth and Marjorie Myers.

Recitation—"Just a Little Morr"—Marguerite Morr of Moreland. This poem was written by Marguerite's mother—Mrs. W. T. Morr and was very heartily received by all present.

"The Morr the merrier," applies literally to the Morr-Myers reunion held at Morrland Thursday.

Despite the distance from the Ashland county Morr settlements, there was a large attendance, the total reaching nearly 300. The reunion was held in the corner of the woods opposite the residence of Squire Samuel Morr, one-fourth mile north of Morrland, and on the farm in which the first Morr coming to Ohio settled just 100 years ago. The Morr family is one very widely known and greatly honored for the high character of its members. This fact and that the reunion was held on the centennial anniversary of the settlement of the family in Ohio, and on the farm where the settlement was made, gave this reunion a deep significance and special importance. It was on an elevated spot with a beautiful outlook, such as Wayne county is famous for, and the people in attendance were so well taken with the place that it was voted to come back next year, after the committee on place first reported for either Chippewa Lake or the Experiment Station. Realizing that the persons present were divided on these two places, the matter was put back into the committee's hands, and the second report was for Morrland, at the same spot. The time will be the third Thursday in June, 1919.

The first thing on the program was dinner, and it was another example of Morr and Morr, so much more to eat, in fact, that it was declared that if Herbert Hoover, National Food Administrator, were to put in an appearance he would have been blindfolded and made to eat with the rest of the Morrs and Myers'. Three large tables, each seating about 80, ate at the "first table," and some others ate later. The picnic dinner was only the usual annual example of the wonderful culinary ability of the thrifty people making up the two families, all descendants of the Morrs.

A short time after dinner a lengthy and enjoyable program was given. There was considerable music and singing of patriotic selections, including "America" and "The Star Spangled Banner" Mrs. Helen Myers Miller of Ashland being chorister.

Welcome Address

A. N. Myers of Ashland, the President, presided. A hearty welcoming address was given by S. S. Morr, of Morrland, who said he was thankful that he was privileged to be present and that God had dealt as kindly as he had with so many that they could be present. He drew on his imagination in picturing how Philip and George Morr, brothers, had come to that spot 100 years before, not in automobiles or flying machines, but perhaps walking, not knowing where they were going, each settling on 160 acres of land, George in 1818 and the other the following year after having bought the land at the same time. "These boys had the nerve to come out in the wilderness and start for themselves here in this new country. I am proud that I belong to that family of Morrs." In closing, Mr. Morr referred to the patriotic duty of all, and said that if there was anyone present who has not done their duty toward the Red Cross or the Y.M.C.A., he hoped they are not members of the Morr family. The Secretary, Miss Hazel Myers, then made an extended report, reading greetings from Rev. F. S. Martin of Marshalltown, Iowa. The Treasurer's report was read and P. E. Countryman, chairman of the Finance Committee, reported that the collection was enough to "go over the top."

After Martha Kimber gave a piano solo, "March of One Hundred Years," Mrs. Frank Herman of Sebring gave an amusing reading.

Mrs. E. H. Fuhrman of Ashland, Historian and Necrologist, read a complete report, which included original verses very apt and appropriate, referring especially to the original settlement of the Morrs at Morrland, declaring all were there in honor of those who came that way and blazed the trail. As Historian, she reported seven deaths, eight births and 14 boys in the service, remarking that there were probably many more soldier members not reported. "In looking over the records, I find that the families have been very patriotic, many serving in the Mexican and Civil War, and I think in the war of 1812," she said. The following deaths were reported: Maria Kiefer Morr, Leipsic; Mary Frankhouser Morr, Ashland; Post Leroy Morr, Ashland; Salome Isabel Myers, Republic, Kan.; Catherine Hay Grimes Fox, Vermontville, Mich., who was born in Wooster, June 4, 1845.

There are printed histories of both the Morr and the Myers families, and Mrs. Fuhrman is carrying these histories along by keeping complete records for each meeting, all of which requires much labor.

Little Marguerite Morr, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Morr of Morrland, then spoke the following:

"Just a Little Morr"

One day to good old Wayne county,
A band of travelers came.
Who were they? You ask me:
Philip and George Morr by name.

They happened to be fond of dirt,
So farmers they must be;
They worked, cleared and tilled the soil,
And the farms around you see.

A welcome they got such as you get today,
A latch string hung on the door.
And into these homes, oft a blessing came,
In the form of a little M-o-r-r-, Morr.

"Thrift," a motto of today,
They used ofttimes of yore,
Never satisfied to drift,
But work a little more.

A school, a church, a city,
All bear this noble name;
If we climb on, we will reach
The top of the ladder of fame.

"Doing their bit," they make a hit;
In the service for Uncle Sam,
Helping to fight toward the right
And raising all they can.

More and more might be told
Of the Morrs of Moreland, young and old.
When I grow wise, a speech I'll make
And tell of the ones both good and great.

Until that time suffice to say
This is enough for me today;
Morr and Myers families, greetings galore,
From one who is just a little Morr.

The Morr Family

A sketch, "Settling of the Morr Family in Ohio," by Squire Samuel Morr, something which had been anticipated with interest, came next.

After expressing a welcome to all, Squire Morr gave sketches of John George Morr, father of the founders of the Morr family in this state, and of his descendants. John George Morr, born August 3, 1761, and the elder of the two sons of Andrew Morr, died October 18, 1817, near Freeburg, Pa., aged 56 years. He married Catherine Dieffenbach, and they reared 12 children; ten sons and two daughters. George, the eldest, the first settler in this state, at Morrland, married Catherine Roush. George Morr and his brother, John Philip, came to Ohio in the spring of 1818. and each purchased a quarter-section of land, the former buying the land where the reunion was held, and paying $4.25 per acre. He was Squire Morr's grandfather.

"The ground we now occupy was a part of the original homestead," said the Squire. "After returning home, my grandfather, George Morr, moved his family to Franklin township, his family at that time consisting of his wife and three children. Wooster at that time had only a few houses and the country was thinly settled. No improvements had been made on the land, and he immediately commenced to cut trees, and making arrangements to put up a cabin 16 x 21 feet; in the meantime the family lived in the small cabin on his brother Philip's farm until he erected his own."

"He now commenced to clear some land and put in crops for the coming winter. There was hard work facing him in every direction, felling prior to this, told him it was nothing unusual."

Squire Morr then gave sketches of the seven children of his grandfather, his own father being John Morr, who, he said, he had often heard tell of seeing deer run over the plains when he was a small boy, with the hounds after them. He told also of hazardous trip to the California gold fields, his uncle, Enoch Morr, and cousin, Michael and 19 other young men made overland, narrating how they drank water out of streams containing dead horses, straining the water through their teeth, and passing wagons and dead oxen abandoned by feverish gold hunters. Squire Morr also gave sketches of the children of his grandfather's brother, John Philip, who settled on the next 160 acres west.

Some Early History

Mr. Morr gave other interesting facts. Franklin township was organized for civil purposes, June 7, 1820, two years after his grandfather came there, he said. "James Morgan entered the first land and settled in the township in the spring of 1808. Samuel Mitchell was the first Justice of the Peace. The first and only grist mill built in the township was on the farm now owned by William A. Bucher. John Hughes moved to Franklin township in 1817. Henry Munson came to Franklin township in 1816. The Indians burned Thomas Butler's cabin when Mr. Butler was absent. He came to Franklin township in 1808. He was single and boarded with James Morgan, and on April 12, 1809, he married Rebecca, daughter of James Morgan, the first marriage in the county."

Mr. Morr stated that the occasion was also a reunion of the old Morrland school, many of the former scholars being present at this reunion. "We are having a regular feast," he said. Speaking of the six other brothers of Philip and George Morr who came to Ohio, he said they came from Pennsylvania in 1828, and after visiting George and Philip for a time, started for Ashland, as he recalls it, and settled there.

The remainder of the program was devoted to short addresses, entertainment and business. Jacob Weiker, Shreve; F. E. Myers, wealthy manufacturer of Ashland; Rev. G. H. Craft of Morrland; Rev. Alpha Rickel of Ashland; J. A. Ewing of McComb; Abraham and Emanuel Sherck of Auburn, Ind.; Walter Sherck of Morrland, making remarks. Mr. Myers spoke especially of the impressiveness of the coming of the original Morrs to this vicinity 100 years ago, to a "spot that meant our ancestry, our heritage, our joy; that meant these pioneers must triumph or die, must select a site would be a credit and also be remunerative. It meant that by the time they cleared off 100 acres they were ready to be put under the ground," said Mr. Myers. Abraham Sherck called attention to the Morr reunion at Auburn, Ind., the last Saturday in August.

Officers Elected

Officers were elected as follows: Honorary president, Squire Samuel Morr, Morrland; president, A. N. Myers; vice president, William T. Morr, Morrland; secretary, Miss Hazel Myers, Ashland; treasurer, R. J. Burns, Cleveland; historian and necrologist, Mrs. E. H. Fuhrman, Ashland; chorister, Mrs. J. S. Morr, West Salem. The president, secretary, treasurer, and historian and necrologist were re-elected.

Greetings were read from Prof. Marion Rickel, Shelby, and resolutions offered by John C. Myers were adopted.

Among other things, they expressed thanks to God that it is possible for so many to be able to be together, acknowledged the sacrifice of the members in the service, and promised them the moral support of the members of the families.

The remainder of the program included a recitation by Frances Fuhrman, songs by Mrs. Helen Myers Miller; an amusing negro dialect reading, "Joinin' the Food Conversation Society," by Mrs. Guy Myers, and patriotic songs by Margery and Elizabeth Myers, who were attired in national colors, and were encored.

It was not until a late hour in the day that one of the most enjoyable and successful reunions of the Morr-Myers family was concluded.

Among those present from distant points were the following: Edson Morr, Wauseon; Mr. and Mrs. Abraham Sherck and daughter, Mrs. Jennie Irvin and two children and Emmanuel Sherck, Auburn, Ind.; Mrs. Moura and son, Jack, Sheboygan, Mich.; Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Ewing and son, Robert, McComb, Ohio; T. N. Morr and son, Ralph, and daughter Frances, Wadsworth; Mrs. Frank Herman, Sebring. A large proportion of those present at the reunion were from Ashland county and the northwest part of the county. The great-grandfather of Mr. Ewing was the first settler on the Morr farm where the reunion was held.

ONE CHANCE IN A HUNDRED

JUNE 20, 1918

You do not have many opportunities to celebrate one hundredth Anniversaries. The invitation to the Morr-Myers Reunion shows you why it should be your pleasure as well as your duty to make every effort to be present at Moreland on June 20th. The program gives you an inkling of what is in store for you but it does not tell all.

For instance, it only mentions dinner, and we all know by experience that a

Morr-Myers Dinner is Worthy of Honorable Mention

Moreover, it merely indicates that measures have been taken to make this not only an enjoyable occasion but a memorable one as well. Our relatives in and near Moreland are making proper arrangements for the Reunion to be held rain or shine.

Games, swings, etc., will be provided for the children. Horseshoes will be the popular game of the day for the men, and any needing a change of luck may take home with him one of the horseshoes. There will be contests of various kinds. One of them in particular will be exciting as two of our prominent men wagered last year they could beat anyone, man or woman, high kicking. This has been disputed by others, men and women, and we are backing the disputants. But that is the only kind of kicking that will be allowed. Understand that!

More could be said of the plans but that would be telling. All we want to say now is to direct your attention to the following requests.

PLEASE NOTE THIS

The secretary asks for any information that will help to make our mailing list correct and complete. If you know of anyone who should receive an invitation but does not, or of any invitations sent to wrong addresses, please send her such information as will correct the mistake. Her address is Miss Hazel C. Myers, 408 Center St., Ashland, Ohio.

NOTE THIS ALSO

The historian and necrologist always wants information concerning members of the Morr-Myers and related families. This means records of births, deaths, marriages and any news of historical value or of interest that will help to keep the family history complete. She also asks that the names of all our boys who have entered into the service of Uncle Sam be sent to her with full particulars regarding their enlistment, department of service, etc. This should be sent to Mrs. E. H. Fuhrman, 408 Claremont Ave., Ashland, Ohio.

We urge you to attend to these two requests and send the desired information at once. Do it now! It will only take a minute and will mean much to everybody.

And Now How Do You Feel About That Hundredth Chance?

Will You Let It Slip By?

OF COURSE NOT! !

Will See You At Moreland, June 20th.

BOOSTER COMMITTEE

This year we celebrate the 100th anniversary of the coming of the Morr Family to Ohio. It is, therefore, fitting that the Morr-Myers Reunion be held on the farm originally selected by our forefather, Geo. Morr, in April, 1818 and which is now owned by his grandson, Squire Samuel Morr, of Moreland.

The place selected for the Reunion is a corner of the woods opposite to Samuel Morr's home at the northern edge of the village of Moreland. It is located about five and one-half miles south of Wooster on the Wooster-Millersburg Road and can be reached from Wooster by turning south at the Square and following either the Hill Road running past the Ohio Experimental Station or the Bottom Road called the Prairie Lane Road to Moreland.

It is expected that all who can, will go to the Reunion in their own automobiles or carriages and make an effort to take others with them. Some arrangement will be made to meet the Electric cars arriving in Wooster before noon in order to take care of those who may not have any other way to reach Moreland.

Everybody is expected to attend this year's Reunion. If you don't have an automobile or carriage, tell some member of the Morr and Myers Families who has one and if his is filled tell some other member or come by rail to Wooster and you will be taken care of.

DO SOMETHING, BUT DON'T STAY AWAY.

A sketch, "Settling of the Morr family in Ohio", was eagerly listened to. It was given by Squire Samuel Morr, who gave us a history of George and Philip Morr, as they came to this part of the country, cleared the land and started what we are proud of—The Morr - Myers Families of Ohio.

The sketch by Squire Morr was splendid and a rising vote of thanks was given him for these historic remarks.

Story—Frances Fuhrman.

Vocal solos, "They Were All Out of Step But Jim", and "Just a Baby's Prayer at Twilight", were done by Helen Myers Miller.

Reading—Conservation of Food—Mrs. Guy C. Myers.

President—Alvah N. Myers
Vice President—William T. Morr
Secretary—Hazel Myers
Treasurer—R. J. Burns
Historian & Necrologist—Mrs. E. H. Fuhrman
Chorister—Mrs. John Salem Morr

Through the chairman Dr. Emery, this report was accepted.

Mrs. G. D. Myers, chairman of Time and Place Committee reported:

Time—Third Thursday in June, 1919.

Place—Chippewa Lake or Wooster Experimental Farm. But after discussion, this committee was asked to reassemble and their second discussion was to return to Moreland, as everyone had enjoyed its seclusiveness and ideal location.

The following committee was appointed by the President for the reunion of 1919.

John C. Myers—Chairman
W. T. Morr of Moreland
Guy C. Myers
Samuel S. Morr
Walter Sherck

Speeches were made by Jacob Weiker; Rev. G. H. Crofts; Rev. Alpha Rickel; Mr. Ewing of McConnelsville, Ohio; Mr. Abraham Sherck, Auburn, Indiana, and F. E. Myers.

The following resolutions were read by John C. Myers:

Whereas: We, the descendants of now sturdy Morrs, who, one hundred years ago settled on this spot, are today celebrating that occasion and

Whereas: This is the thirty-eighth anniversary of the first reunion of the Morr and Myers families and their extended relationship, therefore

Be it resolved: That it is the desire of all present to express our gratefulness to God for his goodness in endowing our forefathers with Morr sterling qualities that have made it possible and us glad to assemble thus together, and be it further resolved: that it be our wish to continue these family gatherings until we shall be no more as a small, but fitting tribute of love and respect to the memory of those who have passed before, and be it further resolved: that we herewith show our full appreciation to the officers of the reunion, the various committees, the Morrs and friends of Moreland, the children and all who have participated in making possible this glorious and successful one hundredth anniversary, and be it finally resolved: that we acknowledge the sacrifice and devotion to country of those of our boys and their parents who have joined the colors over here or over there, and promise our full moral, physical and financial support to them and all others fighting for world-wide freedom.

All sang, "Blest Be The Tie That Binds", and Rev. Crofts pronounced the benediction.

Signed, A. N. Myers (Pres.)
Hazel C. Myers (Sec.)

Treasurer—R. J. Burns
Chorister—Mrs. Helen Myers Miller

This year we celebrate the 100th anniversary of the coming of the Morr family to Ohio. It is, therefore, fitting that the Morr - Myers Reunion be held on the farm originally selected by our forefather, Geo. Morr, in April, 1818 and which is now owned by his grandson, Squire Samuel Morr, of Moreland.

The place selected for the reunion is a corner of the woods opposite to Samuel Morr's home at the northern edge of the village of Moreland. It is located about five and one-half miles south of Wooster on the Wooster-Millersburg Road, and can be reached from Wooster by turning south at the Square and following either the Hill Road running past the Ohio Experimental Station or the Bottom Road called the Prairie Lane Road to Moreland.

It is expected that all who can, will go to the reunion in their own automobile or carriage and make an effort to take others with them. Some arrangements will be made to meet the electric cars arriving in Wooster before noon in order to take care of those who may not have any other way to reach Moreland.

Everybody is expected to attend this years reunion. If you don't have an automobile or carriage, tell some member of the Morr and Myers families who has one, and if his is filled, tell some other member or come by rail to Wooster and you will be taken care of.

Moreland, Ohio. Thursday, June 19, 1919.

Opposite the residence of Squire Samuel Morr near Moreland, in his beautiful grove, was assembled the Thirty-Ninth Annual Reunion of the Morr and Myers families on Thursday, June 19, 1919.

One hundred years ago, the first of the Morr family came to the Buckeye State and settled on this farm. The weather was hot, but the day beautiful and not marred by even the signs of a shower. About 300 relatives and friends gathered to renew old friendships and form new ones.

After the dinner, which was unanimously pronounced "the best ever", the President Alvah N. Myers called us around the platform, which had been artistically decorated by the committee at Moreland. All sang "America", led by Professor Marion Rickel of Shelby, Ohio. The invocation was given by Reverend Alpha Rickel of Ashland, Ohio. They were then favored with a piano solo, "Napoleons Last Charge", by Miss Garnet Morr.

The Address of Welcome was delivered by Mrs. William T. Morr. She spoke on life being what we make it and closed by referring to the large "Welcome Sign" placed at the entrance of the grove, by saying, "You saw it when you drove in—you feel it now".

The response to this "Address of Welcome", was given by Francis Enoch Myers and was a reminiscence of the coming to Ohio of the two brothers, George and Philip Morr. Marguerite Morr of Moreland, gave "A Glimpse of the Future", an original poem written by her mother, Mrs. William T. Morr. Helen Sherck of Moreland, recited "A Sunny Day", after which the Secretary read the minutes. Miss Frieda Countryman gave a clever reading "The Street Piano", followed by nine Ashland kidlets who sang several selections. R. J. Burns gave the financial report which showed a balance of $6.88. At this time, the chairman of the Finance Committee reported a collection of $22.31.

Mary Myers Miller favored the members with a vocal selection. A reading entitled, "Mrs. Snodgrass Reads the Local Paper", was given by Mrs. Frank Herman of Sebring, Ohio. She responded to an encore with another reading, "The Proper Way to Pray". A vocal selection, "Just Dreaming", was sung by Miss Helen Kimber of Moreland.

Historian and Necrologist, Mrs. E. H. Fuhrman, reported two marriages and four deaths during the past year. The unique way in which Mrs. Fuhrman presented her report, was greatly appreciated by all members present. She closed the report by quoting several verses of Kiplinger.

The following letter was sent to the Morr families of Indiana Reunion on August 19, 1918, by our Historian, Mrs. Effie Myers Fuhrman.

Ashland, Ohio
August 19, 1918

My dear relatives:

It was indeed kind of you to remember us with an invitation to your reunion, and it is with much regret that I am writing to say it is impossible to be with you this year. Would surely enjoy meeting your branch of our wonderful Morr family.

We have just reason to be proud that we belong to this great connection. As Historian of our part of the Morr family, I can truly say that Morrs, generally as I have found them, stood for integrity, patriotism, righteousness and peace. But of these sterling qualities, Godliness excelled them all.

You need only review the pages of our printed History to note the already mentioned virtues which make humanity.

Our reunion this year, was a noteable one. We went to the original Morr Farm at Moreland, where a hundred years before, the Morrs settled, coming overland from Penna., and locating 6 miles south of Wooster, Ohio. The country is all one could desire. They made a good choice.

Many relations from a distance attended. This "Red Letter" gathering, we felt greatly honored by the presence of those from your reunion. Hope we may return the compliment sometime.

I want to bear you greetings from our branch of the family with kindly wishes and many blessings, as we keep pace with the years as they come and go.

Sincerely and with much interest,
Effie Myers Fuhrman
Historian.

At this time, Professor Marion Rickel favored the members with two voice numbers. George Milton Morr of Ashland, gave an impromptu speech relating to the Morr Family Reunion at Auburn, Indiana, last fall.

Other speeches were delivered by Edwin C. Morr of Delta, Ohio; Reverend Stephan Shisler of Bucyrus, Ohio; who brought greetings from Reverend William Shisler of West Salem, Ohio; as he was unable to attend. Reverend Alpha Rickel, Mrs. Smilda Rittenhouse, Harold Heininger, who just returned from war service, Philip Andrew Myers, Squire Samuel Morr, R. J. Burns of Cleveland and Samuel E. Morr of Moreland.

Following the report of committees and the election of officers, the following Entertainment Committee was appointed for the ensuing year.

John Clement Myers - Chairman, Guy C. Myers, Will H. Morr, Frank Morr and P. E. Countryman.

Prior to adjournment, Reverend Alpha Rickel led in prayer.

Nankin, Ohio, Norris Grove. Thursday, June 17, 1920.

Fortieth Annual Reunion of the Morr and Myers families. Minutes of the meeting as follows:

As only a few members reached the reunion on account of very rainy weather, the President, Alvah N. Myers, decided to continue the program and to retain all officers and committees elected at the previous meeting.

The following paragraph was taken from the invitation extended to members for the 40th Annual Reunion:

On account of the recent reunions being held in Wayne County, it was decided to go to Ashland County this year, and Norris' Grove at Nankin, was selected as the proper place. This grove is located at the southern edge os Nankin, about two minutes walk from the Nankin Station of the Cleveland & Southwestern Traction Co. Electric Line. Nankin is about four miles northeast of Ashland on the Erie R. R. and easily reached by electric or steam railroad or automobile and other vehicles.

Nankin, Ohio, Norris Grove. Thursday, June 23, 1921.

At 9:00, the relatives began to gather for the Forty-first Annual Reunion of the Morr and Myers families. The weather was ideal as 250 members were present for the picnic dinner.

The President, Francis Enoch Myers, called the families together for the afternoon program. Professor Marion Rickel led in singing "America". The invocation was given by Reverend J. W. Heininger of Cleveland. This was followed by violin and cello duet by the Spreng sisters. They favored the members with an encore. The Address of Welcome was delivered by George Milton Morr and a response by Mrs. W. T. Morr of Moreland. Philip Myers Jr., gave a reading and Miss Miller sang a song.

The Secretary and Treasurer reports were read and approved as read. The Treasury report showed a balance of $6.88 from 1920, with a collection of $25.46. The balance after all expenses were paid was $4.14.

At this time, Miss Frances Fuhrman gave a reading, followed by a speech by William T. Morr of Moreland. A message was read from Mrs. Mamie Myers Parker of Westfield, Mass., extended greetings as she was unable to attend. Mrs. Helen Myers and Mrs. Hazel Myers Spreng then sang a duet.

Mrs. E. H. Fuhrman gave the Historian and Necrologist report. Six deaths had occurred in the different families since 1919. A rising vote of thanks was extended for the excellent report. Professor Marion S. Rickel favored the members with a solo entitled, "Out Where the West Begins".

At this time, several appointed committees reports were acted upon. The officers for the ensuing year were elected, prior to adjournment.

Chippewa Lake Park, Chippewa Lake, Ohio. Thursday, June 15, 1922.

The Forty-Second Annual Reunion of the Morr and Myers families was held June 15, 1922, at Chippewa Lake. The day was perfect and pleasant to remember. About three hundred Morr and Myers were present to talk mostly of old times.

At about twelve o'clock, dinner was called, which was as attractive as ever, after which Francis Enoch Myers, President, called the association to order. Two verses of "America" were sung under the direction of Mrs. Helen Myers Miller. Our President then gave the Address of Welcome.

Among other forceful statements, he said, "No one can be cheated out of a successful career by anyone but himself".

The Will of Andrew Morr came next, causing much mirth. Parts of it were read by Francis Enoch Myers and Effie Myers Fuhrman. The Secretary's minutes recalled it to mind. Messages were read from absent ones, including telegrams from the Parkers and Millers, also letters from J. W. Heininger and B. F. Marten.

The Treasurer, R. J. Burns, reported a balance of $4.14. A deficit of eight dollars reported by the Financial Committee was soon made up. Ellen Sherck of Moreland, entertainingly read, "Grandfather's Spectacles". Little Mary Miller sang Stevenson's "My Shadow", charmingly. "Fly's Meditation", by Margarite Morr of Moreland, was enjoyed. Mrs. E. H. Fuhrman, Necrologist, then gave her splendid report. Samuel D. Morr was presented next.

The Time and Place Committee reported Myers Bungalow as the next meeting place for the Morr and Myers families. The Nomination Committee recommended the old officers for re-election for another year. The motion for adjournment was made and carried.

Honorary President—Henry Morr
President—Francis Enoch Myers
Vice President—William T. Morr
Secretary—Elizabeth Spreng
Treasurer—R. J. Burns

Chippewa Lake Park, Chippewa Lake, Ohio. Thursday, June 21, 1923.

The Forty-Third Annual Reunion of the Morr and Myers families was called to order and welcomed by the President, Francis Enoch Myers. He emphasized the fact that we are much indebted, as a family, to our pioneer inheritance. These settlers were not only religious leaders, but men who went to war when the call came. For this reason, the ladies of the Morr and Myers families who wish to become members of the Daughters of the American Revolution, may obtain the credentials to do so, at the close of his address. At this time, the President appointed Finance, Time and Place and Nominating Committees. The response so beautifully given by Francis Enoch Myers II, won much applause.

At this time, the Secretary's, Necrologist and Treasurer's reports were given. R. J. Burns, chairman of the Finance Committee, announced a balance of $10.22 on hand. At this time, extemporaneous speeches were delivered by several members, including George Milton Morr, who suggested that we send greetings to our sister reunion of Indiana. This was followed by the report of the several committees and the re-election of the same slate of officers. The Finance Committee reported the extraction of $14.39, much to the flattening of all pocketbooks. All reports were accepted. The association then adjourned.

Mrs. Effie Myers Fuhrman read the following poetry, preceding her report at the Forty-Third Annual Reunion, as Historian and Necrologist.

Here come we forth from far and near
To seal our kinship true
As on past yesterdays
We strengthen ties anew.

Here come we forth from shop and field
With greetings warm, not dreary
No odds whats in the past
The heart keeps young and cheery.

Here come we forth from hearth and home
This year like many another
Weaves in the shades of light and dark
For Father, Mother, Sister, Brother.

Here come we forth from every station
And to each and all today
Sunshine and shadow weal and woe
Makes up lifes varied way.

It has been our custom, ever since our reunions have been held, to pause for a time to pay tribute to our beloved dead. Those "whom we loved long since and lost awile". We cherish their memory, they speak to us of other days of companionship tender and true, of pleasant moments spent in their presence, as they left an enduring impression on our lives. Moreover, we feel for their kindly interest and manifestations in the past. To some of them, we owe credit in the maintenance and success of our early gatherings, and it is with bowed head and a hush in our hearts that we speak their names. The first to answer the final call was Franklin Pearce Myers.

Chippewa Lake Park, New Pavilion, Chippewa Lake, Ohio. Thursday, June 19, 1924.

It was a beautiful day for the Forty-Fourth Annual Reunion of the Morr and Myers Family Reunion. The new picnic pavilion, combined with more important factors to make it a successful and delightful occasion.

The singing of "America" called us to a notable consideration of family. Reverend J. W. Heininger offered the invocation. William T. Morr, in his Address of Welcome, urged the members to become better acquainted and expressed deep regret that some were absent. In response, Philip Andrew Myers stated that the reunion was now in the hands of the third generation and urged that the family spirit must not die and that all ought to take part.

At this time, they were favored with music by the Spreng Trio, followed by the reports of the Secretary and Historian. Frances Fuhrman, in her charming manner, gave a pianolog, "My Sisters Best Fellow", and Betty Morr delighted her hearers with a song and recitation. "I Am a Pilgrim Here", was given by Professor Marion S. Rickel. Mr. E. E. Morr of the vicinity of Toledo, Ohio, a Civil War Veteran who had been in Sherman's Brigade, humbly claimed attention with interesting stories of war adventures. This was followed by several short responsive speeches. John Clement Myers urged in his remarks, that the Reunion be kept an active organization. Following the report of several committees and the election of officers, the meeting was adjourned.

Chippewa Lake Park, Chippewa Lake, Ohio. Thursday, June 18, 1925.

The Forty-Fifth Annual Reunion of the Morr and Myers families was opened with the singing of "America", followed by the invocation by Reverend Emanuel Wengerd. President William T. Morr gave the Address of Welcome and Charles Beer responded with several witty stories that were enjoyed by all.

Lambert Gilson, Treasurer, reported a balance of $4.34. Miss Frances Fuhrman gave a very complete and remarkable Necrologist report in the absence of her mother. The Spreng Trio favored the members with several selections, and Miss Marguerite Morr effectively read, "The Legend of the Organ Builder". It was voted to send a message of greetings to Alvah N.

Myers. Philip Andrew Myers stressed the importance of the younger generation knowing its family convictions in being proud of your family history, past and present.

Mrs. Urban of Fort Wayne, Indiana, extended an invitation to attend the Morr Families of Indiana Reunion. Henry Morr, eighty-six years of age, a veteran of the Civil War and oldest member present, gave an interesting address. Samuel S. Morr expressed the opinion that the younger generation did not appreciate the importance of family reunions. The cause of the younger generation was championed by Helen Myers Miller, in saying that the reunion would be carried on by the younger people.

Other responses were given by John Clement Myers and Harold Kellogg, who suggested that ball games, pageants and plays be a part of the reunion to stimulate interest. The reports of several committees and the election of officers were next on the agenda of business. Marion S. Rickel, so effectively sang, "Just for Today", prior to adjournment.

Chippewa Lake Park, Chippewa Lake, Ohio. Thursday, June 17, 1926.

It was an ideal day for the Forty-Sixth Annual Reunion, and the customary smile, handshake and greetings was extended to each family on arrival.

After dinner, President Guy C. Myers called the families together and all joined in the singing of "America". Reverend Alpha Rickel offered the invocation. The President, in a few well chosen words, gave the Address of Welcome.

The following committees were then appointed. Nominating Committee: C. W. Morr, Chairman; Alvah N. Myers and Theodore Newton Morr. Committee on Time and Place: P. E. Countryman, Chairman; Alpha Rickel and Henry Morr. Finance Committee: T. W. Fouch, Chairman; Dr. Emery and John Clement Myers.

At this time, "Onward Christian Soldiers" was sung, followed by a reading, "The Naughty Little Clock". Miss Frances Fuhrman sang a solo, "My Lady", and then Ora Morr's children favored the members with several songs, followed by a reading by Cecila Steele.

The Secretary's report was read and in the absence of Lambert Gilson, T. W. Fouche gave the Treasurer report which showed a collection of $14.05, plus a balance of $6.89, making a total cash balance of $24.94, with expenses of $16.60 for the present reunion, leaving a balance of $4.34.

The Historian and Necrologist report, which is carefully prepared from year to year and effectually rendered by Mrs. E. H. Fuhrman, was then read. She reported 8 deaths, 4 births and 2 marriages. A short history of the Myers family was then given by Hon. Henry Myers. Milton Morr gave a talk on his recent trip to the Holy Land and was very much enjoyed by all.

A count of the total members present of the different branches of the Morr and Myers families was then taken. However, its accuracy was questioned, as possibly some members had been absent at the time of the count, or failed to stand up for the count. The count was as follows: 6 of the Michael Morr family, 4 of Andrew Morr, 25 of the Myers family, 15 of the Daniel Morr and 20 of the Jacob Myers families.

Very important are the greetings sent to us this day from those who are remembering, but unable to be present. Letters were read from Mabel Myers Snavely, Mrs. Raymond Snavely and W. F. Myers. A telegram from the Atwaters at Los Angeles was also read.

At this time, short talks were given by Reverend Alpha Rickel of Toledo, Ohio, Philip Andrew Myers, Charles Beer and John Clement Myers. It was voted to send greetings to the Morr Families Reunion of Auburn, Indiana, on their reunion day, Saturday, June 26, 1926. Following the report of committees and the election of officers, they sang "Blest Be The Tie That Binds". So, another reunion day came to a close. Another page of a years duration is turned and becomes a matter of history. What part each has had, we ourselves know. Let us look forward to future reunions. Our aim to be "To Attend".

Chippewa Lake Park, Chippewa Lake, Ohio. Thursday, June 23, 1927. Note—The minutes of the 1926 reunion stated that the 3rd Thursday of June, 1927, would be the date for the Forty-Seventh Annual Reunion; however, the invitation stated June 23rd, which was the 4th Thursday of June, 1927.

The day was pleasant, and by noon a large crowd had gathered for the Forty-Seventh Annual Reunion. After dinner, President Guy C. Myers called the families together, at which time, the exercises were opened with the singing of that familiar hymn, "All Hail the Power of Jesus Name", led by Marion S. Rickel. George Milton Morr of Ashland, gave the invocation. The Address of Welcome was given by Reverend Alpha Rickel of Cleveland.

Under very difficult conditions, with the wind insisting upon turning the music until Marion Rickel gave his assistance, Miss Mirian Hoverstock gave a piano solo, which was very much appreciated. Surely Miss Hoverstock is to be praised for her beautiful music. Ora Morr's children then gave a musical selection, "How Our Flag Was Made". These young people who come to our reunion, and are willing to help out with the programs, have the right spirit to carry on the great work.

Mrs. E. H. Fuhrman gave the Historian and Necrologist report, which showed 8 births, 4 marriages and 7 deaths. A telegram was read from John Clement Myers of Cambridge, Mass., who sent greetings. At this time, Arthur Morr of Hayesville, Ohio, took charge of the program and conducted a Round Robin. He gave an excellent talk, telling in connection with this how glad he was to be there. Henry Morr, the oldest member of the Morr and Myers families, was the first to be called on for a few remarks. Then Philip Andrew Myers, who is supposed to have made more speeches than anyone present, gave another one of his pleasing talks.

George Kellogg gave the Treasurer's report in the absence of W. T. Fouch. He announced that $14.30 had been collected by the Finance Committee. Other responsive talks were given by Mary Rickle, Ida Morr of Youngstown, Andrew Morr, Mrs. Gibson, George Milton Morr, who had only missed one reunion; Mrs. Frank Herman of Sebring, Mrs. William T. Morr of Wooster, and Mrs. E. H. Fuhrman who emphasized her remarks with the words, "Carry on the Work".

After the several committees reported and the officers elected for the ensuing year, the burial place of Catherine Morr, one of the pioneers of this family, was discussed. It has no suitable marker, so the President appointed the following committee to report in 1928, as to what they think best to be done and to subject this to the reunion for consideration. George Milton Morr, Chairman; Philip Andrew Myers and Arthur Morr.

Honorary President—Henry Morr
President—Guy C. Myers
Vice President—Samuel Morr
Secretary—Mrs. William T. Morr
Treasurer—W. T. Fouch
Historian and Necrologist—Mrs. E. H. Fuhrman

Chippewa Lake Park, Chippewa Lake, Ohio. Thursday, June 21, 1928.

After renewing of old friendships and welcoming of new members, the Forty-Eighth Annual Morr and Myers Reunion was called to order, shortly after dinner by singing "America", under the direction of Helen Myers Miller.

President Arthur Allen Morr of Hayesville, then asked Reverend William Shisler of Cleveland, to give the invocation. The Secretary's and Necrologist reports were read. Mrs. E. H. Fuhrman reported 14 deaths, 5 marriages and 6 births. At this time, Marcella and Betty Morr of Trinity, favored the members with several selections of music. An air message from the Atwaters in California was read. In closing, she read a poem entitled, "One a Myers the Other a Morr". Note—On many occasions, Effie Myers Fuhrman wrote poetry, which was read in closing her historical and necrologist reports. The following poem was read at that time.

Morr - Myers

Across the sea in days of old
Two families lived neighbors, we are told
A mutual bond grew more and more
Between the Myers and the Morr

As time went on, the world still new.
These people like others, ventured too.
For they were clannish more and more
The one a Myers, the other Morr

Ties of friendship ripened into love,
As they sailed the sea of life and wove into it the hues of loyalty of yore
The one a Myers, the other Morr

Intermarriages between these families too,
Strengthened the bond and drew
Them closer, still than here to fore
The one a Myers, the other Morr

In good old Pa. to whence they came
They lived so happily, upholding each their name
Until new fields they wished for.
The one a Myers, the other Morr

So to Ohio in 1818
Broke ground and was followed as of yore
The last a Myers, the first a Morr

By now the ties so closely drawn
Marked by bravery and brawn
Some the Myers, some the Morr

Proud you ask? Why yes indeed!
No finer type in word or deed.
Count myself thrice blest for,
My Father was a Myers, My Mother - Morr.

Miss Frances Fuhrman entertained with two musical numbers and a reading. This was followed by "Morr" remarks, at which time, Mrs. Clarence Myers and family of Nebraska was greeted, also George Spreng of Cleveland, who attended the reunion for the first time. Henry Morr, the oldest Morr living, gave a short talk.

Reverend William Shisler then spoke of some of the reunions he attended in his childhood days. How well he remembered the style of the clothes worn by some of his cousins. In those days when Bumble Bee looked like black berries. He said he was glad he really belonged to such a large family and did not have to break in or pay to get in. Remarks by P. E. Countryman and his mother, Mrs. Selene Myers Countryman, who told of helping to pick the brush for the first reunion on the Daniel Morr farm near Trinity Church. Next was Charles Beer, who said he had to pay to get into this family and has been paying ever since. Others who spoke were George Denton Myers, Mary Nottage and Mary Rickel. Philip Andrew Myers stressed the importance of keeping up interest in these reunions. He also gave a report of the committee on marking the grave of Catherine Morr. This was followed by talks by John Clement Myers and Dr. Emery, who said that he got into the family for the small sum of 75 cents. Mrs. Ezra Spreng spoke of the necessity of marking the grave of Mr. Differbough in Pa.

During the reports of the several committees, the finance chairman reported a collection of $18.36. After the election of officers, all joined in singing "Blest Be the Tie That Binds", prior to adjournment.

Note—The following was a Plain Dealer Special, published May 5, 1928, of the marriage of Philip Andrew Myers to Miss Josephine Forsyth. This is in tribute to an outstanding member of the Morr and Myers families, whose interest and service was instrumental in making each Morr and Myers Reunion a happy event.

The Forsyth-Myers Wedding

A wedding of particular interest in artistic and financial circles took place Sunday afternoon, April 29th at the Magnolias, the beautiful suburban estate of Mr. and Mrs. Lester Arleigh Robison, Irvington-on-the-Hudson, when Miss Josephine Forsyth became the bride of Mr. Philip Andrew Myers. Mr. and Mrs. Robison are former Clevelanders, and Mr. Robison is now traffic manager of the New York Central Railroad.

MRS. PHILIP ANDREW MYERS
(Miss Josephine Forsyth)

Owing to the recent bereavement of the bride's mother, Mrs. Mary Forsyth, a limited number of guests were present, including the principals and their attendants, Mrs. Fenton P. Delamater, of Canton, matron of honor, and Mr. James A. Campbell, President of the Youngstown Sheet &

Tube Company, a life-long friend of the groom. The bride, a former Cleveland girl, has a host of friends here. Several years ago she went to New York City to study music where she has won sincere recognition in the Musical World as a prima donna on the light opera stage, and during the last four years in the concert field. Her unique and original recital entitled "Lyric Thoughts of Twilight" has been accorded meritorious praise from the critics of many cities, and has been received with great enthusiasm. She has been a popular soloist for social affairs, and two years ago gave a recital at the home of Mrs. Stevenson Burke, Magnolia Drive, Cleveland; also at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Morley, Mentor, Ohio; and at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Firestone, Akron.

Preceding the ceremony, there was prayer in the garden led by Dr. Worth M. Tippy, former pastor of Epworth Memorial Church, Cleveland, in whose Sunday School the bride enrolled as a primary Sunday School scholar. The setting was picturesquely romantic—rose leaves of sentiment made fragrant memories at the twilight hour, while the magnolias bloomed.

During the service the harpist, Arthur M. Jones played softly, strains of songs, and Mr. Clifford Cunard, well-known Cleveland tenor, sang exquisitely, two compositions of the bride to harp accompaniment—"I've fallen dear so deep in love with you," and a musical setting of the Lord's Prayer.

The bride's gown was an importation of embroidered Chinese crepe and chiffon, the gift of her aunt, Miss Emily E. Pentecost, who before her passing had given it to the bride for a wedding gown. She carried a heart-shaped corsage of baby pink rose buds, sweet peas and lilies-of-the-valley. The double ring service was used, the bride giving Mr. Myers a platinum ring in the form of a heart-shaped shield with her initials in diamonds; her engagement ring was a corresponding heart-shaped stone and her wedding ring of platinum bore his initials in diamonds.

An unusual and attractive feature of the wedding was the presentation of a gift by the bride to Mr. Myers—a book of her own writings, inspired by the occasion, dedicated to him, printed on illuminated parchment paper bound in white kid leather, and hand-tooled in gold. The bride is also a writer of distinction whose verses have found market on both sides of the Atlantic.

Mr. Myers is well known in manufacturing and banking circles and is an inventor of international renown, whose devices have found recognition throughout the world. He is president of F. E. Myers & Bro. Company, pump manufacturers, Ashland, Ohio; director of the Union Trust Company, Cleveland; director of Security Life Insurance Company, Chicago; Vice-President of The Faultless Rubber Company, Ashland, Ohio; President of Chase Foundry, Columbus, and is a member of the Union and Midday Clubs.

After a brief honeymoon through the Carolinas, including White Sulphur Springs, Old Homestead, Hot Springs, and Asheville, Mr. and Mrs. Myers will be at the Hotel Plaza, New York, May 20th and after July 1st will be at home in Ashland, Ohio.

Chippewa Lake Park, Chippewa Lake, Ohio. Thursday, June 20, 1929.

The minutes of the Annual Reunion in 1928, stated the 3rd Thursday in June, 1929, as the official date of the Forty-Ninth Annual Reunion. However, the minutes for this meeting stated June 28, 1929, in error, as this date is the 4th Friday in June 1929. There are no invitations in the records for this reunion to verify the actual date.

After enjoying a bountious picnic dinner and spending some time in a social way, we were called to order by the President, Arthur Allen Morr. Reverend William R. Shisler gave the invocation, followed by an Address of Welcome by Reverend Alpha M. Rickel.

Following the report of the Secretary, Mrs. E. H. Fuhrman gave the Historical and Necrologist report. Telegrams were read from Mr. and Mrs. Philip Andrew Myers from New York City and the T. W. Miller family, who have sailed for Europe.

Miss Frances Fuhrman read a poem composed by her mother, Mrs. E. H. Fuhrman. This was followed by Morr remarks by John Clement Myers, Mr. and Mrs. George Kellogg, Reverend W. D. Keller, a grandson of Jacob Myers of Kansas; Miss Cleo Keller of Lorain, Ohio; Mrs. Daisy E. Stone, P. E. Countryman, A. N. Myers, Dr. and Mrs. Emery, Guy C. Myers, Mr. A. F. Roach of Akron, Ohio; Reverend Alpha M. Rickel, Vern Morr, Miss Ella Weaver, Ray Morr of Cleveland, Ed. H. Fuhrman, A. P. Morr, Miss Sylvia Morr of Decatur, Illinois and Mrs. Ezra Spreng.

Greetings from the Philip Gast family of Prospect, Ohio, and the Mr. and Mrs. Dick Morr family of Cleveland.

At this time, the report of several committees and the election of officers for the ensuing year took place. The Finance chairman reported a collection of $12.80.

Chippewa Lake Park, Chippewa Lake, Ohio. Thursday, June 12, 1930.

The Golden Jubilee of the Morr - Myers Family Reunion was celebrated on Thursday, June 12, 1930, at Chippewa Lake Park, Ohio. It was a lovely day and about 150 of the relationship were present.

After the picnic dinner, Reverend J. W. Heininger of Cleveland, gave the invocation which was specially prepared for the occasion. Mrs. Thomas W. Miller led in the singing of "America", and Philip Andrew Myers delivered the Address of Welcome.

The Secretary's report was given and accepted, after which Mrs. Mirian Hoverstock Donahue of Cleveland, entertained with a piano solo. Mrs. Frieda Countryman Johnson entertained with two readings. A poem delineating the history of the reunions and written by Mrs. E. H. Fuhrman, was read by her house guest, Mrs. Hope Gregory of West Newton, Mass., as follows:

In days of old across the seas
Ties were formed by two great families,
Later to America they came
Morr and Myers were there by name.
Of their beginnings little is known,
Save that Germany was once their home.
About the year 1700 the records say,
One came to our dear U.S.A.
And settled in Pennsylvania.
The other family, so the records say,
Followed soon and ties again strengthened.
Here "Romance" must not go unmentioned.
For while these great progenitors built well,
There are like wise family tales to tell,
For while forests they cut and fell,
Firesides were established as well.
For ever and anon, while thus parallel
Friendships ripened into love, well,
Wanderlust again lay sway
Once more one family took its way
And came to Ohio they came in 1818.
Choosing land with spring and stream
Hills and valleys there lay between,
With virgin forests, the finest ever seen,
All for them well planned.
They called it Moreland.
Again, as time went on, others came
To this land of wonderous fame.
Some came to fair Ashland County
Where they lived in peace and bounty.
Two outstanding that grew more and more
Were Jacob Myers and Andrew Morr
Their farms lay not far apart
Pious and tender of heart
Were they, ones home a meeting place
Where worship oft did grace
His home he built with one intent
To serve the country-side and oft was sent
A welcome far and near,
To come the preached word to hear.

Two rooms fashioned with swinging doors
Widened the space from ceilings to floors.
After a time these they outgrew
So what could they do but build a-new
This time a Church on land given
By him who had so richly striven.
Today there stands dear Trinity Could ever a greater tribute be
To him who served so well and builded better than he knew
We pause, there's a hush in our hearts as we peruse
And ask why are we here today?
For 50 golden years have we met in this selfsame way
Most of those who served or called to order are no more
No longer are their voices heard, for
They have gone where the day is ever new
To them we owe all, to them may we be true
After 50 Golden years we are here today
Because they blazed the trail, let us homage pay
And when our voices are stilled may there yet be,
Those of ours to carry on faithfully.

At this time, Marion S. Rickel sang a solo. Mrs. E. H. Fuhrman gave the Historian and Necrologist report. One birth, one death and five marriages in the families were reported for the past year. George Kellogg, our Treasurer, reported a cash balance of $7.36.

"Morr remarks" were made by a number present, including Mr. Henry Morr, Civil War Veteran and oldest living member of the family. A letter of greeting was read from Mr. Calvin Moyer of Freeburg, Pennsylvania, another of the older members of the family and author of the Morr Genealogy that was published in 1896.

Those present were from Ashland, Cleveland, Youngstown, Akron, Wooster, Mansfield and other points. At this time, reports of committees and the election of officers for the ensuing year were the order of business before adjourning.

Chippewa Lake Park, Chippewa Lake, Ohio. Thursday, June 18, 1931.

Two hundred members of the family organization assembled for the Fifty-First Annual Reunion. Prior to the picnic dinner, Reverend Alpha M. Rickel gave the invocation.

The business meeting was opened with the Secretary's report, which was approved as read. Marcella and Betty of the Ora Morr family, entertained with a piano duet, followed by a reading by Miss Marian Spreng and a vocal number by Miss Mary Morr.

Mrs. E. H. Fuhrman gave the Historian and Necrologist report, which revealed one birth, five marriages and one death during the past year. She also read an original poem entitled, "One a Myers, the Other a Morr".

At this time, the different committee reports were heard and the officers were elected for the year 1932. Short talks were given by many present before adjournment.

Brookside Park, Ashland, Ohio. Thursday, June 16, 1932.

Three hundred members of the Morr and Myers families attended the Fifty-Second annual reunion held at Brookside Park, Ashland, Ohio. Reverend C. L. Kern, Pastor of the Emanuel Evangelical Church of Ashland, a guest, gave the invocation, followed by the Address of Welcome by Guy C. Myers.

The minutes of the 1931 reunion were read by the Secretary. George Kellogg's treasury report showed a balance of $11.01. A reading by Master Paul Weaver of Ashland, was very much enjoyed. Mrs. E. H. Fuhrman gave a most interesting report as Historian and Necrologist. She recounted eight births, six marriages and five deaths in the family organization. She also gave some very interesting history, concerning the pioneer life of the Morr and Myers. Mrs. Lloyd Horn of Lakeville, Ohio, gave further interesting information about the family lineage.

It was moved by Reverend J. W. Heininger, that a vote of tribute be given to the most aged members of the family; including Mr. Henry Morr, age 93, Mr. William Rittenhouse 88 and Mr. Andrew Morr, age 83. Reverend Heininger then offered a memorial prayer.

After the officers for the ensuing year were elected, it was moved by Floyd Shisler that the Secretary send greetings and regrets to Mr. and Mrs. Philip Andrew Myers, who were in a Cleveland hospital suffering from an auto accident and unable to attend. The Secretary further reported that a very nice letter of appreciation was received in reply.

Members present from out of town were: Mrs. Jacob Morr and daughter Bertha of Altamont, Illinois; Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Shisler of Naperville, Illinois; Reverend and Mrs. J. W. Heininger, Cleveland; Mr. and Mrs. W. C. McCorkle, Tampa, Florida; Mr. Benjamin Harrison Gast of Prospect, Ohio; Mrs. George Spreng, Cleveland; Reverend and Mrs. Alpha M. Rickel of Amherst, Ohio; and Mr. Emory Johnson of Pittsburgh, Pa.

Brookside Park, Ashland, Ohio. Thursday, June 15, 1933.

The Fifty-Third Annual Reunion of the Morr and Myers families had 114 members in attendance for the picnic dinner.

In the absence of President Reverend William R. Shisler, who suffered a broken arm in an auto accident, our Vice President, Ora Morr, presided. The meeting was opened by the singing of the Doxology, followed by the invocation by Reverend Alpha M. Rickel.

The Address of Welcome was given by Ora Morr. Reports of the Secretary and Treasurer were read and accepted as read. Mrs. Elizabeth Simanton read the Historian and Necrologist report in the absence of Mrs. E. H. Fuhrman. Seven births, two marriages and eleven deaths were reported in the past year. At this time, several moments of silence were spent in reverence to those of the family who had passed away during the year.

Mrs. J. E. Spreng gave an interesting reading entitled, "Our First Reunion", and upon the motion by Mrs. George Spreng it was recorded in the Secretary's minutes of the meeting and is as follows:

— Our First Reunion —

It was in the year 1881, that members of the Morr family gathered together for the purpose of organizing a reunion. This gathering was called by the Reverend William A. Shisler, father of Reverend William R. Shisler, who was to preside here today. At this time, it was decided to hold the reunion on Saturday, August 6th, in the Samuel D. Morr grove near Trinity Church. Committees were appointed and such other arrangements made as were necessary at that time.

The object of the reunion was to create and foster a friendly feeling among the different branches of this connection. Also, to gather historical facts about this tribe or clan. A paper was to be prepared and read at each annual gathering and for this duty I was called upon. It seemed a formidable task since few records had been kept that were available. It was through documents such as notes, deeds and wills, and frequent visits to cemeteries that dates could be obtained. The older members related in Pennsylvania German what they could remember. This was cheerfully given and gratefully received.

The day dawned bright and clear, sunshiny and warm as August days usually are, and the welcome on the grounds was equally warm. There was the hearty handshakes and the usual inquiries, "I ve marcheds don, and vist stund?", for conversation among the older people was in Pennsylvania German.

The grounds had been cleared and seats made by placing logs distances apart and putting planks on them. An improvised speakers' stand had also been made. Singing, prayer and an Address of Welcome were the order of opening. The dinner was ample as it always is. One lady put it wittily in this wise, "Oh there were just tubs of victuals". However, I think there were more chickens and apple pies, also smear-case then than now.

In the afternoon, speeches were made and conversation indulged in generally. We must not forget the closing hymn, "Un end a fund de rice alongen vere de crome". This was sung by the older people, then sung by all in English, "At the End of Our Journey We Will Receive a Crown". In my memory I can still hear Aunt Sarah Dundor Morr sing the "counter", this I will describe as a curly-cue at the end of each verse sung by the alto voices, and to me it was beautiful.

The time for parting came, the day had been an enjoyable one. The speedy automobile was not known then. They came in wagons and carriages, and walking over hills and dusty roads. As the greetings were in German, so were the adieus. With the old the parting words, "Ouff verder saen", they left for their homes.

Among the guests that came for the occasion was Samuel A. and wife Maria Keifer Morr, from Columbus Grove, Ohio, and daughter Della, now Mrs. Berry of Vandora, Ohio. I cannot forget speaking of the character of these sturdy, industrious people. Religiously inclined, they carried on their purpose.

It is noteworthy, that for three succeeding generations, there were homes built to accommodate public worship. The last one east of where Trinity Church now stands, this one built by Andrew Morr was a log house. Two large rooms upstairs could be thrown together by means of folding doors. This was used until a frame church was built where the present church now stands. The ground donated by Daniel Morr. It was through the ministry of Charles Hammer, a missionary, that the church was organized. This was known as Zion Church, or Zion Charich Engalisha Gaminine Shaft. The church had been painted white and because of this, it was frequently called the "White Church".

There were two single front doors, one for the men, the other for the women. There was no vestibule, the pews coming back to the wall. A partition was in the middle as high as the pews. When bride and groom came to the church, they came in at separate doors and kept an eye on each other in order to sit next to the partition in the same line of pews. The pews were painted blue and the walls were whitewashed. Bare floors of course. There were ten plate wood stoves for heating. Hymnals without music.

Among the pastors, I remember Kopp, Longbrake and Strouse. Of course the preaching, praying and singing were in German. One of the popular hymns was, "Tis Fricheit, Fricheit to loben unser Gutt",—Tis Freedom, Freedom to Love Our God".

The new and present church was built about 1870. However, the first Sunday School was organized in the old church.

Another highlight of the Fifty-Third Annual Morr and Myers Reunion, was the interesting talk entitled, "Fond Recollections", by Alva N. Myers and upon the motion by Mrs. Will Morr, it was also recorded in the Secretary's minutes and is as follows:

— Fond Recollections —

This is a subject that would naturally bring out many experiences, especially those of the older members of the Morr-Myers families and beginnings of the Morr-Myers Reunions. Memories as the years pass, are among the most valued possessions. Only the ravages of time can take from us early impressions, as those of childrens' associations, occurrences, events, even though they are merely a passing thought.

Home life and the influence of Christian parents are a heritage beyond any price valuations, and that to me is a very impressive and delightful thought as I look back over and think of the sturdy parents that made up this reunion of years ago.

The relatives gathering at the first reunion, which was held in the grove adjoining Trinity Church, six miles east of here, I cannot refrain from mentioning. Also, the many occurrences in this wonderful church community of years ago, made largely of the Morr-Myers families, which were in a small way all connected by some near or distant relationship.

The strict religious fervor which they instilled in their families and community as well, for religious training then was essential. This, I believe, is still prevalent in the present community around Old Trinity Church. It has been a wonderful help to me through my life. Our forefathers always had time for family worship each morning, regardless of what we had to do that day. Some of us, at times, thought that family worship was a little monotonous and a little early, especially if we were late after being out the night before.

My mother always waited at the stair door after calling us, and any excuses that we might offer were of no avail in cases of this kind. Like patriarchs of old, we always assembled for the reading of the Bible.

A remarkable thing, as I now review the past lives of our forefathers, was that the mothers were as persistent along this line as our fathers and I only want to relate a few of these things to impress the fact on our young people, here assembled, of the great inheritance which you possess and should feel proud of.

I do not want to refer to this as only a few families of this nature, but it was the community at large. The Old White, or Trinity Church, was very prominent in social affairs and known throughout the surrounding country. It was regarded as a religious and upright neighborhood and served as a great factor in community building. I for one, am very proud that I have this inheritance.

The punctuality and stability which was instilled in all of us, had any of us been a success, has been a wonderful factor along this line and I feel sure that the community is still held in the same high esteem.

I have made mention of about all of the seriousness along this line which is necessary. I want you to know that we also had a very good time and I look back with pleasure upon our young associations, and the pleasant times that we had in our Sunday School, Church and Society gatherings. And, by the way, all were self made entertainments. We did not think of coming to Ashland, or going any place, unless it was a neighborhood gathering but what was made up of home talent. We were proud of our entertainments, as our High School pupils are today. In fact, we had a better social time than they had. Our parents were liberal with us in amusements of this kind and, in fact, entered into them with us.

Our Sunday School was always well attended, practically the year around. I might also mention that we did not have any telephones and some of the young fellows were very glad to see the young ladies at these gatherings, for if we missed, it would be another week and perhaps two weeks before this meeting was possible. We could not call them up and make arrangements and if we failed on Sunday, it was just too bad.

One pleasant little incident was that we were in the habit of getting thirsty between Sunday School and Church. It was necessary to go across the road to the Hetzler home, where we were always welcomed, and get a drink. There were perhaps between fifteen and twenty young people, and it was surprising how polite we tried to be, I mean the young men.

At this time, several appointed committees gave their reports, followed by the election of officers for the ensuing year. The closing song was, "Blest Be the Tie that Binds".

Brookside Park, Ashland, Ohio. Thursday, June 21, 1934.

One hundred and twenty members of the Morr and Myers families attended the Fifty-Fourth Annual Reunion. Prior to the picnic dinner, President John Clement Myers appointed the Time and Place, Nominating and Finance Committees.

The business meeting was called to order and Reverend Alpha Rickel offered the opening prayer. The Address of Welcome was delivered by Dr. William Emery. The Secretary's and Treasurer reports were read and adopted. Mrs. E. H. Fuhrman, the Necrologist, read an interesting clipping from the Ashland Press of June 11, 1891, reporting that 300 members of the Morr and Myers families had gathered at Pleasant Home, Ohio, for their Tenth Annual Reunion. She further reported 6 births, 2 weddings, 1 golden wedding and 4 deaths during the past year.

The President then asked that all might rise in honor of the memory of those of the family that passed on during the past year and also those of former years. After the report of committees and the election of officers for the year 1935, the President suggested that the Secretary revise the membership roster, to bring it up to date.

REUNION

Each year there comes a welcome call
A letter sent to one and all
Reminding us of that gala day
When Morr's and Myers must away

The city park, a day to spend
Our motto is Attend, Attend
A day of greeting and good cheer
"Reunion Day", just once a year

We're glad our appetites are good and thankful for the gift of food
And if the day is foul or fair
Just come, let's drop our every care

As leaf by leaf the roses fall
Each year some loved ones hear the call
And leave us on our onward way
To meet that Grand Reunion Day.

The Fifty-Fifty Annual Reunion had 125 members in attendance. After the picnic dinner, President Clement Weygandt Morr opened the business meeting. It was moved by Alvah N. Myers, that the same officers be elected by acclamation for the coming year.

Mrs. Thomas W. Miller's Address of Welcome was responded to by Marshall Morr (Moore) of Mansfield, Ohio. Mr. Morr spoke of revising the old history of the Morr and Myers families, also to plan for some way to interest the younger members of the reunion. Mrs. Miller asked in her remarks, that John O. Myers buy a new loose leaf record book and also rebind the old book to be preserved, and that a notice of this be placed in the minutes. Mrs. Miller also reminisced of former years, speaking of our heritage and also of our own present generation.

At this time, they were entertained with a guitar solo by Mr. Chandler of Nankin, Ohio. The reports of the Secretary, Treasurer and Necrologist, were next in the order of business. Reverend Alpha M. Rickel of Amherst, Ohio, spoke in his remarks of those gone on before, if they could see us on our Reunion Day. He spoke of the many ideals to live for and to plan something special our children can enjoy and that we would enjoy also.

Mrs. Theodore Newton Morr suggested a committee of four to introduce people, and especially the younger members, that they may become better acquainted. In reverence and tribute to your Secretary's mother, Mrs. Theodore Newton Morr, who had a near perfect attendance to all of the Morr and Myers Annual Reunions, after her marriage to my father on August 10.

1895. I will always have fond memories of my mother and father insistence, that all of the children attend each reunion, if possible.

Mrs. Thomas W. Miller asked for the sentiment of those present in a possible change to Saturday, in lieu of Thursday for the annual reunion day, as it would have a tendency to increase attendance. Mrs. Celia Kellogg spoke of the bounteous dinner all enjoyed, and the special note of no flies present to share with us. Prior to adjournment, letters of regret were read from Reverend S. A. Shisler and Reverend J. F. Martin.

Brookside Park, Ashland, Ohio. Thursday, June 18, 1936.

Two hundred and fifty members of the Morr and Myers families attended the Fifty-Sixth Annual Reunion. After dinner, President Clement Weygandt Morr called the business meeting to order. After singing "America", Reverend Alpha M. Rickel of Perrysburg, Ohio, gave the invocation.

The Address of Welcome was delivered by John Clement Myers, followed with the response by Reverend B. J. Martin, pastor of the local Congregational Church. Reverend Martin, born and reared in the vicinity of Trinity Church, spoke of the Christian influence of the William Rittenhouse home in which he spent his youth.

At this time, Donna and Harold Morr entertained with a song, "At the Wedding of Jack and Jill", accompanied by Miss Marcella Morr. In tribute to Mrs. Iva Mae Steltzer Morr, her late husband, Ora Morr and family of Ashland, Ohio, we are indebted for their faithful attendance to all Morr and Myers reunions. Your Secretary can well remember many, many reunions that this outstanding family always had the largest family attendance. When your officers were thinking seriously of having to disband for lack of interest, their attendance as a family gave us the incentive to carry on.

Mrs. Ora Morr gave the Secretary report and George Kellogg followed with the Treasurer report. Several vocal numbers were given by Ralph Wadsworth of Mansfield, Ohio, a student at Ohio State University, after which he and his mother, Mrs. Treva Wadsworth, sang duets and Mrs. Wadsworth also gave solo numbers.

An interesting and complete Historian report was read by Mrs. George Kellogg, in the absence of Mrs. E. H. Fuhrman. It was requested that a letter be sent to Mrs. Fuhrman, concerning the reunion, as she was enroute to the Worlds Sunday School convention at Oslo, Norway.

At this time, the reports of the several committees and the election of officers were the order of business. The Time and Place Committee had chosen Wooster City Park for the annual reunion in 1937. "Morr remarks" were given by several of the family members prior to adjournment.

Wooster City Park, Wooster, Ohio. Thursday, June 17, 1937.

Two hundred members of the Morr and Myers families attended the Fifty-Seventh Annual Reunion. It rained intermittently throughout the day. Prior to the picnic dinner, President John Clement Myers appointed members to serve on the Time and Place, Nominating and Finance committees.

The President opened the afternoon exercises with the singing of "America", followed by the invocation by Reverend Alpha M. Rickel of Perrysburg, Ohio. The Address of Welcome was delivered by Mrs. William T. Morr of Chester Township. In response, Dr. William Frank Emery complimented the young people for their large attendance and also taking an active part in reunion activities.

Mrs. Ora Morr read a communication, extending the members an invitation to attend the Twenty-Fourth Annual Reunion of the Morr families of Indiana, on June 27th at Auburn, Indiana. A letter of acknowledgment, gratitude and greetings was extended in return. The minutes and treasurer's report were read. George Kellogg stated that the reunion had ample funds to carry on.

Mrs. E. H. Fuhrman, Historian and Necrologist, spoke on her trip abroad last year. She also reported eleven births, five marriages and nine deaths during the past year. Telegrams were received from the Atwater family in Hollywood, California, and Mrs. Philip Andrew Myers of Beverly Hills, California.

At this time, the President asked all members to stand for a moment of silence, in memory of those loved ones, who have passed on before.

Mrs. Thomas W. Miller very ably presented the new loose leaf address book, which Mr. Myers gave as a present to the Morr and Myers family. Mr. Myers explained the book and its use. A vote of thanks was extended to John Clement Myers for this necessary contribution.

At this time, Robert Shisler, a graduate of Heidelberg, played a piano solo, "Princess Spanish Dance", which was enjoyed by all. Morr and Myers memories were given by Dr. B. F. Martin, who brought greetings from William Rittenhouse and Mrs. Weaver, who regretted being unable to be present. Reverend Martin also expressed his appreciation of being cared for during those years from about four to sixteen, when he came to the vicinity of the White Church. Through the influence of William and Samildia Rittenhouse, he joined the ministry. He made an earnest plea "that we resolve to perpetuate the great moral and religious principle cherished and promoted by earlier members of the Morr and Myers families, which are so much needed for the saving and rebuilding our world today".

Extemporaneous speeches were made by Mrs. Sherck, 87 years of age; Mrs. Samuel S. Morr of Moreland, Ohio; Vern Morr spoke of helping to clear the ground for the first reunion near White Church; Mr. Francis Myers and Philip Myers spoke of being privileged to attend the reunion. Those present from Indiana, extended and invitation to attend the reunion in Auburn, Indiana. Mrs. Mary Nottage and Mrs. Gibson gave a few remarks. Reverend William Shisler spoke of the violence and crime we read in our newspapers and then spoke of the Prophet Ezekiel. Alvah N. Myers reminisced clearing the ground for the first reunion. Mrs. Guy C. Myers spoke briefly. Mrs. Celina Countryman spoke of attending all reunions in the 57 years, with the exception of two. She mentioned the sunbonnets, three cornered shawls and shouts of praise of former years and asked if we really realize the value of their prayers and influence. Mrs. Savilla Spreng stated that 50 years ago the reunion was held at Wooster. There were 20 members present that had attended the first reunion. Included in this number was our President, Mr. John Clement Myers of Ashland, although he does not remember so much about the occasion.

Prior to adjournment, the several committees reported and the officers were elected for the year 1938.

Wooster City Park, Wooster, Ohio. Thursday, June 16, 1938.

The Fifty-Eighth Annual Reunion had an attendance of over two hundred members. After dinner, President John Clement Myers opened the business meeting with the group singing of "America". Reverend Walter Kellar of North Canton, Ohio, gave the invocation.

Mrs. Guy C. Myers very ably extended welcome to those present. She spoke in behalf of the Morr-Myers families, stating that she was happy for them to be together again.

In response, George D. Myers of Ashland, Ohio, showed that the reunions deepen their friendship and affords them the opportunity to express the best interests of the families.

Mrs. Ora Morr read the minutes of the previous reunion. Letters of regret were read from Professor Charles A. Fisher of Selinsgrove, Penna. and Reverend Alpha M. Rickel of Perrysburg, Ohio. This was followed by the Treasurer report by George Kellogg of Ashland, Ohio, Mrs. Effie Myers Fuhrman gave a very interesting Historian and Necrologist report of the past year. She reported seven births, eight marriages, ten deaths and two college graduates.

Mrs. Thomas W. Miller of Ashland, sent good wishes to the reunion relatives and Mrs. Philip Andrew Myers of Beverly Hills, California, sent candy for the group. At this time, our President asked everyone to arise for a prayer in silence, for the loved ones who have passed on.

Billy Emery, son of Dr. and Mrs. George Emery of Ashland, gave a recitation. A letter from Mrs. Marvin Murray of Kansas City, Mo., was read by Mrs. D. E. Stone of Ashland. Short addresses were given by Mrs. Ward Moore of Pueblo, Colorado, Mr. and Mrs. Cook and Mr. and Mrs. Grimm of Butler, Indiana, Mrs. Poulson of Akron, Mrs. Clouser and Mrs. Franklin Weiker of Wooster and Mrs. Evans of Lovington, Illinois.

Mrs. Savilla Spreng of Ashland, told of her trip to Pennsylvania. She was accompanied by Mrs. Elizabeth McCorkle and Mrs. Fuhrman. She described her visit to the scenes and homes of the pioneer descendants and told of the old mill and the large pear tree, which measured 27 inches in diameter and still stands for more than a century. The Morr and Myers families were associated in Germany prior to their migration to America in 1715.

Evidently the above trip was made to Rebersburg, Penna. Your Secretary, his wife Helen and son Raymond, went to Rebersburg in 1947. At that time, we contacted Mr. and Mrs. William C. Kelley. We were unable to contact Mrs. Mary Matilida Meyer Abbott, a sister of Mrs. Kelley, as she was not home at the time of the visit. We well remember that day, as it was raining very hard and our son, Raymond, insisted on going to the cemetery, at which time, wrote the names and dates from many of the Meyer cemetery stones in the cemetery. At that time, Mrs. Kelley reminisced of Mrs. Savilla Spreng's visit.

She spoke of calling on friends in Freeburg, Penna., where the Morr's settled and also of the mountainous country where they settled for fishing and hunting. She mentioned how many of the families were interested in education and church work, although in those days they may have been more crude.

Your Secretary and family also contacted Professor Charles Adam Fisher, a direct descendant of Andrew Morr, of Selinsburg, Penna., in 1947. He took us to the Old Morr Cemetery at Freeburg, Penna. and also pointed out the old distillery building on the Andrew Morr Homestead. Your Secretary was privileged to purchase a copy of Early Pennsylvania births, which was compiled by Charles Adam Fisher and published in 1947, which is a part of the supplement to the Morr and Myers Genealogy Books. Professor Charles Adam Fisher was a renowned Historian and Genealogist and was an active member of The Sons of the American Revolution of Pennsylvania. Prior to 1947, he retired as a professor of the John B. Stetson University of DeLand, Florida.

Vernon Morr spoke of our ancestors and of the White Church that was left as a landmark in his community east of Ashland. He also spoke of Mrs. Savilla Spreng, who was a Sunday School teacher for many years, and said that if they all lived according to the teachings of their parents, they will meet in that Grand Reunion.

John Clement Myers spoke of the responsibility of the group to carry on the reunion in the same spirit, as those who have passed on. He said that 30 years ago, the reunion was held in the grove at White Church and that was his wedding day with the late Mrs. Myers. His entire family was present and he introduced them to the group. Francis Enoch Myers II, R. J. Burns, Dr. W. F. Emery, Howard Morr, William Morr and Reverend Kellar also spoke briefly during the——"Morr remarks" part of the program.

Prior to the closing song and adjournment, the Time and Place, Nominating and Finance committees reported, followed by the election of officers for the ensuing year.

Brookside Park, Ashland, Ohio. Thursday, June 15, 1939.

The Motto of the Morr and Myers Reunion, "To Attend", was very plainly manifested when nearly two hundred members of the Morr and Myers families gathered for the Fifty-Ninth Annual Reunion. The morning was spent renewing acquaintances and at noon a bounteous dinner was served.

The program was opened by group singing of "America", and the invocation was given by Reverend Harold Kellogg of Dayton, Ohio. The Address of Welcome was delivered by John Clement Myers, who spoke of the many days that had passed since the last meeting, expressing thoughts of welcome that come through the many years, a welcome to those present and memories of those who were present in former years. Mr. Myers also spoke of being thankful for the heritage they have as a family and of being present at the first reunion in 1881. Reverend B. F. Martin in response, mentioned he was glad to be present each reunion day for the past few years and spoke of the religious home life, the fine high religious culture, he shared in the home from which he was sent out into the world. The greatest gift of God and man is his memory. The sense of memory is indicated in beast and animal, also especially the humming bird, the smallest of feathered creatures wending its way from South America to its summer climate. Reverend Martin spoke of the appreciation of our heritage in spiritual things.

Following the reports of the Secretary and Treasurer, Mrs. Effie Myers Fuhrman gave a very interesting Historical report, speaking of the years when homes of the earlier families were used for worship until churches were built. She reported eleven births, nine marriages, nine deaths and one graduate, Marion Spreng of Naperville, Illinois, North Central College. A letter of regret was read from Mrs. Ward Moore of Pueblo, Colorado, and a telegram from Mrs. Frances Fuhrman Barton of Boston, Mass. Mrs. Philip Andrew Myers of Beverly Hills, California, sent candy for the group.

Solos, "Deep River" and "Juanita", adapted from an old Spanish air, were sung by Miss Janet Morr. Remarks and comments were given by George D. Myers, Benjamin Morr and Franklin Morr. An accordion solo was played by Miss Helen Countryman. Mrs. Fuhrman spoke of visiting relatives in Texas with George D. Myers and a reading, "Betsy and I", was given by Vernon Morr. Mr. Andrew Philip Morr, 91 years of age, was present. Friends were present from Chicago, Cleveland, Elyria, Wadsworth, Perrysburg, Sebring, Wooster and Loudonville, Ohio.

After several committees' reports and the election of officers, they were adjourned.

Brookside Park, Ashland, Ohio. Thursday, June 20, 1940.

Approximately two hundred members of the Morr and Myers Family Reunion were present for the Sixtieth Annual Reunion. Prior to the picnic dinner, President Guy Countryman appointed members to serve on the Time and Place, Nominating and Finance Committees.

Group singing of "America" opened the afternoon exercises. Reverend B. F. Martin gave the invocation, followed by the Address of Welcome by Reverend Harold Heininger of Naperville, Illinois. Arthur Morr of Jeromesville, gave the response. Mrs. Celia Kellogg read the minutes of the previous reunion and also read the minutes of the reunion held forty years ago, at which time she held the office of Secretary.

An excellent Historical and Necrologist report was given by Mrs. E. H. Fuhrman, who also reviewed events of past reunions. Harold Morr, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ora Morr of Trinity, played a cornet solo. An amusing monologue, "A Day at the Photographer", was given by Miss Betty Anne Schneider of Ashland. Miss Janet Morr of Ashland, accompanied at the piano by Mrs. Marie Song, sang two numbers, "Deep River", and "A Dream", followed by a piano solo by Miss Margaret Nelson.

Short talks were given by Theodore Newton Morr, John Clement Myers, George Denton Myers, George Spreng, Reverend Harrold Heininger, Reverend Alpha Rickel, Mrs. Frank Barton, Mrs. Selina Countryman and Mrs. J. E. Spreng. Seventeen members who attended the first reunion were present. At this time, a rising vote of appreciation was given Mrs. Effie Myers Fuhrman for serving twenty-seven consectutive years as Historian and Necrologist. Reports of committees and the election of officers were held at this time.

Members present from out of town and state were: Reverend and Mrs. Harold Heininger of Naperville, Illinois; Mrs. Frank Barton, Boston, Mass.; Mrs. Marzen Atwater of Hollywood, California; Reverend and Mrs. John Heininger of Simwood, Ohio; Reverend and Mrs. Alpha M. Rickel and son, Homer and daughter of Perrysburg, Ohio; Mr. and Mrs. George Spreng; Miss Mary Rickel; Mr. and Mrs. Hoverstock of Cleveland, Ohio; Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Newton Morr of Wadsworth, Ohio; Mrs. Mary Nottage and sister, Miss Ida Morr of Youngstown, Ohio and Mrs. Frank Herman of Sebring, Ohio.

We were then adjourned and all felt it was a day well spent, seeing old friends and meeting new ones and trusting all might be spared to have the same privilege one year hence.

Brookside Park, Ashland, Ohio. Thursday, June 19, 1941.

The day for the Sixty-First Annual gathering of the Morr and Myers families was perfect, with a temperature of 83 degrees. Prior to dinner, President Francis Enoch Myers II appointed his committees. The assembled group sang "America", followed with a prayer of thanks by Reverend B. F. Martin.

At 2:00 p.m., the Address of Welcome was delivered by Reverend John Wesley Heininger of Simwood, Ohio. He told in his remarks, how he had broke into the Morr family and never had regretted it, giving his good wife, Ida Luella (Rickel) 99 percent of the credit for his fifty years of success in the ministry. Mrs. Helen Myers Miller gave the response.

Marilyn and Donna Morr, accompanied by their mother, Mrs. Ora Morr of Trinity, sang "Shortnin Bread". Mr. Tully Waggoner of Ashland, accompanied by Miss SaRue Krieder, sang two numbers, "God is Love" and "Fickle Among the Maidens". Short talks were given by Vernon Morr of Trinity, Fred J. Morr of Cincinnati, Ohio; Arthur Morr of Jeromesville, John Clement Myers of Ashland, Mrs. Atwater of Hollywood, California and Reverend Harold Kellogg of Dayton, Ohio.

Among those attending from a distance were Mr. and Mrs. Hoverstock, Mr. and Mrs. George Spreng, Miss Mary Rickel, Mrs. Minnie Coup and daughter from Cleveland, Mr. and Mrs. John Heininger of Simwood, Ohio; Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Adamson of Ackworth, Iowa; Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Morr of Ackworth, Iowa; Mr. Fred J. Morr of Cincinnati, Ohio; Miss Helen Countryman of New York City, Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Donahue of Cleveland, Ohio; Reverend and Mrs. Harold Kellogg and children of Dayton, Ohio; Mr. and Mrs. Frank Herman of Sebring, Ohio; Mrs. Viola Atwood of Hollywood, California; Reverend and Mrs. Alpha M. Rickel and daughter Margaret of Perrysburg, Ohio; Mrs. Homer of Perrysburg, Ohio; Mrs. Nottage and Miss Mary Morr of Youngstown, Ohio; Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Newton Morr, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph B. Morr and Mr. and Mrs. Earl Newton Morr of Wadsworth, Ohio.

The election of officers for the ensuing year and report of committees were the order of business at this time.

As a matter of record, your Secretary was privileged to meet Fred J. Morr of Cincinnati, Ohio, in 1940. At this time, Fred Morr was County Auditor of Hamilton County, Ohio. He attended our Sixty-First Annual Reunion and at that time, was not able to directly connect his lineage in the Morr family. However, it was the consensus of opinion of everyone present that he was a "Morr". Mr. Morr's father's name was Edward Morr and his grandfather's name was Jacob Morr.

In 1940, Fred Morr corresponded with Mrs. Effie Myers Fuhrman, Historian and Necrologist of the Morr and Myers families, to ascertain his lineage in the Morr family. At the date of this writing, Fred Morr is the County Commissioner of Hamilton County and his son, Frederic Edward Morr of Xenia, Ohio, is a member of Governor Rhodes Cabinet, serving in the capacity as Director of Natural Resources of the State of Ohio. The appointment was made in January of 1966.

I have reminisced many times, what my father, Theodore Newton Morr told me at that time. "There is no doubt that he is a Morr, as he looks and walks like a Morr". Fred J. Morr lineage is numbered 77 in the Supplement.

Brookside Park, Ashland, Ohio. Thursday, June 18, 1942.

One hundred and fifty relatives and friends were present at the Sixty-Second Annual Reunion. It was a beautiful day, the temperature being 74 degrees. The invocation was offered by Reverend Homer Rickel of Suckey, Ohio.

After a wonderful dinner, President Francis Enoch Myers II appointed his committees. After the singing of "America", Reverend John Heininger offered a prayer. Mrs. Ora Morr gave two readings, "The Touch of the Master's Hand" and "Me and Pa and Mother". The report of committees were accepted and officers elected for the ensuing year.

The remainder of the afternoon was spent in visiting. Those present from a distance were Reverend and Mrs. W. R. Shisler of Huron, Ohio; Reverend and Mrs. John Heininger of Simwood, Ohio; Mr. Ira Steinmetz of Wooster, Ohio; Reverend and Mrs. Alpha M. Rickel of Perrysburg, Ohio; Mrs. Helen Countryman Gracey of Toronto, Canada; Mr. and Mrs. Clem Morr of Mansfield, Ohio; Mrs. Minnie Coup, Mrs. Katherine Maas and daughter of Cleveland, Ohio; Miss Mary Rickel, Mr. and Mrs. Hoverstock of Cleveland; Mr. and Mrs. Frank Herman of Sebring, Ohio; Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Newton Morr, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph B. Morr and son Raymond of Wadsworth, Ohio; also Mr. and Mrs. Walter Herrick of Flint, Michigan. Mrs. Herrick is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Newton Morr.

Brookside Park, Ashland, Ohio. Thursday, June 17, 1943.

Seventy-five members of the Morr and Myers families attended the Sixty-Third Annual Reunion. Due to gas and tire rationing, the attendance was cut approximately one-third of former years.

At 12:30 P.M., our President, Arthur Allen Morr, called the members to order and Reverend B. F. Martin offered prayer. After dinner, the program was opened with the singing of "America", led by Mrs. Hazel Myers Spreng.

President Arthur Allen Morr of Jeromesville, delivered the Welcome Address. He spoke of the absent members of our family in service. Vernon Morr of Trinity, told us of the loss of the old White Church by fire and what it meant to the community. He also stated that they expected to replace the old church with a new one, as soon as they could acquire a building permit. John Clement Myers of Ashland, responded by promising a contribution of $5000.00 to the building fund in memory of his parents and grandparents. This was followed by a $1000.00 donation by Mrs. Kate Myers in memory of her husband, Guy C. Myers and her children. Mrs. Hazel Spreng also contributed $1000.00 in memory of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Alvah N. Myers.

Mrs. Celina Countryman of Jeromesville, Ohio, was called on. She spoke about the first reunion in 1881. She is ninety-two years old and has only missed two reunions. She told of the division in the old White Church, women sat on one side and men on the other and woe to the one who happened to sit in the wrong pew. She told how she changed the custom by refusing to be separated from her new husband she married the week before. Her sister, Savilla Spreng, gave a very interesting account of former years.

Attending from a distance, were Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Newton Morr and daughter, Mabel, also Mr. and Mrs. Ralph B. Morr and son Raymond of Wadsworth, Ohio; Mr. and Mrs. George Spreng of Cleveland; Mrs. Francis Fuhrman Barton of Boston, Mass.; Mr. and Mrs. Clem Morr of Mansfield, Ohio and Mr. and Mrs. D. E. Stone of Lakeworth, Florida.

After the several committees reported, the officers were elected for the year 1944. We were adjourned to meet again next year. It was a nice day, with a cool wind and temperature of 80 degrees.

Office of the F. E. Myers & Bros. Pump Company, Ashland, Ohio. Thursday, June 15, 1944.

In lieu of the regular invitation, a postal card was sent to all members of the Morr and Myers families for the Sixty-Fourth Annual Reunion, as follows: The annual reunion of the Morr - Myers families will not be held this year, due to wartime restrictions on travel and the need, especially at this time, for everyone to remain on the job.

In order not to break the continued string of annual reunions, the officers will meet to transact any business which may properly come before them.

The postal card was signed by Frank Morr, President and dated June 8, 1944.

The minutes of the meeting are as follows:

On Thursday, June 15th, the officers of the Morr Reunion met in the office of the F. E. Myers & Bros., on account of World War II. We thought it advisable, to omit the annual reunion this year.

In the absence of the President, Frank Morr, Francis Enoch Myers II served as chairman. The reports of the Secretary, Treasurer and Necrologist were given. We were then adjourned, hoping that in a year hence, we would be able to meet again at a Morr and Myers Reunion.

The minutes were signed by Francis E. Myers II, President and Celia Kellogg, Secretary.

Brookside Park, Ashland, Ohio. Thursday, June 21, 1945.

One hundred members and friends attended the Sixty-Fifth Annual Reunion. In early morning, rain had threatened, however, by noon it had cleared, making it an ideal day for the annual gathering.

Prior to the picnic dinner, President Frank W. Morr appointed several committees and Reverend Harold Kellogg offered a prayer of thanks. In spite of the war, the picnic tables showed no bare spots from scarcity of food.

After dinner, the President called the business meeting to order and Francis Enoch Myers II graciously responded, when asked to deliver the Address of Welcome. Virginia Spreng Harrison gave a splendid report of marriages, births and deaths. Indications are that the stork has been very busy and guarantees a Morr and Myers reunion for years to come.

A number of the relatives reported on their sons or husbands in service. Talks were given by A. A. Morr of Conrad, Montana; Walter Shisler of Tulsa, Oklahoma, who had not returned to Ashland for thirty-five years. Reverend Harold Kellogg of Athens, Ohio and Hazel Myers Spreng of Cleveland, also gave short talks.

Mrs. Maggie Weaver recited a poem from memory, describing her 80 years of living. The President presented roses to the two oldest members present. Mrs. Celina Countryman, age 94, and Theodore Newton Morr, 86 years of age, were recipients of this honor.

Members attending from a distance were A. A. Morr of Conrad, Montana; Mr. and Mrs. Walter Shisler of Tulsa, Oklahoma; Reverend and Mrs. Harold Kellogg and daughter Carolyn of Athens, Ohio; Mr. and Mrs. Grimes and Mr. and Mrs. George Spreng of Cleveland; Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Newton Morr and daughter Mabel, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph B. Morr and son Raymond of Wadsworth, Ohio; Mr. Steinmetz of Wooster, Ohio; Mr. and Mrs. Clem Morr of Mansfield, Ohio and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Morr and children of Cleveland, Ohio.

After the report of committees and the election of officers, Mrs. Helen Myers Miller led the group as "America" was sung prior to adjournment.

Adjoining homes of Mr. John Clement Myers and Mrs. Thomas W. Miller, 910 and 934 Center Street, Ashland, Ohio. Thursday, June 20, 1946.

The Sixty-Sixth Annual Morr and Myers Reunion was originally scheduled to be held at Brookside Park, Ashland, Ohio. The following is a part of the invitation denoting a change in place:

The Annual Morr - Myers Reunion will be held at the adjoining homes of Mrs. Thomas W. Miller and Mr. John Clement Myers, 934 and 910 Center Street, Ashland, Ohio, on Thursday, June 20, 1946. Since the first Morr - Myers Reunion in 1880, the object of our reunion has been to create and foster a friendly interest in each Morr - Myers to become better acquainted. We hope in this Sixty-Fifth year, we may have a larger response to this invitation and we will look forward with pleasure to having you with us this year.

Mr. John Clement Myers and his sister, Mrs. Thomas W. Miller were host and hostess to the Sixty-Sixth Reunion of the Morr and Myers families. During the week there had been plenty of rain, so tables were set in the garage of John Clement Myers, where one hundred and fifty members gathered for a wonderful picnic dinner. The sun came out and we felt happy about it. After dinner we had a shower, but it did not last long. It helped to bring the scattered folks into the garage for the business meeting and program.

At 2:00 p.m., President Vernon Morr called the group together and "America" was sung, followed with prayer by Reverend Alpha M. Rickel of Napoleon, Ohio. John Clement Myers delivered the Address of Welcome. He spoke of being taken to the First Reunion by his parents and of the noise he made. Then of the difficulties encountered in the earlier days. He and his sister gave us a warm welcome to their homes and we all felt glad for the opportunity to be present at this Special Reunion.

Mr. Ralph Morr of Wadsworth, Ohio, gave the response. He spoke of his father, Theodore Newton Morr, who recently had passed away. He had been the most faithful attendant at the reunions, being present at 64 of the 65 annual reunions. Ralph gave many suggestions to promote more interest and pledged to carry on as his father had done.

A duet was sung by Marilyn and Joan Morr, accompanied by Mrs. Ora Morr. At this time, reports by the Secretary, Treasurer and Necrologist were given, followed by many talks by Morr's and Myers. Our President, Vernon Morr of Trinity, then gave the history of the First Reunion in 1881. Frank Herman of Sebring, Ohio, gave the Time and Place Committee report and Ray Morr of Cleveland, announced the Nominating Committee's slate of officers for the ensuing year.

A vote of thanks was given to John Clement Myers and Mrs. Thomas W. Miller for their friendly hospitality. Members in attendance from a distance were Mrs. Theodore Newton Morr and daughters, Mabel of Wadsworth, Ohio and Mrs. Walter Herrick of Flint, Michigan; Mr. and Mrs. Ralph B. Morr and son Raymond of Wadsworth, Ohio; Mr. and Mrs.

Frank Herman of Sebring, Ohio; Mrs. Charles Morr of Ackworth, Iowa; Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Bader, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Morr of Cleveland, Ohio; Mr. and Mrs. George Spreng of Shaker Heights, Ohio; Mrs. Mumper of Caledonia, Ohio; Mrs. John Read and daughter of North Olmstead, Ohio; Reverend and Mrs. Alpha M. Rickel of Napoleon, Ohio; Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Burkhart and daughter of Bowling Green, Ohio; Mr. and Mrs. George Stone of Glenmont, New York and Mr. and Mrs. D. E. Stone of Lakeworth, Florida.

We were then adjourned by singing, "Blest Be the Tie that Binds". Thus ended another milestone in the Morr and Myers families. Your secretary will never forget this outstanding reunion, as it made us all realize our heritage as a family and to me, the responsibility of being elected President of the Sixty-Seventh Annual Reunion.

Brookside Park, Ashland, Ohio. Thursday, June 19, 1947.

One hundred and twenty-five members of the Morr and Myers families gathered for their Sixty-Seventh Annual Reunion. The day was fair with a temperature of 70 degrees.

Charles Harrison and George Kellogg, the Registration Committee, greeted each member and requested their signature and address in the new registration book. They were then presented with a blue and gold, 67th Annual Morr and Myers Reunion Badge, with their names printed on same. These badges were given to us by our new President, Ralph B. Morr. We did appreciate this generous gift.

At high noon, we were invited to gather around the picnic tables. Reverend Harold Kellogg of Athens, Ohio, gave the invocation. After a wonderful dinner, the committees on Time and Place, Nominating and Finance were appointed by the President. At 1:30 P.M., we were asked to assemble to have our pictures taken. Two group pictures were taken by Mr. Allen Mowrey, a veteran photographer of Ashland, Ohio.

Note—A group picture of the Morr families and one of the Myers families were taken at this time. The Photographic Committee, Francis Enoch Myers II, Mrs. Ralph Morr and Guy Countryman took orders for the group picture, which were sent by mail, to all who ordered them.

The singing of "America", led by Mrs. Thomas W. Miller and accompanied by Marie Song, called us together for the afternoon program. Thomas W. Miller Jr. gave a splendid Address of Welcome, which was followed by responses from David Vernon Morr and John Clement Myers. A baton demonstration was given by Miss Joan Morr, a Mansfield Majorette. She was accompanied by Mrs. Ora Morr.

The President, Ralph Morr, spoke of the need of bringing our family history to date. It was discussed pro and con and the relatives present, felt kindly to the suggestion. John Clement Myers made a motion that Virginia Harrison, be appointed chairman of a committee to investigate the plan and cost of a new combined history of the Morr and Myers families. It was then decided that Mrs. Charles Harrison and her committee be allowed an expense account not to exceed $100.00. The result of the inquiry was to be reported at the annual reunion in 1948.

Mr. Floyd Shisler of Naperville, Illinois, was called on for a few remarks. He is the son of Reverend William Shisler, who was the President of the First Morr Reunion in 1881. Floyd responded with words of appreciation of the many loyal relatives who have kept the organization alive and he felt happy to be present this year. Mrs. Savilla Spreng, our Honorary President, was called on and she responded by saying she had the honor of being the first female Honorary President of the Morr and Myers reunions. Possibly, it was the result of Woman's Sufferage. She gave the best talk of the day, for she told us the history of the Morr's coming to this country from Prussia and gave us dates, going back over 200 years. We thought it wonderful for a lady 88 years old, to remember it all without the aid of notes.

At this time, reports of the different committees were heard and the election of officers for the year 1948, took place. Relatives from out-of-state were Floyd Shisler of Naperville, Illinois; Mrs. Millie Lash of Van Buren, Indiana; Mr. and Mrs. Dan Stone of Lakeworth, Florida; Mrs. Walter Herrick of Flint, Michigan and Mrs. Mary Irwin of Fort Wayne, Indiana. Reverend Harold Kellogg gave the closing prayer before adjournment.

Brookside Park, Ashland, Ohio. Thursday, June 17, 1948.

It was an ideal day for the Sixty-Eighth Annual Reunion, as the day was fair and cool with a temperature of 66 degrees. The morning was spent in meeting old and new friends.

One hundred and thirty members were present for the picnic dinner. The invocation was given by David Vernon-Morr of Trinity. President Ralph Morr appointed several committees and they worked during the noon hour.

At 2:00 p.m., we were called together by singing "America", led by Anne Kellogg. Reverend Harold Kellogg of Athens, Ohio, delivered the invocation. The President gave a warm welcome and called on Mrs. Frank Herman of Sebring, Ohio, to give the Address of Welcome. She spoke of the many years she had attended the reunion, also of the changes in personnel and the joy in meeting the new ones and the sadness of missing others. She urged us to be loyal in attendance. Francis Myers II gave the response in his usual pleasant manner.

The new Morr and Myers history book, which is in the future, was discussed and all felt we should go on with the project. Progress is being made by our able Necrologist, Virginia Harrison. It was moved by John Clement Myers and seconded by Mrs. George Emery, the $100.00 voted on last year be paid to Virginia Harrison for her work and expenses, also to continue in tracing the family history.

Those attending from out-of-state were Mr. and Mrs. Daniel E. Stone of Lakeworth, Florida; Mr. and Mrs. Walter Herrick of Flint, Michigan and A. A. Morr of Conrad, Montana. Prior to adjournment, Reverend Harold Kellogg gave the closing prayer.

Mrs. Charles Harrison, Chairman; Charles Adam Fisher, Thomas W. Miller Jr., John Clement Myers, Mrs. Thomas W. Miller, Mrs. George Kellogg, Mrs. Mary Abbott, Mrs. A. Clarence Adamson, Ralph B. Morr.

In 1948, Mrs. Charles Harrison sent the following printed form to all members on the membership roster of the Morr and Myers relationship, with a request that the lineage questionnaire be filled out and returned.

1. Your full name and address
2. Date and place of birth
3. Your Father's name
4. Your Mother's name
5. Your Grandfather's name
6. Your Grandmother's maiden name
7. Your Brothers and Sisters (Give full name of each in order of birth)
8. If you are married, give date and name of mate
9. If you have children, give full names of each in order of birth
10. To your knowledge, are any of your ancestors listed in either the "Genealogy of the Morr Family" compiled by Calvin F. Moyer, or the Genealogy of the Myers Family, compiled by Henry Meyer.

If so, can you give the number of the page on which they are mentioned?

The members of the Morr and Myers relationship are indeed indebted to Mr. and Mrs. Charles Harrison for their service, in making it possible to complete the Supplement. One hundred and sixty seven lineage questionnaires were returned in the following two years, which made it possible for your Secretary to complete the project.

Brookside Park, Ashland, Ohio. Thursday, June 16, 1949.

One hundred and twenty members attended the Sixty-Ninth Annual Reunion. It was an ideal day for the family gathering, as the temperature was 82 degrees. President Ralph Morr asked the assembly to stand as David Vernon Morr offered a prayer of thanks.

At this time several committees were appointed and at 2:00 P.M. the business meeting was opened, as Mrs. Helen Myers Miller led in singing of "America", accompanied by Mrs. Marie Song at the piano. President Ralph Morr offered greetings and called on Everett Myers for the Address of Welcome. He spoke of the heritage which is ours, of the foresight of our ancestors in planning and forming this family organization 69 years ago. Only twice in that time were we unable to meet for a program and picnic dinner; in June 1920, when it rained so hard, only a few arrived at Norris Grove and in 1944, when the officers met in Myers office and gave reports, but decided not to hold a reunion on account of gas rationing and working conditions during World War II. Everett spoke of the importance of sharing our inheritance with our families—as our families are, so is our community and nation.

Mrs. Elizabeth Simanton graciously gave the response. She spoke of the religious background of our forefathers, of their faith in spiritual things, and urged that we, too, cherish the memory of those who have gone, but still live in our memories.

Virginia Harrison, our genial and efficient Historian, gave her report of marriages, births and deaths, during the past year. She deserves special mention for her fine work as Historian in trying to bring our history up-to-date. John Clement Myers felt that we should continue as we have been, in tracing the families for the new history.

Mrs. Daisy Morr Stone gave a reading entitled, "40 Years Ago". Mrs. Della Berry of Pandora, Ohio, graciously responded when she was asked to say a few words about her family. She concluded by giving a reading entitled, "The Deacon and the Potatoes". John Clement Myers recommended that the officers serve another year. Motion carried.

At this time, many responded by giving short talks. Those present from out-of-state were Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Shisler of Naperville, Illinois, Mr. and Mrs. D. E. Stone of Lake Worth, Florida and Miss Mary Louise Morr of Lansing, Michigan.

Brookside Park, Ashland, Ohio. Thursday, June 15, 1950.

The Seventieth annual gathering had 125 members and friends present. It was a lovely day with a temperature of 77 degrees. Prior to the picnic dinner the President, Ralph B. Morr, appointed the Time and Place, Nominating and Finance Committees.

The picnic tables were heavily laden with many delectable foods, prepared by the famous good cooks of our family. Reverend Alpha M. Rickel of Bowling Green, Ohio, offered a prayer of thanks. After dinner, the members were assembled to have their pictures taken.

The business meeting was called to order and Mrs. Helen Myers Miller led the group in singing "America", followed by a prayer by Reverend W. R. Shisler of Republic, Ohio. Reverend Will Shisler, the son of the first President of the Morr and Myers Reunion 70 years ago, was asked to give the Address of Welcome. He said that he felt honored to be asked to have this part on the program, but felt that someone else should do it, as he had missed so many reunions. He remarked that he had attended the First Reunion, but being a baby in arms and only one year old, he had to guess as to how he got there. He gave a very fine address and hoped that he and his good wife would be privileged to attend more often in the future.

John Clement Myers gave the response. He remarked that he also had attended the First Reunion, but was one year older than Will. He had developed strong lungs and a loud voice and used them to the best of his ability. We know now why John is a master in speech making. He spoke of our heritage and how we should cherish it by taking the time to make friends and keep them by being cheerful and helpful.

Mr. Warren Spreng gave the treasury report, after which it was adopted. The President mentioned the fact that $100.00 had been voted in 1949 to compensate Virginia Harrison for her work in compiling our family history and bringing same to date. John Clement Myers responded by saying he had made the original motion and would pay the amount. We owe him a vote of thanks.

When the President asked how many had attended the First Reunion, six members responded. They were Mrs. Daisy Morr Stone, David Vernon Morr, Reverend Will R. Shisler, Eliza Morr, Reverend Alpha M. Rickel and John Clement Myers. We were also honored by the presence of Dr. and Mrs. John Walter Morr of Albion, Indiana. He said that he was happy to be present and it had been 38 years since he had attended the Morr and Myers Reunion in 1912. He also remarked that he had been practicing medicine for the past 56 years. He would not tell his age, but said you could guess as he had been married 59 years. He was accompanied by his wife, Amanda, a daughter and two grandsons.

As a matter of record, in 1960 when your Secretary was elected Genealogist of the Morr and Myers families, the membership roster had only 3 Morr families, representing Lineage # 11, that received the annual invitation.

This is of the Andrew, John George, Samuel, George S., John Walter Morr, Justin Wheeler Morr, Sr. Lineage. As of this writing in 1967, sixty-two families are registered in the membership roster, which is possibly the most complete and largest of the 89 lineages recorded in the master copy of the supplement. I certainly owe a vote of thanks to Justin Wheeler Morr, Sr. of Albion, Indiana and his son, James Walter Morr, Sr. of Hastings, Michigan for their many letters and considerations. I am also grateful to Mrs. Raymond Worth Crick of Anderson, Indiana for her assistance in Lineage # 11A of the Noah Morr Lineage. Mrs. Crick has been active in the reunions of the Morr families of Indiana, that hold their annual reunion in Auburn, Indiana each year.

Short talks were given by Floyd Shisler of Naperville, Illinois, Reverend Alpha M. Rickel, David Vernon Morr and Elzie Morr. Our Secretary, Mrs. Celia Kellogg, gave the Secretary's report and mentioned the dilapidated condition of the Secretary's Book, which had been used for 70 years. Guy Countryman moved that the book be rebound and purchase a new book to be used from now on. It was seconded by Elizabeth McCorkle and approved. Note, however, the original Secretary's book is still being used in 1967 and will possibly take care of the minutes of the 1968 and '69 Reunions.

John Clement Myers moved that we continue the work on the new family history. This was seconded by Marie Long Spreng and approved. The Necrologist report was given by our genial and hard working Virginia Harrison. She spent many hours of time tracing our lineages and keeping us informed. She knows more about us than we do. We do owe her a vote of thanks for her faithfulness since 1940.

Relatives from out-of-state were, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Shisler of Naperville, Illinois; Mr. and Mrs. D. E. Stone of Lake Worth, Florida; Dr. and Mrs. John Walter Morr of Albion, Indiana; Robert and Charles Morr and Mrs. Tipton of Albion, Indiana; Mrs. Elizabeth Myers Mitchell of Annapolis, Maryland and Miss Jane Henderson of London, England.

The election of officers and the reports of the several committees were the order of business before adjournment.

Brookside Park, Ashland, Ohio. Thursday, June 21, 1951.

The Seventy-First Annual Morr and Myers Family Reunion had approximately 125 in attendance. Our President, John Clement (Jack) Myers Jr., called the relatives and friends together for dinner and Reverend Alpha M. Rickel of Bowling Green, Ohio, offered the prayer of thanks.

The business meeting was called to order and our President introduced his brother, Everett Mould Myers for the Address of Welcome. Everett spoke of what the family reunion means to each of us and reviewed briefly events that had happened since the First Reunion. He also spoke of the debt of gratitude we owe our ancestors and forefathers for the heritage passed on to us.

The response was given by the retiring President, Ralph B. Morr of Wadsworth, Ohio. In his remarks, he said it was a privilege and duty to attend each reunion, which has almost become an institution, and believes the reason we have endured so long and met faithfully is because "we are a God-fearing people". He urged that our children and children's children be encouraged to attend regularly.

At this time, Mrs. Howard Simanton read the minutes of our past reunion. Warren Spreng gave the Treasurer's report, followed by a complete and detailed report of marriages, births and deaths occurring in the family during the past year. A mimeographed copy of this report was distributed to everyone present.

During a period of informal remarks, an interesting letter, written in 1896 by Jacob Morr Jr., was read by Mrs. Jacob Calvin Hoover of Dundee, Michigan. Others attending from a distance were, Mrs. Grant Holmes of Albion, Michigan; W. J. Ghrimes of Cleveland, Ohio; Mrs. Walter Herrick of Flint, Michigan; Mrs. Daniel E. Stone of Lake Worth, Florida; Mr. and Mrs. George B. Spreng of Shaker Heights, Ohio; Mrs. Olive Gensler of Toledo, Ohio; Mrs. William T. Morr of Wooster, Ohio; Reverend and Mrs. Alpha M. Rickel of Bowling Green, Ohio; Mr. Ira Steinmetz of Wooster, Ohio and Mr. and Mrs. Ralph B. Morr of Wadsworth, Ohio. Many cards of regrets were read by our Historian, Mrs. Charles Harrison.

The Time and Place Committee and the Nominating Committee gave their reports, which was followed by the election of officers for the ensuing year.

Brookside Park, Ashland, Ohio. Thursday, June 19, 1952.

The attendance at our Seventy-Second Annual Reunion was not as large as usual, as only sixty members had registered and assembled for a picnic dinner at noon. The invocation was offered by Reverend Alpha M. Rickel of Delaware, Ohio.

The meeting in the afternoon was opened by the President, John Clement Myers Jr. of Ashland, Ohio, who called for the reports of several committees. Ralph B. Morr stated that the committee had decided to change the date of the 1953 Annual Reunion to the third Saturday in June and also to change the place to Chippewa Lake, Ohio. The Committee thought it would have a tendency to increase our attendance, and would also be an incentive for the younger people to attend; however, the Committee's recommendations were voted down. Warren Spreng gave the Finance Committee's report. He reported a balance of $76.11, plus a collection of $41.18. Total cash on hand, $118.29. Chairman of the Nominating Committee, Francis Enoch Myers II, submitted the following officers for 1953.

Honorary President—David Vernon Morr
President—Ralph B. Morr
1st Vice President—John Clement Myers Jr.
2nd Vice President—Thomas W. Miller Jr.
Secretary—Elizabeth Simanton
Treasurer—Warren Spreng
Historian and Necrologist—Mrs. Charles Harrison

The officers were elected by motion of unanimous ballot.

The President then presented Ralph B. Morr of Wadsworth, Ohio, who gave the Address of Welcome. He urged that we do not let our interest in the reunion lag, but to urge our children and families to attend. He also remarked that we owe to those who have gone before us, that our family fellowship continue.

Mrs. Guy C. Myers gave the response and spoke of what the date and occasion of the reunion means and has meant to her in the past, and of the heritage which is ours. She remarked that she war born during the last week of the year the first reunion was held.

A few minutes of silent tribute was observed in the memory of John Clement Myers and others who had passed away during the year.

Your Secretary and all of the members of the Morr and Myers families always held John Clement Myers in very high esteem, not only for his superb leadership, not only for the dignity with which he conducted meetings, but for his kindness and thoughtfulness for other people on all occasions. He, like his father, Francis Enoch Myers and his uncle, Philip Andrew Myers, had been responsible for many well-planned reunions, that gave us a strong base, and have carried on for eighty-seven consecutive years.

Prior to his passing away on March 1, 1952, your Secretary and Mrs. Morr will never forget the occasion when all of the relatives were invited to his home at 910 Center Street, Ashland, Ohio, after the family reunion, which I believe was in 1950.

John Clement Myers' home had a large collection of art, of which he so ably gave his guest an explanation of the different paintings and other pieces of art. At that time, Mrs. Morr and myself were invited to visit his home as guests for several days or a week. We were sorry that it never came to pass, as Helen and I always had the highest personal regard for John Clement Myers. May the Good Lord always Bless and take care of him.

The report of the Secretary was read and accepted as read. In the absence of Mrs. Charles Harrison, who was away on vacation, the report of the Historian and Necrologist was read by Mrs. Guy C. Myers. She also read a telegram from her daughter, Elizabeth Myers Mitchell, extending greetings to all present. There were 15 births, 8 marriages and 16 deaths recorded by the Historian for the past year.

Regrets and good wishes were expressed to those unable to attend because of sickness. George Kellogg was a patient in the Mansfield Hospital and David Vernon Morr and Celia Morr, had expected to be present. Inquiry was made concerning the health of Mary Nottage of Youngstown, Ohio.

Three present, who had attended the first Morr and Myers Reunion in 1881, were called on for remarks. Arthur Allen Morr of East Lansing, Michigan, recalled that barrels of water were hauled to the grove near the White Church, by horsedrawn sled, they opened the rail fence to get to the woods. He also stated that whole families attended in those days and sat on rough hewn planks, supported by logs. He also recalled one day, when the reunion was to have been held at the Pleasant Home Camp Grounds, but it rained very hard and no one was there but the Francis Enoch Myers' families.

Daisy Morr Stone, who also attended the first reunion stated that she was especially glad to be present this year, as at 1:00 P.M. of the day before she was in Palm Beach, Florida, boarding a plane at Morrison Field to come to Ohio.

Reverend Alpha M. Rickel also expressed pleasure at being present and urged that we interest our children and grandchildren, in carrying on the family tradition. Further remarks were made by Mr. and Mrs. Charles Cook of Butler, Indiana and Mary Louise Morr of East Lansing, Michigan. Others attending from a distance were, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Morr and Mr. and Mrs. Fernau C. Bader of Cleveland, Ohio; Mrs. Theodore Newton Morr, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Newton Morr and Mr. and Mrs. Ralph B. Morr of Wadsworth, Ohio.

Brookside Park, Ashland, Ohio. Thursday Evening, June 18, 1953, 5:00 P.M.

Eighty-six members of the Morr and Myers families attended the Seventy-Third Annual Reunion. Reverend Alpha M. Rickel offered thanks for the picnic supper.

Note—It was decided in 1952 to have a late afternoon dinner, with the thought in mind that more members and their families would attend at a later hour.

After the Secretary's report, Thomas W. Miller Jr., Chairman of the Nominating Committee, submitted a slate of candidates for the year 1954, which was accepted and elected.

A vote of thanks was extended to Mrs. Charles Harrison for her faithful service in keeping the family history during the past 12 years, also for this years report, a mimeographed copy of which was distributed to each member present.

Warren Spreng, our Treasurer, reported a balance of $101.29 in the treasury, after all bills were paid and that the collection amounted to $55.00.

Among those present from a distance were, Mrs. Charles Cook of Butler, Indiana; Mrs. R. F. Lanzillotti of Pullman, Washington; Mr. and Mrs. Daniel E. Stone, recently returned from Lake Worth, Florida. Also present was a small great-grandson of Will Weaver, who has spent a year in Japan and will soon leave for Germany. Before adjournment, Robert Morr reported as Chairman of the Time and Place Committee.

Brookside Park, Ashland, Ohio. Thursday, June 17, 1954, 5:00 P.M.

The Seventy-Fourth Annual gathering was low in attendance as forty-seven members enjoyed the picnic supper. Earl De Lancey of Polk, Ohio, offered the invocation.

President Ralph B. Morr, opened the meeting and the Secretary read the minutes of the previous reunion. Mrs. Oscar Ingmand of Ashland, Ohio, read the program from the invitation sent to all members of the Morr and Myers families in 1904. The reunion of fifty years ago was very interesting, as it had a forenoon and afternoon program at the Pleasant Home Camp Grounds on Thursday, June 9th. Music was furnished by the Ashland chorus and orchestra. There were several solos, quartet numbers and duets. Philip Andrew Myers was President at this time.

Historian and Genealogist, Mrs. Ora Morr of Ashland, Ohio, gave her report which showed 11 births, 7 marriages and 9 deaths in the family in the past year. Mrs. Morr also read several cards of greetings from those living at a distance, or elderly and unable to attend, also a telegram from Mrs. Thomas W. Miller, who was visiting in London, England was read.

Ivan Stone, Chairman of the Nominating Committee, Paul Kellogg of the Time and Place Committee and Everett Mould Myers of the Finance Committee gave their reports. Everett Myers reported a balance of $132.41 in the treasury.

Before the meeting adjourned, informal remarks and reminiscences of former reunions were made by several of those present including, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Morr of Cleveland, Ohio; Everett Myers of Ashland, Ohio; Mrs. Oscar Ingmand of Ashland, Ohio; Mrs. Ora Morr and others. The President urged more interest in the family gathering and asked each member to personally invite other relatives to attend. Mrs. Daisy Morr Stone also told of some interesting reunions she had attended.

Brookside Park, Ashland, Ohio. Thursday, June 16, 1955, 5:00 P.M.

There were eighty members present at the Seventy-Fifth Annual Morr and Myers Reunion, however, only 67 had signed the register book. President Ralph Morr, asked for the Secretary's report which was read and accepted. Mrs. Howard Simanton also read the minutes of the reunion held fifty years ago on June 8, 1905.

Mrs. Oscar Ingmand gave the Treasurer's report, which showed a balance of $164.46 in the treasury. This was followed by the Genealogist report. Mrs. Ora Morr reported 5 births, 2 marriages and 5 deaths during the past year.

At this time, several committees made their reports and the election of the officers for 1956 took place. There were four present who had attended the First Reunion in 1880. Reverend Alpha M. Rickel of Delaware, Ohio, Arthur Allen Morr of East Lansing, Michigan, Celia Kellogg and Daisy Morr Stone of Ashland, Ohio. Each told their memories of the day.

Others who gave short talks and welcoming messages were, Ray Morr of Cleveland, Ohio; Marshall Moore of Mansfield, Ohio; Mrs. Thomas W. Miller and Francis Enoch Myers of Ashland, Ohio; Mrs. Guy Myers read a message from Hazel and George Spreng of Cleveland, Ohio, who were in Germany and another message from Elizabeth and Carrolton Mitchell in Italy.

The largest representation from one family was from the Ora Morr family, with seventeen present.

Brookside Park, Ashland, Ohio. Thursday, June 21, 1956, 5:00 P.M.

Fifty-Three members had signed the registration book for the Seventy-Sixth Annual Morr and Myers Reunion, however, the official count was seventy-six present.

Reverend Alpha M. Rickel gave the invocation for the bountiful picnic dinner provided by the Lord. The business meeting was called to order by our President, Everett Mould Myers. After greetings were exchanged and visitors introduced, the minutes of the 1955 meeting were read and approved as read. Our Secretary, Mrs. Howard Simanton, also read the minutes for the reunion held fifty years ago at the Pleasant Home Ohio Camp Grounds, on Thursday, June 14, 1906.

The report of the Treasurer, Mrs. Oscar Ingmand, was given followed by the Genealogist report. Mrs. Ora Morr also read several messages from relatives who were unable to attend the family gathering.

At this time, the Time and Place Committee and Nominating Committee's reports were presented for consideration. The reports were accepted and officers were elected for the ensuing year. Attending from a distance were, Mr. and Mrs. George Spreng of Shaker Heights, Ohio; Mr. and Mrs. Alpha Rickel, also Kay Ellen and Carol Burkhart of Delaware, Ohio; Mrs. Frank Herman of Sebring, Ohio; Mr. and Mrs. William T. Morr of Wooster, Ohio; Mr. and Mrs. Marshall C. Moore and son Richard of Mansfield and Dr. and Mrs. Harold Kellogg of Lima, Ohio.

Brookside Park, Ashland, Ohio. Thursday, June 20, 1957, 5:00 P.M.

The Seventy-Seventh Annual gathering had a smaller attendance, as 51 members and friends assembled for the picnic dinner, as Reverend Alpha M. Rickel offered a prayer of thanks.

Our President, Marshall Moore of Mansfield, Ohio, opened the business meeting by calling on those present to introduce themselves and tell where they were from.

Our Secretary, Mrs. Howard Simanton, read the minutes of the 1956 reunion. She also read the minutes of the Twenty-Seventh Annual Morr and Myers Reunion held at Pleasant Home Ohio Camp Grounds, on Thursday, June 13, 1907.

Mrs. Ora Morr gave her Genealogist report. Letters and cards from relatives unable to attend were read. The communications were from Columbus, Toledo, Cleveland, Michigan, Iowa and California. After reporting the births, marriages and deaths in the family for the past year, a tribute was read in memory of Mrs. Guy C. Myers of Ashland, Ohio, who had met death suddenly in an automobile accident on March 25, 1957.

Reverend Alpha M. Rickel of Springfield, Ohio, made a motion that the report be accepted and led in a tribute to all those who had passed away during the year.

Mrs. Oscar Ingmand reported a balance of $158.46 in the treasury and because of the large balance on hand, it was decided that the collection would be dispensed with. Homer Rickel moved that we accept the Treasurer's report with gratitude to the F. E. Myers and Bros. Pump Company for bearing the expense of printing and mailing the invitations each year.

Ralph Morr and Jack Myers submitted a slate of officers for the ensuing year, which were reelected. Ralph Morr spoke concerning the increasing lack of interest in the family gathering and suggested that next year's invitations be more than the usual postal card, which can easily be overlooked in the mail.

It was moved by Mrs. John Clement Myers Jr., that the next reunion be held at the same time and place, with registration beginning at 5:00 P.M. Members attending from a distance were, Edson Morr Jr. and Kenneth Morr from Delta, Ohio; Ford Morr of Waldron, Michigan; Mr. and Mrs. George Beck Spreng of Shaker Heights, Ohio; Mr. and Mrs. Alpha M. Rickel of Delaware, Ohio and Homer Rickel of Springfield, Ohio.

Brookside Park, Ashland, Ohio. Thursday, June 26, 1958, 5:00 P.M.

The Seventy-Eighth Annual Morr and Myers Reunion had only 31 in attendance and was becoming a matter of great concern.

After the picnic dinner, our President, Marshall C. Morr opened the meeting with the reading of the minutes of the previous meeting. Mrs. Howard Simanton also read the minutes of the annual reunion of fifty years ago, which was held at Pleasant Home Ohio Camp Grounds, on Thursday, June 11, 1908. John Clement Myers, presided as President.

Mrs. Ora Morr, Genealogist, presented her report of births, marriages and deaths. Mrs. Oscar Ingmand reported a balance of $155.46 in the treasury and the collection was dispensed with as there was ample cash to carry on.

Ralph B. Morr submitted a slate of officers for the ensuing year which were elected. After some discussion as to the way the attendance at the reunion could be increased, it was decided to hold the 1959 reunion on Saturday of the third week in June. Registration of members at 1:00 P.M. with dinner being served at 2:00 P.M. It was also decided to reserve tables in the lower pavilion in lieu of the main pavilion, as there would be less confusion and noise to contend with during the business meeting.

Members attending from a distance were, Mrs. Carl Edward Hoppes of Parma, Ohio; Mr. and Mrs. Marshall C. Moore of Mansfield, Ohio; Mrs. Donald Morr, Mr. and Mrs. Robert E. Morr and Roger D. Morr of Perrysville, Ohio.

Honorary President—Mrs. Daisy Morr Stone

Brookside Park, Ashland, Ohio. Saturday, June 20, 1959, 1:00 P.M.

The Seventy-Ninth Annual Morr and Myers Reunion had 42 members in attendance. Earl De Lancey of Polk, Ohio, offered the prayer of thanks before the picnic dinner at 2:00 P.M.

President Ivan Stone called the business meeting to order. Our Secretary, Mrs. Howard Simanton, read the minutes of the previous reunion and also read the minutes of the reunion held fifty years ago at Chippewa Lake Park, Ohio, on Thursday, June 17, 1909. It was a rainy reunion day and Philip Andrew Myers was the President protem in the absence of Albert Hoegner. The Ashland Military Band furnished entertainment for the day.

Mrs. Ora Morr read the Genealogist report and also letters and cards she had received from relatives who were unable to attend. An interesting letter expressing best wishes and regret of being unable to be present was read. It was from Reverend and Mrs. Alpha M. Rickel, who were visiting Mr. Rickel's sister, Mrs. Viola Atwater in Hollywood, California.

Mrs. Oscar Ingmand reported $149.07 in the treasury, which did not necessitate a collection by the Finance Committee. Ralph Morr proposed that the present slate of officers be retained for the following year. The proposal was accepted.

The attendance at our annual reunion, being on the decline, it was suggested by Ralph B. Morr that a regular printed invitation be sent to all members in 1960, in lieu of a postal card, with the thought in mind that a member receiving the invitation would realize that we need their cooperation and attendance to carry on our heritage, as possibly one of the oldest family reunions in America.

Ralph B. Morr and Guy A. Countryman were appointed to plan the invitation for our 79th Annual Reunion. Oscar Ingmand and Earl De Lancey were appointed as a committee to serve coffee, soft drinks and other refreshments, as an inducement for each family to have their children in attendance. Several letters and cards were read from relatives who were unable to attend, before adjourning.

Members attending from a distance were, William Ghrimes of Cleveland, Mr. and Mrs. Robert B. Reese of North Canton, Ohio; Mrs. Mildred Zenner of Akron, Ohio; Arthur Allen Morr and his daughter Mary Louise of East Lansing, Michigan; Mrs. Margaret Morr Cook of Jeromesville, Ohio; Mr. and Mrs. Frank Pester of New Lenox, Illinois; Mr. and Mrs. William Day of Plainfield, Illinois; Mr. and Mrs. Earl De Lancey of Polk, Ohio and Mrs. Lester Rader and sons Stephan P., Roger Keith, Mark Lewis and a daughter, Paula Sue of New London, Ohio.

Brookside Park, Ashland, Ohio. Saturday, June 18, 1960, 12:00 P.M.

The registration of guests began at 12:00 P.M. for our Eightieth Annual Reunion of the Morr and Myers families. Forty-eight members were in attendance. The group sang "Praise God From Whom All Blessings Flow", and Mrs. Ora Morr offered a prayer of thanks before the picnic dinner.

Our President, Ivan Stone opened the meeting and Mrs. Howard Simanton read the minutes of our annual reunion in 1959. She also read the minutes for the 30th Annual Reunion, fifty years ago that was held at Chippewa Lake, Ohio, on Thursday, June 16, 1910.

The Historian report was given by Mrs. Ora Morr, at which time she reported that Reverend Alpha M. Rickel had passed away at the home of his sister, Mrs. Viola Atwater of Hollywood, California on February 23, 1960. Interment was in Trinity Cemetery on March 11, 1960.

A letter in tribute from his wife, Olive was read and is as follows:

We requested memorial gifts in place of flowers and over seven hundred dollars has been given for memorials in different churches he served and at the Theological Seminary at Naperville, Illinois. To me it has been a beautiful tribute to him and I know will continue to do much good for years to come. Alpha always enjoyed attending the reunions and more than once we made some pretty big sacrifices to get there. I am sure if he were with us today, he would want to make the trip clear back to Ohio to attend the 80th Annual Reunion. He never missed very many.

Mrs. Ora Morr also read a letter from his sister, Mrs. Viola Atwater, in tribute and is as follows:

The reunion always brings back many very happy memories. Alpha and I attended the first reunion eighty years ago and have been present many, many times since. We know his is a happier reunion this year with many of our beloved ones in that better land.

Your Secretary and Genealogist always held Reverend Alpha in very high esteem and will never forget his wise counsel and a request that he made to me after the adjournment of one of our annual reunions. He asked that I do everything in my power to keep the Morr and Myers Annual Reunion an active organization. I have never forgotten the request, and have strived to fulfill it with the best of my ability. Mrs. Morr and myself always felt it a privilege that we knew Reverend Alpha and his wife, Olive. May the Good Lord always Bless and be with each of them.

Our Treasurer, Mrs. Oscar Ingmand, reported a balance of $149.07 in the treasury, with accounts payable of $111.08, leaving a balance of $37.99.

Analyzing our financial status relative to our expenses for invitations, the members of the Morr and Myers families can, and will always remember the families of Francis Enoch Myers, Philip Andrew, John Clement, Alva, George Jay, John Clement Jr., Francis Enoch II, John Clement (Jack) Jr., and Everett Mould Myers for the many years that they were financially responsible for the expenses incurred in the printing of the invitations and mailing of same each year.

Ralph B. Morr suggested that the mailing list be revised, to include only the names of the members that have attended the reunions in the past 10 years. This suggestion was made as an assurance that the reunion would be financially able to continue as an active organization.

Mrs. Betty Leedy, chairman of the Nominating Committee, submitted a slate of officers that were duly elected to serve during the year 1961.

Short talks were given by several attending from a distance, including Arthur Allen Morr and his daughter, Mary Louise of East Lansing, Michigan, also Mr. and Mrs. Emory Johnson (Frieda Countryman) from Pittsburgh, Penna.

A vote of thanks was given to the committees in charge of arrangements: Reception Committee, Edwin F. Morr, Francis E. Myers II and Mrs. Ora Morr; Registration Committee, John C. Myer Jr., Robert Eugene Morr and Elizabeth Simanton; Invitation Committee, Ralph B. Morr and Guy Countryman.

Honorary President—Arthur Allen Morr

TO ALL MEMBERS OF THE MORR AND MYERS FAMILIES:

The Eightieth Annual Reunion of the Morr and Myers families will be held at Brookside Park, Ashland, Ohio, on Saturday, June 18, 1960 at 12:30 P.M. EST.

The officers of our Eightieth Annual Reunion extend to each member of the Morr and Myers families, a cordial invitation to attend our annual get-together and we hope that each individual member evaluates this privilege as our reunion needs your cooperation and presence for a successful reunion.

We realize the many duties each individual member has to contend with in his or her daily life. The committments each of us make to our churches, the fulfillment of our duties to civic organizations and other affiliations are all important ones. We, as members of the Morr and Myers families, have a distinct privilege of being members of a lineage that goes back to the year 1715 when the descendants of the Morr and Myers families emigrated to America from their homes in Germany.

It is important that we attend our Eightieth Annual Reunion and equally important to bring the children, as the leadership of our reunion will be entrusted to them in the future!

In 1944, due to wartime conditions and gasoline rationing, a small group of Morrs and Myers attended the 65th Annual Reunion held at Brookside Park, Ashland, Ohio, on June 15, 1944, to continue an unbroken record of Annual Reunions. This small group of Morrs and Myers met and went through the formalities of a short business session to insure a privilege that we now have to attend our 80th consecutive reunion.

Note—Actually a Business Meeting was held in the offices of the F. E. Myers Pump Co. in Ashland, Ohio, in lieu of the 65th Annual Morr and Myers Reunion.

Your attendance will show your appreciation of being a member of possibly one of the oldest family reunions in America, whose religious background has cemented a strong bond of brotherly love among its members.

Each year it is God's will that we lose loved ones and it behooves us to do everything possible to keep the younger members of the families interested in the Morr and Myers Families Reunion to perpetuate this great bond of friendship that has existed for many years.

Mrs. Ora P. Morr, Route No. 2, Ashland, Ohio, Historian and Genealogist, would appreciate if you would drop her a line on a Post Card relative to deaths, marriages and births that have occurred during the past year.

The Registration Committee will afford you the opportunity of registering your name and the names of your children as a permanent record of your attendance.

The Reception Committee will be on hand to give you a cordial welcome and to help you to become better acquainted.

The Refreshment Committee will furnish coffee, ice cream and soft drinks. Plan now to attend our 80th Annual Reunion. You are urged to make personal calls to relatives that have not regularly attended in the past and extend to them a cordial invitation to be present.

Warmest personal regards from your officers and committees.

Brookside Park, Ashland, Ohio. Saturday, June 17, 1961, 12:30 P.M.

The attendance of the Eighty-First Annual Morr and Myers gathering was small with 35 members present. It was an ideal day for the Morr and Myers reunion. Our President, Ivan Stone, asked the members present to assemble at the picnic tables as Earl De Lancey gave the invocation. He also announced that the city of Ashland was host to a Firemans Convention and would call the business meeting to order immediately after dinner, as several members were taking part in a parade that started at 2:00 P.M. and would be of 4-hour duration.

Business meeting called to order at 1:35 P.M. Minutes of the 80th Annual Reunion were read and approved as read. Your Secretary read the minutes of the Morr and Myers Reunion held 50 years ago at Chippewa Lake, Ohio, on Thursday, June 15, 1911. 250 guests were present. 47 members present had attended the 1st Annual Reunion in 1881.

Mrs. Oscar Ingmand, our Treasurer, reported the following expenses for our 81st Annual Reunion. 500 sheets of index card $5.00, postage $11.13, phone call 70¢, and park rental $4.00. Total expenses $20.83.

Your Secretary reported that he had made a revised membership roster, which included all names and addresses of members attending our reunions since 1947, at which time registration of all members present was recorded in a book purchased for that purpose. The new membership roster listed 393 families consisting of 795 members, with corrected addresses and a cross reference of numbers to denote lineage and relationship. He further stated that all invitations, newspaper clippings, letters, photographs and other records of the Morr and Myers families had been mounted on folders, that they may be better preserved; also, that 66 letters had been received from members verifying their correct addresses, plus the names and addresses of 170 members that were added to the membership roster in the past year. Six members had requested lineage reports of their ancestry, which was furnished with all the information that they were interested in.

Your Secretary reported that many requests for copies of the Morr Genealogy Book were received. He also suggested that the invitations for the 82nd Annual Reunion be worded to the effect that non-attending members could voluntarily contribute to the upkeep of our reunion by sending contributions to Mrs. Oscar Ingmand, our Treasurer. Any surplus over expenses would be banked in a separate account to finance a revised supplement of the Morr and Myers Genealogy from the years 1890 and 1896 to the present date.

It was moved by Earl De Lancey and seconded by Earl Morr of Delta, Ohio, that the members be solicited for contributions through the invitations to defray expenses of future reunions, also to build up a fund to publish a combined supplement of the Morr and Myers Genealogy Books. Motion carried.

Lineage reports were received from the following members during the past year. Lester J. Morr, Altamont, Illinois; James W. Morr, Hastings, Michigan; Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Ingmand, Ashland, Ohio; Mrs. Jack A. Morr Ambrose, Hartford, Kansas; Fred J. Morr, Cincinnati, Ohio; Mrs. Alvin Morr Schrepferman, Denver, Colorado; Mr. and Mrs. William Hansen, Ashland, Ohio; Mrs. Ora Morr, Ashland, Ohio; Dr. and Mrs. George Myers Emery, Ashland, Ohio; Mr. and Mrs. Curtiss Ginn Jr., Ashland, Ohio; Mrs. Oliver Mann, Ashland, Ohio; Mrs. Bert Myers, North Liberty, Iowa; Mrs. Verne Skinner, Hart, Michigan; Grant E. Long, Ashland, Ohio; Mr. and Mrs. Earl Morr and son Gerald, Delta, Ohio and Mrs. Lilley Hoover of Dundee, Michigan.

Mrs. Lilley Hoover told of visiting the old Jacob Morr farm near Trinity Church. She also contributed a charcoal portrait of her great-grandfather, Michael Morr, also his obituary taken from a local newspaper stating that he had passed away June 10, 1877, at the age of 80 years and 8 months. She also contributed an invitation to the 17th Annual Morr and Myers Reunion held at Pleasant Home, Ohio, Thursday, June 10, 1897, at 9:00 A.M.

Your Secretary visited Mrs. Hoover at Dundee, Michigan, July 15, 1961, to return the invitation. Mrs. Hoover stated that she had contributed the invitation as a permanent record of the family reunion. She also gave small photographs of her uncles, George Morr and Jacob Morr.

Earl Morr of Delta, Ohio, gave a very interesting talk on his lineage. He is the son of Edson Clement Morr and Catherine Elizabeth Mann Morr of the John Philip Morr line. Earl is the County Auditor of Fulton County, Wauseon, Ohio. He said that he had the pleasure of meeting Fred J. Morr, County Auditor of Hamilton County, Ohio, and his son Frederic E. Morr, County Auditor of Green County, Ohio, at the Annual Auditors Convention on several occasions. He also stated that he had attended the 37th Annual Reunion at Chippewa Lake, Ohio, Thursday, June 21, 1917.

Mrs. Howard Simanton reported that her mother, Daisy Morr Stone, and Celia Kellogg were sick and unable to attend the reunion. We were honored by the presence of Arthur Allen Morr, who has served as Secretary and President of our reunion on several occasions. He was accompanied by his two daughters, Mary Louise Morr of East Lansing, Michigan and Mrs. Lloyd Cook of Jeromesville, Ohio. Arthur was 89 years of age, celebrating his birthday on June 24, 1961. Arthur chose to stay in the car during the business meeting.

President Ivan Stone thanked Mrs. Ora Morr for her faithful service as Genealogist of the Morr and Myers families since 1953. Mrs. Howard Simanton was given a vote of thanks for her service as Secretary for the past 11 years, as was Ralph B. Morr for the many hours he had contributed to the genealogy of the Morr and Myers families and other reunion duties.

At this time, a slate of officers were nominated and elected to serve during the ensuing year. It was moved by Ralph B. Morr and seconded by Mrs. Ralph Morr that the reunion date be changed from the 3rd Saturday in June to the 3rd Sunday in June of 1962, as members were not attending on Saturdays. This motion was presented and carried as an incentive to increase attendance in the future, and not to interfere in any way with the members attending their respective churches before attending the reunion.

Brookside Park, Ashland, Ohio. Saturday, June 16, 1962, 12:00 P.M.

Our Eighty-Second Annual Morr and Myers Reunion experienced their smallest attendance in many years with 21 members present. It was an ideal day for the reunion, as it was fair with a temperature of 82 degrees. The members of the Morr and Myers reunion are indebted to the Ora Morr family for their loyal support as 9 of the 21 members present were of this family. They departed shortly after dinner as Carl Otto Leedy, son of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Leedy of 510 Phillips Avenue, Ashland, Ohio, a grandson of Mr. and Mrs. Ora Morr, would be united in marriage to Miss Sandra Kohler of Rittman, Ohio. The wedding was to take place at the Methodist Church in Rittman, Ohio, at 7:00 P.M.

Prior to the picnic dinner, Earl De Lancey gave a prayer of thanks that each of us had the privilege of attending the Morr and Myers reunion. In the absence of our President, Ivan Stone and family, who were unable to attend, your Secretary opened the meeting at 2:00 P.M. with the reading of the minutes of the 81st Reunion, followed by the reading of the minutes of the 32nd Annual Reunion held at Chippewa Lake, Ohio, Thursday, June 20, 1912. Dr. John Walter Morr of Albion, Indiana, was called on to give the Address of Welcome. The Treasurer reported a balance of 95 cents in the treasury, with a collection of $13.80. G. M. Morr was President and George O. Kellogg served as Secretary.

Your Secretary reported that 386 invitations had been sent out in 1962, which represented 986 registered members, which was a gain of 86 members on the roster in the past year. 41 cards had been returned for various reasons. Requests for 5 lineage reports were sent to families that were interested in their lineages. 50 letters and cards were received during the past year, giving pertinent information relative to their lineage, which were recorded in the Morr and Myers Registry. Many inquiries were received for copies of the Morr Genealogy published in 1896, or a supplement, if published in the future.

The following is a part of the invitation that was sent to the members for the 82nd Annual Morr and Myers Reunion held at Brookside Park, Ashland, Ohio, Saturday, June 16, 1962.

Your officers and members present at the 81st Annual Reunion voted unanimously to give members an opportunity to contribute to the upkeep of our reunion. Any family or member wishing to contribute are urged to send their checks to Mrs. Oscar Ingmand, Treasurer of the Morr and Myers Reunion, 223 W. Liberty Street, Ashland, Ohio. The service of your officers are gratis. The money received will be used to pay the expenses of the reunion. All surplus money received would be banked in a separate new genealogy account to further the publishing of a Supplement to the Morr and Myers Families Genealogy from 1890 to the present date, if it is financially possible to do so. The officers and members attending our annual reunion are conscientiously trying to keep our heritage. Your assistance will help to activate our reunion, so that our family history will continue, as it has since the year 1715.

The following is the financial response that your Secretary received from the above request.

The first check that I received was from Mr. and Mrs. Franklin F. Morr, 830 Sheridan Road, Evanston, Illinois. Franklin F. Morr is the son of Arthur Allen Morr, who served as President and Secretary of our reunion on several occasions. The check received was for $100.00, with a letter requesting that it be used specifically to publish a Supplement to the Morr and Myers Genealogy. Franklin F. Morr Lineage is numbered # 1, page 186 Morr Genealogy and is of the Arthur Allen Morr—George John Morr—Michael Morr—John George Morr—Andrew Morr Lineage.

Your Secretary has always been grateful for this contribution, as it was the incentive to set up the master copy, which meant that three large cardboxes of letters, newspaper clippings, lineage reports, record books and invitations had to be sorted and placed in their proper numbered lineages.

The response for funds during the coming months, prior to Reunion Day, were beyond expectations. The following are members that so graciously sent contributions at a time we were seriously thinking of disbanding because of financial reasons and non-attendance.

Mrs. Thomas W. Miller, Sr., Ashland, Ohio; Miss Mary Louise Morr, East Lansing, Michigan; Mr. and Mrs. James W. Morr, Hastings, Michigan; Mr. and Mrs. George Emery Johnson, Pittsburgh, Penna.; Dr. and Mrs. George Myers Emery, Ashland, Ohio; Mr. and Mrs. Lester Jay Morr, Hawthorne, California; Mr. and Mrs. George B. Spreng, Shaker Heights, Ohio; Mr. and Mrs. Samuel R. Troutman, Freeburg, Penna.; Mr. and Mrs. Edward Clemence Hommer, Ankeny, Iowa and Mr. and Mrs. A. Clarence Adamson, Ankeny, Iowa. Your officers were thankful to the Morr and Myers families for their contributions, as it meant that there was a renewed interest in our heritage.

It was moved by your Secretary and seconded by Mrs. Ralph Morr, that the Treasurer open a separate savings account to be known as the Morr and Myers Genealogy Account; further, that all money, with the exception of the expenses for the current reunion, plus an amount not to exceed $50.00 to defray expenses of the reunion, immediately in the future to be in the regular checking account. Balance of all money be placed in a savings account to accrue interest and same to be used to further the publishing of a Supplement to the Morr and Myers Genealogy Books published in 1890 and 1896 respectively. If the Morr and Myers family reunion disbands for any reason, that all money left in the savings account would be pro-rated and returned to the original donors. Motion carried.

Permission was granted to the Secretary to purchase a frame for the charcoal portrait of Michael Morr, son of John George Morr, that was donated by Mrs. Lilley Kreps Hoover of Dundee, Michigan in 1961. Permission was also granted to purchase 500 sheets of Morr and Myers Registry paper.

Mrs. Oscar Ingmand, our Treasurer, reported expenses of $31.50 for the 82nd Annual Reunion, with a total of $178.00 received in contributions the past year.

At this time, Earl De Lancey was elected President for the ensuing year and took over the meeting. He asked for the cooperation of every member to increase the attendance in 1963. Earl is a member of a Civil War Unit that recently reenacted a civil war battle in the state of Virginia in 1961. This was in celebration of the Centennial of the war between the states. He is also an active member of the Lions Club of Ashland, Ohio and served as their President in 1961.

At this time, Mrs. Howard Simanton presented your Secretary with invitations to the Morr and Myers reunions for the years 1898 to 1915, plus the years 1918-19-20 and 31. The invitations had been donated to the Morr and Myers reunion by her mother, Mrs. Daisy Morr Stone, a charter member of the First Annual Morr and Myers Reunion held in 1880.

Your Secretary thanked Mrs. Howard Simanton and her mother, Mrs. Daisy Morr Stone, for an invaluable contribution to our records. Mrs. Stone was unable to attend the reunion.

Brookside Park, Ashland, Ohio. Sunday, June 9, 1963, 1:00 P.M.

The Eighty-Third Annual Reunion of the Morr and Myers families had 80 members present. Mrs. Ora Morr gave thanks to our Lord for the privilege of meeting in family fellowship.

The business meeting was called to order at 2:45 P.M. by our Vice President, Oscar Ingmand, who presided in the absence of Earl De Lancey, who was unable to attend due to sickness in the family.

The minutes of the 82nd Annual Reunion were read and approved as read. Due to a lengthy genealogy report, the minutes of the 33rd Annual Reunion held at Chippewa Lake, Ohio, Thursday, June 19, 1913 was omitted.

During the past year, your Secretary devoted approximately 1800 hours of spare time in research to complete 275 lineages of the Morr and Myers families. All dates of births, marriages and deaths have been recorded in their proper lineages.

The data was secured from two record books of 500 pages that recorded the historical facts of the two families from June 1905 to June of 1951. Additional data was recorded from individual yearly reports from 1952 to 1962.

The pages of the Morr Genealogy Book from page 167 to 205 were copied with all names and dates on paper with space margins between the different names, dates and lineages to record all historical data of the above mentioned records.

Newspaper clippings of weddings and deaths were used on many occasions to place individuals in their proper lineage. At this time, 59 lineages of the Morr families and 15 lineages of the Myers families were completed. These reports were based from the 275 lineage reports received from 1947 to 1950, at which time Mrs. Charles Harrison of RR # 2, Ashland, Ohio, served as Historian of the Morr and Myers family reunions.

The master copy was set up and completed through the efforts and service of Mrs. Charles Harrison in securing the lineage reports in 1947 through 1949. Every member of the 1200 Morr and Myers families on the membership roster, owes Mrs. Charles Harrison a vote of thanks and gratitude for her excellent work.

Each lineage report is complete with all names and dates available from the records. Each lineage is cross-referenced with corresponding page numbers of the Morr and Myers Genealogy Books that were published in 1890 and 1896. One can trace his lineage with little effort to Andrew Morr, born April 30, 1727, whom we base our family lineage on. For example, the (Moyer) (Meyer) (Myers) lineage is based as follows: Francis Enoch Myers II—John Clement Myers—Francis Enoch Myers—George Myers and Catherine Elizabeth Morr—Jacob Meyer—Philip Meyer and Anna Margaret Morr—Jacob Meyer—John Moyer (Myers).

Your Secretary further reported that 396 invitations were sent to the members of the Morr and Myers families for the 83rd Annual Reunion. On the reverse side of each invitation, their lineage was written with all names, dates of births, deaths and marriages, with requests for all data and dates to complete their individual lineage.

202 letters and lineage reports were received. All information and dates were recorded in their proper lineages, that each member would be better enabled to examine his lineage, with their complete history on reunion day.

Prior to sending out the 396 invitations, your Secretary was unable to place 30 members in their proper lineage category; however, 10 of the 30 families were placed in their proper lineage after receiving the above reports. 243 new families were added to the Morr membership roster and 56 to the Myers roster. At this time, 695 families represent the total membership.

Your Secretary reported the following expenditures for the 83rd Annual Reunion.

1100 Morr and Myers Family Record Forms	$ 51.68
75 Bulldog Clips	$ 3.56
Total Genealogy expense	$ 55.24
Miscellaneous Reunion Expenses
500 stamped envelopes, phone calls, stamps, stationery, typing and mimeographing of invitations, table reservations and so forth.	$ 50.48
Total Genealogy and Reunion Expenses	$105.72
Total Contributions Received in 1963	$ 99.00
Deficit for 1963	$ 6.72

Mrs. Oscar Ingmand, our Treasurer, reported $83.00 received in contributions in 1963, plus $16.00 received reunion day, making a total of $99.00. She also reported $128.50 in the Savings or Genealogy Account and $10.69 in the checking account. The treasury report was read and approved as read.

The following members sent contributions to defray expenses of the reunion, with the balance being added to the Genealogy Account.

Mr. and Mrs. Everett Mould Myers, Mr. and Mrs. Francis Enoch Myers II of Ashland, Ohio; Mr. and Mrs. Donald Ray Morr of Cleveland, Ohio; Mr. and Mrs. Edward Clemence Hommer of Ankeny, Iowa; Mr. and Mrs. William Henry Leyke Jr. of Kirkwood, Missouri; Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Lew Gensler of Waterville, Ohio; Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Schrepferman of Denver, Colorado; Mrs. Mary Matilida Meyer Abott of Rebersburg, Pennsylvania; Mr. and Mrs. George Beck Spreng of Shaker Heights, Ohio; Mr. and Mrs. Guy Countryman of Ashland, Ohio; Mr. and Mrs. Forrest M. Myers of Akron, Ohio and Mr. and Mrs. Edmond Lee Peak of Decatur, Illinois.

It was moved by Earl Morr of Delta, Ohio and seconded by Frederick (Leon) Morr of Fayette, Ohio, that 500 lineage questionnaires and a rubber stamp be purchased. Said stamp would eliminate typing the Secretary's name and address on envelopes. (Ralph B. Morr, Morr and Myers Reunion, 146 Euclid Avenue, Wadsworth, Ohio 44281.) Motion carried.

At this time, the officers for the ensuing year were elected. Prior to adjournment, short talks were given by Earl Morr of Delta, Ohio, Leon Morr of Fayette, Ohio and Cleveland Franklin Morr of Ashland, Ohio.

Members attending from a distance were Mr. and Mrs. Earl Wiseman, their sons David Earl and Tom LeRoy, a daughter Nancy Lee of Port Clinton, Ohio; Mr. and Mrs. Leon Morr, Leonard Morr, Maranill Shaw of Fayette, Ohio; Mr. and Mrs. Earl Morr, Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Morr and sons, Roger Alan and Brian Dale of Delta, Ohio; Katherine Jane Stoner of Massillon, Ohio; Mr. and Mrs. Donald E. Mumper, and Mr. and Mrs. Joel Richard Ceckitti of Mt. Gilead, Ohio; Mr. and Mrs. William T. Hansen, also Stephan and Susan of Athens, Ohio; Mr. and Mrs. Lester R. Rader and sons, Stephan Paul, Roger Keith and Mark Lewis, also a daughter Paula Sue; Mrs. E. Gordon Oliver, Lakewood, Ohio; Mr. Merle Archer of West Salem, Ohio and Mr. and Mrs. Walter Long Allen and daughters, Susan Kay, Mary Joann and Brenda Lee of Jeromesville, Ohio.

THE FIFTIETH ANNUAL REUNION OF THE MORR FAMILIES OF INDIANA

Eckhart Park, Auburn, Indiana. Sunday, July 14, 1963, 1:00 P.M. EST.

Your Secretary and Mrs. Ralph B. Morr, accompanied by Mrs. Fred Wilson, a cousin of Mrs. Morr of Akron, Ohio, attended the 50th Annual Reunion of the Morr families of Indiana held at Eckhart Park, Auburn, Indiana on Sunday, July 14, 1963 at 1:00 P.M. EST. The following minutes of the meeting were written by your Secretary, as a permanent record of the Morr and Myers reunion.

On July 10, I received a telephone call from Miss Mary Louise Morr of East Lansing, Michigan, asking if I would be able to attend the above reunion and if so, to bring all of the lineage reports and records of the Morr and Myers reunion.

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Cook of Jeromesville, Ohio and Miss Mary Louise Morr also attended the reunion. Mrs. Lloyd Cook, nee Margaret Morr and Mary Louise are daughters of Arthur Allen Morr. Mary Louise Morr has a B.A. degree from the University of Dubuque, Dubuque, Iowa and a M.S. degree from Iowa State College of Ames, Iowa. She has taught in the Foods and Nutrition Departments, in the Schools of Home Economics at South Dakota State College, Iowa State College and Michigan State College, East Lansing, Michigan, where she has been teaching since 1948. Arthur Allen Morr was a graduate of the University of Chicago and taught in public schools for 42 years prior to retiring in 1939.

On arrival we were cordially greeted by their President, Mr. Ralph James Morr and his wife Audrey and their son Ralph Ronald. At 1:00 P.M. a buffet dinner was served. Approximately 125 members were present. Your Secretary had the pleasure of meeting a large majority of the members present.

After the picnic dinner, President Ralph James Morr asked all of the members to assemble for a group photograph. A photograph of the group was purchased as a record of the Morr and Myers reunion, the cost being $1.25.

At 3:00 P.M. the business meeting was called to order. The minutes and the treasury report of the 49th Annual Reunion were read and approved as read.

The following officers were elected for the year 1964.
President—Walter Morr, RR # 1, Auburn, Indiana.
Vice President—Robert E. Morr, 718 S. Washington St., Kokomo, Indiana.
Secretary and Treasurer—Mrs. Ronald Karl Green, Box 48, Ashley, Indiana.
Historian—Mrs. Raymond Worth Crick, 2305 E. 38th St., Anderson, Indiana.

Prior to the business meeting, your Secretary placed the master copies of the different lineages, record books, invitations, newspaper clippings, attendance and membership roster books, minute book and the Morr and Myers Genealogy Books on three large picnic tables in the pavilion. The display of records was a center of interest prior to the business meeting.

After the business meeting, your Secretary was introduced and asked to give an account of the 83rd Annual Morr and Myers Reunion. The history of the Morr and Myers families, the master copy of the Morr and Myers Genealogy and the financial responsibilities of publishing a Supplement to the Morr and Myers Genealogy Books were subjects discussed during the next hour.

To finance the publishing of the Supplement, it would necessitate contributions of two dollars or more per member, each year until which time we were financially able to finance the project. The plan as outlined was unanimously accepted. Many members wished to make contributions at that time. Your Secretary declined any contributions at that time, as I had expected to receive all of the names and addresses of each of the 135 members on the membership roster from their Secretary; further, that each of the members would receive an invitation to our 84th Annual Morr and Myers Reunion in 1964, at which time they could make their contributions to the Genealogy Fund.

Miss Mary Louise Morr donated an extra copy of the Morr Genealogy to their President, Ralph James Morr. Your Secretary also contributed invitations to the Morr and Myers reunion, of the years that we had an ample surplus supply for our recrods.

Sixty-five members present signed the Morr and Myers Registry Book.

The interest and enthusiasm shown at the reunion convinced Mrs. Morr and myself that our time was well spent.

The following members of the Morr families of Indiana signed the Morr and Myers Register Book, Sunday, July 14, 1963.

President and Mrs. Ralph James Morr, Haslett, Michigan; Mr. and Mrs. Marshall W. Morr and son, Michael Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Lee Morr of Springfield, Ohio; Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Carl Green, Mrs. Madolyn Morr Shumaker, daughter, Samuel and Effie Provines Morr, Max De Wayne Green, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Shumaker and sons, Steven Donald, Roger Lee, and Robert Max of Ashley, Indiana; Mrs. Helen G. Morr, Waterloo, Indiana; Mr. and Mrs. Robert M. The following is a newspaper account of the First Annual Reunion of the Morr Families of Indiana in August of 1913.

PERMANENT FAMILY ORGANIZATION FORMED 1913

Relatives of the Morr Family Perfect An Organization and Will Hold a Reunion Each Year.

In honor of relatives from a distance, the Morrs in the vicinity of Auburn, decided to have a basket dinner in the Auburn school park, and Sunday was the day set for the gathering. The crowd present on that day was composed of the descendants of Enoch Morr, Peter Morr and Samuel Morr.

At an early hour the Morrs began to gather and when the time came to empty the well filled baskets, there were ninety present. This large number was a surprise to all, for the meeting was decided upon but two days previous.

After all had done ample justice to the good things spread before them, they came to order. Dr. J. W. Morr was chosen as chairman of the day.

All were of one opinion that they had hugely enjoyed the day and wished to have one day, of a similar kind each year, and the last Thursday in August was selected as the Morr's reunion day and the place selected was Charles Morr's grove, one mile west of Concord. The following officers were elected for one year: Dr. J. W. Morr, of Albion, President; Samuel Morr, Sr., Vice President; Ella Morr McCrory, Secretary; William G. Morr, Treasurer, and Mary G. Morr Krise, Historian.

Those present from a distance were Dr. J. W. Morr and son, Justin, of Albion; Johnathan Critchett, wife, son and daughter, of Ferry, Michigan, and Hannah Draggoo, of Walterville, Michigan.

50th Annual Reunion of Morr families of Indiana, Sunday, July 14, 1963, 1:00 EST. Eckhart Park, Auburn, Indiana.

The above picture was taken at the 50th Annual Reunion of the Morr families of Indiana held at Eckhart Park, Auburn, Indiana on July 14, 1963. The officers are as follows: Mr. Ralph Morr, President, Hazlet, Michigan; Mrs. Jeanette Adams, Secretary and Treasurer, Ashley, Indiana and Mrs. Cleota Morr Crick, Anderson, Indiana.

Officers elected for 1964 are as follows: Mr. Walter Morr, Auburn, Indiana, President; Mr. Robert E. Morr, Kokomo, Indiana, Vice President; Mrs. Ronald Karl (Donna) Green, Secretary and Treasurer; Mrs. Raymond Worth (Cleota) Crick, Anderson, Indiana, Historian.

The above picture was taken by Mrs. Fred Wilson of Akron, Ohio, who is a cousin of Mrs. Ralph B. Morr. The picture shows all of the lineage reports, photographs, newspaper clippings, minute and record books of the Morr and Myers reunion that were displayed on three picnic tables during the 50th Annual Reunion of the Morr families of Indiana held at Eckhart Park, Auburn, Indiana on July 14, 1963.

On Saturday, July 27, 1963, I received a telephone call from Mr. Joel Park Myers, Secretary of the Myers reunion of Akron, Ohio, who resides at 488 Wirth Avenue, Akron, Ohio. He extended an invitation to attend the Myers reunion, Sunday, July 28, 1963 at 1:00 P.M. EDT. on Revere Road, off of State Route 21, North of Ghent, Ohio.

He informed me that Mr. Forrest D. Myers of Akron, Ohio, had asked him to contact me relative to the research work in bringing the Morr and Myers lineages to date. I was unable to attend the reunion as Mrs. Morr and myself expected to attend the Spidle reunion on that date.

Mr. Joel Park Myers informed me that he had been active in bringing the Julia Morr and John Jacob Myers lineage to date. I asked Mr. Myers for the membership roster with addresses, that I might send them invitations to the Morr and Myers reunion in 1964. He informed me that he would come to Wadsworth, Ohio, at some future date to record the history of the different lineages.

Your Secretary sent invitations, with lineage questionnaires, to be filled out and returned; however, I have never received this information from Mr. Joel Park Myers.

Brookside Park, Ashland, Ohio. Sunday, June 14, 1964, 1:00 P.M. EST.

The Eighty-Fourth Annual Morr and Myers Reunion had an attendance of 60 members. The weather was cloudy with a temperature of 75 degrees. Prior to the picnic dinner, your Secretary displayed 88 lineages, the base or outline of the master copy, or Supplement to the Morr and Myers Genealogy Books, plus all of the records and invitations of past reunions.

Our President, Charles Swineford of Ashland, Ohio, asked the members to assemble at the picnic tables and Ralph Morr gave a prayer of thanks.

After dinner the business meeting was called to order. The minutes of the 83rd Annual Reunion were read and approved as read. The minutes of the annual reunion held 50 years ago was read. It was held at Chippewa Lake, Ohio, on Thursday, June 18, 1914. During this period Miss Fern Morr served as Secretary and at the present time is serving her ninth year as our Treasurer, however, it is under the name of Mrs. Oscar Ingmand.

Mrs. Oscar Ingmand gave the Treasurer's report, showing a balance of $521.29 in the checking and savings accounts. $44.00 was received in contributions from the members present. Prior to the reunion, Mrs. Ingmand expressed a desire to be relieved of her duties as Treasurer. A vote of thanks was extended to Mrs. Ingmand for her service and faithful attendance at each reunion.

At this time your Secretary gave the Genealogy report. He thanked the members for their attendance and support, as 225 letters and lineage reports had been received, concerning 430 of the Morr and Myers families in the past year. He further stated that in 1962, we received $178.00 in contributions, consequent to 382 invitations sent to members, $129.00 in contributions in 1963 as a result of 695 invitations sent out and $360.00 received in 1964 relative to 960 invitations sent to members. 30 invitations were returned for reason of insufficient addresses, deaths or members moving without leaving a forwarding address.

Relative to publishing the Supplement to the Morr and Myers Genealogy Books, your Secretary was informed by a printing company that recently an antique dealer in rare glassware had a catalog of 200 pages printed with picture illustrations, that cost approximately $2000.00 for a quantity exceeding 500 copies. He further stated that he thought it would be possible to have 1000 copies of the Supplement printed with a good grade of paper and a substantial binding at a cost of approximately $3000.00. He further remarked, that if we were able to raise $750.00 a year by 1969, we should have ample cash to pay the expenses of each annual reunion and publish the Supplement.

Your Secretary reported the following expenditures for the 84th Annual Reunion.

925 stamped envelopes, notebook binders, Reunion stamp, 4 reams of mimeograph paper, phone calls and cost of typing masters and mimeographing of invitations at a total cost of $109.73.

The estimated expenses for our 85th Annual Reunion in 1965 are as follows:

1200 stamped envelopes - $69.60; fluid duplicating machine - $50.00; 3 notebook binders - $21.69; 3 reams duplicating paper - $3.87; phone calls - $6.00; table reservation for Reunion - $4.50; 10 boxes reinforcement tabs - $1.00; 1000 sheets Morr and Myers Record Paper - $53.80. Total Estimated Expenses: $210.46.

Relative to a request by the Secretary to purchase a second hand duplicating machine, at a cost of $50.00, which would make it possible for the Secretary to print the lineage questionnaires and invitations for future reunions, it was moved by Walter Long Allen of Jeromesville, Ohio and seconded by Albert Francis Roach, Jr. of Pittsburgh, Penna., that the duplicating machine, Morr and Myers Record Paper, ring binders and other incidentals to complete the master copy, be purchased. Motion carried.

Mrs. Lloyd Cook of Jeromesville, Ohio, announced that they were moving to Kentucky and possibly would not be able to attend the 84th Annual Reunion in 1965. She also expressed her appreciation for the excellent genealogy report.

President Charles Swineford then asked the members present to introduce themselves, also to make any remarks relative to their lineage. The following members and their families were present: Mr. and Mrs. Walter Long Allen, Jeromesville, Ohio; Mrs. Jennie Swaisgood, Polk, Ohio; Mr. and Mrs. Warren Eickelberger and Merle Eickelberger of Ashland, Ohio; Mrs. Ora

Morr of Ashland, Ohio, who remarked that she had attended every Morr and Myers reunion since her marriage to Ora Morr on January 1, 1914; Mrs. Howard Leedy, Ashland, Ohio; Mr. and Mrs. Francis Albert Roach, Jr., Pittsburgh, Penna.; Mrs. Maud Juanita Evelyn Roach Nichols, Akron, Ohio; Mrs. Robert Reese, Sr., Akron, Ohio; Mrs. Flossie Waggoner, Ashland, Ohio; Mr. and Mrs. James Edwin Morr, Ashland, Ohio; Mr. and Mrs. George Dull, Creston, Ohio; Mr. and Mrs. Archie McMillan, Ashland, Ohio; Mr. and Mrs. Wayne LeRoy Morr, Newark, Ohio; Mr. and Mrs. Howard Simanton, Ashland, Ohio; Mrs. Gale Griggs, Ashland, Ohio; Mrs. Elmer Sanger, Shelby, Ohio and Mr. and Mrs. Ralph B. Morr of Wadsworth, Ohio. The following members of the Morr and Myers Reunion had adjoining tables to our reunion, however, they were attending the Annual Springer Family Reunion. Mr. and Mrs. Dwight Ketch Springer, Nashville, Tennessee; Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Van Gulich, Jeromesville, Ohio; Miss Elizabeth Lucille Springer, Jeromesville, Ohio and Mr. and Mrs. Harold Eugene Donaldson of Jeromesville, Ohio. This is of the La Verna Myers-Carl Springer - Jacob Myers - Jonathon Myers - Jacob Myer - Philip Myers and Ann Margaret Morr - Jacob Myers - John Myers Lineage.

It was moved by Albert Francis Roach, Jr. and seconded by Walter Long Allen, that due to confusion and noise during the business meeting, that Mrs. Oscar Ingmand pay for table reservations at Brookside Park for 1965; however, if a more suitable place was available, the 85th Annual Reunion would be held at the new location. Several members shared the opinion that the change would increase attendance at future reunions.

Jeromesville Community Park, Jeromesville, Ohio. Sunday, June 13, 1965, 1:00 P.M. EST.

It was an ideal day for the Eighty-Fifth Annual Reunion of the Morr and Myers families, however only 57 members were in attendance. Prior to dinner your Secretary displayed the master copy of the Supplement of the Morr and Myers Genealogy Books for the first time. The five typewritten volumes of loose leaf ring binders recorded 88 lineages of the Morr and Myers families from pages 137 to 284 in the Morr lineages, and pages 41 to 71 in the Myers lineages. The display also included the Morr and Myers Genealogy Books, invitations from 1890 to 1965, books of historical data, newspaper clippings and a charcoal portrait of Michael Morr, donated by Mrs. Lilley Hoover of Dundee, Michigan.

Our President Charles W. Swineford, asked the members to assemble for the buffet style dinner and Earl De Lacey offered the prayer of thanks.

The business meeting was called to order at 2:45 p.m. The minutes of the 83rd annual gathering was read and approved as read. In tradition of past reunions, the minutes of the annual reunion held fifty years ago were read. The 35th Annual Morr and Myers Reunion was held at Norris Grove, Ohio, on Thursday, June 17, 1915.

At this time our President asked for nominations of President, Vice President, Treasurer, Secretary and Genealogist for the year 1966. As there was no response from the floor, your Secretary expressed a desire for the members to retain the same officers for the year 1966, as they worked as a team and were familiar with their duties. It was moved by Mrs. Oscar Ingmand and seconded by Mrs. Ora Morr that the same slate of officers be retained for the ensuing year. Motion carried.

It was moved by Walter Long Allen and seconded by Cleveland Franklin Morr that June 5, 1966 be accepted as the date for the 86th reunion, in lieu of the June 12 date. Motion carried. It was the opinion of Walter Long Allen, that it would give more members an opportunity to attend that were unable to in the past.

At this time our President asked a representative of each family to rise and introduce the members of their families present. The following families were present. Note, the number prior to the name designates their lineage number.

28—Mr. and Mrs. Ralph B. Morr, Wadsworth, Ohio.
7BB—Mr. and Mrs. Walter Long Allen, Jeromesville, Ohio.
7BB—Mr. and Mrs. Charles Swineford, Ashland, Ohio.

17A—Mr. and Mrs. James Edwin Morr, Ashland, Ohio.
17B—Mr. and Mrs. Earl De Lancy, Polk, Ohio.
39A—Mr. and Mrs. Paul R. Clark, Cleveland, Ohio.

It was moved by Walter Long Allen and seconded by Cleveland Franklin Morr, that the Treasurer be empowered to pay all bills that are due and any other expenditures in the following year, relative to reunion and genealogy expenses. Motion carried.

At this time your Secretary extended greetings to the members and thanked them for their interest and attendance. He also thanked the officers for their excellent cooperation and interest in making our 85th Annual Reunion a successful and enjoyable one. He also remarked that 225 lineage reports, concerning 430 families of the Morr and Myers relation that were received in 1964, were recorded in the Master Copy; also, that a new roster of membership was made up, by lineage number, for each of the 88 lineages recorded in the Master Copy. Further, that 8 masters were typed to mimeograph 1200 invitations for our 85th annual reunion.

He further related that 1066 invitations were sent out to the members of the Morr and Myers relation, from January 24th to May 24th in 1965, with lineage requests written on the reverse side of same. A total gain of 114 new families were added to the roster in 1965. 17 invitations were returned for lack of proper address, or that member was deceased.

Jeromesville Community Park, Jeromesville, Ohio. Sunday, June 5, 1966, 1:00 P.M. EST.

The Eighty-Sixth Annual Morr and Myers Reunion had 65 members present. The weather was ideal with a temperature of 78 degrees.

Earl De Lancey gave the invocation prior to the buffet dinner. The abundance of good food, and many varieties of tasty dishes, made all of us reminisce of our past reunions and our heritage.

Charles William Swineford called the business meeting to order. The Secretary read the minutes of the 85th Annual Reunion, which were approved as read. Due to a lengthy meeting, the minutes of the 36th Annual Reunion held at Chippewa Lake, Ohio, Thursday, June 15, 1916 were dispensed with.

Our Treasurer, Walter Long Allen, gave a very complete financial report for the past year as follows:

	Balance in Secretary's Acc't.	$ 22.90

Our Treasurer closed by thanking the members for the excellent response we had received financially, consequent to the invitations sent in 1966. It was moved by Mrs. Oscar Ingmand and seconded by Lester Rader of New London, Ohio, that the Treasurer report be accepted. Motion carried.

It was moved by Donald E. Morr of Perrysville, Ohio and seconded by Paul Clark of Cleveland, Ohio, that $231.00 be transferred from the checking account to the savings account or genealogy account. Motion carried.

At this time your Secretary gave the Genealogy Report. He also thanked President Charles William Swineford and his Lady Phyliss Ann, also Walter Long Allen and his Lady Marcia Joan, for the excellent work they were doing to promote the publishing of the master copy.

He further remarked that it would be futile to think that we would be able to raise $4500.00 in the next three years at the rate contributions were coming in. As an alternative, he suggested the following method of publishing the master copy in lieu of printing a book.

To date the master copy contains 9857 lines of print. Condensing it to 40 lines to a page, we would be able to publish a book of approximately 246 pages as of June 5, 1966, with an additional 50 pages, if printed in 1968. Estimated cost for a 300 page book as follows: 300 masters at 18¢ each $54.00; 300 masters to be typed by a public stenographer at approximately $15.00 a day, $300.00; 200 copies of 300 pages each, or 120 reams of paper at $2.25 a ream, $270.00; 200 covers or binders at $1.25 each, $250.00; estimated printing and other miscellaneous expenses, $500.00 or a total of $1374.00 for 200 copies of the Supplement.

It was voted unanimously that the above procedure of printing be adopted and that each contributor was entitled to a copy of the Supplement, regardless of the amount they had contributed to the Genealogy Fund, if we were financially able to do so. Further, realizing that many members had generously contributed much in excess of the actual cost of a copy of the Supplement, and consequently subsidized the overall cost of publishing the master copy, said members would be entitled to two or more copies, if we were financially able to do so.

He further stated that he had received 163 lineage reports in the past year and same have been recorded in the master copy, also that 1065 invitations had been sent to the members to date. 35 invitations had been returned due to deaths and change of addresses. 31 invitations were resent to closest relatives, to be forwarded to members. 4 invitations returned were marked "deceased".

It was moved by Paul Clark of Cleveland, Ohio and seconded by Mrs. Paul Clark, that the present slate of officers serve continuously until which time the master copy was printed. Motion carried.

It was moved by your Secretary and seconded by Mrs. Paul Clark, that the Treasurer be empowered to pay all bills relative to the expenses of the reunion including genealogy expenditures till our 87th Annual Reunion June 4, 1967. Motion carried.

As a matter of record, our Treasurer, Walter Long Allen paid $6.00 for the use of Jeromesville Community Park for our 86th Annual Reunion, and that your Secretary would credit his account with that amount to his genealogy account.

During the business meeting, your officers had the privilege of greeting Mr. and Mrs. Kent Weaver of Scottsdale, Arizona. Kent spoke of past reunions he had attended. He spoke so sincerely that he asked his Lady, Mary Viola to finish his remarks. It was gratifying to the members that Kent and Mary Viola had traveled such a long distance to be present at our reunion.

Other members attending were Mr. and Mrs. Paul Clark and son, John C., also Miss Peggy McGuire of Cleveland, Ohio; Mrs. Ray Morr, also Mr. and Mrs. Fernau E. Bader, Cleveland. The Ora Morr families present were Mrs. Iva Mae Morr, Ashland, Mr. and Mrs. Robert E. Morr and Mr. and Mrs. Donald Morr of Perrysville, Ohio; Mr. and Mrs. George Ramsier, Wooster, Ohio and Mr. and Mrs. Roger Morr, Rittman, Ohio. 1967

Jeromesville Community Park, Jeromesville, Ohio. Sunday, June 4, 1967, 1:00 P.M. EST.

The Eighty-Seventh Annual Morr and Myers Reunion had 65 members present. The weather was clear with a temperature of 75 degrees.

At 1:15 P.M., President Charles Swineford called the members to order, as Ralph Morr gave thanks for the manifold blessings and comforts we enjoy each day and for the privilege of meeting in family fellowship.

The minutes of the 86th Annual Morr and Myers Reunion were read and approved as read.

Our Treasurer, Walter Long Allen, reported that to date he had sent receipts to 244 families of the Morr and Myers relationship. The financial report is as follows:

Interest from December 1965 to December 1966	$ 33.20
June 3, 1967 Balance in Savings Account	$1784.15
June 4, 1967 Contributions received from members	$ 96.00
Total Genealogy Account	$1880.15

It was moved by Mrs. Ralph Morr of Wadsworth and seconded by Mrs. Ora Morr of Ashland, that the Treasury report be accepted. Motion carried.

It was moved by Paul R. Clark of Cleveland and seconded by Clara M. Swineford of Ashland, that the Treasurer be empowered to pay all bills incurred, relative to publishing the Supplement to the Morr and Myers Genealogy, plus expenses for the 88th Annual Reunion in 1968. Motion carried.

Due to a change in vocation, President Charles William Swineford requested that he be relieved of his duties in 1968, as he would not be available at times. At this time, President Charles was thanked for a job well done.

At this time, the following officers were nominated and elected in conjunction with officers that were elected in 1966, to serve for the year 1968.
Honorary President—Roy Cross
Honorary President—Mrs. Irene Morr Cross
Honorary President—Mrs. Ora Morr
Honorary President—Mrs. Ray Morr
President—Walter Long Allen
Vice President—Earl De Lancey
Treasurer—Mrs. Walter Long Allen
Secretary and Genealogist—Ralph B. Morr

The newly elected President, Walter Long Allen, then informed the members that possibly the last Charter Member of the first Morr and Myers reunion in 1880, had passed away. Mrs. Daisy Morr Stone, born February 20, 1875, had passed away at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Howard Clifton Simanton, 1413 Cleveland Avenue, Ashland, Ohio, on June 4, 1967, the date of our 87th Annual Reunion of the Morr and Myers families. Mrs. Stone married Daniel E. Stone November 28, 1897, who departed from this life October 10, 1953. She was the daughter of Andrew P. Morr of the Jacob, Andrew, John George, Andrew Morr lineage.

In 1962, Mrs. Stone contributed her collection of invitations to the Morr and Myers reunions to your Secretary, that they may become a permanent part of the records. 22 invitations from the year 1898 to 1931 were donated.

Another milestone has passed in the annals of the Morr and Myers families. We who were privileged to know Daisy Morr Stone will treasure our heritage, as she was a highly respected member of the Morr and Myers family reunion.

Your Secretary reported the following expenses for the 86th Annual Reunion. Stamped envelopes and mailing costs $89.55, typewritten masters of the 1967 invitations, plus 4 reams of duplicating paper $17.96; phone calls and miscellaneous expenses $2.98. Total expenses $110.49 with a balance of $7.36 in the Secretary's petty cash account.

He also reported that he had sent news releases, relative to the 87th Annual Reunion, to the Akron Beacon Journal, Ashland Times Gazette, Daily Record of Wooster, Ohio; also Radio Station WWST, Wooster, Ohio and WAKR, Akron, Ohio.

The following is a report of your Secretary and Genealogist:

In behalf of the officers of the 87th Annual Morr and Myers Reunion, I want to extend greetings and thanks to you for your attendance and interest in our reunion today. I also want to commend the officers for their cooperation and service.

In 1967, your Secretary sent out 1182 invitations to the relationship as of June 1, 1967. As it was too time consuming to write on the reverse side of the invitations for information that I needed from many members that failed to respond in the past, this practice was discontinued in some cases in 1967.

I received a newspaper cut of the Andrew Morr old homestead in Freeburg, Penna., that was taken from the Morr Genealogy Book published in 1896, from Arthur E. Morr of Auburn, Indiana, which will mean a savings of $25.00 when the Supplement is printed in 1968. I received the cut from Mrs. Cleota Morr Crick of 2305 E. 38th Street, Anderson, Indiana. Mrs. Crick is the Secretary of the Morr families of Indiana reunion.

Last Labor Day, Helen and I took a trip to Freeburg, Penna. to visit the Old Morr Cemetery and found it in good condition, as the custodian of the Lutheran Church, that formerly was the Morr Zion Lutheran Church, takes care of it as part of his duties. Mr. Grease, the caretaker, informed me that visitors from all over the country have visited the cemetery on different occasions. I also took several pictures of the old stone homestead of Jacob Myers that was built in 1768, which was on the farm adjoining Andrew Morr's. I hope to have a cut of the old homestead, which will be part of the Supplement when printed. Your Secretary was unable to find the distillery that was on the old homestead of Andrew Morr's in 1947. Evidently it had been remodeled into a home.

On June 6, 1966, we had approximately $1232.85 in our checking and genealogy accounts. Today we have approximately $1880.15 in the joint accounts, which should be sufficient funds to have 300 copies of the Supplement printed. Insofar as funds to mail the new Supplement to the individual contributors, this is another obstacle that we will have to overcome in the future.

The Supplement, when completed, will have the following information:

Preface of the Supplement

Preface of the original Morr Genealogy Book compiled by Calvin F. Moyer and published in 1896.

Chapter 1 John Morr—His Emigration to America, also taken from the Morr Genealogy.

Picture cut of Andrew Morr's old homestead as of 1768.

Chapter 2 Andrew Morr—His Settlement in Cumberland County, Pa.

The will of Andrew Morr that was probated in the courthouse in Sunbury, Penna. on August 18, 1801.

The 87 Annual Reunions of the Morr and Myers families with officers listed, also excerpts taken from the minutes of each meeting. This will include the minutes of the original committee meeting in 1881, also the original list of Morr and Myers that purchased Morr Genealogy Books in 1896 and price of same, with lists of expenses connected with the printing of same.

Complete list of members of the Morr and Myers families with their addresses, as enrolled on the membership roster in 1915.

History of the Morr family prepared and read by Miss Mary E. Morr of West Salem, Ohio at the 7th Annual Reunion held at Highland Park, Wooster, Ohio, on Thursday, June 9, 1887.

Baptismal records of Morr's Zion Lutheran Church (1781-1808), taken from "The Early Pennsylvania Births" compiled by Dr. Charles Adam Fisher of Selinsgrove, Penna. in 1947, who was a direct descendant of Andrew Morr.

"Morr - Myers", a poem written and recited by Mrs. Effie Myers Fuhrman on Thursday, June 21, 1928 at our 37th Annual Reunion.

A letter from Mrs. Effie Myers Fuhrman dated June 21, 1918 to the family relationship in celebration of the 100th Anniversary of the George and Philip Morr families migrating from Freeburg, Penna. to Morrland (Moreland), Wayne County, Ohio in the year 1818.

A letter sent to all members of the Morr and Myers relationship by Mrs. Charles Harrison of Ashland, Ohio, accompanied by a lineage questionnaire to secure information of family lineages for the new Supplement to the Morr and Myers Genealogy Books in 1947.

Followed by approximately 300 pages of the master copy of the Morr families, with addresses of each family, as of date of printing.

Preface of the Supplement of the Myers Genealogy.

Preface of the original Genealogy of the Myers families compiled by Henry Meyer of Rebersburg, Penna. published in 1890.

Early history of the Meyer settlement in America.

Lists of Descendants.

Newspaper cut of Jacob Meyer old homestead at Freeburg, Penna. built in 1768.

"Fond Recollections" by Alvah N. Myers, recited on June 15, 1923 at our 42nd Annual Reunion.

"Our First Reunion" prepared and recited by Mrs. J. E. Spreng on June 15, 1933 at our 52nd Annual Reunion.

Will of Henry Myers probated in Sunbury, Penna., August 7, 1801.

Eleven days before the will of Andrew Morr was probated on August 18, 1801.

Followed by the printing of the Supplement of the Myers families.

Your Secretary also reported that the 88th Annual Morr and Myers Family Reunion on Sunday, June 2, 1968, would be a Sesquicentennial Celebration of the settlement of the George and Philip Morr families at Morrland (Moreland), Wayne County, Ohio in April of 1818. Further, that the invitations for the 88th Annual Reunion would stress the celebration with the possible issuance of the new Supplement to the Morr and Myers Genealogy Books to the membership at that time; further, that if facilities are available, to have our 88th Annual Reunion at Morrland, Ohio, also to pay for the park facilities at Jeromesville, Ohio for the same date to keep park reservations open for the reunion if unable to hold the reunion at Morrland, Ohio; further, to extend invitations to the John Adam Morr Family Reunion of Kendallville, Indiana, the Morr Families Reunion of Indiana in Auburn, Indiana and the Morr Families Reunion of Illinois to attend our 88th Annual Morr and Myers Family Reunion in 1968.

To date, we have 214 individual families that have contributed in amounts of $1.00 to $120.00 to the Genealogy Fund and expenses for the annual reunion, which means that 214 copies of the Supplement will be printed with 25 more copies being printed for the families that have contributed in much larger amounts than $10.00 that is being asked for a copy, plus the printing of possibly 75 more copies to take care of future contributors. This will make a total of approximately 300 copies to be printed. A public stenographer would be employed to type up the masters, which will be used in lieu of the regular printing procedure, which will cut the cost of printing approximately one half.

As a matter of record, as of this date August 7, 1967, 21 more families have contributed $116.00 to the Genealogy Fund, making a total of $1948.15, with $120.00 in the checking account, plus $5.36 in the Secretary's petty cash fund, making a total cash of $2073.51. The above report is supplementary, or an addition to the report given on reunion day, June 4, 1967.

Secretary's Remarks, 88th Annual Morr and Myers Reunion
Sunday June 2, 1968

In behalf of the officers of the 88th Annual Reunion of the Morr and Myers Families, I want to extend greetings and thanks for your interest and attendance today. I also want to thank our President, Mr. Walter Long Allen and our Treasurer, Mrs. Walter Long Allen, for the excellent manner in which the contributions were received and properly placed in the Genealogy Fund and checking account; also for making out the official receipts that were sent to the contributors and for the financial reports that were issued on several occasions during the past year, that the invitations could be made up giving a clear picture of our financial status to all of our members.

In April of 1818, our forefathers, George and Philip Morr and their families, migrated from Freeburg, Pennsylvania and settled in Morrland, Wayne County, Ohio. Today, we are privileged to celebrate a sesquicentennial in commemoriation of that event. In the following decade many other families of the Morr and Myers moved to Wayne and Ashland Counties. Today, there are over 350 Morr and Myers families living in the vicinity of Wayne, Ashland, Medina and Summit Counties.

In 1968, your Secretary sent a two-page invitation to 1269 families of the relationship living in 40 states and Canada. A request for lineage reports was a part of the invitation; however, requests for specific lineage information was eliminated this year, due to disinterest of many families to respond in the past, plus the increased work necessary in typing many articles pertaining to the history of the two families and assembling same for publication.

The 550 page Supplement was presented to the Craftsman Printing Company of Akron, Ohio and the Banner Printing Company of Wadsworth, for estimates on publishing same. In each case, the lack of necessary cash was the deciding factor in not pursuing other publishers.

The Supplement printed in book form by Craftsman was quoted at $6000.00, which did not take in consideration mailing containers for the book, plus postage for mailing same. This was by the offset printing method. The Banner Printing Company, a non-union shop, quoted a price of $4000.00. The printing would be done by a computer-type machine recently put on the market by I.B.M.; however, at that time, the machine was on order and would not be installed for several months.

A cheaper method of printing by photography would make it necessary to retype the entire Supplement, which necessitates the use of an electric typewriter for a clear print picture and employing a public stenographer to type the material in a correct form and manner. A spiral plastic binder would be used, which is cheaper, but possibly not as durable after hard usage.

Taking in consideration the above problems, your Secretary was of the opinion that the printing of the Supplement should be held up until which time, we were able to choose a method of printing that would be contingent on the amount of cash received in contributions.

In 1968, your Secretary sent 1269 invitations to the different families of the relationship. 234 families, or 18½% made contributions to the Genealogy Fund. As of May 18th, we have received $2950.00 in contributions, subtracting our total cash as of this date, which represents $2369.32, leaves a total of $578.68 spent in the past 8 years as expenses incurred for the reunions. This does not take into consideration, expenses incurred relative to picnic table reservations and incidental expenses of our Treasurer.

Expense report of Secretary's.

In 1968, 54 invitations were returned to your Secretary marked, "Moved Not Forwardable" in most cases, with the exception of two received marked, "Deceased". In each case the invitation was forwarded to a close relative accompanied by a letter requesting them to forward the invitation and in turn, to send the new address.

I received 84 new and correct addresses of members that had moved in the past year by marking each envelope "3547 requested", in which case the invitation was forwarded to the new address and the postmaster, in return sent me their new address for a charge of 10 cents each.

Prior to publication of the Supplement, it is necessary to record the new address of each member in the master copy, also to make a new roster of members, by their lineage number, with their latest corrected addresses.

The 88th Annual Reunion of the Morr and Myers Families was held at Jeromesville Community Park, Jeromesville, Ohio on Sunday, June 2, 1968 at 1:00 P.M. EST.

After twenty days of raining intermittently, our reunion day was fair with a temperature of 72 degrees. At 1:15 P.M., our President, Mr. Walter Long Allen, asked the 75 members present to stand as Reverend Father James Frederick Fisher gave the invocation. Reverend James is the catholic chaplain of Clemson University of Clemson, South Carolina and is the son of the late Dr. Charles Adam and Vera Agnes Hammel Fisher, formerly of Selinsgrove, Penna. Dr. Charles Adam Fisher was a former professor and Head of the Department of Business Administration of John B. Stetson University of DeLand, Florida and a direct descendant of Andrew Morr. Lineage # 43, page 284, Morr Genealogy.

Dr. Fisher was the author of "Early Pennsylvania Births", published in 1947, just prior to the time your Secretary, Mrs. Morr and son Raymond, visited the Fishers and in turn were taken to Freeburg, Penna., to visit the old Zion (Morr) Lutheran Church Cemetery. At this time, Dr. Fisher pointed out the old distillery, a part of Andrew Morr's original estate.

As a matter of record, this was unique. This was the first time a pastor of the catholic faith had given the invocation at a Morr and Myers reunion; as there is only one other incident where this predominate protestant family had married into the catholic faith. There are possibly other cases, however, they are not recorded.

Reverend James was returning from his vacation and had driven from Chicago to attend his first reunion of the Morr and Myers families. Your Secretary had communicated with Reverend James on many occasions. The officers and members expressed warm personal regards to Reverend James for his attendance and he in turn stated that he would attend the reunion in 1969, if at all possible.

At this time, a buffet picnic dinner was enjoyed by all present. Our President asked the members to assemble for the business meeting at 2:30 P.M.

Mrs. Walter Long Allen, our Treasurer, gave the financial report for the past year and is as follows:

Morr and Myers Genealogy Account
Savings Account - June 4, 1967	$1784.15
Deposits	$ 762.00
Interest - 1967	$ 50.62
Total Cash	$2596.77

June 2, 1968 - Balance Checking Account	$ 40.00

The Secretary read the minutes of the 87th Annual Reunion of the Morr and Myers Families held Sunday, June 4, 1967 at Jeromesville, Ohio. It was moved by Reverend James Fisher and seconded by Mr. Virgil Gilson, that the Treasurer and Secretary's report be approved as read. Motion carried.

It was moved by Mr. Earl Morr of Delta, Ohio and seconded by Mr. John C. Clark of Cleveland, Ohio, that the 89th Annual Morr and Myers Reunion be held at Jeromesville Community Park, Sunday, June 1, 1969 at 1:00 P.M. Motion carried.

It was suggested by Mr. Earl Morr of Delta, Ohio, that a collection be taken up at this time to defray expenses of the reunion and would be recorded as a donation.

It was decided after brief discussion, that a voluntary collection was in order, as this procedure of financing the reunion was discontinued in 1961, at which time members were requested to make contributions to the Genealogy Fund.

It was moved by Mr. Earl Morr and seconded by Mr. Virgil Gilson, that the membership be given the opportunity to help defray expenses incurred. Motion carried. At this time, Mr. Paul C. Clark of Cleveland and Mr. Frank Goldsmith took up a voluntary collection of $38.00.

President Walter Allen, asked a member of each family present to rise and introduce himself and members of his family present, also to give any remarks they wished to, at that time.

Mr. Harold F. Roach of Warren, Ohio, brought up the subject relative to the correct spelling of Moreland, Wayne County, Ohio. He further remarked that when it was originally named, it was spelled "Morrland, Ohio" and had been informed it was changed to "Moreland, Ohio", because there were other Moore's living there at that time; which is incorrect insofar as the year 1818, the date of migration is concerned.

It was moved by Mr. Harold Roach of Warren, Ohio and seconded by Mr. Earl Morr, that the Secretary correspond with the Ohio Department of Highways requesting that the spelling of "Moreland, Ohio" be changed to read "Morrland, Ohio". It was also suggested by your Secretary that a letter be written to Mr. Frederic Morr, Director of the Department of Natural Resources at Columbus, Ohio, asking his support in this endeavor. Individual members were urged to contact their State Representatives and Senators in support of the project. Lieutenant Governor, John Brown, also would be contacted by our President, Mr. Walter Long Allen. Further, that the Secretary would furnish xeroxed copies of the Wooster Daily News, dated June 21, 1918, as proof of the correct spelling.

As a matter of record, your Secretary sent letters and xeroxed copies of the Wooster Daily News and other historical data of proof to substantiate the correct spelling of Morrland, Ohio, to the Hon. John W. Brown, Lieutenant Governor, State of Ohio; Mr. Frederic Edward Morr, Director of the Department of Natural Resources, State of Ohio; Mr. Fred J. Morr, County Commissioner of Hamilton County, Ohio; Mr. Earl Morr, Auditor of Fulton County, Ohio; Mr. Harold Roach, Warren, Ohio and Mr. Walter Long Allen of Jeromesville, Ohio.

In response, I received a letter from Mr. John Brown, who advised me to employ the services of an attorney, so that the proper papers could be filed and the procedure to follow in Sections 707-25 and 707-26 of the Revised Code. The procedure that sets forth for the change of a name for a municipality.

On Thursday, October 24, 1968, your Secretary and Mr. Harold Roach of Warren, Ohio, went to Moreland, Ohio and contacted two members of the Township Trustee Board, who seemed to be in favor of the change of name. Further investigation showed that in 1850, our John Morr and another landowner by the name of "Moore", owned adjoining tracts of land in Moreland, Ohio, and consequently the South limits of the village proper at one time had the spelling of "Morrland, Ohio", while the North limits of the village had the spelling of "Moreland, Ohio".

Your Secretary made arrangements to meet with the Township Trustees at their monthly meeting in November of 1968, however, I was unable to make the meeting because of illness. One of the township trustees was a member of the Morr family, however, his name is not on the membership roster and his lineage connection is unknown.

Our President called on Mrs. Frank J. Goldsmith of Mansfield, Ohio, who is a direct descendant of Andrew Morr, through Catherine Elizabeth Morr and Michael Weaver lineage. Page 241 Morr Genealogy. We are indebted to Mrs. Goldsmith for lineage # 80. She is the Genealogist of the Clara Herschler and Leslie Carl Lawrence families. The Leslie Carl Lawrence family is also directly connected with the Morr family in lineage # 37A, page 156 Morr Genealogy.

Mr. Frank Goldsmith, one of the 35 sole survivors of the sinking of the Titanic, was also present. Mr. Goldsmith gave a short résumé of the sea disaster, which took place in 1912, when he was nine and one half years of age.

Short talks were also given by Mr. Albert F. Roach of Pittsburgh, Penna.; Reverend James Frederick Fisher gave an outline of his lineage and stated that all of his fathers' Genealogical and Historical writings became the property of Sesiquehanna College at Sunbury, Penna., after his death in 1952.

Mr. Earl Morr of Delta, Ohio, announced that he and his Lady Helen would celebrate their 50th Wedding Anniversary on Sunday, August 25th, at their home in Delta, Ohio. They were married on August 28, 1918. He also gave a resume of his visit to Freeburg, Penna., in 1966, at which time he visited the old Morr Cemetery and contacted the minister of the Lutheran Church, who permitted him to take a picture of the Pewter Cup that had been used for Holy Communion at the old Zion (Morr) Lutheran Church from 1795 to 1880, at which time it was given as a gift of charity by Andrew Morr and his wife Catherine Elizabeth. He also remarked that he would send your Secretary a print of the cup and tankard, which would become a part of the Supplement to the Genealogies of the Morr and Myers families. An account of the pewter tankard and cup is related in Andrew Morr and his settlement in Cumberland County, Penna., in the opening pages of the Supplement.

At this time, the election of officers for the ensuing year was the order of business. It was moved by Mr. Albert F. Roach of Pittsburgh and seconded by Mr. Earl Morr of Delta, Ohio, that the same officers be placed in nomination and elected for the year 1969. Motion carried.

The following slate of officers were elected:

Honorary President—Mr. James Edwin Morr, Ashland, Ohio
Honorary President—Mrs. Vera Agnes Hummel Fisher, Bellwood, Illinois
Honorary President—Mrs. Naomi Poulsen Dickinson, Akron, Ohio
Honorary President—Mr. Roy Cross, Ashland, Ohio
Honorary President—Mrs. Irene Morr Cross, Ashland, Ohio
Honorary President—Mrs. Ora Morr, Ashland, Ohio
Honorary President—Mrs. Ray Morr, Cleveland, Ohio
Honorary President—Mr. Cleveland Franklin Morr, Ashland, Ohio
President—Mr. Walter Long Allen, Jeromesville, Ohio
Vice President—Mr. Earl De Lancey, Polk, Ohio
Treasurer—Mrs. Walter Long Allen, Jeromesville, Ohio
Secretary and Genealogist—Mr. Ralph B. Morr, Wadsworth, Ohio

We were also honored with the presence of Mrs. Naomi Poulson Dickinson of 1550 W. Market Street, Akron, Ohio. She was born in Morrland, Ohio, Franklin Township, Wayne County, Ohio, on February 26, 1886, of the Samuel, John Philip, John George, Andrew Morr lineage # 39, page 154 Morr Genealogy. Mrs. Dickinson gave a short talk on Morrland, Ohio.

At this time, your Secretary read a three page report covering all phases of information pertaining to the 88th Annual Reunion.

Relative to publishing the Supplement by the offset method, the computing type printing or the cheaper method of photographic printing; it was unanimously agreed that the Supplement should be printed in a regular book form and not printed by the photographic method with a spiral binding, as the latter would not hold up under ordinary usage, as the bound book form would.

Your Secretary stated that the Craftsman Printing Company of Akron, Ohio, would publish the Supplement with a $2000.00 down payment and the balance would be paid when the books were sold. This procedure of printing was rejected by your Secretary, as it directly became his responsibility of raising the balance to pay the obligation.

It was suggested by Mr. Earl Morr of Delta, Ohio, that we incorporate and sell shares of stock as a non-profit organization, as a means of raising money to finance the printing of the Supplement.

It was moved by Mr. Earl Morr and seconded by Mr. Paul Clark of Cleveland, that the President appoint a committee of three, empowering them to investigate and look into the feasibility of incorporating to publish the Supplement. Motion carried.

President, Mr. Walter Long Allen, appointed Mr. Virgil Gilson of Jeromesville, Ohio and Mr. Frank Goldsmith of Mansfield, Ohio as members of the committee. It was suggested by your Secretary that our President, Mr. Walter Long Allen serve as chairman.

It was also suggested by Mr. Goldsmith that the committee contact Mr. Marshall Clement Moore, an Attorney at Law of Mansfield, Ohio, who is a direct descendant of Andrew Morr (Lineage # 10D - Page 191 Morr Genealogy), to act in all legal matters.

Your Secretary also recommended that the Supplement to the Morr and Myers Genealogy Books would be presented to the Library of Congress, Washington, D.C., as an Act of Congress, when published as the original Morr and Myers Genealogy Books were, when published in 1890 and 1896.

The 89th Annual Reunion of the Morr and Myers Families was held at Jeromesville Community Park, Jeromesville, Ohio on Sunday, June 1, 1969 at 1:00 P.M. EST.

At 1:00 P.M., our President, Mr. Walter Long Allen, requested that the members assemble as Mrs. Ora Morr of Ashland, Ohio, gave the invocation. At this time 63 members enjoyed a buffet dinner.

At 2:30 P.M., Mr. Allen called the business meeting to order. Your Secretary read the minutes of the 88th Annual Reunion held at Jeromesville Park, Sunday, June 2, 1968. The minutes were approved as read.

Mrs. Walter Allen, Treasurer, gave the financial report which was approved as read.

The report is as follows:

May 31, 1968	Savings Account	$2546.77

June 2, 1968	Reunion Day Contributions	$189.00

At this time, Mr. Walter Long Allen, Chairman of the Charter Committee, gave a report relative to securing a charter, incorporated in the name of the Morr and Myers Reunion. Mr. Frank Goldsmith of Mansfield, Ohio and Mr. Virgil Gilson of Jeromesville, Ohio, were also members of this committee.

The Committee met in the latter part of July, 1968 and consequently filed corporation papers with the Secretary of State for the charter as a non-profit corporation.

Walter Long Allen, Frank Goldsmith and Virgil Gilson were named as Trustees and Ralph B. Morr as Secretary.

The Charter was passed around to the membership for inspection of same.

The primary reason for securing the charter is as follows: that Mr. Allen, Mr. Goldsmith and Mr. Gilson, who have consented to sign promissory notes for approximately $2000.00, the balance needed to publish the Supplement to the Morr and Myers Genealogy Books, by the Akron Craftsman Printing Company of Akron, Ohio, at a cost of $6000.00 for a 550 page book, with a stipulation in the contract, that, if the book is over 550 pages, the maximum cost would not be over $6128.00.

At this time, your Secretary read a three-page typewritten report, relative to the publication of the Supplement to the Morr and Myers Genealogy Books, and other pertinent questions of interest to the relationship and is as follows.

Secretary's Remarks, 89th Annual Morr and Myers Reunion
Sunday, June 1, 1969.

In behalf of the officers of the 89th Annual Reunion of the Morr and Myers Families, I want to thank you for your attendance and interest and I would be amiss if I failed to thank Mr. Walter Long Allen, our President and his Lady Joan, our Treasurer, for the proficient manner in which they have contributed leadership and a strong financial background, that we hope will successfully draw to a conclusion, the printing of the Supplement to the Morr and Myers Genealogy Books, also for the efficient way the receipts have been issued to contributing members.

On Saturday, May 3rd, Mr. Walter Long Allen, Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Gilson, Mrs. Morr and myself met with Mr. Leonard E. Price, President of the Craftsman Printing Company of Akron, Ohio, for the purpose of making final arrangements for the printing of the Supplement. Mr. and Mrs. Frank Goldsmith of Mansfield, Ohio, were not present at the meeting, as they were vacationing in Arizona.

The following is a resume of the meeting:

Your committee chose a maroon binding with gold print. Number 45 paper with a thickness that the print would not be visible on the reverse side of the page. To conserve paper, size # 9 print was chosen with # 14 bold print for capitals, paragraphs of explanation would be printed in gaelic. Printing would be by the offset method and negatives of each page would be saved, to insure that future printings of the book could be made without cost of retyping.

An order of 500 copies in lieu of 350 copies would cut the cost per book downward approximately $3.50 per copy. Assuming that 275 books would meet the advance sale of the Supplement as of this date; the committee would have an extra 225 copies for sale to insure the payment of any financial arrangement, made to finance the printing, over and above amounts for notes contracted in payment, plus the surplus cash for expenses incurred, relative to future reunions.

All newspapers, letters, records and pictures would be photographed of the Morr and Myers records, that the originality of the records would be preserved in the printing. There will be a brown print made of the entire Supplement, before the plates are made. This in turn will be proofread, to insure proper wording, correct dates or any other errors to be corrected, before actual printing of the Supplement.

A breakdown of actual cost is as follows:

45# IBBEN Book paper $250.00, Typesetting $300.00, make ready or proofread $700.00, Printing $300.00, Maroon Covers $350.00. Mr. Price assured your Secretary that he would contact Congressman William Ayres of Akron, Ohio, for procedure in having the Supplement copyrighted as an Act of Congress, that the Supplement would become a permanent record of the Morr and Myers Families in the Library of Congress in Washington, D.C.

As of the date of this, our 89th Annual Reunion, we should have approximately $4000.00 in cash, which makes it mandatory that notes for the balance of $2000.00 be signed to assure the printing of the Supplement. To eliminate borrowing of $2000.00 prematurely, your Secretary suggests that promissory notes for same be signed and held in escrow as cash, by the bank that loans the money, before the contract with the Craftsman Printing Company is in effect. Said notes would not be subject to interest until which time the full amount of $6000.00 is made in payment to the Craftsman Printing Company at the conclusion of publication.

Your Secretary requests 10 gratis copies of the Supplement for distribution to the Library of Congress, Washington, D.C., also libraries at Cleveland, Philadelphia, New York, Chicago and Columbus, Ohio, plus one copy for the Ohio Historical Society.

Your Secretary is of the opinion that Mr. Walter Long Allen, Mr. Virgil Gilson and Mr. Frank Goldsmith and myself work in coordination, that the balance of 225 books be sold to insure payment of all obligations; further, that Mr. Walter Long Allen keep the surplus supply of books in his possession, after the copies of advanced sales are mailed to the contributing members.

All surplus copies should be sold at a price agreeable to the committee and myself, to insure the payment of all obligations and at all times have a surplus of $200.00 in the Treasury that is available to the Secretary to finance the expenses incurred of reunions in the future. This in turn will be an assurance relative to the continuity of our annual reunion.

If 275 books are sold at $18.00 each at time of publication, we should realize gross sales of $4950.00, which would leave an unpaid balance of $1150.00, plus accrued interest. If the balance of 225 books were sold at $25.00 each, we should realize $5625.00 more in gross sales. This procedure would realize a profit of approximately $4000.00, after the original $6000.00 obligation is paid.

Your Secretary is of the opinion that a percentage of the profits should be paid to Mr. Allen, Mr. Gilson and Mr. Goldsmith for signing the notes to finance the publication; further any surplus cash after all obligations and supplementary payments are paid to Mr. Allen, Mr. Gilson and Mr. Goldsmith, in turn be placed in the Morr and Myers Genealogy Fund Account.

Your Secretary estimates another month of work on the master copy before taking same to the printer for publication.

that John Morr, (Morr Genealogy page 17), was actually the father of Andrew Morr, that the name Morr was spelled "MOHR" at the time they landed in Philadelphia, Penna.

A word of thanks to Mrs. J. Kenneth Fisher for the dedicated service to the Morr and Myers relationship, as your Secretary received approximately 112 pages of information pertaining to the two families since 1964; also her membership in several patriotic organizations and her connection to the Morr and Myers families.

As a matter of record, your Secretary made up a new 110-page membership roster of the members of the Morr and Myers families.

Mr. Bland, office manager of the OIC Corporation of Wadsworth, Ohio, made xeroxed copies of each page of the Supplement and membership roster. This was done so that your Secretary would have a complete record of the master copy, in case the master copy would get lost, stolen or damaged by fire, while in the hands of the printer. We were only charged for the paper used, which amounted to $12.00. Your Secretary will send a letter of thanks to Mr. Bland for this courtesy.

Your Secretary sent approximately 1360 invitations to the members of the Morr and Myers families in 41 states and Canada for the 89th Annual Reunion. Approximately 55 invitations were resent to the nearest of kin in cases where it was returned on account of change in address or other reasons.

Relative to the request of the membership attending our 88th Annual Reunion, that the Secretary write letters with proof that the Village of Moreland, Wayne County, Ohio, is spelled incorrectly and should be changed to read "Morrland, Ohio". Letters were sent to the Hon. John W. Brown, Lieutenant Governor of the State of Ohio; Mr. Frederic Edward Morr, Director of Natural Resources of the State of Ohio; Mr. Earl Morr, Auditor of Fulton County, Ohio; Mr. Fred J. Morr, Commissioner of Hamilton County, Ohio; Mr. Walter Long Allen, and Mr. Harold Francis Roach. Mr. John W. Brown's letter, dated October 7, 1968, suggested that we employ the services of an attorney so that the proper papers may be filed and the procedure to follow may be found in Sections 707-25 and 706.26 of the Revised Code. This procedure sets forth the change of a name of a municipality.

On Thursday, October 24, 1968, Mr. Harold Francis Roach of Warren, Ohio and your Secretary went to Moreland, Ohio. During our visit we contacted two of the three trustees of Franklin Township, who were in agreement that the village of Moreland, Ohio; spelling should be changed to read "Morrland, Ohio", instead of the present way. We were informed that the Atlas of Franklin Township in 1850, showed two plats of land adjoining each other, one was owned by our John Morr and the other one was owned by a John Moore (spelled Moore), and at one time the south corporation limits of the village had a marker spelled "Morrland, Ohio", and the north corporation limits had a marker spelled "Moreland, Ohio", and consequently the State Highway Department spelled the name in the latter spelling. We were also told that one of the trustees was a member of the Morr family, however, we were unable to verify this, as we do not have any members of the Morr family roster living in Moreland, Ohio.

Your Secretary made arrangements to attend the November meeting of the Trustees of Franklin Township, but I was unable to attend because of illness and a ten day stay in the hospital, immediately after the visit.

Following are the directions to the cemetery where we found the tombstone of George Morr and his wife, Catherine Roush Morr in Moreland, Ohio. If one travels south of Wooster, Ohio, on State Route 76 to Moreland, Ohio; at the main crossroad of the village turn left and go past the Methodist Church and cemetery, continue east until the second crossroad, at this point turn left or north and continue to the end of the road, at this point turn right or east until you come to a sharp turn in the road ascending a steep hill. On the hill at the right of the road, is a cemetery that does not have any tombstones pertaining to the Morr families, however, you continue straight ahead for approximately 800 feet. On the left side of the road you will find the old Morr Cemetery, which is directly across from the State of Ohio Agriculture Farm. The George Morr stone is along the side of the fence on the right approaching the cemetery. Mr. Roach took pictures of the stone and will become a part of the Supplement. There is a possibility that the wife of John George Morr, also mother of George Morr and Philip Morr, is buried in this cemetery.

Your Secretary also made a two-page lineage chart of his lineage, complete with all available names, date of births, marriages and deaths, also other pertinent information.

At this time, Mr. Walter Long Allen, speaking in behalf of the Trustees of the Morr and Myers Reunion, stated that the Charter Committee would not accept any compensation for signing the promissory notes relative to the sale of 500 copies of the Supplement and that all surplus cash would be deposited in the Morr and Myers Genealogy Fund or savings account.

Relative to the recommendation of your Secretary, that after the 500 copies of the Supplement have been printed and same sent to all qualified contributors, that the balance of the books be placed in the hands of Mr. Walter Long Allen and same to be sold at a price of $25.00 each, as an assurance that the notes signed by the committee for funds to print the Supplement could be paid in full at the earliest date possible.

After a thorough discussion, it was moved by Mr. Earl Morr and seconded by Mr. Gerald Morr, that the committee use their own judgment relative to the selling price of the books. Motion carried.

Mr. Earl Morr of Delta, Ohio, suggested that individual members should purchase an extra copy of the Supplement and donate same to their local library. He further recommended that copies be sent to the Mormon Genealogy Libraries of Salt Lake City, Utah and Mesa, Arizona.

At this time, Mr. Harold Francis Roach of Warren, Ohio, requested that the members rise and give the officers of the Morr and Myers reunion a vote of thanks for their services.

It was moved by Mr. Harold Roach and seconded by Mr. Albert Roach of Pittsburgh, Penna., that the reunion be held at the same place, on the first Sunday in June of 1970 and that the same officers be elected by acclamation. Motion carried.

As a matter of record, your Secretary received a card from Mr. Edward Kuba of 1933 Wright Road, Akron, Ohio 44320, announcing the 41st Annual Reunion of the John Adam Morr Families to be held at Kendallville Fairgrounds, at Kendallville, Indiana on September 1, 1968. Mr. Kuba will preside at the reunion.

Your Secretary also received an invitation to the 56th Annual Reunion of the Morr Families of Indiana to be held at Eckhart Park, Auburn, Indiana on Sunday, July 13, 1969. Russell J. Morr, President; Katheryn L. Morr, Secretary and Treasurer and Cleota Crick, Historian.

Your Secretary sent a letter to Mrs. Raymond Worth Crick expressing regrets that he would not be able to attend, however, a resumé relative to publishing the Supplement was included in the letter.

Your Secretary announced that he had received a phone call from Mr. Paul Clark of Cleveland, Ohio, that he and his family would not be able to attend the reunion, as Mrs. Clark was ill and their son, John, had an automobile accident recently; also that Mr. and Mrs. James Edwin Morr of Ashland, Ohio, would not be able to attend as Mrs. Morr was ill.

As a matter of record, the 90th Annual Reunion of the Morr and Myers Families will be held at Jeromesville Community Park on Sunday, June 7, 1970 at 1:00 P.M. EST.

The following slate of officers were re-elected:

Honorary President—Mr. James Edwin Morr, Ashland, Ohio
Honorary President—Mrs. Vera Agnes Hummel Fisher, Bellwood, Illinois
Honorary President—Mrs. Naomi Poulson Dickinson, Akron, Ohio
Honorary President—Mrs. Irene Morr Cross, Ashland, Ohio
Honorary President—Mrs. Ora Morr, Ashland, Ohio
Honorary President—Mrs. Ray Morr, Cleveland, Ohio
Honorary President—Mr. Cleveland Franklin Morr, Ashland, Ohio
President—Mr. Walter Long Allen, Jeromesville, Ohio
Vice President—Mr. Earl De Lancey, Polk, Ohio
Treasurer—Mrs. Walter Long Allen, Jeromesville, Ohio
Secretary and Genealogist—Mr. Ralph B. Morr, Wadsworth, Ohio

Copy of Contract

Between

The Akron Craftsman Printing Co. and Morr and Myers Reunion

This is a contract for the printing of 500 copies of the Supplement to the Morr and Myers Genealogy Books published in 1896 and 1890.

This book is to be printed on 45 lb. IBBEN book paper with a thickness that the print would not be visible on the reverse side of the page. The book proper will be printed with size # 9 print, with # 14 bold darker print for capitals, paragraphs of explanation would be printed in Gaelic. Printing would be by the offset method and negatives of each page would be saved, to insure future prints of the book, without further cost of retyping.

All newspapers, letters, photographs and other records would be photographed for print to preserve the originality of the records and same, with master copy and negative plates of each page, to be returned to the Secretary on completion of the book.

A brown print of the entire book for check of errors in print, for proofreading purposes to be made before plates are made, further, a table of contents with page numbers will be made.

The book's covering will be a hard durable binding of maroon color, with the following wording in Gold Print on the fold of the cover, "Supplement to the Morr and Meyer (Myers) Genealogy Books, Ralph B. Morr."

The Akron Craftsman Printing Company will furnish type and paste-up for plates to produce this book. All photographs will be furnished by the Morr and Myers Reunion organization.

The cost for 500 copies will not exceed $6,128.00 providing we are able to keep all copy within 550 pages.

CHAPTER V

JOHN GEORGE MORR AND HIS DESCENDANTS

John George Morr was the older of the two sons of Andrew Morr. He was born August 3, 1761; died October 18, 1817. He was young in years when the war of the Revolution began, and was among the first to show his patriotic ardor. In that period of our country's danger, he joined the army as a drummer boy,* and went through the battle known as Chad's Ford along the Brandywine, September 11, 1777. The next important epoch in his life was his marriage to Catherine Dieffenbach. When he settled down in life, he directed his attention to farming. May 28, 1792, he purchased from Henry Miller a tract of land located in Potter township, Northumberland, now Haines township, Centre county, Pa., one mile south of Coburn Station on the Lewisburg and Tyrone railroad, consisting of 100 acres and 78 perches for which he paid £800. Mr. Miller died several months after the sale had been consummated, and his two sons, John and Joseph Miller, executors of their father's estate, gave a deed for it, bearing date February 10, 1794. At the time this purchase was made, Mr. Morr was a citizen of the present vicinity of Freeburg, Pa., but had moved on the premises just purchased before the deed was given. There was valuable timber on this tract, also a grist and saw mill. Mr. Morr secured a patent for the deed May 12, 1804 and the property was called "Morr Hall." April 1, 1794, Mr. Morr sold this tract of land to John Kreighbaum, a citizen of Haines township, Northumberland county, Pa., and moved to Penn's township, near Freeburg, Pa. November 19, 1808, Mr. Morr repurchased the land from Mr. Kreighbaum, and in addition thereto bought another tract from the same person, containing 11 and three-quarters acres, paying for the aggregate 112 acres and 38 perches £1410. He, then, moved on these premises for the second time, where he engaged in farming and milling. To increase the volume of water, he raised his mill dam in Pine Creek. This backed up the water on his neighbor, Leonard Hostetter's land: A quarrel ensued and Mr. Hostetter threatened him, and it is said, lay in ambush to shoot him if he would not lower the dam. That he might carry on his business according to his plans, Mr. Morr purchased the Hostetter farm (May 28, 1813) at a fabulous price. The panic of 1815 came on which did not terminate until 1825. It drove Mr. Morr into insolvency and he was not the only one who suffered in this way. And no wonder. Wheat then sold at 50 cents per bushel; rye, 25 cents, and other products proportionately. George Meyer, of Haines township, became the purchaser of the original Morr farm in 1827.

The writer in company with Hon. Henry Meyer, Rebersburg, Centre county, Pa., author of the Meyer Genealogy, and Hon. Jacob G. Meyer, Aavonsberg, Pa. On the original Morr farm they saw a pear tree, a hundred years old, whose trunk measured 7 and one-third feet in circumference, and its height was supposed to be eighty feet. There were several pears on the topmost branches the day the visit was made. John George Morr's death took place near Freeburg, Pa., while he was visiting friends in that vicinity, and the interment was made in the cemetery near the same place.

Mr. and Mrs. Morr were consistent members of the Lutheran Church. In the Church Records of the Morr Lutheran Congregation of Freeburg, Pa., a large number of names of children are given who were baptized in church from 1781 to 1809.* (John George Morr's name appears three times among those recorded as sponsors. He performed this duty at the following baptismal ceremonies: John Philip, son of George and Christian Roush (1783); John George, son of Philip and Anna Margaret Meyer (1784); his son, John Philip (1787).

This concludes chapter V, page 135-36-37 of the original Morr Genealogy published in 1896.

Please note that Book # 1 refers to the historical background of the Morr Family, as Book # 6 refers to the Myers Families.

Books numbered from 2 to 6 refer to the lineages of 91 different Families in the Morr and Myers Relationship.

In explanation of the following lineages portrayed in the Supplement; each lineage is numbered and is designated by a large prominent printed numeral, at the start of each individual lineage. Note—# 76 is the lineage number of the Cutter Family.

The numbers immediately to the left of each name; refers to the page number in the original Morr or Myers Genealogy Books, that the lineage can be traced from.

Children of each family are named and numerically numbered, chronologically by date of birth for reference.

The letters "M" — "B" and "D" refer to Marriage — Born and Deceased. Adopted and Twin Children are marked as such.

The last known address is printed immediately above the name of each individual family, as of date of printing.

To give a clear and concise picture of the Morr and Myers Families; it was necessary to print parts of the original Morr and Myers Genealogy Books that were published in 1896 and 1890 respectively; verbatim.

*As a matter of record the following information was submitted by Mrs. J. Kenneth Fisher, Box 155 RD # 2, Narvon, Penna. 17555. Same was recorded in Pennsylvania Archives, 5th Series, Volume VII, pages 234-298-301, also from DAR Lineage Book, National # 153850-178, Volume 154.

John George Morr (Moore) served as a Private and not as a Drummer Boy, in Captain Henry Kasters Company, Colonel George Feathers Regiment of Lancaster County Pennsylvania Militia and lived in that county until 1769.

The three photographs represents three generations of the Anne Marie Morr and Otis Bigelow Vanfleet lineage.

Anne Maria Morr, first child of Phillip Morr and Elizabeth Batdorf, born 12/21/1847, died 8/2/1922 married Otis Bigelow Vanfleet 9/29/1867, born 6/11/1841 died 4/21/1917.

Mary Elizabeth Vanfleet, second child of Anne Maria Morr and Otis Bigelow Vanfleet, born 3/7/1870, died 7/17/1951 married John Colwell 5/24/1893, born 12/8/1857, died 1/4/1928.

Left to right, Lucy Zela Colwell, Hazel Bernice Colwell, deceased and Glenell Zeta Colwell, three of eight children of the Mary Elizabeth Vanfleet and John Colwell union. Many thanks to Miss Glenell Zeta Colwell for the many hours spent in contacting thirty two families representing lineage # 32A as it is possibly the most complete record of any of the ninety-four lineages in the Supplement.

The above is the Golden Wedding Anniversary photograph of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Van Der Velde of Dalemead Alberta, Canada, celebrated in Community Hall on July 14, 1968. Left to right: Mrs. Dafphene Van Der Velde Miller Jr., Mrs. Lula Zola Colwell Hauswirth, Mrs. Hazel Bernice Colwell Hall, deceased, Mr. and Mrs. (Mary Florence Colwell) Van Der Velde and a sister of Mr. Van Der Velde.

It is regrettable that Miss Glenell Zeta Colwell of Rochester, Minnesota was not present for the photograph, as your Secretary is deeply indebted to her for furnishing all the information pertaining to lineage 32A, also for the financial consideration we received from this part of the relationship, in raising money to finance the Supplement.

The above photograph is of Andrew Morr, fifth son of John George Morr, born January 20, 1794, died February 24, 1857. Page 167 Morr Genealogy. The photograph was submitted by Mrs. Albert Steven Gongos, nee Jo Ann Simanton, 1012 E. Strub Road, Sandusky, Ohio. Lineage # 19 page 170 Morr Genealogy. The history of Andrew Morr is as follows:

Andrew Morr was born in Haines township, Northumberland county, Pa., January 20, 1794: died in Perry township, Ashland county, Ohio, February 24, 1857; married Elizabeth Stover in 1816. She was born in Penn's Valley, Northumberland county, Pa., June 11, 1796; died in Perry township, Ashland county, Ohio, November 6, 1876. At her death, Elizabeth left 63 grandchildren and 14 great grandchildren. Many will remember her for her charity and hospitality. She was an active and devoted christian, enduring much labor for Christ. Mr. and Mrs. Morr are buried in the cemetery at Trinity Church, six miles east of Ashland. After Andrew Morr had settled up his father's estate he, in company with his brother Michael visited his brothers George and John Philip, at Moorland, Wayne county, Ohio. The visit was made in the Autumn of 1827, and they walked from Pennsylvania to Ohio, carrying their grips with them. Each bought a farm six miles east of Ashland, paying from three to four dollars per acre. May 1, 1828, Andrew and Michael with their families, left Pennsylvania for their new home; the land they had purchased, then lying in Wayne and Richland counties. It is now known as Perry township. (Note—Ashland county was organized by Act of the General Assembly of the State of Ohio, February 24, 1846, and was taken from Wayne and Richland counties.) Ashland county, Ohio. They drove to Ohio with their teams, reaching their destination on the 22nd of May. In this tedious journey, they were accompanied by their widowed mother, their brothers John and Benjamin with their families, Peter and Samuel, then single, and their sister, Elizabeth, the future Mrs. Jacob Albright. On Andrew Morr's farm were two log cabins and a log barn with a clay floor. Andrew and his family lived in one of these cabins; the mother,* Elizabeth, Peter and Samuel occupied the other.

The Morrs who came from Pennsylvania were old Lutherans. The country into which they had first located was comparatively new, and no church of any denomination was within five miles of their home. Three years after they had located, Rev. Charles Hammer, a missionary of the Evangelical Association from Pennsylvania, visited the locality wherein they had settled, with a view of converting the people into that faith. Mr. Hammer preached German in a dwelling adjoining the farm of Andrew Morr. To this place Mr. and Mrs. Morr went to worship. Through the efforts of the missionary they were converted and became members of the Evangelical Association. Andrew Morr lived to see all his children become members of this church and they have remained faithful and energetic workers. After his conversion, Mr. Morr opened his house as a place of public worship. It was such from 1832 to 1849, the latter being the year when Trinity was erected. He served as Class Leader in this church for twenty-four consecutive years. He was the first Superintendent of the Sunday School before Trinity Church was built. At that time the Sunday School was held in a log barn during the summer season. For a number of years he filled the position of Township Trustee.

Considering his many disadvantages he acquired considerable learning in English and German. He was a good mathematician and close Bible student. Three years prior to his death he became blind. He was a Captain of a militia company in Centre county, Pa. While a resident of Pennsylvania, Andrew Morr and his brother John had charge of a grist mill, saw mill and carding mill. These stood on his father's premises along Pine Creek. The family was blessed with unusually good health. But two of their twelve children died within a period of forty years and eight months. Andrew died May 6, 1847, aged 23, their daughter Catherine passed away January 4, 1888, having almost completed her three score and ten years.

There were twelve children, seven sons and five daughters as follows:

*NOTE–"Mother" refers to Catherine Dieffenbach, wife of John George Morr.

Your Secretary is of the opinion that Catherine Dieffenbach, who passed away in 1843 was buried in the Morr Cemetery, which was located on the old George Morr farm in Morrland, Ohio. Refer to Secretary remarks in minutes of the 89th Annual Reunion, Sunday, June 1, 1969 for information relative to the above cemetery.

MRS. KETTERING DIES TUESDAY

Mrs. Olive F. Kettering, 68, wife of Charles F. Kettering, General Motors vice president and native of Ashland county, died at Henry Ford Hospital, Detroit, at six o'clock last night following an illness of three months.

The daughter of the late Alonzo H. and Minerva Nelson Williams of West Walnut street, the deceased was born in Ashland May 26, 1877. After studying music at Wooster Coolege, she gained recognition locally as a prominent musician. A piano teacher, she also served as organist for the Methodist church and later for the Trinity Lutheran church.

She resided in Ashland until August 1, 1905 when she was united in marriage with Charles F. Kettering, whom she met while he was associated with the Star Telephone company of Ashland. After their marriage, the couple resided in Dayton and Detroit.

Mrs. Kettering was a member of the Ashland Musical Club, the Dayton Women's Club, the Dayton Philharmonic Association, and the Detroit Symphony Association.

Preceded in death by her parents, who died in 1924, she is survived by her husband, one son, Eugene Williams Kettering of Chicago, a brother, Ralph B. Williams of Detroit, and three grandchildren.

Funeral services will be conducted at 1:30 Friday afternoon in Christ Episcopal Church, Dayton. Burial will be in the Woodland cemetery.

KETTERING DIES; AIDED MANY CAUSES

DAYTON (AP)—Eugene W. Kettering, Dayton philanthropist, was to be returned home for burial following memorial services today in New York.

Kettering died Saturday following emergency surgery in New York. He would have been 61 Sunday.

Kettering, a pioneer in the development of the diesel engine and research executive with General Motors for 30 years, was the son of Charles Kettering, inventor of the automobile self starter.

The elder Kettering died in 1959.

Kettering gave millions to his favorite causes and institutions.

These included $1 million to start a health museum in Hinsdale, Ill.; $1 million to fund the Air Force Museum at Wright-Patterson Air Force Base, $1 million to the University of Dayton for a $7 million engineering research building; $1 million to Cornell University, his alma mater.

Mr. Ralph B. Morr, Secretary and Geneslogist
The Morr & Myers Reunion
146 Euclid Avenue
Wadsworth, Ohio

Dear Mr. Morr:

This acknowledges with gratitude the invitation to attend the Morr and Myers Annual Reunion scheduled for Saturday, June 16, 1962, at Brookside Park, Ashland, Ohio.

I regret that because of duties elsewhere it is not possible for me to be present, but I wish you would convey sincere greetings to all members of the family who are in attendance.

I am enclosing for your information a sample itinerary which indicates the type of work I am now engaged in on behalf of the Evangelical United Brethren Church, as Bishop of the Northwestern Area. This area includes our churches in Illinois, Wisconsin, Minnesota, North and South Dakota, and a string of mission churches in Northwest Canada from Winnipeg to Vancouver, B.C.

It was my privilege a year ago to represent the Evangelical United Brethren Church as Fraternal Delegate to the 10th World Methodist Conference held in Oslo, Norway.

With personal greetings and good wishes, I am,

Very sincerely yours,

Harold R Heininger

BISHOP HEININGER OBSERVING 50 YEARS IN CHRISTIAN MINISTRY

Fifty years in the Christian ministry is a noteworthy record. For Bishop Harold Heininger, however, it is a family tradition. His grandfather, his father, and two uncles achieved similar records. What makes his half-century career especially significant is his ascent from parish minister to bishop—the summit of denominational achievement.

His ministry has spanned the years from the Model T Ford to the space age, and it has also adjusted to three mergers of his denomination. He was licensed to preach in 1919 in the Evangelical Association, which three years later joined with the United Evangelical church to form the Evangelical church. In 1946, after 13 years of negotiations, the Church of the United Brethren of Christ and the Evangelical church merged into the Evangelical United Brethren (EUB) church. As bishop of this denomination, he served on the Commission on Church Union (COCU); and last year was a participant in the consummation of the EUB-Methodist union, forming the United Methodist church.

It was the custom for Evangelical pastors in the 19th and early 20th centuries to be transferred from parish to parish as often as our contemporary "industrial gypsies". His father, the Reverend John Wesley Heininger, was no exception to this rule, and as a consequence the bishop can name as his home towns a string of Ohio and Indiana communities.

This aspect of the ministry was also responsible for the unusual circumstances of his birth on August 13, 1895. "My father had just completed a term of service in Elmwood, Indiana, and had been assigned to a parish near Findlay, Ohio," he explained. "Since my birth was imminent, my parents boarded a train for Ashland, Ohio, in order that mother might be in Grandma and Grandpa Rickels' home for the blessed event. They had miscalculated my arrival, however. At Lima, Ohio, they found it necessary to leave the train and rush mother to a hotel, where I was born."

Three grade schools and three high schools were attended before his graduation in Cleveland. In 1917 he received a B.A. degree from Western Reserve University.

Although surrounded by preachers and missionaries in both the Heininger and Rickel families, he had given no consideration to the ministry as a career until he was a junior in high school. "It was at a youth camp that I made a general commitment of my life to Christian service," he said. "Not until I was in the university did I determine that this service would be the parish ministry. World War I intervened, but my ambition to become a minister was strengthened by my disappointment at the outcome of the war as a method of achieving peace."

He was drafted in the fall after his graduation from Western Reserve. Following his rise in the infantry from private to sergeant, he was selected for officers' training. When he was released from military duty after 15 months of service, he had the rank of 1st lieutenant.

Members of the Calvary church of Cleveland, where his father was the pastor, recommended him for the ministry, and in August 1919 he received his license. He served his home church as assistant pastor prior to enrolling in the Evangelical Theological seminary in Naperville, from which he received his B.D. degree in 1921.

In the fall, before his graduation, a minor incident occurred that had a significant impact upon the remainder of his life. "I was playing tennis behind the seminary," he related, "when a friend asked my assistance in moving the trunks of four young ladies from one rooming house on Loomis street to another on Ellsworth. They were freshmen at North Western (now North Central) College, and were transferring to more satisfactory quarters. I was not especially eager to have my game interrupted, and I was less so, when I learned that he proposed to use a wheelbarrow in moving the trunks!

"I consented, however. After we had struggled to get the last trunk down the stairs of the Loomis street house, I heard a sweet voice calling down, 'Wouldn't you care for some fudge?' This we could not resist, so we went back upstairs, and that was how I first met Erma Martin."

Feeling the need for more theological study, he went to Massachusetts and enrolled in Boston University School of Theology. At the same time he served a pastorate at the Evangelical church in Fall River, Massachusetts. He had expected to spend only one year in the School of Theology, but Dr. G. B. Kimmel, president of Evangelical Theological seminary, urged him to extend his studies another year and then come to Naperville to join the faculty of the seminary.

"I never had thought in terms other than the parish ministry," he recalled, "but I decided I would try teaching. If it did not work out, I could return to a pastorate." His second year in the East, he was pastor of the Evangelical church in Cambridge. At the end of that time he received a degree of S.T.M.

Erma Martin and his sister Ruth went to Boston to attend the commencement ceremonies. The three made a short sight-seeing tour of New England, and it was then that he and Miss Martin became engaged to marry.

He assumed his post as professor of New Testament Exegesis at the seminary that fall, accepting a salary of $1800 a year. His fiancee was a senior at the college.

"At that time a hope chest and a trousseau were still necessary requisites for a young woman anticipating marriage," said Mrs. Heininger. "I had been so busy with my college studies that I had neither, so I insisted that after graduation I must go home and make proper preparations for my wedding."

She spent the following year at her home in Webster, New York, and it was not until August 13, 1925, that the two were married. It was his 30th birthday. Her brother, who was a building contractor, designed the home which they built at 210 N. Julian street. They lived there 15 years. In 1933 he received a Ph.D. degree from the University of Chicago. The following year their daughter Anne was born.

In 1940, following the death of President Kimmel, he succeeded to the presidency of the seminary. With his family he moved to the President's House at 209 N. Brainard street, just one block from the seminary.

He had served 15 years as president of the seminary, when, in November 1954, he was elected bishop and assigned to the Northwestern Area of the denomination, with residence in Minneapolis, Minnesota. This area includes 700 ministers in five conferences—Illinois, Wisconsin, Minnesota, the Dakotas, and Northwest Canada—and approximately 100,000 members.

Throughout his career, Mrs. Heininger has been "a superb team-mate", according to the bishop. Together they have had rich and rewarding opportunities. As president of the seminary and in his episcopal capacity, he has traveled widely, usually accompanied by Mrs. Heininger, when he went out of the country. They have had the privilege, too, of entertaining distinguished guests.

His first trip to Europe was in 1937, while he was still a professor at the seminary. "Through the generosity of a friend, I was able to become a member of Sherwood Eddy's seminar in Europe," he said. "That was the most informative experience of my life, and it served to shape my whole outlook on the ecumenical movement and on theological education."

He and Mrs. Heininger visited several European countries, when they went to the meeting of the World Council of Churches in Amsterdam, Holland, in 1948. Three times they made episcopal visits to the four E.U.B. conferences in Germany and Switzerland, and in 1961 they visited Scandinavian countries, when he was a delegate to the 10th World Methodist Conference. Their last, and perhaps their most thrilling, trip was to Southeast Asia in 1965, visiting E.U.B. missionaries to prepare them for the union with the Methodists. Souvenirs of these trips are distinctive accessories in their present apartment at 133 W. Franklin ave.

Several volumes of cherished guest books reveal the many out-of-towners who have enjoyed the Heininger hospitality, especially throughout the years that he was president of the seminary. One book, which recorded overnight guests from September 1949 to March 1955, contained signatures of 264 from the U. S. and twelve other countries!

"Those were years when we lacked decent restaurants in Naperville," he said. "I could call Erma at 11:30, and ask to bring home a luncheon guest. She had a special recipe that she could toss together in a hurry, and shortly after twelve we would sit down to a nice meal." (She confided that her "quickie" was a combination of tuna fish, mushroom soup, and crushed potato chips heated bubbling hot in the oven.)

The fact that she played her role as hostess so admirably, and that she frequently accompanied her husband to meetings explains why she accepted no denominational offices herself. For one three-year period the Heiningers also opened their home to a second "daughter". Helen Farnham, daughter of the Rev. Vernon Farnham, lived with them following her mother's death, and while her father was serving as a missionary in China.

Perhaps the most gratifying aspect of the bishop's 50-year career was his association with the students at the seminary. "During those 32 years, 886 graduates entered Christian service in the USA, in Canada, and overseas," he recounted. "The majority of these are in pastorates. Two former students have become bishops—Reuben Mueller and Paul Washburn; one became a college president—Harry Kallas; and one, president of the seminary—Paul Eller. Eighteen have served as missionaries in special projects in the U.S. and in China, Indonesia, Africa, Brazil, and Japan. Several students from Europe have returned to serve in Germany and Switzerland. After additional graduate training, 17 students were appointed to college faculties, and eight to seminary faculties. Twenty graduates have been named to denominational secretary positions, serving boards and agencies, and in inter-denominational administration. I like to think I have played a part in training them for these careers."

Through the years he has had articles published in the religious press. As early as March 1947, in an article in The Pulpit, he expressed a view that is more and more prevalent with religious leaders today:

"'Take my yoke upon you and learn of me' involves work; it requires team work, helping to pull the load, linking our lives with Christ in sustained disciplined effort which harnesses all our powers . . . This is a religion that is not a flight from life. It is no escape. It heads straight into the thick of some human need in comradeship with the Saviour. Its symbol is not a cushion. It is a cross . . . "

He has been elected to many executive offices. He has received many honors. In 1955, North Central College conferred upon him the honorary degree of LL. D. In recognition of his 46 years of association with the seminary—the last 14 years as president of the board of trustees—the assembly hall in the institution's new Academic Center has been named Heininger Hall.

Although he will assume official retirement status August 1, he plans to continue promotion of some of the boards and agencies of the United Methodist church. "I have accepted commitments to some Bible conferences, ministers' group meetings, and preaching missions," he said, "and I plan to be available as long as my health is good. We are so happy to be back in Naperville where we enjoyed so many fruitful years and made cherished friends. The proximity of our daughter's family is an asset, too." Daughter Anne, with her husband, the Rev. Sheldon Trapp, and their children—Kathy, 8, and Rolland, 6—live in Chicago, where Mr. Trapp is involved in community organization in the Austin area.

Bishop Heininger's distinguished half-century of Christian service will be recognized Sunday, August 3, at 3 p.m. at Community United Methodist church, the church where the Heiningers were active so many years. The special vesper service, followed by a reception, is open to the public. It should be a joyous celebration, marking an extraordinary milestone.

50 Years' Ministry Will Be Celebrated At Aug. 3 Service

Sunday, August 3, friends of Bishop Harold R. Heininger are invited to a celebration of his 50th year in the ministry to be held at Community church at 3:00 p.m. The major portion of Bishop Heininger's ministry was lived out here in Naperville, where he served 31 years at Evangelical Theological Seminary as professor and as president.

His friends and colleagues are invited to join first in a service of thanksgiving and praise. Following the worship celebration, Bishop and Mrs. Heininger will greet friends informally at a reception in the church parlor. Naperville residents have created a rich part of the 50 years to be observed, and all are welcome to participate in this afternoon of reminiscence and affirmation of life.

To the Morr-Myers Reunion
Ashland, Ohio

Dear Highly Esteemed Relatives -

Greetings and best wishes from Viola Atwater, Alpha and Olive Rickel.

When we were children the Morr Reunion Day was as sacred as Thanksgiving Day. Some of those days we can remember as if it were yesterday. I, Alpha, always enjoyed seeing the fine prancing horses that Frank and Philip Myers would drive to the reunion. I remember the first reunion that was held at Wooster in 1887. It had been raining for several days and the clay roads were awful but in the morning Pap, Mother, Marion and I started out to find the place. After driving around in Wooster we finally located the park and they were eating dinner when we got there. Also remember one reunion at Pleasant Home when Mary T. Morr of West Salem read the first historian's report. The same year brother Marion, who was musical director of the reunion, brought his brass band which he had organized and I was triangle soloist. I recall how Uncle Philip Morr sent away and obtained an early variety of strawberries which would ripen in time for the reunion. He was a horticulturist. And so our minds are filled with many sacred memories of the reunions and I am thankful that I have been permitted to attend so many of them over the years.

Olive and I regret that we will not be able to attend this year but we drove out to California last fall and have been making our home with sister Viola at her lovely home in Hollywood. We have had a delightful winter with continuous summer the nine months we have been here. Hollywood is an interesting city, beautiful churches, many unusual homes built on the hillsides, majestic hills, flowers everywhere, and highways that are hard to get on and harder to get off. We are enjoying the worship and fellowship at Ola's church, the First Methodist Church of Hollywood, where we all attend regularly, and the three of us take many trips and do many interesting things in and out of the city.

Olive and I plan to return to Ohio for a few weeks late this summer and are still hoping that Ola may be able to come with us.

We will be thinking of you on reunion day, if we learn when it is, and send you our love and best wishes.

Viola, Alpha, Olive.

ASHLAND GENERAL COMPLETES SERVICE

Brig. Gen. William F. Morr, chief of staff, Ohio Army National Guard, retired Monday, bringing to a close a military career that has spanned more than 42 years.

He will continue to act as Ohio's deputy director of Civil Defense, a position to which he was appointed on Jan. 13.

A veteran of World War II and later recalled to active duty during the Korean Conflict, Gen. Morr began his military career by enlisting in the Ohio Army National Guard in Ashland in November 1926.

He was commissioned as a second lieutenant in July 1934 and entered federal service with the 37th Infantry Division as a first lieutenant in October 1940. As a rifle company commander, he was promoted to captain in February 1941, and went to the Southwest Pacific Theatre in May 1942.

He was later assigned as Intelligence Officer, 145th Infantry Regiment. Promoted to major in November 1943, he served as executive officer, 3rd Battalion, 145th Infantry Regiment until August 1944, when he again served as intelligence officer, 145th Infantry Regiment.

In February 1945, he took command of the 2nd Battalion, 145th Infantry Regiment, and was promoted to lieutenant colonel in March 1945. He continued in this assignment until December 1945.

Upon reactivation of the Ohio National Guard in 1946, General Morr assumed command of the 2nd Battalion, 145th Infantry Regiment, and upon recall to active duty in January 1952, took the battalion into federal service. He served as executive officer, 145th Infantry Regiment, and in December 1952 was assigned as regimental commander.

In March 1953, he was sent to Europe and assigned as intelligence officer (Air), VII Corps. In November 1953, during the preparation for evacuation of Trieste, he was assigned as assistant commandant, TRUST Headquarters. In February 1954, he was promoted to colonel.

In March 1954, he returned to the United States for separation, and was reassigned to the Ohio National Guard. In April 1954, he was assigned as plans and training officer, 37th Infantry Division, and in 1956, became staff assistant-training.

In February 1957, he was assigned as division chief of staff and senior staff administrative assistant. In September 1963, he was assigned as assistant division commander, 37th Infantry Division, and plans and training officer for The Adjutant General's Department.

Gen. Morr was federally recognized as brigadier general on Nov. 18, 1963.

Upon the inactivation of the 37th Infantry Division in February 1968, he was assigned as chief of staff, Headquarters Ohio Army National Guard.

Gen. Morr is a graduate of the U. S. Army's Command and General Staff College, and has been awarded the Silver Star for gallantry in action, the Legion of Merit, Purple Heart, Bronze Star with Oak Leaf Cluster, the Division Commendation, the Philippine Presidential Unit Citation, and the Combat Infantry Badge.

He is a member of the Ashland Lodge No. 151, F.&A.M.; consistory Scottish Rite; Shrine; American Legion; and Methodist Men.

Gen. Morr is married to the former Ethel Carter. They reside in Upper Arlington. His mother, Mrs. Mary McNabb, resides at 304 Luther St.

His daughter, Beverly, lives in Columbus with her two children. Her husband, Lieutenant Colonel Felix Vega, U.S. Army, is presently assigned as deputy post commander, Seoul, Korea.

Prior to moving to Columbus in 1956, General Morr lived in Ashland and was employed by F. E. Myers and Bro. Co.

On March 20, 1969, he was awarded the "Outstanding Citizenship Award" by Civitan International.

Morr graduated from Ashland High School in 1927. He played on Coach Harry Barnhart's football and basketball teams. Strangely enough, his high school basketball was played in the armory on E. Main St.

Michael Morr and his brother Andrew visited their brothers, George and Philip Morr at Morrland, Wayne County, Ohio in the fall of 1827. They returned to Freeburg, Penna. On May 1, 1828, Michael and Andrew accompanied by their widowed mother, Mrs. John George Morr—nee Catherine Dieffenback, and brothers, John and Benjamin and their families migrated to Morrland, Wayne County Ohio. Michael purchased a farm of 127 acres for which he paid a sum between three and four dollars an acre. Michael assisted in building the Old White Church or Trinity Church in 1849.

Michael Morr and his brother Andrew visited their brothers, George and Philip Morr at Morrland, Wayne County, Ohio in the fall of 1827. They returned to Freeburg, Penna. On May 1, 1828, Michael and Andrew, accompanied by their widowed mother and brothers, John and Benjamin and their families migrated to Morrland, Wayne County, Ohio. Michael purchased a farm of 127 acres for which he paid a sum of between three and four dollars an acre. Michael assisted in building the Old White Church or Trinity Church in 1849.

MORR.—Father Michael Morr departed this life in great peace, at his home in Perry Township, Ashland Co., Ohio, June 10th, 1877, aged 80 years and 8 months.

About 50 years ago he emigrated from Centre Co., Pa., to this place. He resided 49 years on the farm where his death occurred. He was the father of eight children, all of whom survive him. His wife died over 32 years ago. Bro. M. gave his heart to God some years ago, and united with the Evangelical Association, of which he remained a faithful and consistent member till death. His end was like the setting sun, radiant and peaceful. His memory will long be cherished by all who knew him, and his funeral was largely attended. The writer was assisted by J. S. Felger and Father Kopp.

Couples To Mark Anniversaries

Mr. and Mrs. Ora Morr, Ashland, RD 2, will be honored on the occasion of their golden wedding anniversary with a reception from 2 to 4 p.m. New Year's Day at Emanuel Evangelical United Brethren Church in Ashland.

Married Jan. 1, 1914, by the Reverend C. W. Weltmer at the home of the bride, east of Ashland, they are the parents of seven children. There are 14 grandchildren and eight great grandchildren.

Mr. Morr formerly was engaged in farming.

Your Secretary will always feel deeply indebted to the families of the Ora Morr lineage for their excellent attendance record. On several occasions we were seriously thinking of the possibility of discontinuing our annual reunion, due to lack of interest. Their family attendance each year was the primary reason for the continuity of our annual Get-Together.

Chapter VI Page 209 Morr Genealogy—Magdalene and her Descendants. Magdalene Morr, who was the third daughter of Andrew Morr, was born August 22, 1763; died November 26, 1800; Her place of burial is not known, but it is believed to be in the vicinity of Middleburg, Snyder County, Pa. She was married to John Adam Bolender. The history of this family was not obtained, because its genealogy could not be traced. It was learned, however, that the following is a list of her children.

Note the following list of children of Maria Magdalene Morr and John Adam Bollender were found in the second edition of Pennsylvania Archives by Mrs. J. Kenneth Fisher of Narvon, Penna., in October of 1966.

Penn township (now Snyder) Northumberland County, Penna.

Maria Magdalene Morr, born August 22, 1763, died November 26, 1800, married John Adam Bollender Jr; born 1759; died 5/21/1829 (Death record DAR).

7 Children.

John Adam Jr., born 3/24/1780 (Charles Adam Fisher, "Early Pennsylvania Births - Page 1, member Row's Lutheran Church, Selingsgrove, Pa.)

John Philip—Baptized 1787.

Catherine, intermarried with Melchoir Yoder.

Magdalene, intermarried with George Halme.

George, born 1790, died 1839.

David, born 1798.

Chapter VII—Philip Morr and his Descendants. Page 211 Morr Genealogy. Philip Morr was the younger of the two sons of Andrew Morr. He was born Jan. 1, 1766; died of hemorrhage of the lungs, April 13, 1826. He lived in what was known as the Morr homestead, where he was engaged in farming. He kept store in one of the apartments of the old log house built by his father. In 1813, Governor Simon Snyder, who was an intimate friend of Philip's father, appointed Philip Morr, with Daniel Caldwell and Frederick Gutelius, a Board of County Commissioners for the county of Union, a new county, just formed out of part of Northumberland. The Act for its erection passed the Legislature March 22d of the same year, and the territory embraced that part of Northumberland county lying west of the Susquehanna river. The County Commissioners entered upon the duties of their office November 11. The Courts were held at Mifflinburg until the Board decided that New Berlin, the most central town in the county, should be the county seat. Here justice was dispensed for forty-two years, or to the time (1885), when Snyder county was carved out of Union. Philip Morr retired from the office as County Commissioner after one year's service.

Philip Morr was the owner of considerable real estate located within the present limits of the counties of Snyder, Centre and Lycoming, Pa., and like his brother, John George Morr, passed through a severe panic. To meet the obligations incurred by the purchase of the real estate, he sold a large grist mill, together with several hundred acres of land on Middlecreek, to Jacob K. Boyer, of Reading, Pa., for $10,000. This was considered a good sale and he might easily have paid his debts had he not been swindled. The swindle happened in this wise: Some time after the sale of the property, Mr. Morr traveled to Reading on horseback, the custom of the period, in order to have a settlement with Boyer. The distance was ninety miles and the journey was made in one day. No sooner had he stated the object of his visit when he was handed a paper for his signature. He was informed it was a receipt for $100 and the balance would be paid him in a short time. Mr. Morr, who was unable to read English, had implicit confidence in Boyer that he was dealing fairly and honestly with him, signed the paper and returned home in good cheer. Some time afterwards Mr. Morr repeated his visit to Boyer only to learn how the latter had swindled him. When he made his demands for the amount due him he was frankly informed that the paper he had signed during his previous visit to Reading was not for $100 which he received but "in full for all demands." A lawsuit followed, but the receipt which Mr. Morr had signed was produced in evidence against him and he lost his case. This threw Mr. Morr into financial embarrassment, necessitating the selling of his vast estate which all passed into strange hands, excepting the old homestead near Freeburg which was purchased by his son John Jacob Morr. Philip Morr became greatly distressed through his misfortune and passed many sleepless nights in consequence. In May, 1829, several years after Mr. Morr's death, this same Boyer, who had dealt so dishonestly with him, came to grief. "Jacob K. Boyer, of Reading," says Linn's Annals of Buffalo Valley, "who had done a large mercantile business, was convicted of passing counterfeit money. He was said, by the district attorney, to be guilty of the most expert, extensive and wholesale counterfeiting ever known in the United States."

Philip Morr's death was sudden. He was a member of the Lutheran Church, buried in the Morr Cemetery. He was twice married. His first wife was Elizabeth Gemberling, who resided in that portion of Northumberland county, Pa. She came from a family that was one of the earliest settlers of that neighborhood. She had inherited a strong, robust constitution, yet death claimed her as a victim in the very prime of life. In the Morr Cemetery a tombstone bears the following inscription: "Here rest the mortal remains of Elizabeth Morr, wife of Philip Morr, a born Gemberling, was born July 13, 1768; died Aug. 11, 1811, aged 43 years and 28 days." His second wife was Mrs. Mary Ebly, of Sunbury, Pa., who remained his widow a brief period, then married Jacob Kline. She died a widow while living at Freeburg, Pa., November 20, 1856, aged 79 years, 9 months and 22 days. She is buried in the Lutheran Cemetery at Freeburg.

See list of children—Lineage # 36.

As a matter of record, the following historical data of the Gemberling Family was submitted by Mrs. J. Kenneth Fisher, RD # 2, Box 155, Narvon, Pa. Same is taken from the Daughters of American Colonist (DAC) # 12783.

7 Jacob Gemberling (1733-1824) was a Palatine Refugee to Penna 1765. He died in Snyder County, Pa, married Catherine Wolfensberger.
6 Philip Gemberling Sr. (1773-1859) married Eva Gass (1773-1815).
5 Philip Gemberling Jr. (1794-1870) married Elizabeth Martin. (D-1861).
4 Mary Ann Gemberling (1818-1894) married 1837 - David Grove (1812-1866).
3 Adam Grove (1840-1910) married 1861 Susannah Dunkel (1839-1921).
2 Mary Elizabeth Grove (1863-1940) married 1881 William Henry Difenderfer (1859-1920).
1 Susanna Difenderfer born in Northumberland County, Penna., married Clarence LeRoy Auten.

Chapter VIII, page 241 of the Morr Genealogy Book gives very little information, relative to Catherine Elizabeth Morr. The following is taken in its entirety:

Catherine Elizabeth Morr was the sixth of the children of Andrew Morr. She was born on Christmas Day, 1768. She was married to Micheal Weaver. The couple first lived in Penn's township, Northumberland county, Pa., and afterwards in Straubstown, or Freeburg. Later on they moved to Canton, Ohio. In what year this occurred is not known definitely. Mr. Weaver is classed among the residents of Straubstown in 1802, the number then being eighteen, when the town was but six years old. As his name is dropped from the list afterwards, this or the following must have been the year when they located at Canton. At this place they lived until their demise. Catherine was blind some years prior to her death. The writer (Calvin F. Moyer) made repeated efforts in obtaining a more complete sketch of this family, but all attempts in doing so proved fruitless. It is not known whether they had any children.

We are indebted to Mrs. Frank J. Goldsmith of 150 Carpenter Road, Mansfield, Ohio, a direct descendant of Micheal Weaver and Catherine Elizabeth Morr, for the following lineage report, as received by your genealogist on September 2, 1967.

The following lineage report of the Wise Family was also received in 1947 and was submitted by Mrs. Ethel Smith of 37 Baldwin Street, Mansfield, Ohio.

George Frederick Wise came from Wittemberg, Germany, and landed in Philadelphia in 1804. He was born in 1783 and died in 1871. The time that he migrated to Ashland County, Ohio is not known. He married Christina Weaver, who was born in 1785 and died in 1876. There were five boys and seven girls born of this union and are as follows:

Elizabeth (Betsy) Wise M—Peter Morr
George Wise M—Kiplinger
Katherine Wise M—Kiplinger
Frederick Wise M—Sarah Livingston
Esther Wise M—Colin

Benjamin Wise M—Foss
Christina Wise M—John Weaver
Michael Wise M—Sarah Weaver
Barbara Wise Single
Peter Wise Married, wife unknown
Rebecca Wise M—Hoffman
John Wise M—Amity Armentrouton; 4 Children—Cromwell, Florida, Milton & Oscar.
Harriet Wise M—Smalley

An International Magazine

FRANK GOLDSMITH'S 'NIGHT TO REMEMBER'

"THE NEXT few days on the Titanic passed pleasantly enough. It was very exciting! At nine years, nothing could be more exciting than seeing a foreign country; seeing France, for instance, and crossing the English Channel. Then the boat was to stop at Ireland, and this was another country that we had never visited before. Then it was to cross the Atlantic. It was a real thrill."

This magic memory belongs to Frank J. Goldsmith, of Mansfield, Ohio. As a 9 year old, he was one of the 2,224 passengers aboard the White Star liner Titanic on the fateful morning of April 15, 1912, when the largest ship then afloat struck an iceberg on her maiden voyage. At precisely 2:20 A.M., the ship went to the bottom of the Atlantic with a loss of 1,513 people. Frank was one of the survivors.

Now 66 and owner of a photo supply shop, Frank has been a member of the Rotary Club of Mansfield since 1954. He often speaks before other Clubs and civic groups about his experiences during that "night to remember."

Frank was a member of a middle-class English family with many relatives in Detroit, Michigan, who felt that the Goldsmith's should immigrate to the U.S.A. In April, 1912, they decided to do just this.

"It was late in the day when we left," Frank remembers, as the ship sailed out onto the broad expanse of the Atlantic. "Ireland disappeared and away we went."

The next three days passed peacefully enough for Frank.

"Well, Sunday passed, and my bedtime came, and the next thing I knew I was awake and half dressed. My mother was putting clothes on me. Soon there came a rap at the door and mother opened it. It was the ship's doctor and he looked around and said: 'Do you have life preservers?' "

Frank Goldsmith: (then at the age of nine) just off the Titanic and now at age 66.

The good ship Titanic was in its death throes.

"On the sink in our cabin," Frank recalls "stood a jar of epsoms salts and a bag of Eno's Fruit Tablets. Friends in England had told us these were ideal seasickness remedies. So, jokingly, I said, 'Well, if we're going out in a little boat, perhaps we'd better take something with us.' And I put the salts and candy in my pocket."

Passengers had time to prepare for abandoning ship. "We were able to get all of our clothes on," he says. Frank recalls one incident:

"A man reached down to his ring finger, took off his wedding ring, and gave it to my mother. 'If I don't see you in New York,' he said, 'see that my wife gets this.' "

Frank and his mother boarded a life boat with 47 other people (his father was one of the 1,513 victims of the disaster) and he has a vivid memory of what followed.

"We rowed away from the ship until we were about 150 yards away and almost instantly there was a terrific explosion. The ship split in two and the front part disappeared. . . . Then the back end aimed its rudders and propellers to the sky and hung there for several minutes. Then it gave a sort of whoosh and down it slowly went and everything was quiet."

In coordination with Lineage # 80 as furnished by Mrs. Frank John William Goldsmith (nee Victoria Agnes Lawrence) of Mansfield, Ohio; the following information was received in response to lineage questionnaires sent in 1946 to the Lawrence L. and Floyd E. Wise Families; we received information as recorded under John Wise, 12th child of Frederick Wise and Christina Weaver.

The information on Oscar Wise was received from Kenneth L. Wise, a son of Lawrence L. and Hazel Wise, formerly of Mount Cory, Ohio. Lawrence Wise was born Feb. 11, 1891 and died 12/30/1946. Mrs. Hazel O. Wise resided at 5817 N. Ridge Avenue, Chicago 26, Illinois at that time.

For more information concerning the members of the Wise Families that received invitations to the Morr & Myers Reunions; please refer to the membership roster, dated 1915 in the forepart of this book.

On Sunday, June 5, 1966, your Secretary found markings on tombstones of members of the Wise Families, in the cemetery, adjoining the Old White Church (Trinity Church) in the vicinity of Jeromesville, Ohio.

Michael Wise D-1/26/1901 Age 80 Yrs, 3 Months, 1 Day – Sarah Weaver D-11/10/1890 - Aged 65 Yrs, 8 Months.

Harriett Wise 1858-1935.

Mary Wise 1848-1925.

In the same part of the cemetery there were stones with the names of David F., Floyd R., Flora M., and Jennie Wise. These stones were without dates.

Chapter IX, Page 243 Morr Genealogy—Julia Morr and her Descendants. Julia Morr, seventh child of Andrew Morr, was born July 18, 1770: died November 8, 1824. She was married to John Jacob Meyer, (Born 1760, D-1813-15) (Served as a Sergeant in the Revolutionary War, per DAR Records - Mrs. J. Kenneth Fisher, Narvon, Penna.) a brother of Philip Meyer, who was married to Julia's sister, Anna Margaret, (See page 71). The family lived near Freeburg, Pa., until 1809, when they moved to Pine Creek township, Lycoming, now Clinton county, Pa. Julia and her husband are buried in Pine Creek Cemetery, two miles west of Jersey Shore, just south of the West Branch Canal. No tombstones mark their resting place. The descendants of this couple reside in Clinton and Lycoming counties, Pa.

*John Jacob Meyer was a native of Muhlbach, Lancaster, now Lebanon county, Pa., and came with his father, Jacob Meyer, to Penn's township, near Freeburg, Pa., about the year 1771. In 1809, he and his son Jacob visited the vicinity of Jersey Shore, Pa., with a view of purchasing a farm and locating there. Mr. Meyer, supposing that the country south of town abounded in too much water, made his purchase two miles northwest of Jersey Shore. The farm he bought is at present owned by Harrison Kinney, now located in Pine Creek township, Clinton county, Pa. Mr. Meyer's will was probated at Williamsport, Pa., Nov. 18, 1815: the date of its execution is Nov. 5, 1815. The time of his death is not known, but occurred between the two dates just given. In his will, Mr. Meyer signed his name simply Jacob Muyer; The Register when he certified to the paper, wrote it Jacob Myers, which would seem to indicate that it was then already customary with some to write the name Myers. Pine Creek Cemetery is an old burying ground about midway between the mouth of Pine Creek and Jersey Shore. It is the first place where the early settlers of the vicinity buried their dead.

Your Secretary has no connection with the Julia Morr-John Jacob Meyer Lineage.

Chapter X—Anna Barbara Morr and her Descendants - Page 273 Morr Genealogy.

Anna Barbara Morr, the youngest of the children of Andrew Morr, was born in Penn's township, Northumberland county, near Freeburg, Pa., November 7, 1772. She was married to Frederick Stees.* There is no record of their marriage, neither is it known definitely at what age she died, but it is supposed her death occurred in 1804. Anna Barbara is buried in the Morr Cemetery near Freeburg, where repose the remains of her father, mother, a sister and her two brothers. Sometime after her death Mr. Stees married Mary (Riblet) Worthington who lived near Freeburg, Pa.

The following history is submitted by Mrs. J. Kenneth Fisher of Narvon, Pa., relative to Frederick Steese's father, John Jacob Steese; same was taken from Record # 13800 of the Daughters of American Colonist. (DAC)

John Jacob Steese was a Palatine Settler from Germany. He arrived in Philadelphia, Pa., August 8, 1764. He was born in 1735 and died in 1782. He married Margaret Eckbert. She was born in 1741 and died in 1824.

Frederick Stees was a native of Berks county, Pa. He came to Penn's township, Northumberland county, about the year 1788. His name appears in the list of residents of Mahantango township, in the same county, in 1796, a new township formed out of Penn's. His home was what is known as Mt. Pleasant Mills, Snyder county, Pa. While residing here he owned 400 acres of land upon which were erected a grist and saw-mill which he built. He disposed of his property to John Schnee, a resident of Lebanon, Pa., about the year 1810, for the consideration of $13,333.33 and one third cents. June 7, 1796, Mr. Stees was commissioned a Justice of the Peace for Mahantango township. In those days these officials did not hold this office for a term of years as now constituted, but the commission invariably specified "So long as you shall behave yourself well." He performed this trust until he located in that part of Penn's township, now known as the vicinity of Middleburg, Snyder county, Pa. Here, and what is known as Paxtonville, in the same county, he carried on the milling business on a rather extensive scale. He built not only grist mills but also factories in the present territory of Snyder and Union counties. They were driven by a superior waterpower and were operated by himself, his sons Jacob and Frederick. Mr. Stees established a good trade at Reading, Pa., for the sale of flour, woollen goods and products from the farm. Many were the fatiguing journeys made overland with teams drawn by six horses. He annually fattened 300 hogs, killing as many as sixty of them in one day during the butchering season. He was a man of great wealth, but through his generous nature and indomitable faith that never takes into account the frailties of human nature, his large fortune dwindled into a meager sum. In 1828, he moved on the John George Morr farm near Freeburg, Pa. Here he farmed and built a grist mill. After spending some time in this locality, he disposed of his property and located in the Lost Creek Valley, Juniata county, Pa. Here he spent his remaining years. He died in August, 1839, aged 72 years. He is buried at McAlisterville, in the county just named. Some years after his death a church was built over the grave where his body was laid to rest.

In 1941 your Secretary worked in the Cincinnati District for the State of Ohio and through an acquaintance and fellow employee, Mr. John Monahan, visited Mr. Fred J. Morr, County Auditor of Hamilton County, Ohio, relative to the lineage of the Morr Family that he was connected with. Mr. Morr traced his lineage to his grandfather Jacob Morr, but was unable to give more information. He communicated with Mrs. Effie Myers Fuhrman, Historian and Necrologist of the Morr and Myers Families of Ashland, Ohio. Mrs. Fuhrman was unable to trace his lineage through the Morr Genealogy Book. Mr. Fred J. Morr attended the Sixty First Annual Morr and Myers Reunion held in Ashland, Ohio, on Thursday, June 19, 1941. Your Genealogist attempted on many occasions to trace Mr. Morr's lineage, but was not successful.

Lineage # 77 was included in the Master Copy, because it was the opinion of every Morr, present at the reunion, that he definitely was a member of the Morr Family relationship. See excerpts of the minutes of the Sixty-First Annual Reunion in forepart of this book for more information.

MORR TO HICKEL: WE NEED $200 MILLION FOR POLLUTION

WASHINGTON—Ohio's Department of Natural Resources has asked for Federal funds totaling more than $200 million over the next four years to fight water pollution. At the same time, Natural Resources Director Fred E. Morr suggested in a memo to Interior Secretary Walter J. Hickel that his (Morr's) office has been ignored on matters dealing with Lake Erie pollution.

The memo was handed to Hickel by Morr in a meeting in the new Interior Secretary's office here.

Morr asked Hickel to prod the Federal Water Pollution Control Administration (WPCA) on sewage treatment construction grants, and on research and demonstration grants for five specific pollution projects.

The state needs about $200 million in Federal sewage treatment construction grants in the next four years, Morr said, to match available state and local funds.

Lake Erie pollution was spotlighted recently with release of a five-year $3 million WPCA study.

Morr said the study "ignored state reviews" and was issued in a news conference to which State officials weren't invited.

As a result, Morr said, WPCA research on Lake Erie "is losing the state's confidence."

The memo also observed: "Ohio has had problems getting action on research and demonstration grant applications from WPCA. No acknowledgement from Washington office.

"WPCA and U. S. Geological survey are in conflict on stream monitoring program—policies differ on assistance to states and on who is responsible . . . ."

The following Preface was taken from the Genealogy of the Meyer Family by Henry Meyer. Printed by Lauer & Mattill, Cleveland, Ohio in 1890. Page 3 Meyer Genealogy.

The Genealogy of the Meyer Family was Entered according to Act of Congress, in the year 1890, by Henry Meyer, in the office of the Librarian of Congress, at Washington, D.C.

Originally these sketches and genealogies of the Meyer family were prepared, not for publication, but for the author's own use and satisfaction. There are many facts and anecdotes in the unwritten history of the old stock of Meyers, which are rapidly passing into oblivion, and it was considered a duty incumbent upon some one to make a record of them somewhere while a portion at least was still accessible. At the solicitation of many of the Meyer connection, however, the author has changed his original purpose as to the publication of the sketches, and they were prepared for the printer, thus giving an opportunity to the numerous descendants of the Meyer family to enlarge, it is hoped, their fund of knowledge in relation to their kin and ancestors. But the step was not taken without some reluctance, for the writer is conscious of the fact that in the absence of records, no accurate and complete history of events, some of which occurred almost two hundred years ago, could now be prepared. It is certainly to be regretted, that some representative of the family did not address himself to the task of writing the history of his ancestors at an earlier date, for nearly all that is known on the subject now is merely tradition, and much has already been lost which would be of peculiar interest, if preserved, to a numerous train of descendants. Many dates can be approximate only, and traditions in the different branches of the family in regard to the same event do not always correspond. It may be proper to say, however, that considerable pains were taken to sift everything carefully, and reject what was doubtful, so that the reader may rely on the statements presented as being in general correct. It would have added to the interest and value of this book if more of the earlier dates, many of which are now unfortunately lost, could have been supplied; special efforts were made to secure all the dates and items of interest in relation to the old stock of the family, rather than give minute details concerning later generations. The design has been to present but a brief work. To extend the genealogies beyond the fifth (American) generation would make this work quite extensive. The author considers his duty at least partially discharged in furnishing a concise statement of his subject, which may form a trunk upon which branches of individual families may easily be grafted by future genealogists.

The greater portion of the material for this book was collected in 1882 and 1883, but some additions have been made up to the time of publication, January, 1890; these latter are accompanied by their proper dates.

Since these sketches were prepared originally for the benefit of his own family and near relatives the writer made frequent use of the pronoun "I" and the terms "uncle," "parents," "cousins," to avoid in some degree the obscurity and confusion incident on the constant recurrence of the same names in the succession of generations. It was thought proper to retain this style in this work.

A large part of the information contained in these pages was obtained from representatives of the different branches of the family through correspondence, and credit is usually given for such contributions at the proper place. But the author is under special obligations to Hon. Jacob G. Meyer, Aaronsburg, Pa.; Maj. John Meyer and Henry Meyer (des'd), Rebersburg, Pa.; Frederick C. Meyer, Freeburg, Pa., and Mrs. Amanda Steese, Lake, Ohio, for valuable assistance rendered.

The following "EARLY HISTORY OF THE MEYER SETTLEMENT IN AMERICA." was taken from the original Genealogy of the Meyer Family. Page 9 to 21.

The Meyers seem to have been quite numerous in some parts of Germany. This may be inferred from the large number that have annually emigrated to this country from a very early period of its settlement by Europeans up to the present. It is not pretended that all the individuals of this name are blood relations, for in some sections it is almost as universal as the surname Smith or Miller. Before the Great West was opened for settlement, Pennsylvania received probably more of these Meyer emigrants than any other state. The land records at Harrisburg, Pa., show that from 1733 to 1752 the Meyer name occurs about fifty times in connection with tracts of land taken up in Lancaster County, but among them some names appear several times, as the same person took up different tracts. A copy of the list is given in note below.*

*Note—These were tracts taken up in Lancaster County, but some are at present within the limits of Lebanon County, which was taken from Lancaster:

but its only value is to show that the Meyer immigrants were numerous in the early history of Pennsylvania. Which of these names belonged to our ancestors and relatives can not now be ascertained.

It might be here stated, since the name "Meyer" is spelled in different ways by different members of this numerous family, that among the emigrant ship lists on file at Harrisburg, Pa., it is never found written "Moyer"; most frequently it is written "Meyer." So also in old deeds and other papers signed a hundred or a hundred and fifty years ago the name is always spelled "Meyer" or "Mayer." However, in the records at Harrisburg and other places, where clerks and officials wrote the name, we see it written in many different ways—Meyer, Myer, Meyers, Myers, Mire, Meier, Meir, Mayer, Moyer. Of course our ancestors wrote German and spelled their name "Meyer," which properly translated is Meyer, and this form has been adopted for this work.

Our Ancestor Meyer who settled in this country came from Palatinate, Prussia. After extensive inquiries among descendants I have failed to ascertain his christian name. My father (Henry Meyer, born 1795 died 1881) thought it was Christopher. Hon. Jacob G. Meyer, Aaronsburg, Pa., thinks so too. Several others have this impression, but none know positively. My opinion is that his name was Henry; reasons for which will be given in another place. Little is known about this Meyer while in this country, and still less about his history before he came across. Many genealogies are lost in the Atlantic Ocean. Maj. John Meyer, Rebersburg, Pa., states, he often heard his uncle Philip Meyer (grandson of the Meyer from Germany) say that two brothers came with our ancestor across from the old country, and that one of them returned to his home because he did not like this country, while the other went to the Carolinas in quest of a warmer climate. Father used to say that two daughters of our ancestor moved to one of the Carolina states, and it is quite probable that some male relative had preceded them. Samuel Meyer, Iowa, son of the Philip above mentioned, says that he was always told "that three brothers came together, two of them settled in Pennsylvania, the other left there and was never heard from." Two separate tracts of land were taken up at the old Meyer settlement, Muhlbach, Lebanon County, Pa., one by John Meyer and the other by Henry Meyer, adjoining, and the probability is that these were brothers and that one of them was our ancestor. This subject will again be referred to in another place. In reference to the question whether one of those brothers above mentioned moved to Carolina (South Carolina), it is reliably stated that Meyer relatives from that section used to come to the old Muhlbach homestead, and visited also Michael Meyer, who moved to Ohio.

Our ancestor, Mr. Meyer, settled permanently at the beautiful spring or source of the small stream known by the name Muhlbach (Mill Creek), Lancaster County, Pa., but now in the southeastern part of Lebanon County, as the latter was taken from the former. About this question there can be no doubt. It is a tradition in different branches of the Meyer family. I often heard father repeat the story how his great grandfather and great grandmother arrived at that Spring and began life anew in the new country; and his circumstantial account of the event agrees substantially with versions given by Hon. Jacob G. Meyer, Maj. John Meyer, Mrs. Nancy (Meyer) Kryder and others. This spring is in Mill Creek township near the line between this and Heidelberg township (Mill Creek was taken from Heidelberg). As already stated, this spring is the source of the Muhlbach creek, a small stream which flows east and northeast into the historic Tulpehocken. I visited the place several times during the Spring and Summer of 1883, and a brief description of the old homestead and its neighborhood may not be inappropriate.

Getting off the train at Sheridan Station, L.V.R.R., one travels in a southwestern direction through a fine farming region part way through beautiful meadows along the Muhlbach, a short distance of about three miles to reach the spring. The Muhlbach post village, where stands the old Lutheran and Reformed Church in the old cemetery, in which are buried many of the first Meyer settlers is passed within a mile of the spring. This is an old country, historic; it was settled as early as the year 1720. One will pass many buildings over a hundred years old. There are yet standing solid, fortress-like stone houses, which were constructed with a view of defense against attacks from the Indians, and several did good service in that way.

I found a beautiful spring at the old homestead supplying a small stream, which still is the abode of fine trout. It is limestone water. George Meyer of Dauphin, who was raised there, says that it discharges about one-fourth less water than formerly. He says they used to clean it once a year. I viewed the spot with peculiar interest, and the oft repeated traditions I had heard from my childhood came back vividly to my mind. I may have been standing on the very spot where our great-great-grandmother had prostrated herself on the ground in grief and tears, when she and her husband tarried here under a tree from their long and weary wanderings, seeking a home in the wild forest of a strange country. No wonder that tears were shed. No house to shelter them and their children; no furniture of any kind; but little, if any, food; they had nothing but an axe and a few indispensable articles which they carried in a bundle. Nothing but forest, wherever they turned their eyes, and for all they knew hostile Indians might even then be prowling around them on the adjacent ridges. Their few neighbors were far off and equally poor, and as the poor woman contemplated their forelorn situation, it is no wonder that her mind should revisit the scenes of her childhood—home across the wide, wide ocean. Yet it must have been a beautiful spot, and a more desirable location for their home could not be found in that region. North of the spring is a considerable elevation and a slight one on the south still covered with woods, and between these flows the Muhlbach in an eastern direction for some distance, then bending its course north and northeast, receiving tributaries from a number of other fine springs all along until it empties into the Tulpehocken. The farmhouse and barn are north of the spring. The house is the third on the place, and was preceded by a log cabin which stood across the road, north of the present building. It was removed about the year 1840, and the material used in the construction of another house somewhere in the neighborhood, and was burned down afterwards. But there used to be a small cabin quite close to the spring, which it is supposed was the first dwelling house on the place. Widow Meyer, who lives on the farm at present (1883), describes the cabin as having been about ten by twelve feet, one story high, containing one low door, two small windows, one of which had two panes, and a chimney at one end of the room. It was moved down the run some fifty rods about the year 1858, enlarged and is there this day.

A small stable affording room for one cow stood near by. The present buildings on the place are substantial; the house is of rough stones. Land there is worth from $150 to $175 per acre. The place has never been owned by any person except descendants of the Meyer who first settled on it.* My father used to say the old homestead was still owned by Meyers of the old stock. The genealogy of the Meyer families in that section will be given in its proper place.

*Note—The farm was divided years ago, and the eastern part, which contains the spring, passed into the hands of J. M. Zimmerman, Dec. 9, 1887.

The date of the arrival of Mr. Meyer in this country can be ascertained approximately only. He was without doubt one of the first settlers in the Muhlbach region, and from local histories it appears that the first white people located there about the year 1721-1723. "Among the early settlers on Mill Creek were Conrad Bissel, Joseph Shaeffer, Hans Meyer, Henry Hoehn and several Landises," "Conrad Bissel settled on Muhlbach in 1721. He and Stuntz built a house. They were soon joined by Isaac Von Barben, George Steifel and others."--Rupp's Hist. Lancaster County. In a recent history of Dauphin and Lebanon Counties by Dr. W. H. Egle, occurs the following. "Conrad Weiser, his wife and five children came from Schoharie, N. Y., in 1723, and settled in Muhlbach, afterward he moved to the present site of Womelsdorf. He was accompanied to Muhlbach by John Stump, Michael Meiser, John Noll, Michael Zeller, John Moore, Henry Moyer, Nicholas Lechner, John Grove and Christ Seibert, all settled at Muhlbach." It will be observed that in the foregoing extracts we have two names Henry Meyer and Hans (John) Meyer among the list of early settlers. There is a tradition that our ancestors did belong to Conrad Weiser's colony. Among the old papers of the Muhlbach Meyer homestead, I found a draft of 346 and three quarters acres of land taken up by Henry Meyer, Sept. 29, 1738; the adjoining tracts being owned by John Moore, J. Baker, Wendel Loutermilk, Ben Scheffer and John Moyer.* This undoubtedly is the draft of the original tract on which our ancestors located, and it shows that there were at that time two Meyers, Henry and John. While there is no positive proof, my opinion is that Henry was our ancestor, and that John was his brother. But the following facts which are handed down to us may perhaps be of more value in determining the time when Mr. Meyer brought his family to America. On their arrival at Muhlbach the family consisted of husband, wife and one or two children. John was the oldest son and must have been the child (or one of the two) brought from Germany. As near as can be ascertained he was born in 1719. It would, therefore, be probable that the family came to Muhlbach sometime during the period between the years 1721 and 1725.

*Note—Among the taxables in Heidelberg township in the year following the separation of Berks from Lancaster, 1752, are found John Mire and Henry Mire. Six years later, John Myer is assessed 0£.8s.6d; Henry Myer, 0£.6s. 0d; Isaac Meyer, 0£.17s.0d. This Isaac Meyer, the founder of Meyertown, Pa. was assassinated in a public house at Meyertown, Pa., July 15, 1770. Some person shot him through a window after night. He was born June 4, 1730; lies buried in the old cemetery of the Tulpehocken Reformed Church. Isaac Meyer had been a Justice of the Peace; was prominent in his section. He was related in some way to the Muhlbach Meyers. Heister Clymer is a descendant.

It has been stated already that little is known of our ancestor's history while in this country, nor while still a resident of Palatinate. The few facts that we have in our possession will, therefore, be the more interesting and should be carefully treasured, though of but little intrinsic value.

Mr. Meyer served a term of seven years in the army in the old country, and with this fact is connected a romance, which, while not of great importance, may, nevertheless, be of sufficient interest to preserve. Before entering the army Mr. Meyer became engaged to a young lady who subsequently became his wife. But while serving his time in the army his girl fell in love with another fellow, which brought on a lover's quarrel with her betrothed. Mr. Meyer pretended to be quite indifferent about his former sweetheart, and while passing her home in going to and coming from his work he whistled and sang and in other ways showed his indifference. She relented and sent for him, when a reconciliation took place. He was a fine singer, which it is said had its effect in changing the lady's feelings. They were married and ere many years came to America. Most of their little property they sold to pay part of their passage across the ocean. Several pigs and a few pieces of furniture was all they had. They landed in New York, and after serving a time to pay the balance of their fare across the ocean, came to Philadelphia. Thence traveling on foot through the country, working a day or two occasionally to defray expenses, they finally arrived, while looking for a place to settle, at the beautiful spring in the forest, which seemed to have a strong attraction for Mr. Meyer and he said, "Here we will stay." The bundles which they carried were unloaded under a large oak tree, and the husband christened the stream "Muhlbach," after the name of his native home in the old country. Their possessions were exceedingly limited, consisting of an axe, two tin plates, some clothing and a few other indispensable articles. It was sometime after harvest that the family arrived at the spring, about four o'clock in the afternoon of a certain day.*

*Note—George C. Meyer, Freeburg, Pa., gives the following version of this part of the story: "Mr. Meyer had to make up a certain sum of money to pay his taxes, and he took his pigs to market to sell for that purpose. Meeting there some of his comrades, they repaired to a tavern, where the money was soon spent, and the taxes remained unpaid. Money and pigs gone, and being extremely poor, he became dissatisfied with his hard lot, and resolved to emigrate to America."

*Note—I am indebted to Hon. Jacob G. Meyer and my father for most of the above facts. Father often made mention of the tin or pewter plates, and how his great grandfather named the stream. Mrs. Nancy Kryder, Cedar Springs, Pa. (deceased), says the family had one child. That the parents located under a tree near the spring. That the wife sat on the ground and cried while her husband went to work with his axe making a clearing.

*Note—Among the Meyers buried at Muhlbach, the following have tombstones with inscriptions:—

Moyer, Catherine (wife of J.M.), born Oct. 1747; died Oct. 11, 1825. See page 25.

Moyer, Catherine (wife of J.M.), born Oct. 15, 1789; died, May 9, 1852.

Moyer, John George, born, Sept. 7, 1783; died, Oct. 22, 1804. See page 28.

Moyer, Johannes, died Dec. 11, 1786, aged 67 years. See page 22.

Meyer, Elizabeth (wife of J.G.M.), born Jan. 30, 1779; died April 7, 1855.

Meyer, John George, born Oct. 13, 1774; died, Oct. 21, 1826.

When Mr. Meyer died, how old he was or where he is buried, are questions that will, perhaps, never be answered. It is probable that he and his wife lie buried in the cemetery of the old Muhlbach church, as that would have been the most convenient, and there are buried many of his descendants. I visited the cemetery in company with Henry Meyer, Muhlbach, in the spring of 1883, but found no tombstone with a record that might apply to him. Many graves have no markers, others have tombstones without inscriptions, and still others have inscriptions, but so much defaced and worn by the elements that they can not be deciphered. I also visited both the Lutheran and Reformed Churches at the Tulpehocken and the old Reed's Church, farther east, and found absolutely nothing that I thought could apply to our ancestors.

The Meyers about Muhlbach, who are the descendants of John, seem to know rather less about the early family history than those of their kin (descendants of Jacob and Christopher) who live at a distance. This is natural. Through their continuous residence at the old homestead or in its immediate vicinity, and their participation in later events there, they would be likely to lose interest in the incidents of its earlier history, and finally forget most of them; while on the other hand, Jacob and his family and Christopher left the old home at a period when the story of its settlement was still green in their memories, and thus would be cherished by them and their descendants as precious relics of the old homestead.

As already stated, a larger number of Meyers settled in this country, and in looking over the assessment list of the townships in the southern and eastern parts of Lebanon county, the name is found to occur quite frequently from the year 1752 to 1800. Of course their names appeared earlier, but the records of Lancaster county up to the date 1752 have been lost, I believe.

Some of these names apply to the Muhlbach Meyers, and many others may have been relatives of them coming from the same section of the Palatinate. The Stouchsburg Meyers, Berks county, Pa., claim relationship with the Muhlbach Meyers, and there are some traits of resemblance, but their ancestors came across just prior to the Revolutionary War.*

*Note—Nicholas Meyer was the ancestor of this family, and came from the old country about the time of the Revolution. He was married before he came across, and had a son, Daniel. Nicholas was born about the year 1750, died about the year 1800. Daniel, his son, lived near Stouchsburg, Berks county, Pa.; he died in 1850, aged about 66 years. Left eight children:

I. John lived at Stouchsburg; had issue:—1. John born April 1, 1830; lives at Stouchsburg; 2. Adam; 3. Levi, Stouchsburg; 4. Melinda, m. John Kintzell; 5. Isaac, proprietor of hotel and store, Stouchsburg; 6. Joshua; 7. Maria, m. W. Deck.

II. Elizabeth

III. Sarah

IV. Daniel

V. Catherine

VI. Mary

VII. Isaac

VIII. Susan, married to George Fornwalt. Lives at Stouchsburg, Pa. She was born July 16, 1819. I visited her April 21, 1883, and received these facts from her. She says John Nicholas Meyer and Jacob Meyer (whoever they may have been) were cousins of her grandfather, Nicholas Meyer. This family write their name Moyer.

The rest of this sketch will now be devoted to the genealogy of the three families of John, Jacob and Christopher Meyer, and such items of history as have been collected and may seem appropriate. These are the only sons of the Meyer who came from Europe, that had issue. The facts of the following sketches were furnished by representatives of their respective branches of families, and are, no doubt, in the main, reliable. I took special care to verify traditions and statements in various ways before inserting them here, and in order to be on the safe side some items may have been rejected which should have been retained.

Several branches of families have not been traced down as far as could be desired, because of the difficulty encountered in securing the necessary information. Dates of birth and deaths are usually given if known.

How many children the Germany Meyer had could not be ascertained definitely with regard to the daughters. Father used to say there were four sons and two daughters, the latter having both moved to the Carolinas. Mrs. Nancy Kryder, mentioned before, stated there was one daughter only, that she moved to one of the Carolinas and was heard from only once after her removal thence.

Witness my Hand and

Jeremiah Simpson, Registrar.

The following is taken from the Genealogy of the Meyer Family, page 34 and refers to Jacob Meyer, the second child of the Meyer that emigrated from Germany in 1715 and settled in Muhlbach, Pa., in 1723.

Jacob Meyer (son of the Meyer from Germany) was the second son, and was born at Muhlbach. The date of his birth was not ascertained, nor the date of his decease definitely. There is no tombstone with an inscription, and if there are any positive records anywhere on the subject, I failed to discover them. Letters of administration were granted Samuel and John Haas to settle up his estate, dated Feb. 24, 1808, and it is probable he died only a short time previous to that date. Traditions and some papers in my possession point to about the same period. He was about seventy-five years old, states Maj. John Meyer, a grandson.

Jacob lived at Muhlbach until about the year 1768 when he moved to Penn's township, now part of Snyder County, Pa., and purchased a large tract of land lying west about three-fourths of a mile from the present site of Freeburg, formerly named Straubsburg, after its founder, Peter Straub, and was one of the early settlers in that section.

Andrew Moor, a Mr. Glass and Mr. Straub had preceded him. The family suffered the usual hardships incident to frontier life. Their flour was brought from Muhlback on horseback. Yet there must have been grist mills more convenient at that date. On one of these trips for supplies Jacob's brother, Christopher, came along to the new country, and while crossing Peter's mountain, north of Harrisburg, the pack saddle-straps gave away, and the packs rolled down the mountain. Then Christopher got out of humor, and berated Jacob for moving into the distant wilderness whence no roads would ever be made; to which the latter replied that sometime in the future excellent roads would be constructed. And of course Jacob's prophecy came true, for around the end of that same mountain which they crossed along a narrow path there are now a fine carriage road, a canal and a double track for cars, while just across the river there is another railroad track. Probably it was, to resume our narrative, on this trip that a bag was torn open by a brush along the path and the flour spilled on the ground.

Sometime during the Revolutionary War Jacob moved back again with his family at Muhlbach, probably to be more secure from the annoying depredations of hostile Indians. He was drafted and served in the army, but in what capacity or for what length of time was not ascertained. His oldest son, Philip, as will be stated more fully elsewhere, was also in the army. His son Henry, was at the age of sixteen connected with an organization of "home-guards" or scouts to protect the settlement against the Indians and served at intervals. It appears the family returned from Muhlbach to their home in Penn's township (Freeburg) before the close of the war. Indians sometime lurked about their home, but never molested them, being afraid, perhaps, of the pack of fierce dogs kept on the place. On one occasion several Indians were observed across the clearing, some distance from the house; the boys and dogs gave chase, but did not overtake them. Several Indians families lived within a short distance of the Meyer home, and his—Mr. Meyer's—children used to play with the Indian children. During the Indian troubles the male members of these Indian families would generally be away from home, and it was suspected they were out on scalping expeditions, though they were on friendly terms with the near white neighbors.

Jacob kept a sort of a tavern at Straubsburg (Freeburg), and Col. Samuel Miles used to stop with him on his journeys from his home in Philadelphia to his lands in Penns, Brush and Nittany valleys (now Centre Co.) and back, and it was through this intimate acquaintance thus formed with Col. Miles that grandfather Henry came to purchase a tract of land from him in Brushvalley. It is said Jacob protested against his son's purchasing any land in Brushvalley, for the reason that there would never any roads be opened into it. Jacob and his sons used to hunt in the valley long before any settlers moved into it, and he did not suppose it would ever be any good for anything else. Yet he lived to see his mistake; for in his old age he paid a visit to his sons in the valley, about the year 1803-1806, and beheld the wilderness converted to fertile field, and the desert made to blossom as the rose.

In 1800 Christopher Meyer, son of Campbellstown Christopher, came to Freeburg (then Straubsburg), and in 1801 "Big John," another son of the latter, also settled in that vicinity. (These dates are given by Fred C. Meyer, Freeburg.) Therefore in 1801, there were in that place Jacob and several of his sons, and their cousins Christopher and "Big John," Grandfather Henry had then moved to Brushvalley already, and I am not quite certain whether his brother John Jacob had not moved away, also then, to Pine Creek, Lycoming County, Pa. At present there are many descendants about Freeburg of Christopher and John, but not one male descendant of great-grandfather Jacob.

Jacob was married to Miss Susan Zartman, born in Germany, so say Uncle John and Reuben Meyer, grandsons. But in an old power of attorney in my possession, given by Jacob Meyer, Sr., to his son Michael, dated 1801, mention is made of Jacob's wife as being Susanna Ream, daughter of Peter Ream, Dauphin County, Pa. The instrument was given to secure the wife's legacy, and seems to be positive evidence as to her maiden name. The paper alludes to her as being then deceased. In a sketch of Michael Meyer in a history of Summit County, Ohio, her maiden name is also given as Susan Ream. One of the Greningers of Sugar Valley, Clinton County, Pa., an early settler there, was married to her sister. Great-grandmother Meyer (Jacob's wife) was not a large woman, but what she lacked in stature was fully compensated for in grit and temper. She used to whip her boys after they were full grown. Some of them were almost giants, and no doubt they could stand up and meekly take a whipping without suffering much pain. The boys, of whom there were six, viz.: —Philip, John Jacob, John George, Henry, Michael and Christopher, were not allowed to grow up in idleness, but were early put to work. One of their occupations was weaving—probably during bad weather, when out-door work could not be done, and as they were rather fond of constructing things with carpenter's tools, they sometimes neglected their work at the loom; then if their mother would discover the objects on which they were exercising their ingenuity and wasting their time, she would smash them, and pitch the fragments into the fire. The boys were careful not needlessly to expose their handicraft. Father used to say the boys were of a hilarious disposition, and attended all the parties and balls within reasonable distance; they made their own violins, which some could play with considerable skill, and as their mother was opposed to gatherings of this kind, she would demolish their musical instruments without ceremony whenever misfortune would reveal to her the hiding place. It is said that on certain occasions she dressed in disguise, went to one of the parties where the boys were in attendance and gave them a whipping then and there. On one occasion when her son Philip had tackled a big Irishman, and got the worst of it, she remarked to him, as she beheld the rainbow tints on his face, "Well, did you get a licking again?" Philip admitted it was so, but said he was going to learn the pugilistic art, if it cost him his head. And he did become proficient. Yet she was a good mother, and labored hard and faithfully to raise her numerous family amid the hardships of frontier life, and her big sons dearly loved her, and would sacrifice their lives in her defense.

Jacob was not a large man, was of kindly disposition and not inclined to be quarrelsome, but is said he seemed rather pleased when he heard that his sons came off victorious in their many pugilistic contests. Both he and his wife are buried in the old cemetery at Freeburg; neither has a tombstone with an inscription. Their son, John George, is buried in the same cemetery; as also another son, Christopher, probably. I visited the cemetery in 1883, and father had visited it a number of years before, but neither was able to locate any of the graves.

The following information was taken from tombstones in the cemetery at Aaronsburg, Pa., which is approximately two miles east of Millheim, Pa. Margaret, Benjamin and Samuel (Meyer)(Moyer) Myers, (pages 49-50-51 Meyer Genealogy, pages 128-129-131 Morr Genealogy) were three of eleven children of Philip Meyer and Anna Margaret Morr that migrated from Freeburg, Pa. to settle in Brush Valley Centre County, Pa., in 1795, which I assume was in the vicinity of Rebersburg, Millheim and Aaronsburg, Pa. Your Secretary's grandmother was Margaret R. Meyer, third child of Samuel Moyer - Esther Reynolds union.

The following is Chapter IV, page 71 taken from the Genealogy of the Morr Family. Note—The dates of births, deaths and marriages were added by your Secretary.

ANNA MARGARET MORR AND DESCENDANTS

Anna Margaret Morr was the second daughter of Andrew Morr. She was born August 20, 1759; died near Petersburg, Centre County, Pa., March 12, 1829. She was married to Philip Meyer* about the year 1780. He was born November 14, 1755; died near Rebersburg, Pa., April 27, 1831. The respective family histories of the Morrs and Meyers have been running in parallel streams for over a century with frequent intermingling of their branches all along the course. The first marriage is the one mentioned above, but as stated in the opening chapter of the volume, there was a John Morr who married Elizabeth Meyer, daughter of John Meyer at an earlier period. Some suppose that this John Morr and Andrew Morr, Anna Margaret's father, were brothers. Anna Margaret lies buried by the side of her husband in the Lutheran and Reformed Cemetery at Petersburg. A brown sandstone marks their resting place. The writer visited their graves at twilight on September 7, 1892. A number of the Meyer family lie buried here, but none of Anna Margaret's descendants. The descendants of this family are numerous and are all in the Western States, principally in Ohio and Iowa.

*Note—Philip Meyer was heavy built, muscular and active, but not as tall as his brothers. He was a noted wrestler in his day, and was not averse to contests of a more serious nature, as his numerous experiments in that line seem to demonstrate. But that was in an age when physical power was at a premium.

Note—The children of Philip Meyer and Anna Margaret Morr are placed numerically according to their dates of birth as taken from the Morr Genealogy, as it was more complete, insofar as dates of births and deaths were concerned. For example Jacob Meyer is the 3rd child of Philip Meyer and Anna Margaret Morr as listed on page 45 of the Meyer Genealogy, however, he is listed as the 5th child on page 102 of the Morr Genealogy. The name Meyer will be spelled "Myers" in the following lineages.

The following is taken from the Schutt Family History (originally spelled Schott) as gathered and compiled by Mr. John Jacob Schutt of Washington, D.C.

The report was evidently received by Mrs. Virginia Harrison of Ashland, Ohio; however, on Dec. 28, 1927, Mrs. Effie Myers Fuhrman also received lineage reports of the Schutt Family.

The report as submitted by Mrs. Ida Shidler Wiltrout is as follows:

The records show that our Great Grandfather Philip Schott (Schutt) was the son of Frederick Schott, who landed in Philadelphia, Pa., on the ship Leslie, Captain J. Bellendine, commanding, on October 7, 1749. He sailed from Palatinate, Manheim, Zweybrucken, Germany. He died in 1786 leaving five sons. They were all born in Lancaster County, Pa., now Dauphin County.

61 I—Frederick Schott moved to Waterloo, New York, about the year 1802.
II—Philip Schott* settled in Rebersburg, Brush Valley, Centre County, Pa.
III—Andrew Schott was married and moved to Waterloo, New York in 1805.
IV—Ludwig Schott—C-1802, settled in Rebersburg, Centre County, Pa.
V—John Schott—D-1802, settled in Rebersburg, Centre County, Pa.

Philip, Andrew, Ludwig and John Schott settled in Rebersburg, Brush Valley, Centre County, Pa., in the year 1797. Philip and Andrew were married.

ASHLAND'S IRREPARABLE LOSS (11/28/1923)

In the death of F. E. Myers Ashland has lost its foremost citizen. Known throughout the state and nation as one of the country's great captains of business and finance, his passing will be deeply felt, and in Ashland where he has lived all his life, the vacancy will be most keen. His splendid advice and rare judgement will no more be forthcoming in the things that pertain to Ashland.

In the big factory he with the aid of his brother has built through his life's work there will be a great void, although he has placed that establishment on such a firm basis through wise managment that it will continue to carry on as the world's largest pump and hay tool works; there will be a greater void in Ashland, where he has given his best efforts to the progress of this community.

Mr. Myers was a man of wonderful intellect and foresight. He possessed the ability to see the practical worth of an opportunity and his mental strength is the result of super training in the school of experience. His was an outstanding character in that his great success did not spoil him and any man with upright character and no worldly possession could win his regard as surely as the man who had gained wealth or prominence.

He was known here at home by those who knew him best as being charitable, kindly, easily approached and with the rare faculty of making one immediately at ease in his presence.

As well as Mr. Myers was known and appreciated in Ashland, his reputation extended beyond the bounds of the state as one of the real big men of this country.

The partnership of the two brothers, F. E. and P. A. Myers, was an ideal one and lasted 45 years. F. E. Myers possessed the genius for organization, salesmanship and far-seeing financial ability while his brother added to this his great inventive skill and ability for production organization. This firm was said to be the largest existing in Ohio up until the formation of the six million dollar Corporation that took place a little over a year ago.

The career of F. E. Myers is an inspiration and a wholesome lesson to the generation of young men embarking in business. No advantage of wealth was his inheritance and his schooling was obtained in the university of hard knocks. Elbow grease, courage, honesty, initiative and judgment were his outstanding essentials and he used them persistently.

Not only here in Ashland have the Myers Brothers built up a great business, but they have been largely interested in and have helped build up other projects.

Mr. Myers was instrumental in the building of the Cleveland & Southwestern railway of which he was president for a number of years. He was president of the First National Bank of Ashland; was a director in the Union Trust Company and the Guarantee Title and Trust Co. in Cleveland and was a main factor in numerous other organizations out-side of Ashland. He has filled many posts of honor in the passing years, one of which was that of chairman of the Panama-Pacific International Exposition Commission of Ohio, an appointment of great honor bestowed by Governor Willis in 1915.

With all his interests in business affairs he has given freely of his time to public and civic affairs as the public spirited citizen that he was. In movements for community betterment he was always interested and gave freely of his time and means, and our beautiful city has largely benefitted by his spirit of enterprise. Large as these benefactions have been, yet if called on to name a most outstanding gift we would say it was in providing employment and helping men to help themselves. While thousands of factories have been idle at times of business depression and panics F. E. Myers & Bros., plant continued to run upon surplus wisely built up in prosperous years.

During the war it was the large subscriptions of F. E. Myers & Bros., that placed Ashland county at the head. Hundreds of thousands of dollars were subscribed to Victory and Liberty loans and other patriotic drives to help win the war, money honestly earned by careful management.

Ashland will be lost without its foremost citizen, F. E. Myers. Our community suffers a loss that cannot be measured and it is with great sorrow that the last leaf in this splendid citizen's life must be turned over and the book closed.

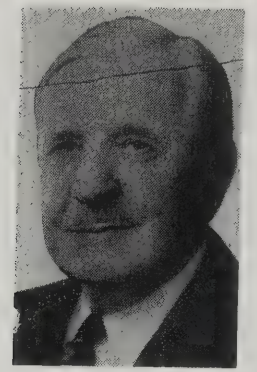
F. E. Myers battled most bravely and heroically with the foe that conquers all. He never gave up, but through the past year and more of ill health and even up to the hour of death when suffering unenduring pain, he was cheerful and courageous, these great attributes of his life ever remaining with him, attributes that have made him a leader among leaders.

FACTORIES CLOSE FOR FUNERAL (3/28/1923)

Rites for Mrs. Francis E. Myers to be Held Today

ASHLAND, O., March 29—Two of Ashland's largest plants, the F. E. Myers & Bros. Co. and the Faultless Rubber Co., will be closed tomorrow for the funeral of Mrs. Francis E. Myers, philanthropist. Services will be held Friday afternoon at 2:30 at the family residence, and will be in charge of Rev. Dr. Arthur H. Smith of Trinity Lutheran Church.

Mrs. Myers was the wife of F. E. Myers, manufacturer and capitalist. He was former president of the Cleveland, Southwestern & Columbus railway. Burial will be in Ashland cemetery.



Rites 2:30 Tuesday (3/1/1952)

ASHLAND PHILANTHROPIST, J. C. MYERS, DEAD AT 73

ASHLAND—Services will be 2:30 p.m. Tuesday for John C. Myers, 73, dean of Ashland industrialists, philanthropist, and patron of the arts, who died Saturday in Samaritan Hospital after an illness of three months.

The rites will be at the Myers residence, 910 Center st., with the Rev. Harold H. Lentz, former pastor of Trinity Lutheran Church, officiating. Burial will be in the family plot at Ashland Cemetery.

The family has asked that flowers be omitted. Arrangements are in charge of the Denbow-Bear Funeral Home.

Native of Ashland and son of F. E. Myers, one of the founders of the F. E. Myers & Bro. Co., Mr. Myers was associated with the pump manufacturing concern from the time of his graduation from Harvard University in 1902.

In 1933 he assumed the presidency of the concern, continuing in that capacity until early this year when he was made chairman of the board. His son-in-law, Curtiss Ginn Jr., succeeded him as president.

As head of one of the nation's largest manufacturers of pumps, water systems, water softeners, sprayers and hay tools, Mr. Myers was active in associated national organizations, serving at one time as president of the Farm Equipment Institute and as executive committee member of the National Association of Pump Manufacturers.

Under his years of guidance the local firm rose to its present place as Ashland's largest industry, employing 900 in its three plants. The firm's sales in 1950 totaled $10,000,000.

Myers was a member of Trinity Lutheran Church, an organizer of the Ashland YMCA and Ashland Community Chest, a director of Samaritan Hospital since its founding and a past master of the local Masonic Lodge. He was also a chairman of the board of the First National Bank of Ashland, a director of the National City Bank of Cleveland and a director of the Faultless Rubber Co. here.

Mr. Myers gave his time and money to promote Ashland music and general welfare. For many years he welcomed to his home many local groups to view his mammoth collection of paintings, said to be one of the most valuable collections in existence.

One of Mr. Myers' contributions to Ashland included the purchase of band and orchestra instruments for the Ashland High School music department. At one time he financed the furnishing of a section of the building as a music department.

In tribute to his interest, the band and orchestra each Spring presented a concert for Myers and his family and friends in the spacious gardens behind his home. He opened the concerts to the public.

Mr. Myers each year contributed several hundred dollars to both the high school and Ashland College for cash prizes to the two senior boys and two senior girls judged best all-around students. The awarding of the prizes each year provided the high point of the graduation exercises.

His many other philanthropies included the turning over of the old F. E. Myers family home to Ashland College as a department of music headquarters.

Mr. Myers leaves three sons, Francis E. II, John C. Jr. and Everett M. Myers and a daughter Mrs. Marjorie Myers Ginn, Jr.

JOHN C. MYERS HONORED BY 'Y'

John C. Myers of Ashland was elected to the International Committee of the YMCA Sunday at the annual convention of the National Council of the YMCA in Columbus.

The election to the committee is in recognition of service to the YMCA.

Mr. and Mrs. Philip A. Myers
Who were married last month at Irvington-on-Hudson

Sunday, May 6, 1928.

Cleveland has special interest in the marriage of Miss Josephine Forsyth to Mr. Philip Andrew Myers which took place at the country home of Mr. and Mrs. Lester Arleigh Robison at Irvington-on-Hudson, on April 29, the Rev. Worth M. Tippy, D.D., officiating. The bride, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Forsyth, was born and bred in Cleveland, Dr. Tippy, then pastor of Epworth Memorial Church, watching her grow up in his Sunday School. Her career in music, sponsored by the first Mrs. Harvey D. Goulder and Mrs. Stevenson Burke, was commenced under the direction of Mrs. C. D. Standish and later of Rita Elandi, and ten years ago she came to New York to study with Mme. Sembrich, becoming a soprano soloist of note in church and concert work, also a composer of music and writer of lyrics. The bridegroom is the inventor of several varieties of pumps which he manufactures in Ashland, with offices at 11 Broadway, New York; he is a director of the Union Trust and a member of the Union and Midday Clubs. Mr. and Mrs. Robison are former Clevelanders and their daughter is Mrs. William C. Bailey who returned to Cleveland to live after her marriage last year. Owing to the recent death of the bride's mother, the wedding guests were limited to the attendants, Mrs. Fenton P. Delmater, of Canton, and James A. Campbell, of Youngstown, and Mrs. E. H. Fuhrman of Ashland, Mr. Myers' sister.

During the marriage service, a harpist accompanied Clifford Cunard, tenor, in some of the bride's songs and also her setting of The Lord's Prayer. Her wedding dress was of ivory Chinese crepe and chiffon and she carried a heart-shaped bouquet of tiny pink rose buds and lilies of the valley; her engagement ring was a heart-shaped diamond and on the wedding ring are Mr. Myers' initials in diamonds. Mr. and Mrs. Myers were met by their motor in Washington and after a fortnight in the Piedmont and White Sulphur, they will be at the Hotel Plaza until July 1, spending the rest of the summer in Ashland.

PROMINENT ASHLANDER AND BRIDE

Mr. and Mrs. Philip A. Myers, who were married Sunday, April 29, at the beautiful suburban estate—The Magnolias—of Mr. and Mrs. Lester A. Robison at Irvington-on-the-Hudson, are now enjoying a brief honeymoon in the Carolinas. They will be at the Hotel Plaza, New York City after May 20 and at home here about July 1.

The photographs above were taken at The Magnolias at the time of the wedding. Mrs. Myers, prominent singer and composer, is well known in Ohio, having formerly resided in Cleveland.

The bride's gown was of imported white Chinese crepe and chiffon, the gift of her aunt, Emily E. Pentecost, who before her death had given it to the bride for a wedding gown. The double ring ceremony was used, the bride giving P. A. Myers a platinum ring in the form of a heart shaped seal with her initials in diamonds. Her engagement ring was a corresponding heart-shaped stone and her wedding ring of platinum bore the bridegroom's initials in diamonds.

Only a few guests were present at the ceremony owing to the death a few months ago of the bride's mother. Mrs. E. H. Fuhrman was the only guest from Ashland in attendance.

CHRISTENED WITH WATER FROM THE JORDAN RIVER. P. A. Myers of Ashland and New York, with "P. A. Junior," who was recently christened Phyllis Arline by the Rev. Dr. Worth M. Tippy, formerly of Cleveland, with water from the Jordan River poured from a silver bowl presented by Mrs. Stevenson Burke.

The Bystander—September 15, 1932.

Philip Andrew Myers, whose inventive genius internationally revolutionized the pump industry and eased farm life for men and women, was born and bred in Ashland County, Ohio, the second son of George and Elizabeth Myers and grandson of Jacob Myers, the first of the family to settle in the then Ohio wilderness, coming from the Pennsylvania Dutch settlement of Millheim.

Later, in the county-seat of Ashland, he and his brother established The F. E. Myers & Brother Company of which he was president at the time of his death, as well as director of many companies including the Union Trust, of Cleveland. Never losing touch with all phases of country life, Mr. Myers' unswerving resistance to invention of other than farm implements testified to his love for the land. A favorite recreation was to motor through rural America.

Mr. Myers is survived by his widow, the former Miss Josephine Forsyth, composer-soprano, of Cleveland and New York, to whom he was married April 29, 1928; by their daughter, christened Phyllis Arlene, three years old, and by his son, Guy Chase Myers, whose mother was the late Miss Samantha Chase, of Ashland County.

Although much of the last four years had been passed in New York, Cleveland and Beverly Hills, California, Mr. and Mrs. Myers kept open house at Myers Hearth, their Ashland home, and a never-fading recollection will be their reluctant speeding of departing guests, for the perfect host always took time to be courteous. A member of many clubs and societies—the Union and Midday clubs of Cleveland, Ashland Country, Ohio Society in New York, a Mason, Odd Fellow, Rotarian and a member of the Lutheran Church—and much sought by representative interests claiming his leisure, nevertheless his home was his castle.

Instinctively sensitive to art, simple in tastes, democratic in manner, tolerant in attitude towards the world and strongly resembling President Grover Cleveland whom he followed in politics, Mr. Myers' self-expression took the form of deeds, not words. With the Apostle Paul he could have said, "I have kept the faith" and, like Mr. Valiant-for-truth, "so he passed over, and all the trumpets sounded for him on the other side." L.G.H.

PAY FINAL TRIBUTES TO P. A. MYERS MONDAY

Friends, relatives and business associates of Philip A. Myers will gather at the Myers home on Center street at 4 p.m. Monday to pay last tribute to the esteemed Ashland citizen when funeral rites will be conducted by Rev. A. H. Smith of Trinity Lutheran church for Mr. Myers whose death occurred Friday morning at Wade Park Manor in Cleveland. Rev. Smith will be assisted by Rev. Alpha Rickel of the Evangelical church at Amherst.

The body was brought to the Myers home today to remain until after the funeral service. The body will lie in state from 3 to 5 p.m. Sunday.

Many local organizations, industries and other groups will pay tribute to Mr. Myers through various means.

The Rotary Club, of which he was a member, will attend the funeral in a body, meeting at the Y.M.C.A. at 3:30 p.m., President Earl McKean announced today.

The F. E. Myers & Bro. Company plant will be closed all day Monday as a mark of regard. The factory departments had already been closed for this week and next for the annual summer vacation and company offices will also close all day Monday.

The Faultless Rubber Company of which he was a director and first vice president and the First National Bank in which he held the same offices, will close Monday afternoon. Dr. Hess and Clark, Inc., will close offices and plant Monday afternoon in respect to the founder of its neighboring industrial plant. Several other industrial plants indicated today that they will adopt a similar means of paying their respect.

Retail stores will close Monday at 4 p.m. in tribute to Mr. Myers, it was announced today by Chamber of Commerce President S. R. Finley. "It is but a small token of the respect and obligation Ashland retailers feel for his contributions to our community," Finley stated.

Ashland Square Deal Grocers will close during the funeral hour, 4 to 5 p.m., it was announced today by J. B. Burns, president of the Square Deal Grocers Association composed of independent local dealers.

Tribute to P. A. Myers was paid last evening on the field which he gave as a playground to the youth of Ashland, Myers Field. Before play started in the American and National softball leagues last evening, fans and players stood for a minute in silent tribute to the donor of the field. Games scheduled in both leagues for Monday evening have been postponed as a mark of respect to Mr. Myers.

AGAIN CHOSEN A DIRECTOR OF UNION TRUST CO.

P. A. Myers Is Re-Elected at Stockholders' Meeting, Cleveland on Wednesday
Ashland Citizen is Also Member of Bank's Industrial Committee

P. A. Myers, president of the F. E. Myers & Bro. company, of this city, was again honored at the annual meeting of the Union Trust company's stockholders at Cleveland Wednesday when he was reelected a member of the board of directors of this great institution, also a member of the industrial committee.

The Union Trust company's new bank building is now finished and equipped and all activities are now centered at one place. Reports of business for the year just closed were very gratifying and prospects very bright for greatly increased activities during 1925.

Leave for Florida—Mrs. T. W. Miller, daughter Mary, son Parker and maid left at noon today for their winter home at St. Petersburg, Florida. Mr. Miller, sons Billie and Francis, and Miss Ruth Miller will join the other members of the family later.

MYERS ESTATE IS APPRAISED AT $2,550,000
Probate Court To Name Official Appraisers Of Estate
GIVE NO BOND
$2,500,000 Of Total Is In Personal Property, Report

An estimated appraisal today placed a value of $2,550,000 on the estate left by the late Philip A. Myers, president of the F. E. Myers & Bro. Company. Of this amount, $2,500,000 is in personal property and $50,000 in real estate.

Appraisers will be appointed by the probate court to make an official appraisal of the estate. Executors of the estate will propose names of the appraisers.

The Union Trust Company of Cleveland and Guy C. Myers, a son of Philip A. Myers, have been appointed co-executors by the probate court. They will serve without bond, under provisions of the will of the late Mr. Myers.

Inheritance tax on the personal property in Mr. Myers' estate will be approximately $95,000, it was unofficially estimated today. The city and local school district will share in 50 per cent of this, the other half going to the state.

Inheritance tax on the real estate listed as part of the estate will go to Shaker Heights, where the property is located. Only the personal property will be taxed here.

*The members of the Morr and Myers Families are deeply indebted to Mrs. Virginia Rosalie Spreng Harrison and her husband Mr. Charles W. J. Harrison, as Mrs. Harrison served as Historian and Necrologist from 1941 to 1954. Through her sincere efforts and service to the Morr and Myers relationship, we received 246 lineage reports from 1947 to 1953 of the Morr and Myers relationship. These reports were used as a base for the Master Copy and Supplement to the Morr and Myers Genealogy Books.

Ralph B. Morr — Secretary & Genealogist

On January 25, 1970, your Secretary received a letter from Mrs. Ora Morr of 369 Cleveland Avenue, Ashland, Ohio, informing me that Virginia Rosalie Spreng Harrison had passed away.

The members of the Morr and Myers Families extend their sincere sympathy to her husband, Charles, and other members of the family in the loss of their loved one. It also brought memories to Mrs. Morr and myself as

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Harrison were the first of the relatives to call and attend the funeral, when we lost our son, Raymond, in November of 1948.

It was then that I realized that as one grows older, one must experience the loss of loved ones, and also that our living Christ is the only one that can alleviate our grief and sorrow, for it was He who sacrificed his life that, we who believeth in Him, may have the blessing of everlasting and eternal life.

IN MEMORIAM

THE LORD IS MY SHEPHERD; I shall not want.

He maketh me to lie down in green pastures: he leadeth me beside the still waters.

He restoreth my soul: he leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake.

Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.

Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies; thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over.

Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the LORD for ever.

FORMER REPORTER DIES IN HOSPITAL

Mrs. Virginia Harrison, 69, of RD 2, Ashland, died unexpectedly in Samaritan Hospital early this morning.

Born in Ashland Feb. 16, 1900, she was the daughter of J. E. and Savilla (Myers) Spreng. A lifetime resident of Ashland, she had been employed by the News-Journal in Mansfield as Ashland County reporter and society editor for many years before her retirement. Prior to this she taught music and was an accomplished cellist. She was a member of the Emanuel United Methodist Church, a graduate of Ashland High School, attended Ashland College, attended the Cleveland Institute of Music, was past regent of the DAR, Sarah Copus Chapter, and was historian for the Myers family for many years.

She was married Nov. 27, 1928 to Charles W. Harrison, who survives.

Other survivors include two sisters, Mrs. Grant E. Long and Mrs. W. C. McCorkle, both of Ashland, and one brother, W. M. Spreng Sr. of Ashland.

She was preceded in death by her parents and one sister.

Funeral service will be held at 2 p.m. Thursday at the Denbow and Primm Funeral Home with Rev. James A. Herbst officiating. Burial will be in Ashland Cemetery.

Visiting hours will be from 7 to 9 p.m. Wednesday at the funeral home.

THE AMBROSE AND FOGELBERG FAMILIES

Contributed by Mr. and Mrs. Jack Ambrose, Hartford, Kansas

John Wesley Ambrose walked the 30 miles to Concordia to file on his claim, the NW¼ of Section 19, Township 2 S, Hange 4 E. He proved up on this claim on Marcy 13, 1879. The Homestead certificate was signed by Rutherford B. Hayes, President of the United States. This certificate was recorded in Republic county, December 6, 1879. His son, J. L. Ambrose, who lives at Hartford now, has this certificate.

John Ambrose was born in Pennsylvania in 1848 and headed west as a young man. He was a boot maker by trade and worked in Fairbury, Nebr. In the lean years, when crops were slim, he returned to Fairbury to work at his trade. He made sturdy boots or fine dress boots as the customer desired.

Florence Hawes came with her parents from Wisconsin to a homestead two miles west of the river bridge at Scandia. She taught the Mahan school and rode horseback the ten miles from her home each day.

The Mahan school was not far from the Ambrose homestead. In 1876, she and John Ambrose were married. They reared five sons and three daughters. Mrs. Ambrose was talented in music and gave her time and talents generously to the community.

John Ambrose was township trustee for a number of years. He made his rounds on horseback or in a one-horse cart. He was a staunch Republican, keenly interested in every campaign. He joined Teddy Roosevelt and the Bull Moose in 1912. He was also a member of the school board of the Ambrose district.

Although none of the Ambrose family lived in the neighborhood for years, they take pride in the fact that the name is retained and that the Ambrose school 'song' is used at each Home-coming.

Ambrose and Fogelberg roots must have been put down in Republic county at about the same time. Andrew Fogelberg came from Sweden in the early sixties. He staked his claim one mile southwest of Republic across the river from the Pawnee Village.

Andrew built a sod house and batched and lived with rattlesnakes and Indians until he met a little black-eyed girl from Ohio, Isabel Myers. She was only 17-years-old, weighed less than 100-lbs. and had known Andrew only three months when they were married. (She would have frowned had one of her four daughters taken such a chance).

The bride found the sod house in apple pie order, the iron teakettle had been polished with stove polish, a clean white sheet covered the makeshift table.

Andrew Fogelberg and John Ambrose had played for dances the country round. With his marriage, Andrew's dancing and playing days were over. His bride came of strict Puritan stock which tolerated no such sins.

The Myers boys all had creative, inventive minds. In Ohio they lived next door to the Studebakers' and used the same tool shop for tinkering and building things. The Studebaker boys went on to make wagons and then automobiles. The Myers boys designed and manufactured pumps, farm machinery and haying tools. One Myer brother had more than 30 patent rights to his credit at the time of his death. All their descendants hoped to inherit some of their inventive minds and talented hands.

Andrew Fogelberg was thrifty but money was scarce. He hauled a load of grain 50 miles to Belvedere, Nebr. to trade for his wedding suit. One load was not enough. He had to leave the pants and haul another load to exchange for them.

Andrew had a friendly way with the Indians and got on well with them. He received many favors from them. Many of the settlers were afraid of Indians and thought they were a menace.

Snakes were the terror during sod house days. One day Isabel saw a slithering creeper hanging from the ceiling directly over the baby's cradle. The cradle was in constant use. Its occupant was changed every two years.

It was a joyous day when the sod house was abandoned for a fine new two-room log house with board floors. This in turn gave way to a large 10-room frame house which was finished the year of the Chicago World's Fair.

Andrew went to the Fair in Chicago. He brought home the first bicycle to be seen in the area. It had tires of solid rubber.

The Fogelberg's were lovers of music. Their first piano was acquired in trade for two mules. Butler Brassfield of Concordia was salesman for the Kimball piano and took the mules in trade. This piano is now in the possession of the youngest daughter, Isabel Ambrose.

Andrew and Isabel were determined that their children should go to college. He decided to stay on the homestead and batch while she should go to Ottawa, rent a house and send Alfred, Ella and Delpha to the University there. Isabel, who was 12, could attend the city schools. Guy, who was born the year of the World Fair, was too young to realize what went on.

The trip to Ottawa was a real adventure. Andrew rigged up a covered wagon and one open wagon. A number of neighbors and friends went along to attend the University, also. The boys helped with the driving and the girls helped with the cooking. Besides his own brood, there were Floy Thompson, Charley Ambrose, Alvin Myers, Ducky Gooseman and Billy Lambertson, joined in somewhere along the way. They camped along the wayside.

One night they camped by a country school house near Clay Center. One of the boys had a guitar. Using the steps and front porch of the school for a stage, they put on quite a concert. Soon residents from roundabout came to see and hear the performance.

One night they camped at the east edge of Topeka. There the young folk dressed up in their Sunday best and took in the sights of their first big city. They also called on a former school teacher, Viola Welch, (later Mrs. Polley). Isabel was forced to stay in camp with her father and mother because, they said she was too young. She sat and sulked her first night in Topeka.

Although she was only 12, Isabel admired Charley Ambrose and wondered if he had any younger brothers. Some years later she learned that he did have a younger brother and married him. She and Jack Ambrose celebrated their golden wedding anniversary a few years ago.

Dear relative–

I am the only living descendant of the Isabel Myers, Andrew Fogelberg union. My mother (Isabel) and I attended the Morr-Myers reunion in 1905. Please keep me on your mailing list. I would appreciate any available family history. Is the catalog of data available?

I'm enclosing a story that was requested for our Kansas Centennial. It included a little Myers girl who braved the wilds of Kansas over 100 years ago.

Wishing you every success.

CHILDREN OF THE MEYER THAT CAME OVER FROM GERMANY CHRISTOPHER MEYER AND HIS DESCENDANTS—PAGE 89 MEYER GENEALOGY.

CHRISTOPHER MEYER (son of the Meyer from Germany) was born at Muhlbach (Heidleberg township, Lancaster county, then) and was the youngest son of the family, but I am not certain that he was the youngest child as there was one daughter (if not two) and she may have been younger. Of the early life of Christopher and his brothers but little is known. Their childhood days were passed amid the stirring scenes and dangers of frontier life. The Muhlbach and the Tulpchocken witnessed not a few deadly encounters between the early settlers of that region and the hostile Indians.

Conrad Weiser, a prominent character in the early history of Pennsylvania, was their friend and near neighbor. Through his influence over the Indians and his wise diplomacy many threatened dangers from that source were averted. There is a tradition that the Meyer who came from Germany was a member of Col. Weiser's colony.

Christopher and his brother Michael left Muhlbach and purchased a tract of 700 acres near the present site of Campbellstown, Lebanon county, Pa. It is said their father did not approve of the venture, supposing that the soil was not of much account. And it appears Michael shared his opinion as he sold out to his brother Christopher and returned to Muhlbach. This must have occurred about the year 1769 as shown by bonds of this date which Christopher and his father-in-law Alexander Schaeffer had given Michael for his interest in the tract.*

The land, however, was of the best in the State, and the old gentleman's opinion on the subject had been at fault. If I mistake not the tract was subsequently divided into five or six farms and apportioned among Christopher's sons. That part on which is located the old homestead is now owned by one of Christopher's grandsons. Christopher put up good substantial stone buildings on his farm modeled after the style of architecture then in vogue throughout the rural districts. I visited the place in 1883 and found the buildings still in good repair. Here Christopher remained until his decease, but all his children, except several of his grandchildren, moved to other parts. His descendants are found principally in Lebanon, Snyder and Centre counties, Pa., and a number have moved west. It is remarkable how families migrate. Of his brother Jacob's descendants (male) not one remains, as far as I know, neither in Lebanon nor Snyder County. Christopher was married to Anna Maria, daughter of Alexander Schaeffer.* (See footnote page 25 Meyer Genealogy as follows relative to Alexander Schaeffer.)

*Note—Christopher and Michael Meyer and Alexander Schaeffer executed bond for part of said tract to Robt. McLeary, dated April 10, 1769. In the same year, May 1st. Christopher Meyer and Alexander Schaeffer gave bond to Michael Meyer for 200 pound. It seems Michael sold that time and returned to Muhlbach. It is said he then purchased the old Muhlbach homestead. On one of these bonds is Michael's receipt for 100 pounds, dated August 12, 1771, which shows that he was still living. Michael was never married. See page 129.)

*Note—Schaeffer was a native of the Palatine, and came over to America in 1740. He lived a while in Heidelberg township (Muhlbach), thence moved to the site of Schaefferstown. Was born Jan. 8, 1712; died April 12, 1786. Married first Eva Engle; issue

VII. Anna Eva—B-4/27/1753; D-1/2/1790.

Alexander Schaeffer's 2nd wife—Anna Catherine Unger—Dr. Wm. H. Engle's Hist. Dauphin and Lebanon counties, Pa.

She was a sister of Catherine, wife of John Meyer of Muhlbach, who was Christopher's nephew. "We designated," says Michael Meyer of Muhlbach, "our cousins of Campbellstown the "big Meyers." A term not inappropriate as some of them were giants in stature and physical strength. For example, Michael who removed to Spring Bank, Centre county, Pa., was a man of prodigious proportions. He weighed 386 lbs. and when passing through an ordinary door his shoulders would almost touch the sides of it. John, also was a man of large stature, towering head and shoulders above his fellows. The descendants of Christopher, subject of this sketch, were all fine singers; many of them have been from generation to generation, instructors in music both vocal and instrumental, and have been leaders of choirs in the churches of the neighborhoods in which they resided. Honorable Jacob G. Meyer furnishes the following scrap of history illustrating this fact, which may appropriately be inserted here:—George Meyer, youngest son of Christopher and father of Hon. Jacob G., led singing in the Reformed Church, Campbellstown, Pa., from the time he was sixteen years of age (born March 25, 1782) until 1827 when he removed to Pine Creek, south of Aaronsburg, Pa. His nephew Henry Meyer, son of Michael, then conducted singing at Campbellstown until his death in 1873, and his sons now lead the choir in the same church. After George came into Pennsylvania in 1827 he conducted singing in the Reformed Church at Aaronsburg, until about the year 1832, when George, his son, took his place until 1840; then Hon. Jacob G., another son, took charge of the choir until about the year 1878, when he was succeeded by his son William T. Henry Meyer, Christopher's oldest son, moved into Pennsylvania, near Boalsburg, Pa., in 1823, and became the leader of the choir in the Reformed Church there, assisted by his sons Henry, Philip, Jacob and Joseph, continuing in that capacity until his decease in 1844. At present "big Henry's" sons Philip, Calvin and Jacob lead singing in the same church. Christopher Meyer, son of the subject of this sketch, settled at Freeburg, Pa., in 1800; he led singing in the church there for twenty years and his sons and grandsons ever since. His son, Frederick C., is the founder and Director of the Musical College, Freeburg, an institution which has achieved merited popularity in central Pennsylvania. The Meyers of Freeburg are widely celebrated as musicians and through their zeal and efficiency in this noble profession their town has acquired a reputation as a musical centre.

Some of the Meyers were excessively fond of the chase. Grandfather Henry, several of his brothers, and Christopher's sons Michael, Jacob and George frequently visited each other at their respective homes in Penns, and Brushvalleys, and joined in the pursuit of game which was then abundant. There was no lack of dogs, and when several packs had been brought together and let loose there was sufficient music to inspire the hunters. The Muhlbach Meyers, descendants of John, were also fond of the chase.

Christopher Meyer died August 2, 1801; aged 67 years. His wife Anna Maria was born Feb. 19, 1744; died Jan. 1, 1823. Both are buried in the German Reformed Cemetery, Campbellstown, Pa.

Following is a list of their Children.

Michael Meyer - Page 129 Meyer Genealogy.

Michael Meyer, one of the four sons of the Meyer who came over from Germany, was never married and left no offspring. If his name were placed on the list in the order of ages it should be inserted before that of his brother Christopher as he was older. But as Michael left no descendants to put on record it was thought best to append a brief sketch of him here. We know very little about Michael. He was associated with his brother Christopher, and it seems Alexander Schaeffer in the purchase of a large tract of land near the present site of Campbellstown, Lebanon county, Pa., but he sold out his interest in the tract soon after, and returned to Muhlbach, and bought, it is said, the old homestead. From old documents in my possession it appears that his occurred about the year 1769. I find his name on a receipt dated 1771 and he must have been living yet at that time. It is said he was twenty years old when he died. He must have been older. See page 89.

Besides the four sons, John, Jacob, Michael and Christopher, the Meyer from Germany had either one or two daughters. They went south–which is all we know about them.

GENERAL OBSERVATIONS–Meyer Genealogy Page 130.

The foregoing concludes the list of the descendants of the Meyer who came from the Palatinate and settled at Muhlbach carried out in some branches of the family to the fourth and fifth generation. It would have been desirable to present the record complete up to and including the fifth generation, but it would be almost impossible to secure the individual names, and the increased amount of material would have swelled this book into a large volume. It would also have been desirable to furnish biographical sketches of a larger number of prominent members of the family, whom, for the lack of sufficient data on hand, the author was compelled to treat with injustice by giving a mere record of their names. The Meyers belonged to that sturdy, industrious, economical and law-abiding German element which emigrated into Pennsylvania from 1700 to 1800, and which did more, probably, for the material advancement and firm moral and political stability of their adopted State than any other single race. The language of the early settlers was the Pennsylvania German, a dialect brought from the Palatinate and not an American conglomerate of High German and English as some ignorantly suppose. Their mother tongue is still spoken by many even of the fifth and sixth generation, but it is now considerably changed by the influx of many English terms, and eventually the English language will supersede it entirely. The Meyers are a religious people, and among them are few, if any, infidels. The first generation were exclusively German Reformed, and those of the present day who are residents of Lebanon, Snyder and Centre counties, Pa., are still adhering to the same faith with a few exceptions; while the majority of the race in the Great West belong to the Evangelical or Methodist denominations. They are firmly established in their religious beliefs, but they are neither bigoted nor superstitious. They worship the true God, but not mere creeds and images. They never nailed rusty horse-shoes above the doors of their dwellings to keep out witches! Nor were any partial to lunar or planetary signs in which to plant their potatoes–preferring, instead, fertile soil. Politically the race is probably about equally divided. At Muhlbach, throughout Penns, Brush and Sugar Valleys, Pa., and in some sections in the West they are almost exclusively Democrats. In Snyder, Dauphin and parts of Lebanon counties, they are principally Republican. They represent many trades and professions, but office-seeking is not a characteristic of the race. Many were mill-wrights and millers and proprietors of grist-mills. The majority, however, are farmers. Among the Meyers are not a large number that would in our time be denominated wealthy, neither are found many, if any, at the other extreme–in the poor house. As a rule they are a temperate people, drunkards being a rare exception among them. They are law-abiding citizens; it is seldom that any indulge in litigations or stray into the criminal's cell. The older stock never took kindly to new-fangled theories, nor indulge in any ostentatious display in dress or manner but rigidly adhered to the long-tried and plain customs of their fathers. They were truly loyal to each other and ever kept bright the chain of kinship and friendship.

GENERAL OBSERVATIONS

The foregoing concludes the list of Descendants of the Morr and Myers Families, who came from Palatinate, a State of the old German Empire lying along the Rhine River, it was divided into two parts, the Lower, or Rhine, Palatinate and the upper Palatinate, the part west of the Rhine, it was once a possession of France. The Territory of the Palatinate has been absorbed by German States, chiefly Bavaria and at the present time is a district of that State.

To give a clear and concise picture of the historical background of the Morr and Myers Families it was necessary to include chapters and sketches of prominent members of the different generations from the original Meyer Genealogy published in 1890 and the Morr Genealogy published in 1896.

Biographical sketches of the individual members of the relationship was omitted in the Supplement, as the increased amount of material would have greatly increased the size and cost of publishing the Master Copy.

It can be assumed that the Mohr (Morr) and Moyer (Meyer-Myers) Families came to America as early as 1713, as the John Moore biographical sketch states as follows: "that for ten years they had heard of liberal grants of land in Pennsylvania to emigrants and thither they directed the way. They established the first white settlement beyond the South Mountain." From the Myers Genealogy it also states that Conrad Weisner, his wife and five children, with Henry Moyer, John Moore, John Stump, Michael Meiser, John Noll, Michael Zeller, Nicholas Lickner, John Grove and Christ Seibert Families; all settled in Muhlbach, Penna., in 1723.

Relative to the migratory moves of the Morr and Myers Families, the first can be assumed to be from Philadelphia to Muhlbach, Pa., in 1723, to Freeburg, Snyder county, Pa., in 1768, to Morrland, Wayne county, Ohio, in 1818 and in 1851 several Morr Families moved to DeKalb county, Indiana, Iowa and Illinois, as the Myers moved west to Kansas and Missouri.

Possibly if one would visit the site of each settlement they would readily realize that rolling meadows, good farm land and an available water supply were the predominate reason for the selection of each site.

Taking into consideration that records of the DAR, chronologically speaking, John Moore was the father of Andrew Morr on whom the Morr Families base their lineage, and John Moyer (Meyer-Myers) by the same token, it can be assumed that he arrived in America the same year, we can visualize that we are entering the eleventh generation of the two families since their arrival in America.

Possibly one of the finest attributes that can be associated with the Morr and Myers families is their religious background, good citizenship and honesty in all their dealings with their fellow man; as there is no record of a member of either family, ever being convicted of a felony.

In conclusion I also wish to state that your Genealogist on many occasions attempted to secure more information on many lineages of the Myers Families, but was unable to for lack of historical data furnished by the relationship. I have always been as interested in fulfilling my obligation to the Myers Lineages as well as to the Morr's, however I had more contacts with the Morr relationship and consequently secured more information of that side of the relationship. On many occasions I wrote members of the different families for lineage reports; however they were unable to furnish the necessary information to place them in their proper category, or family lineage. By the same token many families directly connected to the Morr lineage failed to respond to repeated requests for lineage reports, consequently many lineages will be lost in the march of time, because of their lackadaisical and indifferent attitude.

It is understandable, the younger generation's lack of interest in their family background and heritage and in many cases, as they mature and eventually lose loved ones and face the facts of life, by their experiences; realize that their historical background is a privilege and should be cherished.

By the same token we fully realize that every avenue or media of communication in our beloved country have consistently, for the past forty years, unjustly belittled our patriotic organizations, our system of government, our family life and many other institutions, that have made America the strongest nation in the world; that possibly we could refer to a new adage; We reap, by what we read.

The entire relationship of the Morr and Myers Families can justly feel proud that they are a part of America, that their conduct as law-abiding citizens, during the past 254 years, entitles them to be proud of their German and Pennsylvania Dutch ancestry.
